CLEMSON TO HOST TEXAS A&M FOR HIGHLY ANTICIPATED NON-CONFERENCE SHOWDOWN

Consensus No. 1 Clemson will host No. 12/11 Texas A&M in one of the season's most-anticipated non-conference matchups on Saturday, Sept. 7. Kickoff at Memorial Stadium in Clemson is scheduled for 3:30 p.m. ET.

Clemson opened the season with a 52-14 win against Georgia Tech, pushing its current winning streak to 16 games. This week, Clemson will attempt to tie the school record of 17 consecutive victories, set in 2014-15.

Clemson's win last week was the school's 70th ACC regular season win under Head Coach Dabo Swinney. At 70-16 in such games, Swinney pushed his career winning percentage in ACC regular season games to .814, moving past College Football Hall of Famer Bobby Bowden (.813) for the top percentage in conference history (minimum three seasons). Swinney entered the year already ranked atop league history in winning percentage in all games (including non-conference and postseason play), a mark he pushed to .796 last week.

The winningest coach in ACC history by percentage turns his attention this week to another conference against which he's enjoyed immense success in recent years. Swinney's squads have won eight of their last nine meetings against SEC competition since the start of the 2016 season.

Clemson junior running back Travis Etienne has made a career of feasting on defenses regardless of their conference affiliation or poll ranking. In 2018, Etienne averaged 110.50 rushing yards per game against ranked opponents and 110.55 rushing yards per game against unranked opponents.

Etienne turned in one of the most prolific and efficient rushing games in school history last week, recording a career-high 205 yards and career-high-tying three touchdowns on only 12 carries. The 205 yards represented the 17th 200-yard game in school history, and his 12 carries represented the fewest rushing attempts in the midst of a 200-yard rushing performance in program annals.

Saturday has been denoted as IPTAY Day, as Clemson celebrates one of the nation's oldest and most successful athletic fundraising organizations. Founded in 1934, the organization whose name initially stood for "I Pay Ten A Year" supports scholarships, academic support, facilities, student-athlete services and more.

WHAT TO WATCH FOR THIS WEEK

- Clemson and Texas A&M meeting for the sixth time in program history.
- Clemson attempting to even its all-time series record against Texas A&M at 3-3. Texas A&M won the first three games in the all-time series (1973, 1974 and 2004), while Clemson earned victories in 2005 and 2018.
- Clemson attempting to earn its second all-time home win against Texas A&M.
- Clemson attempting to win its 17th consecutive game, dating to the start of the 2018 season. It would tie Clemson's all-time longest winning streak, matching a 17-game streak across the final three games of the 2014 season and the first 14 games in 2015.
- Clemson attempting to win a 12th consecutive game by 20 or more points, which would extend its school record in the category and tie 2018 Alabama for the longest such streak by any team in the AP Poll era (since 1936).
- Clemson attempting to win a sixth straight home game against SEC competition (def. Georgia in 2014, South Carolina in 2014 and 2016, Auburn in 2017, and South Carolina again in 2018). The current five-game home winning streak against SEC foes is already the longest in school history.
- Clemson entering the game 8-1 against SEC competition since 2016.
- Clemson attempting to win its ninth straight regular season game against SEC competition. Clemson's last regular season loss to an SEC team came against Georgia in 2014.
- Clemson attempting to win its 20th consecutive regular season non-conference game. Clemson's current 19-game streak against non-conference opponents in the regular season dates to a 73-7 win against South Carolina State on Sept. 6, 2014. No member of Clemson's current roster has lost a non-conference game in regular season play.
- Clemson attempting to improve to 10-2 all-time in games as the AP No. 1-ranked team. Ten of Clemson's 11 games played at No. 1 all-time entering Saturday have come during the Dabo Swinney era.
- Swinney attempting to improve to 17-9 all-time against SEC opponents.
- Swinney attempting to improve to 6-4 all-time against Texas A&M Head Coach Jimbo Fisher. The coaches were 4-4 against one another during Fisher's tenure at Florida State and Swinney took the coaches' first meeting with Fisher at Texas A&M last season. A Clemson win would be its fifth straight over Fisher-coached teams.
- Swinney attempting to push his all-time record in non-conference play as a head coach to 43-13, which would extend his non-conference record in regular season play to 34-8.
- Clemson attempting to win its 17th consecutive game at Memorial Stadium, dating back to a 56-7 win against South Carolina on Nov. 25, 2016. The current 16-game streak is the second-longest home winning streak in Clemson history, trailing only a 21-game Memorial Stadium winning streak from 2013-16.
- Clemson attempting to push its winning streak in Saturday games to 31 to extend the longest Saturday winning streak in school history. Clemson's current 30-game run of consecutive Saturday victories is the longest active streak in the country.
- Clemson attempting to win its 19th consecutive game in the month of September, dating back to 2014. The current streak is already the longest in school history.
- Clemson attempting to record at least four turnovers in back-to-back games for the first time since recording four in the Virginia and South Carolina games in 2008.
- Clemson attempting to finish with a positive turnover margin in a fifth straight game, dating back to last season, for the first time since the first five games of the 2013 season.
- Clemson attempting to score 27 or more points in a 17th straight game for the first time in school history. Clemson's current 16-game streak is already a school record.
- Clemson attempting to score 50 points in back-to-back games for the first time since games 8-9 of the 2018 season against Florida State and Louisville. It would represent Clemson's first time scoring 50 points in each of the first two games of a season in school history.
- Running back Travis Etienne attempting to rush for 200 yards to become the first player in school history with consecutive 200-yard rushing games.
- Etienne attempting to reach 200 rushing yards in a game for the third time in his career to break the school record for career 200-yard rushing games (two each by Ray Yauger, 1967-69; Terrence Flagler, 1982-86; Raymond Priester, 1994-97; Andre Ellington, 2009-12). Presently, Flagler is the only player in school history to post two 200-yard games in a single season, a feat Etienne can match with another 200-yard day in 2019.
- Etienne looking to score a rushing touchdown in a seventh consecutive game, dating back to last season. It would tie his personal best (seven straight games to open the 2018 season), which is presently tied with Kenny Flowers (seven in 1985) for the fifth-longest streak in Clemson history.
- Etienne attempting to score three rushing touchdowns in consecutive games for the first time since a three-game stretch in games 5-7 of the 2018 season against Syracuse, Wake Forest and NC State.
- Etienne (2,629) chasing No. 9 Woodrow Dantzler (2,761) and No. 8 Terry Allen (2,778) on Clemson's all-time rushing yardage leaderboard.
- Etienne (205 last week) needing 183 yards to break Terrence Flagler's school record for rushing yards in a two-game span (387 in 1986).
- Etienne (40) needing one rushing touchdown to tie or two touchdowns to pass Travis Zachery (41 from 1999-2001) for the second-most career rushing touchdowns in school history.
- Etienne (42) continuing to chase C.J. Spiller (51), Travis Zachery (50) and James Davis (49) on the school's all-time leaderboard for total touchdowns.
- Etienne (252) needing 10 points to pass kicker Chris Gardocki (261 from 1988-90) for ninth on Clemson's all-time scoring list. Etienne already ranks fourth on the list among non-kickers.
- Etienne attempting to average 10.0 yards per carry in a game on at least five attempts for the 11th time in his career to tie Colin Kaepernick for the most by any FBS player since 2000.
- Wide receiver Tee Higgins attempting to add to his career-long streak of five consecutive games with a receiving touchdown, dating back to last season. His current streak is presently tied with Derrick Hamilton (2003), Aaron Kelly (2007) and Deon Cain (2015) for the second-longest streak in school history, trailing DeAndre Hopkins' school record of 10 from 2012.
- Wide receiver Frank Ladson Jr., who caught a 21-yard touchdown last week, attempting to become the first freshman wide receiver at Clemson to record a receiving touchdown in each of the first two games of a season since Sammy Watkins in 2011. Watkins, a fellow South Florida native like Ladson, recorded at least one touchdown catch in his first four career games with Clemson.
- Safeties Tanner Muse and Denzel Johnson each attempting to record an interception in back-to-back games for the first time in their careers.

