CLEMSON SEEKS SIXTH STRAIGHT ACC TITLE IN REMATCH VS. NOTRE DAME SATURDAY

Clemson will attempt to earn a record sixth consecutive outright conference title on Saturday, Dec. 19, when the Tigers face Notre Dame in the ACC Championship Game. Kickoff at Bank of America Stadium is scheduled for 4 p.m. ET.

Even in the most unusual year of college football in the modern era, the ACC Championship Game matchup played true to recent form, matching a traditional Atlantic Division power against a new challenger. While Clemson and Florida State have represented the Atlantic Division every year since 2013, eight different challengers have served as ACC Championship Game opponents in that span. All seven Coastal Division teams earned one appearance between 2013-19, and this season, Notre Dame earned a berth in its first year in the league. Between Clemson and Florida State, Atlantic Division representatives have won nine straight ACC titles, including each of the last five by Clemson.

This week, Clemson will attempt to become the first team in any active conference to win six consecutive titles outright (Note: Oklahoma can also accomplish the feat with a win in the Big 12 Championship Game). Florida State earned at least a share of nine consecutive ACC titles from 1992-2000 but never earned more than three consecutive titles outright. The last team presently in the Power Five to win at least six straight outright titles was Oklahoma (12 from 1948-59) as part of the now-dissolved Big 8 Conference.

The history Clemson seeks this week is not limited only to ACC annals. At 9-1 this year, Clemson is one win shy of reaching the 10-win threshold for the 10th consecutive season. With a win this week, Clemson would become only the third program in FBS history to produce a "double-double" — double-digit wins in a double-digit number of consecutive seasons. Clemson would join Florida State (14 from 1987-2000) and Alabama (13 from 2008-20) as the only programs ever to produce 10 straight 10-win seasons.

Both teams will be led Saturday by their programs' respective winningest starting quarterbacks: Clemson's Trevor Lawrence (33-1) and Notre Dame's Ian Book (30-3). Lawrence is 5-1 in his career in postseason play, including a 2-0 mark in ACC Championship Games. Though Book also helped Notre Dame to a 2017 bowl win in reserve, he is 1-1 as a starter in the postseason, with his lone loss coming against a freshman Lawrence in the 2018 Cotton Bowl.

NOTES

WHAT TO WATCH FOR THIS WEEK

- Clemson, which is already the first team in ACC history to win five consecutive outright titles, attempting to become the first team in ACC history to win six consecutive ACC titles outright. (Note: Florida State earned at least a share of nine consecutive ACC titles from 1992-2000 but never earned more than three consecutive titles outright.)

- Clemson attempting to become the first team in any active conference to win six consecutive outright conference titles. Clemson's five consecutive outright titles from 2015-19 are tied with the 1971-75 Alabama Crimson Tide and 2015-19 Oklahoma Sooners for the longest streak of outright conference championships of any current conference. The last team presently in the Power Five to win at least six straight outright titles was Oklahoma (12 from 1948-59) as part of the now-dissolved Big 8 Conference.

- Clemson attempting to become the first program to win 20 ACC titles. Since helping form the conference in 1953, Clemson leads the ACC with 19 titles all-time, including 18 outright.

- Clemson attempting to earn its 26th conference championship all-time, including four SIAA championships and two Southern Conference championships prior to the formation of the ACC. Clemson's 25 conference titles across all conferences are the most of any current or former ACC member.

- Clemson attempting to improve to 7-1 all-time in ACC Championship Games.

- Clemson facing its seventh different opponent in its eight ACC Championship Game appearances all-time, a list that includes Georgia Tech, Virginia Tech (twice), North Carolina, Miami (Fla.), Pitt, Virginia, and, now, Notre Dame. The only non-Atlantic Division foe Clemson has not faced in an ACC title game is Duke.

- Clemson attempting to win 10 games for a school-record 10th consecutive season. Clemson would become only the third program in history ever to post 10 consecutive 10-win seasons, joining Florida State (14 from 1987-2000) and Alabama (13 from 2008-20). Clemson would be the first school to win 10 games in 10 straight seasons as a member of the ACC, as only the final nine of Florida State's 14-straight 10-win seasons came during the Seminoles' tenure in the ACC.

- Clemson playing a team twice in a single season for the third time in school history. Clemson dropped two meetings with Georgia Tech in 2009 and swept two meetings with Virginia Tech in 2011. Clemson will attempt to split a two-game single-season series with an opponent for the first time.

- Clemson attempting to improve to 18-8 under Dabo Swinney in rematches of losses. Clemson has suffered only 32 losses under Swinney and has had 25 previous opportunities to avenge its most recent loss against an opponent, going 17-8 in those contests. (There are six programs Clemson has not faced again since a loss in the teams' most recent meeting.)

- Clemson playing a third AP Top 10 opponent in a single season for the seventh time in school history (four each in 2013 and 2015; three each in 1966, 1977, 1981 and 2016). It is only the third time in school history Clemson will have played three Top 10 opponents prior to bowl season (three in 1966 and 2013).

- Clemson playing a third matchup of two AP Top 10 teams in a single season for the fourth time in school history (three Top-10 matchups each in 2013, 2015 and 2016). It will join the 2013 season as the only seasons in school history that Clemson will play in three games between Top 10 teams prior to bowl season.

- Clemson attempting to improve to 14-10 all-time in games between AP Top 10 teams. A win would push Clemson to 9-3 in games between AP Top 10 teams since the start of the 2016 season. For more on Clemson's history in games between Top 10 opponents, see the "Top 10 History" section later in the notes.

- Clemson attempting to earn a 13th all-time victory against an AP Top 5 opponent. Nine of Clemson's 12 all-time wins against AP Top 5 teams have come under Head Coach Dabo Swinney.

- Clemson attempting to improve to 9-5 all-time in games between two AP Top 5 teams. Clemson is 6-3 since 2016 when both teams enter a game in the AP Top 5.

- Clemson entering the game with seven wins against AP Top 5 opponents since 2015, the second-most in the country.

- Clemson attempting to defeat an AP Top 2 team for the fifth time in school history. Clemson has two wins against No. 1 (vs. Alabama to end 2016 and 2018) and two wins against No. 2 (vs. Ohio State in 2016 and 2019). Of note: Ohio State was ranked No. 2 by the AP for the 2016 Fiesta Bowl despite being the No. 3 seed in the College Football Playoff.

- Clemson attempting to improve to 4-2 all-time against Notre Dame. Presently, Clemson (3-2), Florida State (6-4), Michigan (25-17-1), Nebraska (8-7-1) and Ohio State (4-2) are the only schools to have played Notre Dame at least four times and hold a winning record in the series.

- Clemson attempting to earn a 10th win through the first 11 games of a season for the 11th time in school history. Clemson won at least 10 games in its first 11 contests in the 1948, 1978, 1981, 2012, 2013, 2015, 2016, 2017, 2018 and 2019 seasons.

- The 2020 Clemson seniors (50-4 since 2017) attempting to win a 51st game in four years to tie the 2016 and 2019 Alabama seniors for the fifth-most by a class in FBS history.

- Clemson attempting to improve to 52-3 against conference opponents since the start of the 2015 season, the first year of Clemson's active run of five consecutive ACC titles.

- Clemson attempting to win its 14th consecutive December game, dating to Clemson's 2011 ACC Championship Game victory against Virginia Tech. Clemson (13-0) is one of three schools to be undefeated in December since 2011 with a minimum of five games played, a list that also includes Alabama (10-0) and Penn State (6-0).

- Clemson attempting to improve to 25-13 all-time in December games, including postseason play.

- Clemson entering the game as one of only two teams ranked in the top 15 in the nation in both total offense (11th, 504.3 yards per game) and total defense (seventh, 302.0), alongside BYU.

- Clemson entering this week as one of only five teams in the country with at least 25 rushing touchdowns (29) and at least 25 passing touchdowns (27) this season.

- Clemson attempting to score 40 points in a fourth straight game. It would give Clemson nine 40-point games in a 10-game span for the first time in school history.

- Clemson, which has scored at least 34 points in each of its first 10 games, attempting to join 2013 Florida State as the only ACC teams ever to score 34 or more points in each of the first 11 games of a season.

- Clemson attempting to open a season with 400 yards of offense in each of the first 11 games of a season for the second time in school history (2018).

- Clemson entering the game averaging 346.0 passing yards per game, the top average in the ACC and the seventh-best in the nation. The average is 12 yards better than the school-record mark of 333.9 passing yards per game, set by Clemson's 2016 national title team quarterbacked by Deshaun Watson.

- Clemson attempting to rush for 200 yards in consecutive games for the first time since last year's regular season finale and ACC Championship Game against South Carolina and Virginia, respectively.

- Clemson attempting to record multiple rushing touchdowns in a 27th consecutive game. The last time Clemson was held to a single rushing touchdown was in a 27-point win in the 2018 Cotton Bowl against Notre Dame.

- Clemson, which allowed no sacks to Virginia Tech in its most recent game, attempting to go consecutive games without allowing a sack for the first time since the College Football Playoff National Championship Game to end 2018 and the 2019 season opener. It would be the first time doing so in a single season since the Duke and South Carolina games in 2018.

- Clemson entering the game having recorded multiple sacks in 32 of its last 33 games, including each of its last 16.

- Clemson attempting to record at least two sacks

NOTES

in a 17th straight game to tie a 17-game streak from 1998-99 for the Tigers' second-longest streak since 1980.

- Clemson attempting to record three or more takeaways in three straight games for the second time this season (vs. Virginia, Miami (Fla.) and Georgia Tech).

- Clemson, which was plus-four in turnovers vs. Pitt and plus-two at Virginia Tech, attempting to win the turnover margin by multiple turnovers in three straight games for the first time since a four-game streak early in the 2013 season.

- Clemson, which has three fumble returns for touchdowns already this season, attempting to record a fourth scoop-and-score in a season for the first time in school records back to 1951. Clemson's three fumble return touchdowns in 2020 already exceed the totals by the 1996, 1998, 2006 and 2013 squads (two each).

- Clemson (three) attempting to record a fourth defensive touchdown for the first time since 2017. Clemson's most on record since 1951 is five, set in 1990.

- Tight end Davis Allen (four) attempting to become the fourth Clemson tight end under Dabo Swinney to catch at least five touchdowns in a season, joining Dwayne Allen (eight in 2011), Brandon Ford (eight in 2012) and Jordan Leggett (eight in 2015 and seven in 2016).

- Running back Travis Etienne (at least one rushing or receiving touchdown in 44 of his 53 career games) attempting to score a touchdown of any kind to add to his FBS record for most career games scoring a touchdown.

- Etienne attempting to score multiple touchdowns of any kind in a 24th career game. The FBS record for most career games scoring two or more touchdowns is 25, shared by Miami (Ohio)'s Travis Prentice (1996-99) and Wisconsin's Montee Ball (2009-12).

- Etienne (4,796), the ACC's all-time rushing yardage leader, needing 204 more rushing yards this season to become the first 5,000-yard rusher in ACC history. He would be the 23rd player to accomplish the feat according to official NCAA FBS records.

- Etienne entering the game as the only player in the FBS with 750 rushing yards and 500 receiving yards this season. Etienne's 512 receiving yards this year lead all FBS running backs.

- Etienne (12) needing one more rushing touchdown to join Wisconsin's Ron Dayne as the only players in FBS history to record at least 13 rushing touchdowns in four different seasons.

- Etienne (68) needing two rushing touchdowns to join Keenan Reynolds (88), Montee Ball (77), Travis Prentice (73), Ricky Williams (72) and Kenneth Dixon (72) as the only FBS players ever to rush for 70 career touchdowns.

- Etienne (76) needing two touchdowns of any kind to tie or three touchdowns to pass Miami (Ohio)'s Travis Prentice (78) for the fourth-most career total touchdowns of any FBS player since 1956.

- Etienne (456) needing 10 points to tie or 11 points to break Florida State kicker Dustin Hopkins' ACC record for career points (466 from 2009-12).

- Etienne (456) needing 12 points to tie Travis Prentice (468 from 1996-99) for the seventh-most career points in FBS history.

- Etienne (512) entering the game holding Clemson's single-season record for receiving yards by a running back. He has 41 receptions on the year and is four catches shy of tying and five catches shy of breaking the Clemson running back record held by Travis Zachery (45 in 2001).