SERIES HISTORY VS. TEXAS A&M

Clemson currently trails its all-time series against Texas A&M, 2-3, but won each of the programs' two most recent meetings in 2005 and 2018.

The 2018-19 home-and-home series between Clemson and Texas A&M represents the third such home-and-home arrangement between the two schools in history. However, while Clemson has represented the Atlantic Coast Conference in each contest, Texas A&M has represented a different conference in all three sets of home-and-home series. The Aggies swept the Tigers as members of the Southwest Conference in 1973-74, and the two teams split a pair of games in 2004-05 during Texas A&M's membership in the Big 12 Conference. Last year's contest was the teams' first meeting since Texas A&M's transition to the Southeastern Conference in 2012.

Included below is an overview of all five games contested between Clemson and Texas A&M all-time, with home games listed in bold:

CLEMSON-TEXAS A&M PARALLELS

Despite residing in different conferences, different states and different time zones, the historical similarities and parallels between Clemson University and Texas A&M University are striking.

Both institutions are land-grant universities, initially founded with primary focuses in the fields of agriculture, engineering and science. Clemson was founded as the Clemson Agricultural College of South Carolina in 1889 only 13 years after classes began at the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas in 1876.

Both schools are also famed for their military heritage. Clemson was an all-military school until 1955, while Corps of Cadets participation at Texas A&M was mandatory until 1965. Outside of the United States Military Academy at West Point, no schools in the country supplied more officers to the United States Army during World War II than Texas A&M and Clemson.

On the field, Clemson and Texas A&M are both known for their strong football traditions. To wit, Clemson boasts 745 all-time wins; Texas A&M enters Saturday with 742. The Tigers hold a higher all-time winning percentage, .614 to .603.

CLEMSON VS. SEC OPPONENTS

Clemson has enjoyed a recent run of success against opponents from the Southeastern Conference. While the Tigers are 16-9 against SEC foes under the guidance of Head Coach Dabo Swinney, Clemson's success against the SEC has been particularly pronounced as of late, as the Tigers are 10-3 against the conference in the College Football Playoff era, including an 8-1 mark in regular season play during that time frame.

Clemson has won eight of its last nine against the SEC, including two in 2017 and three in both 2016 2018, tied for the most wins against SEC competition in a single season in school history.

* - Clemson/Opponent

Swinney's 16 wins against SEC opponents date back to his final game as an interim coach, when he defeated South Carolina and Steve Spurrier, 31-14, at Clemson. That victory led to his hiring as Clemson's full-time coach the Monday after that victory.

Swinney's 16 non-conference wins against SEC teams are the most by any non-SEC coach since 2008. Today's opponent, Texas A&M Head Coach Jimbo Fisher, ranks second with 10 from his tenure at Florida State, and former Georgia Tech Head Coach Paul Johnson ranks third with eight.

LAST MEETING VS. TEXAS A&M
Clemson 28, Texas A&M 26
(Sept. 8, 2018, College Station, Texas)

No. 2 Clemson hung on through a back-and-forth second half for a 28-26 victory over the Texas A&M Aggies at Kyle Field.

Texas A&M got on the board first when kicker Daniel LaCamera hit a 40-yarder to give his squad a 3-0 lead 10 minutes into the game. However, the Tigers answered on the ensuing drive, with quarterback Kelly Bryant scoring on a one-yard run.

Clemson upped its lead to 14-3 with less than a minute gone in the second quarter when Tee Higgins hauled in a 64-yard touchdown pass from Trevor Lawrence on the freshman quarterback's first play of the night behind center. Clemson blocked a Texas A&M 50-yard field goal attempt with just over five minutes left in the first half to take a 14-3 lead into the break.