- Etienne (two) needing another 100-yard receiving game to become the first running back in school history with three 100-yard receiving games in a single season. Another 100-yard receiving game would also be his third of his career, which would tie C.J. Spiller's career record by a running back in Clemson history.

- Etienne (4,819) needing 84 combined rushing and passing yards to move past Kyle Parker (4,902) to move into the Top 10 in Clemson history in yards of total offense. Etienne is already 11th in school history in a category that includes both yards rushing and yards passing despite having only 23 career passing yards.

- Etienne (4,796 rushing yards and 1,079 receiving yards) needing 204 more rushing yards to join Donnell Pumphrey as the only players in FBS history to record 5,000 career rushing yards and 1,000 career receiving yards.

- Quarterback Trevor Lawrence (33-1 as a starter) entering the game as the winningest starting quarterback in Clemson history and with the best record by an FBS starting quarterback since Division I split in 1978.

- Lawrence attempting to post his third career 400-yard passing game to tie Tajh Boyd for the second-most in school history.

- Lawrence (11) attempting to post his 12th career 300-yard passing game. He, Tajh Boyd (18) and Deshaun Watson (13) are the only players in school history to record double-digit career 300-yard passing games.

- Lawrence (9,376) needing 290 passing yards to pass Charlie Whitehurst (9,665) for third-most career passing yards in Clemson history.

- Lawrence (86) needing four passing touchdowns to tie Deshaun Watson (90) in career passing touchdowns. Watson currently sits second in Clemson history and third in ACC history.

- Lawrence attempting to record his 19th career game with three or more passing touchdowns. He presently stands at 18 such games, four shy of Tajh Boyd's school record of 22. Clemson is 18-0 when Lawrence throws three touchdown passes.

- Defensive end Myles Murphy entering the game with three forced fumbles on the season, the most by a freshman (true or redshirt) in a season under Dabo Swinney. His three forced fumbles are the most by a Clemson freshman since redshirt freshman Ed McDaniel in 1988 (three).

- Murphy needing two more forced fumbles to tie the single-season Clemson record by a player of any class, set by Brandon Maye in 2009 (five).

- Placekicker B.T. Potter entering the game with five career field goals of 50 yards or more. He is presently tied for the school record for career 50-yard field goals with Chris Gardocki (1988-90) and Donald Igwebuike (1981-84).

- Wide receiver Cornell Powell attempting to catch a touchdown in four straight games for the first time in his career. He would be the first Clemson player with a touchdown catch in four straight games since Tee Higgins' five-game streak last year.

- Wide receiver Amari Rodgers entering the game with career highs in receptions (61), receiving yards (845) and receiving touchdowns (six).

- Rodgers (845) needing 155 receiving yards to record the 12th 1,000-yard season in Clemson history.

- Rodgers (1,969) needing 31 yards to become the 15th player in Clemson history to reach 2,000 career receiving yards.

- Rodgers (165) chasing No. 8 Rod Gardner (166), No. 7 Derrick Hamilton (167) and No. 6 Mike Williams (177) on Clemson's all-time leaderboard for career receptions.

- Rodgers (14) needing a receiving touchdown to become the 16th player in school history to record 15 career touchdown receptions.

*Expected to miss 2020 season with an injury suffered a 30-27 regular season defeat at the hands of Georgia Tech prior to a 39-34 loss in to the Yellow Jackets in the 2011 ACC Championship Game.

Clemson was on the other side of a two-game sweep in 2011, earning a 23-3 road win at No. 11 Virginia Tech in early October before securing the program's first ACC championship in 20 years by defeating the No. 5 Hokies by a score of 38-10 in Charlotte.

This week, Clemson will seek its first two-game split of a season series in a rematch of a double-overtime defeat by Notre Dame on Nov. 7.

Clemson has suffered only 32 losses under Head Coach Dabo Swinney. Clemson has had 25 previous opportunities to avenge its most recent loss against an opponent, going 17-8 in those contests. There are six opponents against whom Swinney's squads have not drawn a rematch since Clemson's last loss in the series: Nebraska, TCU, USF, West Virginia, Georgia and LSU.

Starting with a 35-17 win against South Carolina in 2014 that ended a five-game Gamecock winning streak in the series and jumpstarted Clemson's active six-game winning streak in the rivalry, Clemson has won its last seven games against opponents that defeated Clemson in the teams' prior meeting.

TOP 10 HISTORY

- Saturday's contest will represent the 24th matchup of AP Top 10 teams in Clemson history. Clemson is 13-10 all-time in games when both teams enter ranked in the Top 10 of the AP Poll.

- Eighteen of Clemson's 23 previous all-time Top 10 matchups have come under Head Coach Dabo Swinney, with Swinney posting an 11-7 record in those contests. Danny Ford went 2-1 in three career Top 10 games, including the Orange Bowl to conclude Clemson's 1981 national championship season. Frank Howard and Tommy Bowden each lost their lone matchup of Top 10 teams in their Clemson tenures.

- Clemson has won 10 of its last 14 games between Top 10 teams in the College Football Playoff era.

- Twelve of the 23 games have been contested at neutral sites, including eight consecutive prior to Clemson hosting Miami and Notre Dame hosting Clemson this year. All 12 of the neutral-site Top 10 games were postseason contests, including two ACC Championship Games and 10 bowl games.

- This will be the third time Clemson and Notre Dame have faced one another with both teams in the Top 10. No. 2 Clemson rolled to a 30-3 victory over the No. 3 Fighting Irish in the 2018 Cotton Bowl in the first meeting of two undefeated teams in College Football Playoff history. No. 4 Notre Dame earned a 47-40 double overtime win against No. 1 Clemson earlier this season in the highest-ranked game between ACC opponents in conference history.

* AP Rank

Since the conference's formation in 1953, there have been 18 matchups between two ACC teams in the AP Top 10. Clemson has been involved in nine of the previous 18 intra-conference Top 10 games, posting a 5-4 record in those games, including games against Miami and Notre Dame this year. Clemson won the first matchup of Top 10 ACC teams in conference history, as the No. 2 Tigers earned a 10-8 win against No. 8 North Carolina in Chapel Hill as part of Clemson's 1981 national championship season.

Communications:

- The higher-ranked team has won 10 times.
- The largest margin of victory was 43 by Louisville in its 2016 matchup with Florida State.
- Two top 10 matchups prior to this Saturday's game have occurred in the ACC Championship Game, with Clemson winning both previous contests.
- Five games have featured the No. 1 team in the country (Clemson four times and Florida State once). No. 1 teams are 4-1 in those contests.
- Saturday's game will feature the second-highest combined AP ranking of ACC teams in history (six). It falls shy of only Clemson and Notre Dame's meeting earlier in the year (five).
- Appearances by school (prior to Saturday): Clemson (9), Florida State (9), Miami (6), North Carolina (3), Virginia Tech (3), Louisville (2), Boston College (1), Georgia Tech (1), Virginia (1). Clemson's 10th appearance in one of these matchups this week will pass Florida State in that category.
- The games have been decided by one score eight times.

CLEMSON ACC CHAMPIONSHIP HISTORY

Clemson has a 6-1 record in seven previous appearances in the ACC Championship Game. In its first two appearances, Clemson played a team it faced earlier that season. After five straight instances of Clemson playing a team for the first time that season in the ACC Championship Game, the Tigers will once again play a rematch in an ACC Championship Game this week for the first time since 2011.

Clemson first played in the ACC Championship Game in 2009 when Georgia Tech defeated Clemson, 39-34. Both teams rushed for over 300 yards in the game, which was the only FBS game in 2009 in which both teams had at least 300 yards rushing. It remains the only game in Clemson history in which neither team punted.

C.J. Spiller rushed for 233 yards, scored four touchdowns and had 301 all-purpose yards, all of which remain ACC Championship game records. He was named the game's MVP, the only time a player from the losing team has been honored.

Clemson won the title two years later with a 38-10 win over Virginia Tech in 2011. Virginia Tech was ranked third in the USA Today poll entering the game, and the victory tied for the highest-ranked team Clemson had defeated at the time. Clemson has since broken that mark with multiple defeats of No. 2 Ohio State and No. 1 Alabama.

Tajh Boyd had three touchdown passes and one rushing to account for four of Clemson's five touchdowns on the night in 2011, as the Tigers boasted a balanced attack that recorded 217 yards rushing and 240 yards passing. It was Clemson's first ACC Championship since 1991.

Future NFL pros Dwayne Allen, Sammy Watkins and Andre Ellington all scored touchdowns for Clemson and the Tigers' defense held Virginia Tech to just 56 yards rushing.

In 2015, the Tigers defeated North Carolina, 45-37, for the championship, a victory that gave Clemson a 13-0 record and its first College Football Playoff berth. North Carolina was 11-1 and ranked eighth in the nation entering the game.

Deshaun Watson led a Clemson offense that gained 608 yards in 98 plays, including 319 rushing yards and 289 passing yards. Watson completed 26-of-42 passes for 289 yards and three scores. He also had 131 yards rushing on 24 attempts and two rushing touchdowns. Wayne Gallman had 187 yards on 28 attempts to lead Clemson's ground game. Artavis Scott had seven catches for 96 yards and a score. Gallman also had a career-high 68 receiving yards, giving him 255 all-purpose yards.

Clemson won the 2016 ACC Championship game in Orlando over Virginia Tech with a 42-35 victory. Clemson was ranked third in the nation entering that game and Virginia Tech was 19th. Watson helped bolster his case as a Heisman finalist by accounting for five touchdowns in the victory, including three passing touchdowns among his 23-of-34 passing performance for 288 yards while adding 17 carries for 85 yards and two touchdowns on the ground.

Top-ranked Clemson won its third straight ACC title in 2017, defeating the No. 7 Miami Hurricanes, 38-3, in Charlotte. Offensively, the Tigers were sparked by quarterback Kelly Bryant, who completed his first 15 passes for 164 yards and finished the game with 252 yards and one passing touchdown on a career-high 23 completions to earn MVP honors. The Clemson defense held Miami to just 22 yards of offense in the first quarter and 214 for the whole game, while also forcing three Hurricane turnovers in the third quarter alone.

In 2018, Clemson became the first ACC team ever to win four straight outright conference titles, winning the 13th game of its 15-0 national championship season with a 42-10 win against Pitt. Clemson opened the game with a 75-yard Travis Etienne touchdown run on the game's opening play from scrimmage, giving Clemson a 7-0 lead 13 seconds into the game. Etienne finished the game with 156 rushing yards and two touchdowns on 12 carries to earn MVP honors. Defensively, Clemson held the Pitt offense in check, limiting the Panthers to just eight passing yards for the whole game, while offensively quarterback Trevor Lawrence completed 12-of-24 pass attempts for 118 yards with a pair of touchdown tosses to Tee Higgins, who finished the game with 36 yards and those two scores on three receptions.

MOST RECENT ACC CHAMPIONSHIP

Clemson 62, Virginia 17

(Dec. 7, 2019 at Charlotte, N.C.)

No. 3 Clemson defeated No. 22 Virginia, 62-17, to win its fifth consecutive ACC Football Championship Game on Saturday night at Bank of America Stadium. Clemson became the first team in college football history to win five straight conference championship games. The win also extended Clemson's nation-best win streak to 28 games.

With the title, Clemson won its 19th ACC Championship and 25th overall conference championship in its history.

Trevor Lawrence set an ACC Championship Game record with four touchdown passes, three of which went to Tee Higgins. Clemson built a 31-7 halftime lead, scoring on its first five possessions, en route to an ACC Championship Game-record 62 points and 619 total yards.

The sophomore quarterback finished 16-of-22 and 302 passing yards, and extended his streak of consecutive games with three touchdown passes to eight. Higgins finished with three touchdown receptions, and 182 receiving yards, each setting an ACC Championship Game record. With three touchdown receptions on the night, Higgins tied Clemson's all-time receiving touchdowns record with 27 (Sammy Watkins and DeAndre Hopkins).

Travis Etienne rushed for 114 yards and one touchdown on the night. Etienne reached 1,500 rushing yards in a season for the second consecutive season, becoming the first player in program history to accomplish the feat.

Clemson opened the scoring when Lawrence found Higgins on a 19-yard touchdown pass. Lawrence would respond to Virginia's touchdown drive, connecting with Justyn Ross on a 59-yard touchdown to reclaim the lead in the first quarter. B.T. Potter knocked in a 47-yard field goal, Etienne added a 26-yard touchdown, and Lawrence connected with Higgins on a 7-yard score to give Clemson a 31-7 halftime lead.