Clemson led 21-6 following an eight-yard Bryant scoring pass to Diondre Overton, but the teams traded touchdowns to enter the fourth quarter at 28-13 in favor of Clemson. The rest of the game saw Texas A&M bookend the fourth quarter with a pair of touchdowns, with the latter one coming with just 46 seconds remaining in the matchup and cutting the Clemson lead to just two points. However, safety K'Von Wallace intercepted the Aggie two-point conversion attempt to preserve the two-point margin.

Wide receiver Hunter Renfrow recovered an ensuing onside kick attempt to secure a 28-26 victory in front of the largest crowd ever to witness a game in Clemson history (104,794). The two-point win would be Clemson's smallest margin of victory in the midst of a 15-0 season that saw the Tigers defeat 13 of their 15 opponents by 20 points or more, including each of the team's final 10 games.

LAST MEETING IN CLEMSON
Clemson 25, Texas A&M 24
(Sept. 3, 2005, Clemson, S.C)

Jad Dean set a school record with six field goals, including the game-winner with two seconds left to give Clemson a dramatic 25-24 win over 17th-ranked Texas A&M in the 2005 season opener at Memorial Stadium. It was Clemson's first win over a ranked team in a season opener since 1959.

Clemson won the game without the benefit of an offensive touchdown, but did gain 396 yards of total offense (183 yards rushing and 213 passing). Clemson's only touchdown came on a 47-yard punt return by Chansi Stuckey.

The Tigers also won the game despite an injury to fourth-year starting quarterback Charlie Whitehurst. Will Proctor came off the bench to run the Clemson offense to the victory in the second half. At one point, Proctor led the Tigers on a 96-yard drive that took 7:46 off the clock, leading to an 18-yard field goal by Dean.

Texas A&M took a 24-22 lead in the fourth quarter, but the Tigers had a final drive. With freshman back James Davis running the ball on eight consecutive plays at one point, the Tigers moved the ball to the Texas A&M 25. That set up a field goal attempt for Dean from 42 yards and the junior delivered for the sixth time in six attempts in the game with just two seconds left on the clock.

The kick was the latest game winner by a Tiger since 1987 (David Treadwell vs. Georgia), and he became the first Clemson player to kick six field goals in a game.

True freshman running back Davis finished with 101 yards rushing on 19 carries. He became the first Clemson freshman to rush for 100 yards in his first game since 1945 and was named the ACC Rookie of the Week. Clemson controlled the clock for 37:58, the most time of possession for the Tigers in the Tommy Bowden era.

SWINNEY VS. FISHER
Saturday's contest will be the 10th all-time meeting between teams led by Dabo Swinney and Jimbo Fisher in head coaching capacities. Swinney presently holds a 5-4 lead in the all-time series between the two coaches, including a 4-4 record against Fisher with Florida State and a 1-0 record against Fisher with Texas A&M.

Today marks the ninth consecutive time Swinney enters a game against Fisher with a Top-25 squad. Of note today:
• During Fisher's head coaching tenure at Florida State from 2010-17, the winner of the Clemson vs. Florida State game won the ACC Atlantic Division title every year. The same can be said for the ACC Championship from 2011-17.
• Swinney (.796) ranks second in career winning percentage in the nation among active coaches with at least 10 years of experience. Fisher is fourth (.775).
• Swinney and Fisher represent two of only five active head coaches to guide a team to an FBS national championship.
• The coaches presided over the two most-dominant national title teams by scoring margin since 2000. When Fisher's Florida State team posted a 14-0 record in 2013, it outscored opposing teams by 553 points, the highest single-season scoring margin in the nation since 2000. Last year, the Tigers outscored the opposition by 467 points, the second-largest scoring margin during that period, on the way to the first 15-0 season since 1897.

The commonalties don't end with scoring margins. Both Swinney and Fisher are from the state of Alabama and played college football in that state. Fisher played for Terry Bowden at Samford in Homewood, Ala., where he was the Division III National Player of the Year. Swinney walked on at Alabama, where he was a member of the Crimson Tide's 1992 national championship team.

Swinney's first position coach in college was Tommy Bowden, Terry's brother and Swinney's predecessor as head coach at Clemson. Bringing the relationship full circle, Terry Bowden is on Swinney's staff at Clemson this year as an unpaid graduate intern.

-- NOTES FROM LAST WEEK --

POSTGAME NOTES VS. GEORGIA TECH

- Clemson won its 11th consecutive game by 20 or more points, extending its school record in the category. According to ESPN Stats & Info, Clemson now holds sole possession of the second-longest such streak by any team in the AP Poll era (since 1936), surpassing 1959-60 New Mexico State, 1971 Nebraska, 1973-74 Temple, 2002 Boise State and 2010-11 Stanford (10 games each). Clemson is now one game shy of the record, held by 2018 Alabama (12).

- Clemson recorded 632 total yards and has now reached 500 total yards in three consecutive season openers for the first time in records dating back to 1954. Clemson totaled 678 yards against Kent State in the 2017 opener and 531 yards against Furman in its 2018 debut.

- Clemson's 632 yards were its most against Georgia Tech all-time, surpassing the 615 yards gained by Clemson's 1903 squad against Georgia Tech.

- Clemson rushed for 411 yards, the most rushing yards gained by Clemson in a season opener since 1957 (439 vs. Presbyterian College).

- With 411 rushing yards, Clemson posted the most rushing yards Georgia Tech has allowed in nearly 44 years, dating to Georgia rushing for 431 against the Yellow Jackets on Nov. 27, 1975.

- The 411 rushing yards represented Clemson's fourth 400-yard rushing performance under Head Coach Dabo Swinney, joining the 2015 Miami (Fla.) game (416) and 2018 Wake Forest (471) and Louisville (492) games.