Higgins added his third touchdown of the game to open the scoring for the Tigers in the second half, scoring from 11 yards out on a pass from Lawrence. Lyn-J Dixon scored on a 23-yard rush with a minute remaining in the third quarter, as Clemson increased its lead, 45-14. Potter added his second field goal of the night in the fourth quarter, this time from 24 yards out. Chase Brice scored his first career rushing touchdown with eight minutes remaining to give Clemson a 55-17 lead. Chez Mellusi capped off the scoring in the fourth quarter on a four-yard rushing touchdown.

ACC CHAMPIONSHIP EXPERIENCE

This will be Clemson's sixth straight appearance in the league's championship game, while it will be Notre Dame's first championship game appearance in school history in its first season in a conference.

Eighty-nine members of Clemson's 119-man roster have been on the team for at least one ACC Championship. Of those 89, 56 have played in at least one ACC Championship Game during their careers.

Of those 56 players to appear in ACC Championship Game action, 25 of them have appeared in multiple conference title games, including 10 who have appeared in each of the last three ACC Championships. Linebacker James Skalski, who played four games in 2018 while taking a mid-career redshirt, is expected to make history by becoming the first player to appear in five consecutive ACC Championship Games.

ALL-TIME ACC CHAMPIONSHIPS

Clemson has 19 ACC championships in school history, the most in the history of the conference. Florida State ranks second with 15. The Tigers have won each of the last five titles and will attempt to extend the longest streak in school history and longest outright streak in conference history this week.

The Tigers are already the first ACC program to win five consecutive ACC titles outright, a streak they will attempt to extend to six on Saturday. Florida State had a streak of nine straight ACC titles, but that streak included two co-championships that prevented Bobby Bowden's Seminoles from ever winning four straight titles outright.

Including titles from its days as a member of the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association and Southern Conference, Clemson has 25 conference championships overall, also the most of any current ACC school. Duke ranks second among the ACC's current membership with 18 overall conference titles, including 11 Southern Conference titles and seven ACC titles.

The Tigers won the 1900, 1902 and 1903 SIAA Conference championships under John Heisman, then the 1906 SIAA title under Bob Williams. Clemson also won the 1940 and 1948 Southern Conference titles under Frank Howard. Howard won eight total conference titles, including two in the Southern Conference and six in the ACC.

-- ON THE OPPONENT --

SERIES HISTORY AGAINST NOTRE DAME

This will be the sixth game all-time between Clemson and Notre Dame, and only the second neutral site meeting between the programs all-time. All four on-campus regular season meetings have been decided by one possession, while Clemson won the lone postseason matchup, a 30-3 win in the 2018 Cotton Bowl in Arlington, Texas.

The teams split a home-and-home series in the 1970s, with Notre Dame winning at Clemson by a 21-17 score in 1977 and Clemson earning a victory at Notre Dame by a 16-10 score in 1979.

Clemson became the first home team to win in the series on Oct. 3, 2015, when the Tigers posted a 24-22 victory. Notre Dame scored with seven seconds left, but the Tigers stopped quarterback DeShone Kizer on a run for the two-point conversion. In 2018, Clemson used 327 passing yards from Trevor Lawrence and six sacks of Ian Book to roll to a 30-3 win in the College Football Playoff.

Notre Dame won the teams' most recent meeting, a 47-40 defeat of Clemson in South Bend in November 2020. Despite the absence of Lawrence and several defensive starters, Clemson overcame a 13-point second-quarter deficit to force overtime before the depleted Tigers eventually succumbed in double overtime.

Only five current FBS schools have played Notre Dame at least four times and have a winning record against the Irish. At 3-2 against Notre Dame all-time, Clemson stands with Florida State (6-4), Michigan (25-17-1), Nebraska (8-7-1) and Ohio State (4-2) in that category. Three of those squads and Clemson rank among the Top 15 in all-time FBS wins.

Clemson has been ranked in the top 15 in the nation heading into the Notre Dame game in all six meetings, including a No. 2 vs. No. 3 matchup in the 2018 Cotton Bowl that was the first meeting of undefeated teams in College Football Playoff history and a No. 1 vs. No. 4 matchup in 2020 that was the highest-ranked matchup of ACC teams in conference history. The Tigers were ranked 15th entering the 1977 contest, 14th in 1979, 12th in 2015, second in 2018 and first in 2020. It will be the fifth time Notre Dame has been ranked in the top six entering the game with Clemson. The Irish were fifth in 1977, unranked in 1979, sixth in 2015, third in 2018 and fourth in 2020.

N1 - Arlington, Texas

While Saturday will be just the sixth meeting between Clemson and Notre Dame all-time, the game will be the second of four meetings scheduled between the two teams between 2020-23. After two meetings in 2020, barring a change to any upcoming schedules or any additional postseason meetings, Clemson will travel to Notre Dame again in 2022 and Notre Dame will travel to Clemson in 2023.

PREVIOUS GAMES VS. NOTRE DAME

Notre Dame 21, Clemson 17

Nov. 12, 1977 at Memorial Stadium

Clemson held a 10-7 lead at intermission and the lead could have been larger. The Tigers held a 213-101 advantage in total offense and Steve Fuller was on fire in the first 30 minutes, hitting 9-of-12 passes for 124 yards. Joe Montana was held to 3-of-9 passing for 53 yards by the Clemson defense by intermission.

Clemson controlled much of the third quarter. On the Tigers' first possession, Fuller hit Warren Ratchford for a 35-yard completion. Four plays later, Lester Brown scored around left end from two yards out, a play that drew the ire of Notre Dame coach Dan Devine because an official had gotten in the way of Notre Dame defensive back Ted Burgmeier as he was trying to make the tackle.

It was still 17-7 Clemson entering the fourth period when Montana led Notre Dame on one of his famous comebacks. On the last drive of the third period, which continued into the fourth, Montana led the Irish on a drive that actually gained 119 yards in total offense.

Devine picked up an unsportsmanlike conduct penalty when he went on the field and picked up a flag that negated a 30-yard-run by Vagas Ferguson. It set up a second-and-31, but Montana overcame his coach's tirade, hitting Ken MacAfee for 27 yards then 16 yards on fourth-and-two. Montana finished off the drive with a one-yard run to make it 17-14.

After a Clemson turnover, Notre Dame got the ball back at midfield. Montana had been saving a screen pass for a special occasion and he connected with Ferguson for 36 yards, bringing the ball to the Clemson 14. Montana scored later in the possession to make the count 21-17 in favor of the Irish.

Clemson, who was going for its 100th all-time win in Memorial Stadium, had two more possessions, but could not get a first down and the Irish had escaped Death Valley with the four-point win, keeping Notre Dame's hopes for a National Championship alive.

Clemson 16, Notre Dame 10

Nov. 17, 1979 at Notre Dame Stadium

Notre Dame had a 10-0 lead at halftime and briefly held a 16-0 lead for a few seconds. The Irish were up 10-0 in the second period when quarterback Rusty Lisch scored on a 10-yard run to make it 16-0. But, a holding call nullified the play. The Irish could not get the first down and when Chuck Male, who had won the Michigan game in the season opener, missed a 32-yard field goal, and the score remained 10-0.

Danny Ford said many times that the first five minutes of the second half are the most important in a football game. That was the case in South Bend. Clemson had to punt on its first possession of the second half. Notre Dame return man Ty Dickerson fumbled David Sims' punt at the Notre Dame 21 and Chuck Rose recovered for Clemson. It was the last time Dickerson would touch the ball in a Notre Dame game. Clemson drove to the Notre Dame four, but the drive stalled and Obed Ariri kicked the first of his three field goals on the day.

The momentum had changed, as Notre Dame failed to move the ball and Dick Boushka punted to Hollis Hall. The Clemson defensive back tried to return the favor and fumbled, but he recovered his own fumble at the Clemson 18. Clemson then drove for another field goal by Ariri.

On the next Notre Dame possession, Ferguson, who would break George Gipp's 59-year Notre Dame record for 100-yard rushing games in a season on this day, fumbled on the first play after being hit by Bubba Brown, and sophomore Jeff Davis recovered for the Tigers.

Four plays later Billy Lott, who had a team-best 73 yards rushing on the day, kept the ball around right end (28 Counter Option) and raced 26 yards for a touchdown. It was Clemson's third score in its last three possessions and the Tigers had taken the lead, 13-10. The Tigers scored on a fourth straight possession after a 15-play drive that culminated with a 37-yard field goal by Ariri, giving Clemson a 16-10 lead.

There were still 8:30 left in the game, so Notre Dame had plenty of time, but just as turnovers had hurt Clemson in the game in Death Valley two years earlier, turnovers were the difference in this game.

The Irish drove to the Clemson 25 and had a third-and-nine, but Lisch's pass was deflected by Notre Dame receiver Tony Hunter and then intercepted by redshirt freshman safety Terry Kinard.

Clemson could not move the ball and Notre Dame got it back at its own 16 with 2:34 left. This time Devine called an end-around pass with Pete Holohan, who had been a high school quarterback. His long pass was intercepted by Kinard again and he returned it 40 yards to the Notre Dame 19.

On Clemson's second play, Lott fumbled the snap and freshman Mark Zavagnin recovered for the Irish with 2:02 left. It was Clemson's only turnover of the day. On Notre Dame's first play, Steve Durham sacked Lisch back at the Notre Dame two-yard-line. Three more passes were incomplete and Clemson ran out the clock for the 16-10 victory.

Clemson 24, Notre Dame 22

Oct. 3, 2015 at Memorial Stadium

Clemson battled sixth-ranked Notre Dame through torrential rains from Hurricane Joaquin under the lights. But the wet weather did not hold the Tigers back in a hard-fought 24-22 victory.

Deshaun Watson led the Tigers to an explosive start. First, he had a 38-yard run on the first offensive play of the game, then culminated the possession with a touchdown pass to Jordan Leggett. Clemson took an early 14-0 lead with another Watson touchdown, this time a 13-yarder to Artavis Scott. Clemson held a 14-3 lead at intermission.

On the opening kickoff of the second half, Ammon Lakip, Clemson's kicker, jarred the ball loose from C.J. Sanders. The Tigers recovered and Watson led the Tigers on another touchdown drive. He completed the drive with a 21-yard touchdown run to give Clemson a commanding 21-3 lead.

DeShone Kizer led the Irish back and would throw for 321 yards for the game, 216 more than Watson for the night. He threw a 56-yard touchdown pass to C.J. Prorise on a wheel route, then scored another touchdown himself on a three-yard run.

The Fighting Irish pulled within two at 24-22 on a touchdown by Torii Hunter Jr., but Deshone Kizer's designed quarterback run was stuffed by Carlos Watkins and Kevin Dodd, and Clemson survived the furious rally.

Watson accounted for three scores, while rushing for 93 yards. Wayne Gallman continued his strong start, with 23 carries for 111 yards.

Clemson held Prorise to 50 yards rushing in 15 attempts and his longest run all night was 10 yards. He came in averaging 150 yards a game on the ground. Will Fuller, who entered the game averaging 113 receiving yards and had scored six touchdowns, had just two receptions for 37 yards. Future second-round draft pick Mackensie Alexander aided Clemson's defensive success against one of the nation's top receivers.

Following the contest, Dodd was named ACC Defensive Lineman of the Week and B.J. Goodson earned ACC Linebacker of the Week honors. Dodd posted 3.5 tackles for loss, with two sacks and a forced fumble. Goodson had two takeaways in the fourth quarter, the first Tiger to do so in a game won by seven points or less since Terry Kinard, who also did it against Notre Dame, in 1979.

Clemson 30, Notre Dame 3

Dec. 29, 2018 at AT&T Stadium (Arlington, Texas)

No. 2 Clemson advanced to its third College Football Playoff National Championship Game in four years by defeating Notre Dame, 30-3, in the Cotton Bowl at AT&T Stadium.

Quarterback Trevor Lawrence, the game's Most Outstanding Offensive Player, completed 27-of-39 pass attempts for 327 yards and three touchdowns, including 19-of-26 for 264 yards and a pair of touchdown passes to Justyn Ross in the first half alone. Travis Etienne ran for 109 yards on 14 carries, including a 62-yard touchdown run that pushed him past Wayne Gallman's 2015 school mark for the most rushing yards in a single season. Austin Bryant added two sacks and six total tackles en route to Most Outstanding Defensive Player honors.

Both defenses proved stout in the first quarter, as the teams traded field goals by Clemson's Greg Huegel and Notre Dame's Justin Yoon. Yoon's field goal proved to be the only scoring Clemson allowed all game.

The Tigers first found the end zone on a 52-yard scoring connection from Lawrence to Ross that gave Clemson a 9-3 advantage. Ross also hauled in a 42-yard pass from Lawrence for his second touchdown of the day 11 minutes later. Tee Higgins then sealed the quarter with an acrobatic, juggling 19-yard touchdown reception that gave Clemson a 23-3 lead with two seconds remaining in the half.

The first score of the third quarter, which would ultimately be the final score of the game, came with two minutes remaining in the quarter, when Etienne broke away for the 62-yard touchdown rush that was set up by a Nolan Turner interception three plays earlier. A scoreless fourth quarter left the final score at 30-3. It was the fewest points scored by Notre Dame in a bowl game in its history.

Notre Dame 47, Clemson 40 (20T)

Nov. 7, 2020 at Notre Dame Stadium

Top-ranked Clemson fell to No. 4 Notre Dame in double overtime by a score of 47-40 in the highest-ranked matchup of conference opponents in ACC history. The loss ended Clemson's ACC record 36-game regular season winning streak and its FBS-record 50-game winning streak on Saturdays.

After the two teams traded touchdowns in the first overtime period, Notre Dame punched in a 3-yard touchdown run and the Tigers failed to respond with their possession, ultimately handing them their first loss of the season and dropping them to 7-1.

The loss came despite an incredible statistical performance by freshman quarterback D.J. Uiagalelei, who threw for 439 yards and two touchdowns in place of Trevor Lawrence. His 439 yards were the most ever thrown by a quarterback against Notre Dame in Fighting Irish history.

The Fighting Irish jumped out to an early 10-0 lead, highlighted by a 65-yard touchdown run on the first play from scrimmage following a Clemson penalty. The Tigers responded with a 53-yard touchdown bomb from Uiagalelei to Cornell Powell, at the time the longest of both their careers. Powell totaled a career-high 161 yards on six receptions to go along with his touchdown.

The second quarter saw the two teams exchange field goals before a fumbled pitch was recovered by Notre Dame and returned for a touchdown to give the Irish a 20-10 advantage.

Clemson turned the ball over on the following drive as well, but the Tiger defense held stout and the Irish were forced to settle for a field goal. The Tigers responded with a 45-yard B.T. Potter field goal that cut the halftime deficit to 23-13.

The Tigers came out of the break firing, scoring 10 consecutive points on another Potter field goal and a 10-yard touchdown reception by Davis Allen. The game-tying score capped a 13-play, 60-yard drive spanning 6:29 of game time.

The Irish looked to regain the lead on the following drive, but Jake Venables stripped Ian Book on a run that would have set Notre Dame up for first and goal at the Clemson five-yard line. The forced fumble was the first of Venables's career and kept the game in a 23-23 draw entering the final frame of regulation.

Another Notre Dame field goal gave the Irish a 26-23 lead, which was quickly erased by Potter's career-high fourth field goal of the game.

With 9:14 remaining and the score locked at 26-26, Uiagalelei led the Tigers on a 12-play, 74-yard touchdown drive lasting 5:41 capped by a Travis Etienne three-yard touchdown run that gave Clemson the lead.

In their last possession of regulation, Notre Dame cashed in on a 91-yard touchdown drive that sent the game into overtime. Both teams scored touchdowns in the first frame, but when Notre Dame opened the second overtime period with a score, the Tigers took two sacks and ultimately came up short.

CLEMSON-NOTRE DAME CONNECTIONS

Joe Montana and Dwight Clark: Montana (Notre Dame, 1975-78) to Clark (Clemson, 1975-78) was one of the top passing combinations in the NFL from 1979-87. The duo combined on what is regarded as "The Catch" in the 1982 NFC Championship game between the 49ers and the Cowboys. Clark led the NFC in receiving in 1981 and 1982 and was the NFL MVP in 1982. They played on Super Bowl Championship teams at the end of the 1981 and 1984 seasons. The two were on opposite sides of the field when the two schools met at Clemson in 1977.

Deshaun Watson and Will Fuller: Former Clemson quarterback Deshaun Watson and former Notre Dame wide receiver Will Fuller are now teammates with the Houston Texans. Just as Montana and Clark played against each other at Clemson in 1977, Watson and Fuller played against each other at Clemson in 2015. Watson and Fuller have connected on 22 touchdown passes for the Texans. That total is the second-most touchdown passes Watson has thrown to a single receiver in his pro career, trailing only his 25 touchdown passes thrown to former Clemson star DeAndre Hopkins.

Frank Shaughnessy: Shaughnessy holds the Notre Dame record for the longest play of any kind in school history. In 1904, the field was 110 yards long, so Shaughnessy caught a mid-air Kansas fumble and raced 107 yards for a score. Just three years later he was the head football coach at Clemson. Shaughnessy's fascinating life included playing Major League Baseball, managing a team to the Stanley Cup Finals, serving as a minor league baseball manager in the Dodgers organization, and acting as President of the AAA International Baseball League when Jackie Robinson played in the league (1946). But, among his many stops, he was the head football coach at Clemson in 1907, leading the Tigers to 4-4 record. He beat John Heisman's Georgia Tech team in the season finale by a 6-5 score.

Frank Leahy: Leahy was the head coach at Boston College in 1939 and 1940. His first Boston College team lost to Clemson in the 1940 Cotton Bowl, the only bowl loss of his career. He won a bowl game as Boston College's head coach the next year over Tennessee, then went to Notre Dame as head coach for the 1941 season.

Notre Dame had a self-imposed ban on bowl participation his entire tenure (1941-53) with the Notre Dame program due to the school's academic schedule. He is still the second-winningest coach in college football history on a percentage basis, trailing only his mentor, Knute Rockne, but he was 0-1 in his career against Clemson.

Ricky Gray: Gray lettered for both schools. The former DeMatha High School player enrolled at Clemson as a freshman in 1980 and lettered for the Tigers that season as a tight end. He transferred to Holy Cross Junior College, a school across the street from the Notre Dame campus in 1981, then matriculated to Notre Dame and lettered for the Irish from 1982-84 under Gerry Faust.

Troy and Thad Ridgley: Troy Ridgley was a defensive lineman who was a letterman on Notre Dame's 1988 National Championship team. He also lettered in 1989 and 1991. Thad Ridgley, his brother, lettered at Clemson in 1992 and 1993. It is the only known brother combination to play for both schools in football.

Banks McFadden and Moose Krause: Only eight athletes in college sports history have earned All-America honors in football and basketball over their careers. Clemson and Notre Dame each had one of the eight. McFadden was an All-American in basketball first in 1938-39 when he took Clemson to the Southern Conference championship. He then made All-American as a quarterback and defensive back in the fall of 1939 when he led Clemson to a 9-1 record and a win in the Cotton Bowl.

Krause was better known for his basketball and was a three-time All-American from 1931-33. He was the second three-time All-American in college basketball history. The first was Purdue's John Wooden, later the coach at UCLA. Krause, who was recruited to play football by Knute Rockne before the legendary coach died in a plane crash, was an All-America tackle in 1932 on the gridiron.

Later as Notre Dame Director of Athletics, Krause brokered the deal with Frank Howard to play a two-game series between Clemson and Notre Dame in 1977 and 1979.

1978 Final UPI Poll: The only time Clemson has been tied with another school in a final poll was in 1978 when Clemson and Notre Dame were tied for sixth in the nation in the final UPI Coaches poll. The two schools played in 1977 and 1979, but not 1978.

-- FROM THE ARCHIVES --

ON THIS DATE

- Dec. 19, 1959 - Clemson defeated TCU in the Bluebonnet Bowl, 23-7. The Horned Frogs, led by All-American and future Dallas Cowboy Bob Lilly, were ranked seventh in the nation entering the game. It was the highest-ranked team Frank Howard defeated in his 30 years as head coach.

-- NOTES FROM LAST GAME --

POSTGAME NOTES VS. VIRGINIA TECH

- The 35-point win ties Clemson's largest victory margin against Virginia Tech in series history, matching a 35-point margin by Frank Howard's 1945 team in a 35-0 win. Clemson's 45 points Saturday were the most points scored in its all-time series with Virginia Tech, surpassing its 42 in the 2016 ACC Championship Game.

- Clemson recorded three takeaways and has now recorded at least three takeaways in back-to-back games for the first time since a three-game stretch against Miami (Fla.), Georgia Tech and Syracuse this year.

- Clemson is now 45-1 under Dabo Swinney when finishing plus-two or better in the turnover margin, including a 29-1 mark when finishing exactly plus-two in that category.

- After a plus-four margin in turnovers last week, Clemson has now won the turnover margin by multiple turnovers in back-to-back games for the second time this season (plus-two against both Virginia and Miami (Fla.)).

- Clemson held Virginia Tech to 131 rushing yards, the Hokies' lowest output of the season. Virginia Tech entered the game averaging 250.9 rushing yards per game this season, the most in the ACC and the ninth-most in the country.

- Conversely, Clemson rushed for 238 yards, its second most of the season behind its 258 rushing yards vs. Miami (Fla.). Clemson improved to 67-1 when rushing for at least 200 yards under Dabo Swinney.

- Despite being limited to a season-low 52 plays, Clemson averaged a season-high 8.3 yards per play to finish the game with 433 total yards.

- Clemson's 8.3 yards per play represent its highest average since last year's ACC Championship Game against Virginia (9.2).

- Clemson joined 2013 Florida State as the only ACC teams ever to score 34 or more points in each of the first 10 games of a season.

- Clemson recorded multiple rushing touchdowns in a 26th consecutive game. The last time Clemson was held to a single rushing touchdown was in the 2018 Cotton Bowl.

- Quarterback Trevor Lawrence completed 12-of-22 passes for 195 yards with one passing touchdown and added seven carries for 41 yards and two rushing touchdowns.

- Lawrence improved to 33-1 as a starter, breaking the school record for wins as a starting quarterback shared previously by Rodney Williams, Tajh Boyd and Deshaun Watson (32 wins each).

- On a 17-yard touchdown run in the first quarter, Lawrence (102) joined Tajh Boyd (133), Lamar Jackson (119), Deshaun Watson (116) and Philip Rivers (112) as the only players in ACC history to be responsible for 100 career touchdowns (scored and/or thrown).

- Lawrence added his second touchdown run on a seven-yard rush in the third quarter. His two rushing touchdowns tied a career high set in this year's season opener against Wake Forest.

- The second rushing touchdown of the game for Lawrence was his 16th of his career, moving him into a tie with Kelly Bryant for fifth-most by a Clemson quarterback in the modern era.

- Wide receiver Cornell Powell scored on a 65-yard touchdown reception in the fourth quarter.

- The touchdown pass to Powell was Lawrence's 12th completion of the night. On that completion, Lawrence (700) joined Tajh Boyd (901), Charlie Whitehurst (817) and Deshaun Watson (814) as the only Clemson players to reach 700 career completions.

- The pass was Lawrence's 18th touchdown pass of 50 yards or more, surpassing Tajh Boyd (17) for the most by a Clemson quarterback since 1950.

- Powell has now caught a touchdown in three straight games for the first time in his career. He is the second Clemson player to accomplish the feat this year, joining tight end Davis Allen, who scored against Virginia, Miami (Fla.) and Georgia Tech in three straight weeks.

- Running back Darien Rencher, who won the Disney Spirit Award earlier this week, scored on a career-long 50-yard run in the fourth quarter.

- With the touchdown reception by Powell and the touchdown run by Rencher, Clemson produced multiple touchdowns of 50 yards or more in a single game for the first time since last year's Fiesta Bowl against Ohio State.

- Tight end Braden Galloway recorded a career-long 49-yard reception in the first quarter. His previous long was a 42-yard reception against LSU in last year's College Football Playoff National Championship Game.

- Running back Lyn-J Dixon scored his second touchdown of the season on a 19-yard touchdown run in the second quarter.

- Dixon has now scored a touchdown in consecutive games for the first time since the first two games of the 2019 season against Georgia Tech and Texas A&M.