- Prior to Thursday, the last time Georgia Tech had allowed 50+ points was also against the Tigers (55 points on Nov. 14, 2013).

- Clemson did not allow a sack and has now allowed no sacks in six of its last nine games, dating to last season.

- Clemson forced four takeaways, the Tigers' most since Oct. 3, 2015, when Clemson forced four turnovers against Notre Dame in a 24-22 victory against the Fighting Irish amidst weather effects of Hurricane Joaquin.

- Clemson posted a positive turnover margin in a fourth straight game, dating to last season, for the first time since a five-game streak to open the 2013 season.

- Trevor Lawrence completed 13-23 passes for 168 yards and a touchdown. He also rushed three times for 24 yards with a touchdown.

- Lawrence threw an interception on his 13th pass attempt of the game, ending a streak of 182 consecutive pass attempts without an interception. The streak ended five attempts shy of the school record held by Tajh Boyd (187, 2012-13).

- Clemson opened the scoring on a six-yard touchdown run by Lawrence. The rushing touchdown was the second of Lawrence's career and his first since Nov. 10, 2018 at Boston College.

- Running back Travis Etienne recorded a career-high 205 rushing yards on 12 carries with three touchdowns.

- Etienne's three rushing touchdowns tied his career high, set in three games in 2018.

- Etienne's 205 rushing yards surpassed his previous career high of 203 yards, set against Syracuse on Sept. 29, 2018.

- The 200-yard rushing day was the second of Etienne's career, tying a school record shared by Ray Yauger, Terrence Flagler, Raymond Priester and Andre Ellington.

- Etienne became the first 200-yard rusher allowed by Georgia Tech since Sept. 29, 2012, when Middle Tennessee's Benny Cunningham rushed for 217 yards.

- For his career, the performance marked Etienne's 12th multi-touchdown game and his ninth 100-yard rushing game.

- With the performance, Etienne (2,629) passed Buddy Gore (2,571 from 1966-68) to enter the top 10 in career rushing yards in school history.

- With 18 points on the evening, Etienne (252) became the 11th Clemson player in history to reach 250 career points.

- Etienne's 205 rushing yards are the 12th most by a player in a game in school history. His 12 carries were the fewest by a Clemson player in a 200-yard rushing game all-time, surpassing Buck George's 15 carries in a 204-yard game against Presbyterian College in 1954.

- Etienne's 205 rushing yards are the second most in a season opener in school history, trailing Andre Ellington's 228-yard performance against Auburn in 2012.

- Etienne scored on a career-long 90-yard run in the first quarter, tying the longest run in school history with Banks McFadden (1939 vs. Presbyterian College) and Buck George (1951 at Furman). The run was the longest in the history of Memorial Stadium.

- Etienne's 90-yard run was Clemson's longest play since a 91-yard pass from Tajh Boyd to Sammy Watkins against Virginia in 2013.

- On the 90-yard touchdown, Etienne eclipsed the 2,500-yard career rushing mark, becoming only the 11th player in school history to reach 2,500 career rushing yards.

- Etienne has now scored a rushing touchdown in six consecutive games, dating to last season. The streak ties Woodrow Dantzler (six in 2000) for the seventh-longest streak of consecutive games with a rushing touchdown in school history and pulls Etienne within one of his personal best (seven straight games to open the 2018 season).

- Etienne recorded his 40th career total touchdown on the 90-yard run, joining C.J. Spiller (51), Travis Zachery (50) and James Davis (49) as the only players in school history to reach that mark.

- Etienne added a 14-yard touchdown run in the second quarter and a 48-yard touchdown run in the third quarter.

- Etienne's third touchdown was his 40th career rushing touchdown. He is only the third player in school history to record 40 career rushing touchdowns, joining James Davis (47) and Travis Zachary (41).

- Wide receiver Tee Higgins scored his first touchdown of the season on a 62-yard touchdown pass from Lawrence in the second quarter.

- With the score, Higgins pushed his career-long streak of consecutive games with a receiving touchdown to five, dating back to last season. His five-game streak is now tied with Derrick Hamilton (2003), Aaron Kelly (2007) and Deon Cain (2015) for the second-longest streak in school history, trailing DeAndre Hopkins' school record of 10 games from 2012.

- Higgins' touchdown was the culmination of a 94-yard drive, the same length as Clemson's game-clinching drive against Alabama in the College Football Playoff National Championship last season.

- Running back Lyn-J Dixon scored his first touchdown of the season on an 18-yard touchdown run in the third quarter. It was his first since the 2018 ACC Championship Game against Pittsburgh.

- With 269 combined yards, Etienne (205) and Dixon (64) became the first duo to rush for at least 250 yards against Georgia Tech since Nov. 26, 2016, when

10-WIN SEASONS

Clemson entered 2019 riding a streak of eight consecutive seasons with 10+ wins. The program's eighth consecutive 10-win season in 2018 tied the Tigers with the 1985-92 Miami Hurricanes and the 2004-11 Virginia Tech Hokies for the fourth-longest streak in FBS history and made Clemson one of only six programs to accomplish the feat.

The record for consecutive 10-win seasons is 14, set by Florida State (1987-2000). Alabama is the only other program with an active streak of at least eight straight 10-win seasons.

The Tigers have 15 10-win seasons in school history, with more than half coming in the last eight years under head coach Dabo Swinney. The 2018 season was Clemson's fifth with at least 12 wins, with Swinney sitting at the helm for four of them.

A CENTURY MARK FOR THE DECADE

Head Coach Dabo Swinney can vividly recall the looks he received when he said Clemson was on the cusp of the winningest decade in program history following a 2010 campaign in which the Tigers finished 6-7. In 2017, that vision became a reality with two seasons to spare when Clemson collected its 88th win of the decade in the ACC Championship Game against Miami (Fla.) to surpass the Tigers of the 1980s (87) for most wins in any decade in school history.