- Defensive end Myles Murphy forced his third fumble of the season in the third quarter. It was recovered by cornerback Mario Goodrich, his first career fumble recovery.

- Cornerback Derion Kendrick scored on a 66-yard fumble return in the third quarter. It was his second career touchdown, joining an interception return touchdown against Florida State in 2019.

- With Kendrick's fumble return touchdown, Clemson recorded a third scoop-and-score in a season for the first time in school records back to 1951.

- Clemson has now recorded at least three defensive touchdowns in four straight seasons, its longest streak in records back to 1951.

- Defensive tackle Nyles Pinckney recorded his first fumble recovery of the season — the third of his career — in the fourth quarter to end a Virginia Tech red zone drive. It was his first fumble recovery since Oct. 19, 2019 at Louisville.

- Linebacker LaVonta Bentley and defensive end Xavier Thomas split a third quarter sack to force a Virginia Tech punt. The half-sack pushed Thomas' season total to a team-high-tying 3.5 sacks.

- Bentley later added a full sack on a fourth down in the fourth quarter to also join Thomas, Baylon Spector and Myles Murphy for the team lead with 3.5 sacks this season. Clemson entered the game second in the country in team sacks despite no single player having 4.0 sacks on the season.

- With the sacks, Clemson recorded multiple sacks in a 16th straight game, tying a 16-game streak from 2018-19 for the Tigers' third-longest streak since 1980. Clemson now has multiple sacks in 32 of its last 33 games.

- Clemson played its seventh December regular season game in school history. The win improved Clemson to 4-3 in those contests, giving the Tigers four December regular season wins in a row, dating to 1948.

- Temperature at kickoff was 37 degrees, Clemson's coldest game of the season and its coldest since 2018 at Boston College (34 degrees). It was the fifth-coldest recorded kickoff temperature in Clemson history. Clemson is now 9-0 under Dabo Swinney when the kickoff temperature is 45 degrees or colder.

- Clemson played its latest regular season finale since joining the ACC in 1953, including only its second regular season contest in December in that span. Clemson closed the 2001 regular season with a 59-31 win against Duke on Dec. 1, 2001. This game against Virginia Tech is the program's second-latest regular season finale all-time, behind a Dec. 8, 1928 finale against The Citadel.

- Captains for the contest were running back Travis Etienne, linebacker Baylon Spector, center Cade Stewart and defensive tackle Jordan Williams.

WITH THE WIN...

- Clemson clinched a berth in the ACC Championship Game with the victory. It will be Clemson's eighth all-time ACC Championship Game appearance, adding to the Tigers' ACC record, and its sixth straight appearance, also an ACC record.

- Clemson became the first Power Five team to appear in six consecutive conference championship games. The only other active conference to have one team represented in six straight championship games is the MAC, in which Marshall qualified for six straight years from 1997-2002, as did Northern Illinois from 2010-15.

- Clemson earned a ninth win through the first 10 games of a season for the 15th time in school history. Clemson previously won at least nine games in its first 10 contests in the 1939, 1948, 1950, 1978, 1981, 1987, 2011, 2012, 2013, 2015, 2016, 2017, 2018 and 2019 seasons.

- Clemson won an eighth ACC regular season game for a third straight season for the first time in school history. It is Clemson's fourth time winning eight ACC regular season games in a single season, joining the 2015, 2018 and 2019 seasons.

- The 2020 Clemson seniors improved to 50-4 since 2017, becoming the fourth straight Clemson senior class (and the 11th such class in FBS history) to record 50 wins in four years.

NOTES

- The 2020 Clemson seniors are now 31-2 in ACC regular season play from 2017-20, surpassing the 2018 and 2019 seniors (30 wins each) as the winningest class in school history in regular season conference play. The group ties the four-year conference record of 31, set by multiple Florida State classes from 1995-2000.

- Clemson improved to 51-3 against conference opponents since the start of the 2015 season, the first year of Clemson's active run of five consecutive ACC titles.

- Clemson won its sixth consecutive game against Virginia Tech, dating to the 2011 season when the Tigers defeated the Hokies twice. It is Clemson's longest streak in the series since winning nine consecutive games against the Hokies from 1955-85.

- Clemson won its third consecutive game in Blacksburg.

- Clemson won its 13th consecutive December game, dating to Clemson's 2011 ACC Championship Game victory against Virginia Tech. Clemson entered the game as one of four schools to be undefeated in December since 2011 with a minimum of four games played, a list that also included Alabama (9-0) and Penn State (5-0).

- Clemson improved to 24-13 all-time in December games, including postseason play.

- Clemson improved to 3-0 in December games against Virginia Tech all-time, including wins in the 2011 and 2016 ACC Championship Games.

- Head Coach Dabo Swinney improved to 6-0 as a head coach vs. Virginia Tech. Virginia Tech is one of five ACC schools against which Swinney is undefeated as head coach, a list that also includes Wake Forest (12-0), Louisville (6-0), Virginia (5-0) and Duke (3-0).

- Clemson has now won 27 of its 29 true road games since the start of the 2015 season.

- Though 2020 is technically a divisionless season, Clemson improved to 33-8 against opponents historically from the ACC Coastal Division, including postseason play, under Head Coach Dabo Swinney. Clemson has won 19 of its last 20 games against the Coastal Division since 2015.

- Clemson improved to 67-3 in regular season play since the start of the 2015 season.

- Clemson now has a 107-2 record when totaling more first downs than its opponent since 2011.

- Clemson now has a 64-3 record when winning the turnover margin since 2011.

- Clemson is now 58-1 when scoring first since 2015.

- Clemson has now won 86 of its last 88 games, including each of its last 49, when leading at halftime.

- Clemson improved to 108-2 since 2011 when leading after three quarters.

- Clemson improved to 51-2 since 2015 when outscoring opponents in the "Middle Eight," defined as the final four minutes of the first half and the first four minutes of the second half. Clemson won those eight minutes by a 7-3 margin on Saturday.

MOST WINS SINCE 2015, SECOND-MOST SINCE 2011

Clemson's recent success has been particularly pronounced in the midst of Clemson's five-year streak of College Football Playoff appearances since 2015. Clemson leads Alabama for the most wins in the country in that span, while those two teams have each earned two national championships in that time frame.

MOST WINS (2015-20)

| Rk | School            | W  | L  | Pct. |
|----|-------------------|----|----|------|
| 1. | Clemson           | 78 | 6  | .929 |
| 2. | Alabama           | 76 | 6  | .927 |
| 3. | Ohio State        | 66 | 7  | .904 |
| 4. | Oklahoma          | 65 | 12 | .844 |
| 5. | Appalachian State | 62 | 14 | .816 |

Clemson won 69 games during the 2015-19 seasons, the most in a five-year period in the AP Poll era (since 1936). With a win against Notre Dame, Clemson's current five year run (64-5 since 2016) can match its 2014-18 run for the fourth-best in the AP poll era.

MOST WINS IN A FIVE-YEAR SPAN (AP POLL ERA)

| Rk | School  | Years   | Streak |
|----|---------|---------|--------|
| 1. | Clemson | 2015-19 | 69     |
| 2. | Alabama | 2014-18 | 67     |
| 3. | Alabama | 2015-19 | 66     |
| 4. | Clemson | 2014-18 | 65     |

Clemson has a 120-17 record since starting its current stretch of 10-win seasons in 2011. Only Alabama (124-12) has more wins since 2011. The Tigers also have the second-highest winning percentage (.876) in that time frame.

MOST WINS (SINCE 2011)

| Rk  | School      | W   | L  | Pct. |

14-WIN SEASONS

There have been 15 seasons of 14 or more wins since the NCAA split Division I in 1978. Clemson accounts for four of those 14-win seasons, matching Alabama for the most 14-win seasons in that span.

14-WIN SEASONS SINCE 1978

| Rk. | School        | Year | Record |
|-----|---------------|------|--------|
| 1.  | Clemson       | 2018 | 15-0   |
|     | LSU           | 2019 | 15-0   |
| 3.  | BYU           | 1996 | 14-1   |

|     | Clemson       | 2019 | 14-1   |

Note: Since NCAA split Division I in 1978

12-WIN SEASONS

Clemson has won at least 12 games in five consecutive seasons, the longest active streak of 12-win seasons and one of only four such streaks in major college football history, joining Alabama (five from 2014-18), Penn (seven from 1892-98) and Yale (five from 1888-92).

STREAKS OF 12-WIN SEASONS (MAJOR COLLEGE FOOTBALL HISTORY)

| Rk | School  | Years   | Streak |
|----|---------|---------|--------|
| 1. | Penn    | 1892-98 | 7      |
| 2. | Clemson | 2015-19 | 5*     |

|               |         |   |
|---------------|---------|---|
| Alabama       | 2014-18 | 5 |
| Yale          | 1888-92 | 5 |
| 5. Ohio State | 2012-15 | 4 |
| Boise State   | 2008-11 | 4 |

* - active streak

Even at lower thresholds, Clemson's streak of success would remain impressive. Of the 130 active FBS schools, only 30 programs won at least six games in all five seasons from 2015-19. That number dips to 12 when pushing the win total to eight, and drops all the way to four (Clemson, Alabama, Oklahoma and Ohio State) when setting the bar at 10 wins.

SEASON WIN STREAKS SINCE 2015 (ENTERING 2020)

| Five-year streaks of... | FBS Teams |
|-------------------------|-----------|
| At least 6 wins         | 30        |
| At least 7 wins         | 23        |
| At least 8 wins         | 12        |
| At least 9 wins         | 6         |
| At least 10 wins        | 4         |
| At least 11 wins        | 4         |
| At least 12 wins        | 1         |

10-WIN SEASONS

Clemson entered 2020 riding a streak of nine consecutive seasons with 10+ wins. The program's ninth consecutive 10-win season in 2019 made Clemson only the fourth program in FBS history to record at least nine consecutive 10-win seasons, tying the 2001-09 Texas Longhorns for the third-longest streak on record. With a 10th win this week, Clemson would become only the third program in FBS history to produce a "double-double" — double-digit wins in a double-digit number of consecutive seasons.

The record for consecutive 10-win seasons is 14, set by Florida State (1987-2000). Alabama is the only other program with an active streak of at least nine straight 10-win seasons.

The Tigers have 16 10-win seasons in school history, with more than half coming under head coach Dabo Swinney. The 2019 season was Clemson's sixth with at least 12 wins, with Swinney sitting at the helm for five of them.

THE 750 CLUB

In October 2019, Clemson recorded its 750th all-time victory, becoming the 15th FBS program (and first ACC program) at the time to reach 750 all-time wins.

SENIORS CHASING HISTORY

Every January, Head Coach Dabo Swinney conducts his first official meeting with his new team. The first order of business in the meeting is to "reset the room," reorganizing the seating arrangement with seniors in front and all succeeding classes in order behind them in the team auditorium.

The 2020 Clemson seniors reached the front of the room having watched each of the two classes in front of them depart as the winningest senior classes in FBS history, tied with the 2018 Alabama seniors at 55 wins in four years.

The 2019 seniors were the second Clemson class and one of only three classes all-time to reach 55 career wins in a four-year span. Clemson's 2019 group reached 55 wins in 58 games, tying the 2018 Alabama seniors as the quickest to that mark.

MOST WINS BY SENIOR CLASSES

| Rk | School         | Years          | W-L         |
|----|----------------|----------------|-------------|
| 1. | Clemson | 2016-19 | 55-4 |

|    | Boise State    | 2008-11        | 50-3        |

The 2020 Clemson seniors are 50-4 since 2017, two more wins than any other current senior class in the country. With a win their regular season finale, the 2020 Clemson seniors became the fourth straight Clemson senior class (and the 11th such class in FBS history) to record 50 wins in four years.

WINS BY CURRENT SENIOR CLASSES (SINCE 2017)

FIVE LEAGUE TITLES IN A ROW

Clemson won its fifth straight ACC championship in 2019, as the Tigers and the Oklahoma Sooners both became the first programs in an active FBS conference since the 1971-75 Alabama Crimson Tide to win five consecutive outright titles.