With a rivalry win against South Carolina to close the 2018 regular season, Clemson reached triple digits in wins in a decade for the first time in program history. Included below are the schools that have accomplished that feat.

Clemson has a 104-22 record in the decade of the 2010s. That computes to an .825 winning percentage, the best for any decade in school history and the first time Clemson has won more than 80 percent in a single decade.

In the 1980s, Clemson had a 76.7 winning percentage (87-25-4), the nation's fifth-best winning percentage. Clemson did not have a losing season in any year in the 1980s under Danny Ford, who coached every game in that decade. Dabo Swinney has coached every game in the decade of the 2010s and has eight winning seasons and one losing season (6-7 in 2010).

SENIORS CHASING HISTORY

The 2018 Clemson seniors left their legacy not only in program history but also in the annals of the sport, recording 55 wins to tie for the most wins by any senior class in FBS history.

Throughout the 2018 season, Head Coach Dabo Swinney reminded his players that anything Clemson had done once, they'd done again. The 2019 senior class will have the opportunity for that maxim to once again ring true.

The 2019 Clemson seniors are 42-3 since 2016, tied with Alabama for the best mark in the country. The group can tie the 2018 seniors for the best four-year mark in school, conference and Football Bowl Subdivision history with 14 wins in 2019 and can own the record outright if it were to repeat with another 15-0 campaign.

FOUR LEAGUE TITLES IN A ROW

Clemson has won four straight ACC championships, joining Oklahoma as one of just two Power Five Conference schools to have an active streak of four consecutive conference championships.

From 2015-18, Clemson became the first ACC school to win four outright titles in a row. Florida State was a champion or co-champion nine years in a row from 1992-00, but never won more than three outright in a row.

Clemson's victory in the 2018 ACC Championship Game made Clemson only the second Power Five Conference school since the inception of league championship games in 1992 to win four straight conference championship games, joining the Florida Gators, who won four straight SEC Championship Games in a row from 1993-96. Clemson can become the first school to win five straight with a victory in the 2019 ACC Championship Game.

POWER OVER THE POWER FIVE

Early in his head coaching tenure, Dabo Swinney laid out his belief to then-Clemson athletic director Terry Don Phillips that the Tigers needed to add tough non-conference challenges on top of their tests in ACC play to serve as a foundation for the program's growth.

"I had a conversation with Terry Don and said, 'Terry Don, I know we are not very good right now, but we need to play people because that is going to help me teach and help me develop the culture and the mindset that you have to have to win at the highest level,'" recounted Swinney. "I didn't think we had that, and that's what we committed to. That's what we've done."

That scheduling philosophy and culture change has resonated in the Clemson program, and since 2013, no team can claim more wins against Power Five Conference opponents than the Tigers.

ESTEEMED COMPANY

Head Coach Dabo Swinney's run of excellence in his decade-plus at Clemson has placed him in the company of college football legends.

Swinney enters this week with a winning percentage of .796, the 18th-best among any major college football head coaches in history with at least 10 seasons of head coaching experience. Among the legends he has passed are College Football Hall of Famers Bo Schembechler (.775), Bear Bryant (.780) and Henry Williams (.785), as well as Nick Saban (.790), whose Crimson Tide were defeated by Swinney and the Tigers in the most recent College Football Playoff National Championship.

Swinney (117) is eight wins away from reaching 125 career victories as a head coach. Presently, only 96 coaches in major college football history have reached that mark. Other active coaches in striking distance of joining that club this season include Mike Gundy (122), Kyle Whittingham (121) and Bronco Mendenhall (116). Swinney is four wins from matching the career total of Danny Ford, who won 121 combined games at Clemson (96) and Arkansas (25).

EXCEEDING EXPECTATIONS

Clemson has equaled or exceeded its postseason AP and USA Today rankings in comparison to its preseason rankings each of the last eight years. That included quite an accomplishment in both 2016 and 2018, as it finished No. 1 by winning the national championship to exceed the school's No. 2 preseason ranking both times.

Clemson exceeded its preseason ranking each of the last eight years in the coaches poll, a streak that will come to an end in 2019 by simple virtue of Clemson opening the season atop the 2019 poll.

With regard to Associated Press voting, Clemson has exceeded its preseason ranking in the AP poll in seven of the last eight years. The lone exception came in 2013, when Clemson was picked No. 8 in the AP preseason poll and finished No. 8.

CHAMPIONSHIP HERITAGE

After being named Clemson's full-time coach in December of 2008, Head Coach Dabo Swinney set about securing his first signing class in 2009.

His first class, which he tabbed the "Dandy Dozen," brought home Clemson's first ACC title since 1991 during their junior campaign in 2011. Excluding the 2019 signing class that debuted this season, all 10 of Clemson's signing classes under Swinney have at least one ACC and/or national title to their credit in their four years at Clemson.

16 AND COUNTING

Clemson enters this week riding a 16-game winning streak dating to the 2018 season opener. The only other FBS program with an active double-digit winning streak is Army, which pushed its streak to 10 with a win against Rice in Week 1.

Clemson's current 16-game winning streak marks the program's 10th all-time winning streak of at least 10 games and the second-longest streak in team history. With a win this week, Clemson can tie its 17-game winning streak from 2014-15 that currently stands as the longest in school history.

The current streak marks the third time Dabo Swinney has had a winning streak of at least 10 games. Danny Ford had three separate streaks of at least 10 games, including a 13-game streak from 1980 through the last game of the 1981 season.

Frank Howard had a 15-game winning streak from 1947-49 and was part of a 13-game streak from 1939-40. The school's first 10-game winning streak took place under John Heisman from 1899 to 1901.

20-POINT WINS

Observers will often point to Clemson's 27-23 come-from-behind victory against Syracuse in late September of 2018 as a turning point in the team's 15-0 national championship season. Since that win, in which redshirt freshman Chase Brice led the team to victory after starting the week as the squad's third-team quarterback, Clemson has won every game it has played by at least 20 points.

Per ESPN Stats & Info, Clemson enters this week one victory of 20 points or more shy of tying the 2018 Alabama Crimson Tide for the longest streak of 20-point wins in the AP Poll era (since 1936).

- Entered 2019 having won 39 of its last 41 games against teams that ended their season in a bowl game (including 2018 Boston College, whose bowl game was cancelled as the result of inclement weather).
- Has won 69 straight games when holding teams under 23 points (dates to 2010).

ACC WINNING STREAKS

Though Clemson will host a non-conference opponent this week, Clemson has won 35 of its last 37 games vs. ACC opponents, including ACC Championship game wins against North Carolina (2015), Virginia Tech (2016), Miami (2017) and Pittsburgh (2018).

Clemson has won its most recent game against every ACC team and owns a streak of at least two wins against 11 of the 13 squads.

Note: Clemson also won its last four games against Maryland prior to the Terrapins' exit from the ACC. The Terps' last win over Clemson came in 2009 at Maryland.

SATURDAYS ARE FOR THE TIGERS

Clemson enters this week having won each of its last 30 Saturday games. Clemson went 12-2 during the 2017 campaign, with its only losses coming on a Friday at Syracuse and a Monday on New Year's Day in the Sugar Bowl.

You have to travel back to Nov. 12, 2016, a total of 1,029 days prior to this week's contest, for Clemson's most recent loss on a Saturday.

Clemson's 30-game Saturday winning streak is the longest active streak in the FBS. In total, Clemson has won 51 of its last 52 Saturday games. The Tigers' current 30-game streak started following a 2016 loss to Pitt that was preceded by a 21-game Saturday winning streak across the 2014-16 seasons, previously the longest such streak in program history.

CLOSE-GAME SUCCESS

Clemson's stretch of consecutive 10-win seasons dating back to 2011 has been bolstered significantly by the team's success in close games in that span. The Tigers have played 28 games with a final margin of eight points or less, and Clemson's .857 winning percentage in those one-possession contests is the best in the country in that span among teams with at least 10 such games.

THE CLEMSON EFFECT?

Whether the margin of defeat was two points in early September or 61 points in early November, all 15 of Clemson's contests meant the same result for its opponents. But Clemson's effect on its ACC opponents in 2018 may have extended beyond the 60-minute battle with the Tigers.

After losing to Clemson, those nine opponents (six of whom had won prior to facing Clemson) combined for a 1-8 record in their first game after being dealt a loss by Clemson.

PLAYERS PER GAME

Clemson played an average of 72.5 players per game in 2018, an average that far exceeded all other AP Top 25 finishers, including fellow College Football Playoff participants Alabama (55.7), Notre Dame (55.4) and Oklahoma (52.4).

2.	Georgia (8)	65.6

5.	Fresno State (18)	60.6

The approach to creating functional depth and rewarding players ready to play has been a key philosophy for Head Coach Dabo Swinney, whose own collegiate playing career was hatched as a walk-on fighting for playing time in Alabama's receiving corps.

"We're fully committed to playing guys who deserve to play," Swinney said. "You commit to a guy early in the season, and even if a guy's only played 10 percent of the snaps, when you get to game eight or nine, they've got some good experience."

YOUTH MOVEMENT

One year after Clemson returned a school-record 61 lettermen for the 2018 season, Clemson enters the 2019 campaign with a roster that includes 80 freshmen and sophomores.

However, despite the roster featuring the largest freshman class in Dabo Swinney's tenure at Clemson, the Tigers' youth is not devoid of experience. Last season, the first year of new redshirt regulations allowed Clemson to play a then-school-record 20 true freshmen in 2018. Clemson immediately shattered that record in its 2019 season opener, with 27 true freshmen making their collegiate debuts in that contest.

First-year freshmen to play for Clemson this year include Kaleb Boateng, Hunter Rayburn, Mac Cranford, Will Putnam, Mason Trotter, Jaelyn Lay, Davis Allen, Joseph Ngata, Brannon Spector, Taisun Phommachanh, Chez Mellusi, Michel Dukes, Frank Ladson Jr., Tye Herbstreit, Hamp Greene, Tyler Davis, Ruke Orhorhoro, Keith Maguire, LaVonta Bentley, Kane Patterson, Sheridan Jones, Lannden Zanders, Jalyn Phillips, Joseph Charleston, Ray Thornton, Andrew Booth Jr. and Jonathan Weitz.

BEHIND THE NUMBERS

Clemson's success in 2018 helped rewrite portions of its school and conference record books, and included in the cumulative figures were a number of telling statistics. According to figures tracked by SportSource Analytics:

- Clemson owned the "middle eight" in 2018, the section of the game defined as the final four minutes of the first half and the first four minutes of the second half. Clemson outscored opponents 132-10 in the middle eight in 2018, an average margin of +8.1 points per game. That per-game differential was the largest by any program in the country since 2013.

- Clemson averaged 10.0 yards per play on more than a quarter of drives in 2018 (25.15 percent), nearly doubling the national average of 12.9 percent and far exceeding the 7.73 percent allowed by the Clemson defense in 2018.

- Clemson gained 56.6 percent of all of its available yards in 2018 and allowed opponents to gain only 27.9 percent of their available yards. The national average for the season was 44.0 percent.

EXPLOSIVE PLAYS

"The explosive play is alive and well in our offense."

That was Head Coach Dabo Swinney's exact quote three games into the 2018 season. Supporting evidence for his claim was found easily in both national rankings and historical context as the season progressed.