POWER FIVE CONFERENCE CHAMPIONS (2015-19)

| Conference | 2015           | 2016       | 2017       | 2018       | 2019       |
|------------|----------------|------------|------------|------------|------------|
| ACC        | Clemson        | Clemson    | Clemson    | Clemson    | Clemson    |
| B10        | Michigan State | Penn State | Ohio State | Ohio State | Ohio State |
| B12        | Oklahoma       | Oklahoma   | Oklahoma   | Oklahoma   | Oklahoma   |
| P12        | Stanford       | Washington | USC        | Washington | Oregon     |
| SEC        | Alabama        | Alabama    | Georgia    | Alabama    | LSU        |

Clemson had already been the first ACC school to win four outright titles in a row prior to extending the streak to five in 2019. Florida State was a champion or co-champion nine years in a row from 1992-2000, but never won more than three outright in a row.

Clemson's success in the conference championship game era is unprecedented, as in 2019, Clemson became the first school since the formation of conference championship games in 1992 to win five consecutive conference title games.

POWER OVER THE POWER FIVE

Early in his head coaching tenure, Dabo Swinney laid out his belief to then-Clemson athletic director Terry Don Phillips that the Tigers needed to add tough non-conference challenges on top of their tests in ACC play to serve as a foundation for the program's growth.

"I had a conversation with Terry Don and said, 'Terry Don, I know we are not very good right now, but we need to play people because that is going to help me teach and help me develop the culture and the mindset that you have to have to win at the highest level,'" recounted Swinney. "I didn't think we had that, and that's what we committed to. That's what we've done."

That scheduling philosophy and culture change has resonated in the Clemson program, and since 2013, no team can claim more wins against Power Five Conference opponents than the Tigers.

NO. 1 FOR NO. 1 RECRUITS

As Clemson was in the midst of the winningest decade in school history and tied for the third-winningest decade in major college football history, Head Coach Dabo Swinney would frequently point out that Clemson accomplished its goals by finding the right fits for its program in recruiting rather than chasing recruiting rankings.

Swinney often noted that Clemson accomplished its immense success in his tenure despite never signing the No. 1 recruiting class in the country. That changed in 2020, when ESPN ranked Clemson's 2020 group as the nation's top recruiting class. Clemson also recorded its highest rankings in both Rivals (No. 2) and 247 Sports (No. 3) history.

Clemson has signed the nation's consensus top player in two out of the last three recruiting cycles, welcoming quarterback Trevor Lawrence in 2018 and defensive tackle Bryan Bresee in 2020.

Clemson is the only team in the country to sign Rivals' No. 1 recruit twice in a three-year span since Dabo Swinney was named head coach at Clemson. Signing the No. 1 overall recruit again in 2021 would make Clemson the first school to sign the nation's top player in back-to-back years in accessible Rivals.com and 247 Sports data.

Clemson and Alabama (two each) are tied for the most No. 1 recruits signed since 2009 per Rivals' rankings. Clemson and Georgia (two each) are tied for the most in that span per the 247 Composite.

Clemson's recruiting classes have finished in the top 15 of at least one of three primary recruiting services (ESPN, Rivals and 247 Sports) every year since 2011. Clemson is one of only seven schools to produce a Top 15 class in each of the last 10 years, a group that also includes Alabama, Auburn, Georgia, LSU, Notre Dame and Ohio State. After that group, the next longest active streak of Top 15 classes is five (Florida).

ESTEEMED COMPANY

Head Coach Dabo Swinney's run of excellence in his decade-plus at Clemson has placed him in the company of college football legends.

Swinney boasts a career winning percentage of .813, sitting as one of only 13 head coaches in history with at least 10 seasons of FBS head coaching experience to post a mark of .800 or better.

Notes: Years reflect experience including 2020; coach must spend five years as an FBS head coach to qualify but records reflect results at all levels; carets indicate coaches with records adjusted after victories during their tenure were vacated by the NCAA

Despite having coached fewer seasons than all of the coaches listed ahead of him and despite having never coached at lower NCAA levels, Swinney ranks 14th among active FBS head coaches in total wins.

FIVE "FINAL FOURS" FOR SWINNEY

While the term "Final Four" may still be the linguistic property of the men's basketball tournament, since the advent of the four-team College Football Playoff in 2014, Head Coach Dabo Swinney has had Clemson among the sport's final four teams in each of the last five seasons, joining Alabama Head Coach Nick Saban (2014-18 seasons) as the only coaches to make the College Football Playoff five consecutive years. Oklahoma has qualified for four College Football Playoffs in the last five years, one under Bob Stoops and three in a row under current coach Lincoln Riley.

The men's college basketball tournament dates to 1939. In the history of that tournament, only John Wooden of UCLA (nine from 1967-75) and Mike Krzyzewski of Duke (five from 1988-92) coached teams to five consecutive Final Fours.

During Wooden's streak of nine straight Final Fours, he recorded eight championships and a semifinal loss. Coach K's Blue Devils had two championships, a second-place finish and two semifinal losses in their run. Saban's run produced two championships, two runner-up finishes and a semifinal loss in his run from 2014-18, while Swinney so far has two championships, two runner-up finishes and a semifinal loss from 2015-19.

Swinney is 6-3 in College Football Playoff games and that .667 percentage is tied for the best among football coaches who have been in at least three games. When compared to basketball coaches who have been in the Final Four, only three have a better winning percentage than Swinney with a minimum of eight games coached: John Wooden (21-3, .875), Adolph Rupp (9-2, .818) and Bob Knight (7-2, .778).

* - Men's Basketball Final Four or College Football Playoff games

With another "Final Four" appearance by virtue of a College Football Playoff selection in 2020, Swinney would join basketball's John Wooden (nine straight at UCLA from 1968-75) as the only college football or men's basketball coaches to take teams to six consecutive Final Fours in their respective sports.

STAFF CONTINUITY

Clemson has become a beacon of stability in the increasingly unstable environment of college football. Clemson Head Coach Dabo Swinney is in his 18th overall season at Clemson in 2020, including his 12th full season as head coach (and his 13th including an interim stint in 2008).

From the start of Swinney's first season as full-time head coach in 2009 through 2019, there had been 392 head coaching tenures in the FBS, but only one such tenure at Clemson. Clemson and Duke are the only schools in the ACC with only one head coach since the start of the 2009 season, and among the 11 schools ever to qualify for the College Football Playoff, only Clemson and Alabama have had only one head coach since 2009.

Clemson's continuity at head coach has helped create continuity throughout the entire coaching staff. This year's Clemson staff will be one of only six in the FBS to feature at least four coaches (head coach and/or full-time assistants) who have been with their current program for at least 10 seasons in 2020.

150+ GAMES COACHED

Head Coach Dabo Swinney coached his 150th game as leader of the Clemson program in the 150-year anniversary season of college football in 2019. He became just the second coach to coach 150 career games at Clemson, joining Hall of Famer Frank Howard, who coached 295 games as Clemson's head coach from 1940-69.

Entering 2020, only eight coaches had coached at least 150 games at schools presently in the Football Bowl Subdivision while achieving an .800 or better mark. Interestingly, Clemson holds a 4-0 combined all-time record against the top three coaches on the list.

* - regular season play (excludes ACC Championship Games)

On a non-percentage basis, Swinney entered 2020 ranked third in ACC history in career victories leading an ACC program. With his fifth victory of the season against Georgia Tech, Swinney passed Virginia's George Welsh for second all-time. He is also one bowl victory shy of tying Bobby Bowden's record for bowl wins as head coach of an ACC team.

ALL-TIME ACC LEADERS

Since the conference's founding in 1953, no program has won more regular season games in Atlantic Coast Conference play than Clemson. Against Virginia on Oct. 3 this year, Clemson earned its 300th official regular season victory over an ACC opponent, becoming the first program to accomplish the feat.

A FAMILIAR NO. 1

Clemson opened the season at No. 1 atop both polls, marking the program's second straight top preseason ranking. With the top selection in the AP Poll, Clemson became the sixth program since the inception of the preseason poll in 1950 ever to open consecutive preseason polls at No. 1, joining Alabama (2016-18), USC (2004-05), Oklahoma (1985-87, 1974-75, 1956-57), Ohio State (1969-70) and Notre Dame (1953-54).

Seeing Clemson at No. 1 has started to feel familiar in recent years, as 2020 is now the sixth straight year in which Clemson has appeared at No. 1 in at least one AP Poll. Dabo Swinney joined Nick Saban (13) as the only coach in AP Poll history (since 1936) to lead a team to at least one No. 1 ranking in six consecutive years. Clemson, Alabama (13 from 2008-20) and Miami (seven from 1986-92) are the only programs to appear at No. 1 in at least six consecutive years.

CONSECUTIVE SEASONS REACHING NO. 1 IN AP POLL (SINCE 1936)

A total of 22 coaches have led the AP's top-ranked team into a game at least 15 times. Sixteen of the 22 coaches on the list are College Football Hall of Famers, and a 17th (Bob Stoops) is on the ballot for 2021. Swinney holds a total of nine career victories over five coaches on the list, including two each over Stoops, Nick Saban, Urban Meyer and Steve Spurrier and one over Bobby Bowden.

CHAMPIONSHIP HERITAGE

After being named Clemson's full-time coach in December of 2008, Head Coach Dabo Swinney set about securing his first signing class in 2009.

His first class, which he tabbed the "Dandy Dozen," brought home Clemson's first ACC title since 1991 during their junior campaign in 2011. All of Clemson's first 11 signing classes under Swinney have at least one ACC title to their credit in their four years at Clemson. Every signing class since 2012 has played for at least one national title, and every class since 2013 has won a national championship with exception of Clemson's 2019 class, which fell just shy in the College Football Playoff National Championship Game last season.

EXCEEDING EXPECTATIONS

Prior to 2019, Clemson equaled or exceeded its postseason AP and USA Today rankings in comparison to its preseason rankings in eight straight seasons. That included quite an accomplishment in both 2016 and 2018, as it finished No. 1 by winning the national championship to exceed the school's No. 2 preseason ranking both times.

Clemson exceeded its USA Today coaches poll preseason ranking eight straight years from 2011-18, the longest such streak in poll history. With regard to Associated Press voting, Clemson exceeded its preseason ranking in the AP poll in seven of the last nine years. The lone exceptions came in 2013, when Clemson was picked No. 8 in the AP preseason poll and finished No. 8, and 2019, when Clemson finished second in the country after opening the season at No. 1.

PLAYOFF STREAK

With five consecutive College Football Playoff appearances, entering 2020, Clemson's active playoff streak is as long or longer than:

- 31 of 32 NFL teams
- 29 of 30 MLB teams
- 28 of 31 NHL teams
- 27 of 30 NBA teams

So, despite only four teams making the College Football Playoff each year, Clemson's playoff streak is as long or longer than 115 of the 123 teams in the four major professional sports.

Included below is a look at the only eight teams in the four major professional leagues with active playoff streaks exceeding Clemson's five:

LONGEST ACTIVE PLAYOFF STREAKS (MAJOR PROFESSIONAL SPORTS)

POLL STREAKS

Clemson has been ranked in the top 25 of 100 consecutive AP polls dating to the 2014 season, the second-longest active streak in the nation. That includes a streak of 91 straight top-10 rankings, tied for first in the country with Alabama.

In total top-25 rankings since 2011, Clemson has appeared in 155 of a possible 162 polls (95.7 percent). That is the tied for the second-most in the nation, trailing only Alabama.

WHEN IN DOUBT, CLEMSON RESPONDS

After opening the season as the preseason No. 1, Clemson held firm as the nation's No. 1 team in the AP Poll until Nov. 8, when the Tigers dropped to No. 4 following a double-overtime loss at Notre Dame. In Head Coach Dabo Swinney's tenure, the Tigers have routinely responded well following dips in the AP rankings.

Under Swinney, Clemson is 25-4 in games in which it enters ranked lower in the AP Poll than it did in its previous contest. This includes the 2014, 2016, 2017 and 2018 season openers in which Clemson opened the season lower than its ranking from the final game of the previous campaign. Including a win against Pitt following a rankings drop after its previous contest at Notre Dame, Clemson has won its last 17 games when entering ranked lower in the AP Poll than in its previous game.

Clemson is 26-6 in games following a loss under Swinney, including season openers following a loss in the previous season finale. Entering the 2020 postseason, Clemson has played 125 games since losing back-to-back games, the longest active streak in the nation and the longest in ACC history, per ESPN. Clemson's last time losing back-to-back games came in 2011.

STREAKS OF EXCELLENCE

Included below are a number of additional historically profound streaks presently being produced by Clemson:

- Has won 81 of its last 87 games overall dating to 2014.
- Has won 51 of its last 54 games against ACC teams.
- Has won 86 of its last 88 games, including each of its last 49, when leading at halftime.
- Is 108-2 since 2011 when leading after three quarters.
- Is 58-1 when scoring first since 2015.
- Has a 107-2 record when totaling more first downs than its opponent since 2011.
- Has a 64-3 record when winning the turnover margin since 2011.
- Is 67-1 when rushing for 200+ yards under Dabo Swinney.
- Is 52-0 when both passing and rushing for 200+ yards under Dabo Swinney.
- Is 51-2 since 2015 when outscoring opponents in the "Middle Eight," defined as the final four minutes of the first half and the first four minutes of the second half.
- Is 51-2 when having a 100-yard rusher since 2011.
- Has won 27 of its last 29 games away from home against ACC teams.
- Has won 27 of its last 29 road games.
- Has won 42 of its last 47 games away from home.
- Has won 49 of its last 50 games at home, including a school-record 28 in a row.
- Has won 37 of its last 38 games against ACC Atlantic Division teams, including games against typical Atlantic division foes in a division-free season in 2020.
- Has won 24 games in a row in September.
- Has won 27 of its last 28 games in October.
- Has won 15 of its last 16 games in November.

SATURDAYS ARE FOR THE TIGERS

Clemson has won 73 of its last 75 Saturday games. Clemson went 12-2 during the 2017 campaign, with its only losses coming on a Friday at Syracuse and a Monday on New Year's Day in the Sugar Bowl, followed by a 15-0 campaign in 2018 and a 14-1 season in 2019 in which its only loss was on a Monday in the College Football Playoff National Championship Game.

Before a loss to Notre Dame on Saturday, Nov. 7, 2020, you had to travel back to Nov. 12, 2016, a total of 1,456 days prior to that Notre Dame game for Clemson's most recent loss on a Saturday. Clemson's 50-game Saturday winning streak was the longest winning streak in Saturday games in FBS history, surpassing the 45 straight Saturday tilts Oklahoma won in the midst of its FBS-record 47-game winning streak in the 1950s.

The Tigers' record streak started following a 2016 loss to Pitt that was preceded by a 21-game Saturday winning streak across the 2014-16 seasons, previously the longest such streak in program history.

ESTABLISHED FIREPOWER

In the past two seasons, the 2018 and 2019 Clemson squads became two of only 21 teams since 2010 to produce a 3,000-yard passer, 1,500-yard rusher and 1,000-yard receiver. By virtue of Trevor Lawrence, Travis Etienne and Tee Higgins each reaching their respective thresholds in 2019, Clemson became the first program this decade to produce a player in all three categories in back-to-back seasons.

Clemson was the only school to produce a 3,000/1,500/1,000-yard passing/rushing/receiving trio in 2019.

SECURING FBS IMMORTALITY

Etienne has scored at least one touchdown rushing or receiving in 44 of his 53 career games.

Entering the season, the NCAA FBS Record Book listed Florida's Tim Tebow (38 games from 2006-09) and Louisiana Tech's Kenneth Dixon (38 from 2012-15) as the record-holders for most career games scoring a touchdown.

Etienne was believed to have broken that record by scoring in a 39th career game against Miami. However, after additional research by ESPN, the NCAA updated its record book to reflect the 41 games in which San Diego State's Donnel Pumphrey scored a touchdown from 2013-16, so Etienne officially claimed the record by scoring against Boston College on Oct. 31.

ACC RUSHING KING

"Think about the great backs that have come through Clemson and come through the ACC since the 1970s, and none of them did what this young man did. I'm so proud to congratulate Travis Etienne, the ACC's all-time leading rusher."

Those were Head Coach Dabo Swinney's postgame sentiments to a roar of approval in the locker room following Clemson's Oct. 31 win against Boston College. In that game, a 15-yard pitch to Etienne changed the record books, as the senior from Jennings, La. became the ACC's all-time leading rusher, breaking the mark of NC State's Ted Brown held since 1978.

SEASONS WITH 7.0+ PER CARRY

Through his first three seasons, Etienne earned the distinction as the only FBS running back to average at least 7.0 yards per carry on at least 100 carries in three different seasons since 2000. The only other FBS player to accomplish the feat since the turn of the century was Nevada quarterback Colin Kaepernick, who did so from 2008-10.

This season, Etienne will attempt to become the first FBS player since 2000 to reach that average in four different seasons. He opened his career with a 7.2-yard average on 107 carries in 2017, a career-best 8.1-yard average on 204 carries in 2018 and an ACC-leading 7.8-yard average on 207 carries in 2019.

GAMES WITH 10.0+ PER CARRY

Etienne's explosive 2019 season opener resulted in an average of 17.1 yards per carry against Georgia Tech, which at the time was the second-best single-game average of his career (19.1 vs. Louisville in 2018). Against Louisville in mid-October, he ripped off 192 yards on 14 carries for a 13.7-yard average, and in early November, he posted a career-best 23.6-yard average on nine carries for 212 yards against Wofford.

Etienne's 12 career games averaging double-digit yards per carry on at least five attempts exceed Colin Kaepernick's 11 for the most by any FBS player since 2000.

200-YARD RUSHING GAMES

Etienne recorded a then-career-high 205 yards in Clemson's 2019 season opener against Georgia Tech, the 17th 200-yard rushing game in Clemson history. It was Etienne's second career 200-yard day, tying him with Ray Yaeger, Terrence Flagler, Raymond Priestler and Andre Ellington for the most in school history.

Etienne then went on a record-grabbing spree in November 2019 against Wofford. He posted a career-high 212 yards on only nine carries, becoming the first Clemson player to post three career 200-yard games and joining Terrence Flagler as the only players with multiple 200-yard games in a single season. Etienne set those marks in the same contest in which he rushed for his 48th career touchdown to break James Davis' career record at Clemson.

Etienne's 12 carries against Georgia Tech had been the fewest by any Clemson player in the midst of a 200-yard performance. He undercut that mark with his nine-carry performance against Wofford, becoming only the third FBS player since 2000 to rush for 200 yards on single-digit carries.

HISTORY OF EXPLOSIVENESS

Ten of Etienne's 68 career rushing touchdowns have covered at least 50 yards. His 10 rushing touchdowns of 50-plus yards are the most by a Clemson player in records back to 1950, and his 11 total touchdowns covering that length (including a 53-yard touchdown reception in the Fiesta Bowl) are the second-most in that time frame.

Jacoby Ford - 5 1 2 8

Etienne has three runs of 80 or more yards in his career, surpassing the previous school record held by Derrick Witherspoon and C.J. Spiller (two each).

YARDS AFTER CONTACT

Etienne's breakaway speed tends to dominate highlight reels, but to those who watch him closest including Clemson's coaches, it's his ability to power through contact and maintain his balance that stands as his most remarkable trait.

Since Etienne became Clemson's starter in 2018, Pro Football Focus credits him with 2,470 rushing yards after contact, second-most in the Power Five behind Wisconsin's Jonathan Taylor, who averaged 36.9 carries per game in that span to Etienne's 14.0. Etienne is third among all FBS players since 2018.

TOUCHDOWN STREAKS

Etienne accounts for four of the 10 longest streaks of consecutive games with a rushing touchdown in school history. Prior to being held scoreless against The Citadel in Clemson's second game, Etienne rushed for a touchdown in 10 straight games across the 2019-20 seasons, the longest streak of consecutive games with a rushing touchdown in school history. He added another seven-game streak in 2020 prior to being held scoreless in the regular season finale at Virginia Tech.

AIR ETIENNE

Etienne had a then-career-high 98 receiving yards on three receptions with two touchdowns in Clemson's Fiesta Bowl win in last year's College Football Playoff. The 98 receiving yards were the most by a Clemson running back since C.J. Spiller recorded 104 receiving yards at Miami in 2009 in a 40-37 overtime win. It marked the first time a Clemson running back had two receiving touchdowns in a game since 2010 when Jamie Harper scored two at Auburn.

Then against Virginia in Clemson's third game of 2020, Etienne set a Clemson receiving yardage record for a running back with 114 receiving yards on five receptions. His performance broke Spiller's Clemson running back record of 108 receiving yards, set against Duke in 2008. It was only the fourth 100-yard receiving game by a running back in Clemson history, with all three previous instances recorded by Spiller.

The record set against Virginia didn't withstand Etienne's own assault later that month. He broke the record again on Oct. 31 against Boston College, recording 140 receiving yards to join Spiller (two in 2008) as the only running backs in Clemson history with multiple 100-yard receiving games in a single season.

After finishing his first two seasons with 17 career receptions for 135 yards and two touchdowns, Etienne was much more involved in the passing game in 2019, recording 37 receptions for 432 yards and four touchdowns. At the time, his 432 receiving yards in 2019 ranked as the third-most in a season for a running back in Clemson history, trailing only the 2008 and 2009 production of Spiller, a College Football Hall of Fame nominee.

Etienne is in the midst of another career year through the air, setting the Clemson single-season record with 512 receiving yards and sitting within striking distance of the school record for receptions by a running back in a single season.

Etienne's development in this part of his game late in his career allowed him to join elite company in college football history. Entering 2020, only 11 players in FBS history had finished their careers with at least 4,000 rushing yards and at least 1,000 receiving yards. By exceeding 1,000 career receiving yards in Clemson's Oct. 31 game against Boston College, Etienne became the 12th FBS player all-time to join the 4,000/1,000 club.

Entering the ACC Championship Game, Etienne has 750 rushing yards and 512 receiving yards on the year. Only eight FBS players have 750 rushing yards and 200 receiving yards this season. Etienne's 512 receiving yards this season are more than 200 yards more than the next closest back (UNC's Javonte Williams, 305).

Since 2000, Etienne is one of only eight FBS players (and one of four Power Five players) to amass at least 750 rushing yards and at least 500 receiving yards through the first 10 games of a season, the first since Penn State's Saquon Barkley in 2017.

Despite being ninth in the ACC in rushing yards per game this season, Etienne's 127.0 yards from scrimmage per game are within one yard of the ACC lead this season.

TREAD ON THE TIRES

While some observers were surprised by Etienne's decision to return to Clemson in 2020, a projected second-round grade and a desire to complete his degree program made Etienne's call an easy one.

"I just felt like I could come back and improve that grade," Etienne said. "I don't have my degree. Coming back and going second round (in 2021), at least I'd have my degree. Leaving for the second round has never been a dream of mine. I feel like I can do so much better than that. The NFL is going to be there."

Detractors cited the "wear and tear" of another collegiate season as reasons why Etienne would have benefited from turning pro, but the story of Etienne's career usage has been one of immense production in very measured opportunities. In his first three seasons from 2017-19, Etienne averaged only 12.0 carries per game. Even accounting for only his first two seasons as a full-time starter, he averaged only 13.7 carries per game from 2018-19.

The difference in the amount of tread left on Etienne's tires, figuratively speaking, to some of the NFL's most recent draft picks at running back is stark. All six running backs selected in the first two rounds of the 2020 NFL Draft were early entrants, and Etienne entered his senior season with fewer career carries than all but two of the six.

NOTES

Etienne's single-season career high in carries is 207, set in 2019. Even if Etienne were to add another 207 carries in 2020 to his career total from 2017-19, despite using all four years of his eligibility, he would still enter the NFL with 201 fewer carries than Jonathan Taylor's three-year career, 120 fewer carries than AJ Dillon's three-year run and the exact same number as J.K. Dobbins' three-year tenure.

-- NO. 16 QB TREVOR LAWRENCE --

QB WIN STREAKS

After entering his first four career games at Clemson as a reserve, Trevor Lawrence was named Clemson's starting quarterback heading into its game against Syracuse on Sept. 29, 2018. Clemson's victory in that contest was its first with Lawrence as a starter.

Lawrence would go on to guide Clemson to another 24 straight wins as the starting quarterback prior to suffering his first defeat in the College Football Playoff National Championship game to conclude the 2019 season. Per ESPN Stats & Info, Lawrence's 25-game winning streak tied for the sixth-longest by a starting quarterback in major college football history and finished one shy of being the longest such streak to open a career.