Players responsible for 17 of the 19 touchdowns of 50 yards or more returned for Clemson in 2019. Justyn Ross led Clemson with six such touchdowns, followed by four from Travis Etienne, three each from Lyn-J Dixon and Amari Rodgers, and one each by now-departed running backs Adam Choice and Tavien Feaster.

Clemson opened the 2019 season with another explosive performance in a 52-14 win against Georgia Tech. The Tigers racked up 632 yards of offense on only 79, averaging 8.0 yards per play even despite a methodical 11-play, 42-yard clock-killing drive to conclude the game. Clemson amassed 411 of those yards on 49 carries, a rushing average of 8.4 yards. It was Clemson's fourth game with a yards per carry average of eight yards or better since the start of the 2018 season, tied for the most in the FBS.

Since the advent of the College Football Playoff in 2014, Clemson has routinely produced one of the nation's elite defenses.

Clemson has ranked in the Top 10 in the country in total defense in each of the last five seasons and has ranked among the Top 10 in scoring defense in three of those campaigns.

RETURNING FIREPOWER

Clemson's eye-popping, record-setting offensive campaign in 2018 was authored at the skill positions in large part by underclassmen. The group was led in passing by true freshman Trevor Lawrence (3,280 yards), in rushing by sophomore Travis Etienne (1,658) and in receiving by sophomore Tee Higgins (59 receptions, 12 touchdowns) and freshman Justyn Ross (1,000 receiving yards).

Clemson was one of only three FBS programs to produce a 3,000-yard passer, 1,500-yard rusher and 1,000-yard receiver in 2018 and one of only 20 teams (including only nine Power Five teams) to accomplish the feat this decade. If Clemson repeats the feat, it would become the first program this decade to produce a player in all three categories in back-to-back seasons.

Clemson is the first Power Five program this decade to return a 3,000-yard passer, 1,500-yard rusher and 1,000-yard receiver from the year before. The only other FBS program to return such a trio was Western Michigan after the 2014 season.

As noted by ESPN, the 2019 Tigers are the first team to return its leading passer, rusher and receiver from a national championship squad since 2010, when Alabama returned leading passer Greg McElroy, leading rusher Mark Ingram and leading receiver Julio Jones from its 2009 championship squad.

UNPRECEDENTED DEBUT

In a June article examining the statistical context of quarterback Trevor Lawrence's freshman campaign, 247Sports' Chris Hummer noted, "there is no historical comparison for what Lawrence accomplished as a freshman."

In 2018, despite not starting four games, Lawrence posted the 10th season of 3,000 passing yards, 30-plus passing touchdowns, five or fewer interceptions and a 65.0 or better completion percentage by an FBS quarterback since 2000. It was only the fifth such season by a Power Five quarterback in the time frame, and the first by a freshman.

INTERCEPTION AVOIDANCE

The ascendance of Lawrence was key in Clemson's record-setting explosiveness in 2018. But often lost amid the barrage of big plays was Lawrence's ability to keep the ball in Clemson's hands.

Lawrence set a single-season Clemson record by closing the 2018 season with 169 consecutive pass attempts without an interception. Lawrence threw an interception on his 13th pass attempt of the season opener against Georgia Tech, ending a streak of 182 consecutive pass attempts without an interception. Lawrence's streak ended five attempts shy of the school record held by Tajh Boyd (187, 2012-13).

Despite a two-interception performance in the season opener, Lawrence still holds Clemson's career interception rate record.

TOUCHDOWN STREAK

Running back Travis Etienne concluded the 2018 season having scored at least one rushing touchdown in each of Clemson's final five games of the season. He totaled nine rushing touchdowns (plus one receiving touchdown) in those final five contests. He opened the 2019 season with a career-high-tying three-touchdown performance.

With a touchdown this week, Etienne can match his career-long streak of seven consecutive games with a rushing touchdown, which he set in the first seven games of 2018. It would tie Kenny Flowers and himself for the fifth-longest streak in program history.

It was Etienne's second career 200-yard day, tying him with Ray Yauger, Terrence Flagler, Raymond Priester and Andre Ellington for the most in school history.

Etienne's 12 carries were the fewest by any Clemson player in the midst of a 200-yard performance, undercutting Buck George's 15 attempts in Clemson's first individual 200-yard rushing day in school history in 1952.

100-YARD RUSHING GAMES

Etienne posted his first career 100-yard rushing performance in Clemson's third game of the season in 2018, rushing for 162 yards in a victory against Georgia Southern. It was his first of eight 100-yard rushing games that season, one shy of Wayne Gallman's single-season school record of nine from 2015.

With nine career 100-yard rushing performances, Etienne needs three more 100-yard rushing games to enter the Top 5 in school history in the category. He currently sits eight games shy of Gallman's school career record of 17 from 2014-16.

DOING MORE WITH LESS

Etienne posted school records in rushing yards (1,658) and rushing touchdowns (24) in 2018 despite recording only 204 carries. His record-setting campaign in 2018 resulted in his selection as a Doak Walker Award finalist, as he joined C.J. Spiller (2009) as only the players in Clemson history to be named as a finalist for the honor.

The award eventually went to Wisconsin's Jonathan Taylor, who turned in a superb season of his own with 2,194 yards and 16 touchdowns on 307 attempts. Taylor averaged 7.15 yards per carry and averaged a touchdown every 19.1 carries; on 104 fewer carries, Etienne averaged 8.13 yards per carry and a touchdown every 8.5 carries.

If Etienne had received the same number of carries as Taylor and maintained his per-carry averages for rushing yards and rushing touchdowns, the resulting pace would total 2,495 yards and 36 rushing touchdowns, higher totals than every Heisman running back since Barry Sanders in 1988.

10.0+ PER CARRY

Etienne's explosive 2019 season opener resulted in an average of 17.1 yards per carry against Georgia Tech, the second-best single-game average of his career (19.1 vs. Louisville in 2018).

The game marked the 10th time in Etienne's career that he averaged at least 10 yards per carry in a game with at least five rushing attempts. His 10 qualifying games tied him with Wisconsin's Melvin Gordon and Maryland's Ty Johnson for the second-most such performances by any player since the turn of the century. Another game with 10 yards per carry on five or more attempts would tie him with Colin Kaepernick for the most by any FBS player since 2000.

-- NO. 5 WR TEE HIGGINS --

TOUCHDOWN STREAK

While teammate Justyn Ross led Clemson with 1,000 receiving yards in 2018, no Clemson receiver found the end zone more than Tee Higgins. The Tennessee native recorded 12 receiving touchdowns, tied with two different seasons by Sammy Watkins for the second-most in a single season in school history.

Higgins is primed for an assault on some of the greats presently populating Clemson's all-time leaderboard for career receiving touchdowns. His 62-yard touchdown grab in the season opener was his 15th career touchdown reception, placing him one score outside the Top 10 in school history.

-- OFFENSIVE LINE --

SACKS ALLOWED

Clemson is powered up front in 2019 by one of the most senior-laden offensive lines in school history. Alongside sophomore left tackle Jackson Carman, Clemson's line includes four senior starters in left guard John Simpson, center Sean Pollard, right guard Gage Cervenka and right tackle Tremayne Anchrum.

In the season opener, Clemson started four senior offensive linemen in a game for the first time since the 2011 South Carolina game, when Phillip Price, David Smith, Antoine McClain and Landon Walker started alongside junior Dalton Freeman. The last time Clemson had four senior starters on the offensive line for the majority of a season was 2007, when sophomore Thomas Austin was joined by seniors Barry Richardson, Chris McDuffie, Brandon Pilgrim and Christian Capote.

Dating back to last season, Clemson's offense has allowed only five total sacks in its last nine games, including holding teams to zero sacks in six of those nine contests.

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

In addition to Clemson's elite on-field performance in 2018, the squad simultaneously posted one of the best academic semesters in the program's history. The squad posted a team records in average GPA and number of players earning a 3.0 or better, all while collecting the AFCA Academic Achievement Award for the first time in Clemson history.

In the spring of 2019, the NCAA announced APR metrics for the 2017-18 academic year as well as public recognition awards for the Top 10 percent of programs in each sport at every level. Clemson set a program record with a 992 APR for the 2017-18 academic year, third-best in the FBS, earning NCAA recognition for the eighth time in the last nine years.

Clemson is one of only 34 of the 130 FBS programs to earn at least one APR recognition since the 2009-10 academic year, one of only 28 to earn it multiple times, and one of only three programs to earn the award eight-plus times in that span.

ACC: WE DO THIS

Arguments about conference strength were once again en vogue during the 2019 offseason, with various pundits and commentators offering opinions on the state of the ACC and the national landscape.

Head Coach Dabo Swinney has repeatedly contended that the quality of Clemson's conference competition has been central to its postseason success.

"This league doesn't take a back seat to anyone. It's a very competitive league," Swinney said at ACC Kickoff in July. "At the end of the day, I think the credit goes to this conference; I think that's why we've been so successful in the postseason."

Entering the 2019 season, the ACC:

- Has won more football national titles than any other conference since 2013 (three of the last six).

- Has had a team in either the College Football Playoff or the BCS National Championship Game in each of the past six years.

- Matched its league record with 11 bowl teams in

NOTES

2018, including Boston College, Clemson, Duke, Georgia Tech, Miami, NC State, Pitt, Syracuse, Virginia, Virginia Tech and Wake Forest. The 11 bowl teams tied for the most among any conference.

- Is the only conference to send every team to at least one bowl game over the last three seasons. In addition, the ACC is tied for the most bowl teams (32) among all conferences over the last three years (11 in 2016, 10 in 2017, 11 in 2018).

- Has produced 19 postseason wins since the 2016 season, the most of any conference.

Those facts aren't lost on Swinney, who has actively contested narratives questioning the ACC's strength.

"The rhetoric used to be, 'Well, an ACC team's never going to win the national championship because they don't play anybody. So when they get to the postseason and they've gotta play the big bad boys, they can't beat them,'" Swinney said. "Well, now we win, and [they say] the only reason we win is because we don't play anybody. So you can't have it both ways."

SCHEDULE STRENGTH

On the discussion of schedule strength, Clemson's slate in 2018 ranked among the toughest in the nation by a multitude of metrics.

- Clemson's 2018 opponents won a combined 120 games, the most in the country.

- Clemson's 2016 title team faced opponents with a combined record of 107-51 (.677), the toughest schedule in the country. Clemson's 2018 title team faced a tougher schedule by percentage (120-57, .678), the second-toughest schedule in the country by percentage that season, trailing only Texas A&M (.678).

- Clemson defeated seven undefeated teams in 2018. Clemson won the first matchup of undefeated teams in College Football Playoff history when the 13-0 Tigers defeated 12-0 Notre Dame and then repeated the feat a week later when the 14-0 Tigers defeated 14-0 Alabama. Clemson's slate included wins against teams with the two of the largest year-over-year improvements in win totals in the country from 2017 to 2018, including Georgia Southern (+8 win difference from 2017) and Syracuse (+6).

- SportSource Analytics produces a "Strength of Record" (SoR) Rating for FBS games, which is a measurement of a team's performance against the average margin of victory of the opponent. For example, if a team plays an opponent that wins by seven points on average and it beats that team by 10 points, then it would have SoR Rating of +17 for that game. Clemson led the country in SoR in 2018 with a +32.1 rating.

#WRU TO THE NFL

Clemson's status as an elite producer of pro talent has been inarguable in recent years, particularly at wide receiver, where the school has adopted the moniker of "Wide Receiver U" (or #WRU in hashtag form).

Since the 2013 NFL Draft, no school has had more receivers selected in the NFL Draft than Clemson.