HISTORICAL COMPARISON

Before a positive COVID-19 test caused him to miss Clemson's seventh game of the season, Lawrence's hot start to the 2020 season compared favorably among those of the nine quarterbacks to win the Heisman Trophy since 2010.

INTERCEPTION AVOIDANCE

While mild panic emerged from national observers about Lawrence's eight interceptions early in 2019, Lawrence finished the 2019 season with a school record for consecutive pass attempts without an interception. Across 2019-20, Lawrence went 12 straight games without throwing an interception before throwing his first interception in Clemson's fifth game of the 2020 season.

Lawrence's 1.42 percent interception rate is the best among Clemson quarterbacks all-time with at least 150 career pass attempts, and is second among those with at least 100 attempts behind only his protégé, D.J. Uiagalelei.

Note: Minimum 100 passing attempts.

As a freshman, Lawrence set a then-single-season Clemson record by closing the 2018 season with 169 consecutive pass attempts without an interception. Lawrence threw an interception on his 13th pass attempt of the 2019 season opener against Georgia Tech, ending a streak of 182 consecutive pass attempts without an interception.

As a sophomore, Lawrence shattered school single-season and multi-season records in that category in 2019. Across the 2019 and 2020 campaigns, he threw a school-record 366 pass attempts without an interception, the second-longest streak in ACC history. In all, he went 364 calendar days between an interception at Louisville on Oct. 19, 2019 and his next interception on Oct. 17, 2020 at Georgia Tech.

ALL-AMERICAN DOUBLE?

If Trevor Lawrence and running back Travis Etienne were to both earn consensus All-American status (first-team honors from three or more of the five NCAA-recognized selectors) following the season, it would mark only the sixth such occurrence in FBS history. Clemson will attempt to become only the third school to produce such a duo, joining Notre Dame (four) and Penn State (one).

* - Statistics after throwing interception on his final pass attempt of the first quarter in that game; ^ - Statistics prior to throwing interception on 12th pass attempt of that game

Last season, Lawrence set a school record for consecutive completions in a single game, completing 18 consecutive passes at South Carolina to break the mark held by Cullen Harper (15 vs. Central Michigan in 2007) and Kelly Bryant (15 vs. Miami in 2017). His 18 consecutive completions tied ACC single-game records held by Virginia's Michael Rocco (vs. Miami in 2012) and North Carolina's Mitch Trubisky (vs. James Madison in 2016).

300-YARD GAMES

Clemson's balance and its willingness to take what defenses offer on the ground or through the air sometimes limits opportunities for Lawrence to accrue some of the passing numbers put up around the country. But even playing in an offense that values balance and for a coach who values spreading playing time throughout the roster, Lawrence has still been able to light up defenses in his career, ranking third on Clemson's all-time leaderboard in 300-yard passing games.

RETURNING 4,000-YARD CAREER RUSHERS (FBS HISTORY)

Clemson returned one of the most prolific career passer-rusher duos in college football history in 2020. Trevor Lawrence entered his junior campaign with 6,945 career passing yards, while Travis Etienne entered his senior season with 4,038 career rushing yards. The 2020 Clemson Tigers became only the third team in FBS history to return a 6,000-yard career passer and 4,000-yard career rusher, joining the 2001 Oregon State Beavers and 2018 Washington Huskies.

Per data available via Sports Reference, of the 139 players who have rushed for 4,000 yards all-time prior to 2020, Etienne was one of only 14 to enter his final collegiate season with 4,000 career yards.

LAWRENCE'S LEGS

Lawrence had a Clemson team-high and career-best 107 rushing yards on 16 carries and scored on a career-long 67-yard run in Clemson's 29-23 win against Ohio State in last year's PlayStation Fiesta Bowl. The 67-yard run was the longest by a Clemson quarterback since Woody Dantzler had a 75-yard scoring run at Virginia in 2000.

Lawrence finished 2019 with 563 rushing yards on 103 carries, an average of 5.47 yards per rush. That rushing average was the best in a season for a Clemson quarterback since transitioning away from single-wing formations in 1953.

KILLER T'S STRIKE IN OPENER

The prolific duo of Trevor and Travis shot out of the starting gate quickly in 2020, with Lawrence producing 351 passing yards and Etienne producing 102 rushing yards in Clemson's season opener at Wake Forest.

The performance represented the 15th time in history that Clemson has produced both a 300-yard passer and a 100-yard rusher in a single game. All 15 instances at Clemson have come since the turn of the century. Twelve have come under Dabo Swinney, including four by the Lawrence/Etienne duo.

It was the seventh time Clemson had a 350-yard passer and a 100-yard rusher in a game.

-- NO. 5 QB D.J. UIAGALELEI --

"BIG CINCO" ON BIG STAGE

Asked for the proper pronunciation of his name, true freshman Clemson quarterback D.J. Uiagalelei will walk you through the syllables of his surname of Samoan descent:

"ooh-ee-AHN-guh-luh-lay"

But he'll also offer a helpful tip:

"Or you can just call me 'Big Cinco.'"

Big Cinco is the 250-pound first-year quarterback wearing No. 5 who earned Clemson's backup quarterback job behind Trevor Lawrence early in the 2020 season.

On Oct. 31 against Boston College, Uiagalelei was thrust into the starting lineup after Lawrence was diagnosed with COVID-19. With the win in his first start, Clemson improved to 20-13 all-time in games started by true freshman quarterbacks. He joined Steve Fuller, Willie Jordan, Patrick Sapp, Nealson Greene, Deshaun Watson and Lawrence as one of only seven true freshmen ever to start for Clemson at quarterback, and he joined Watson and Lawrence as the only true freshmen to win their starting debuts.

Uiagalelei impressed against Boston College as Clemson overcame an 18-point deficit to record the largest comeback win in the history of Death Valley. He completed 30-of-41 passes for 342 yards with two passing touchdowns and no interceptions, and also rushed six times for 25 yards with a rushing touchdown. His 342 passing yards were the third-most by a Clemson freshman (true or redshirt) in his starting debut, trailing Deshaun Watson's 435 yards against North Carolina in 2014 and Charlie Whitehurst's 420 yards against Duke in 2002.

A week later, Uiagalelei completed 29-of-44 passes for a career-high 439 yards with two passing touchdowns in a double-overtime contest against No. 4 Notre Dame. His 439 passing yards were the third-most in a game in school history and broke Watson's school freshman record of 435. The 439 passing yards were the most ever thrown against Notre Dame by an opposing quarterback, breaking the mark of 425 held by USC's Carson Palmer in 2002.

-- NO. 3 WR AMARI RODGERS --

COMEBACK KID

Since his arrival at Clemson in 2017, Amari Rodgers has been hailed by coaches and teammates as one of the program's hardest workers. The work ahead of Rodgers was substantial on March 25, 2019, when the wide receiver from Knoxville, Tenn., tore his ACL during spring practice.

Rodgers attacked his rehab with his trademark work ethic, returning to action 166 days later in Clemson's second game of the 2019 season, receiving a thunderous roar from Death Valley following his first reception. Rodgers completed his comeback 2019 campaign with 30 catches for 426 yards and four touchdowns.

With the national spotlight no longer being split with Tee Higgins and Justyn Ross, Rodgers is shining in 2020. After playing with a knee brace last season, Rodgers is playing without a brace this year in his "All Gas, No Brace" season, and the production has followed, as he set a new single-season career high for receiving yardage in only his seventh game of the season. He enters this week third in the ACC in receiving yards and tied for fourth in the ACC with six receiving touchdowns.

-- NO. 17 WR CORNELL POWELL --

HIS TIME

In an era of instant gratification, Clemson's 2020 offense features a story of patience and perseverance in fifth-year senior wide receiver Cornell Powell.

Powell, a former four-star recruit from Greenville, N.C., entered his fifth year in the Clemson program with 40 career receptions for 329 yards and two touchdowns. But he was one of the standouts of Clemson's abbreviated spring practices and quickly claimed a starting role for 2020.

"I am just proud of him because he hung in there. He battled in camp. He had a sense of desperation to him because he knew there are some talented guys in the receivers room, but he stepped up and he got better," Head Coach Dabo Swinney said. "He stepped up and made some big plays. He has been awesome. He has been a really good leader for us. He has put the work in. I am really proud of him."

Instead of transferring in search of greener pastures, Powell has put together a career year in 2020 with 41 receptions for 684 yards and five receiving touchdowns.

"Nothing easy is worth having," Powell said. "Everybody has to wait their turn."

While waiting wasn't easy for Powell, he took comfort in knowing the pedigree of his Wide Receiver U brethren in front of him during his career.

"I came in and had Mike Williams, Artavis Scott, Hunter Renfrow. We had Deon Cain, then we had Ray-Ray McCloud, and then we had Diondre Overton, Tee [Higgins] and J-Ross," Powell said. "Those guys are no slouches."

Powell reached the 100-yard mark against Boston College, Notre Dame and Pitt, tying Charlie Waters (1969), Tony Horne (1997), Rod Gardner (2000), DeAndre Hopkins (2012) and Sammy Watkins (2013) for the school record for consecutive 100-yard receiving games. With 161 yards at Notre Dame and 176 yards vs. Pitt, he joined rather select company as only the third Clemson player ever to post consecutive 150-yard receiving games.

-- DEFENSE --

WELCOME TO THE SHOW

Clemson entered its 2020 season opener against Wake Forest missing two presumptive preseason starters at defensive end in Justin Foster and Xavier Thomas, perhaps leaving the uninitiated to wonder from where Clemson's pass rush might come.

America, meet true freshmen Myles Murphy and Bryan Bresee.

Bresee joined Clemson as the consensus No. 1 player in America for the class of 2020. Murphy joined the Tigers as ESPN.com's third-ranked player in the class. Both made an immediate impact in their collegiate debuts.

It had been five years since a Clemson true freshman had recorded a sack in a season opener, when Dexter Lawrence and Tre Lamar each did so in the 2016 season opener at Auburn. Both Murphy and Bresee got on the stat sheet in the opener against Wake, with Murphy compiling two sacks among a team-high seven tackles and Bresee adding half a sack and the Tigers' first blocked field goal since Week 2 of 2018. Murphy has accounted for three forced fumbles this year, the most by a freshman (true or redshirt) under Dabo Swinney.

The duo has been joined by a midseason surge by fellow true freshman linebacker Trenton Simpson, a former high school running back with a presence of an edge rusher who is still learning the linebacker position. Murphy, Bresee and Simpson are all within a sack of entering the Top 5 in Clemson history in sacks by a true freshman.

THE BRUISE BROTHERS

Behind Clemson's precocious defensive line is a pair of veteran linebackers that are leaving their mark on opponents this year and led Head Coach Dabo Swinney to coin one of college football's top new nicknames: "The Bruise Brothers."

Though he missed three full games while recovering from a groin injury this year, middle linebacker James Skalski is in his fifth year in the Clemson program. He took a mid-career redshirt in 2018, playing four games including the ACC Championship Game, Cotton Bowl and National Championship Game in what he and others have called "the sweetest gig on the team" that year before becoming a full-time starter in 2019. The physical presence of No. 47 has led Swinney referring to him as "a war daddy" and calling his participation in practices and scrimmages "just unfair."

But Skalski has had a new running mate at the second level of the defense this year, as redshirt junior Baylon Spector has produced superlative performances so far in 2020 including an ACC Linebacker of the Week selection for his play against Virginia on Oct. 3. The first-year starter announced his presence in a reserve role in last year's College Football Playoff when he had two sacks against Ohio State in the Fiesta Bowl.

"[Spector] and Skalski, it's a reflection of how they practice. I'm telling you, every single rep at practice is a game rep to those two guys. They put a ton of work in every week to get themselves ready to play," Swinney said. "I know how hard they've worked. It's the unseen grind. That's a ton of work that they've put in."

"I call them The Bruise Brothers. Those two right there, it's something to watch and it's fun to see."

The duo's success is not merely a function of their physicality and hard work. Defensive Coordinator Brent Venables praised the cerebral nature of their play as well.

"They've developed some really good chemistry together. They're always having side chat conversations when I'm trying to talk with the whole defense and I'm having to correct at practice, and I look over and they're coaching each other. Sometimes that bothers me, I'll be honest, [smiling] but I absolutely love it because it's always about the details of what we're talking about," Venables said. "They're like two coaches, really, out on the field."

300 OR FEWER YARDS

Clemson opened the 2019 season by keeping each of their first 12 opponents to fewer than 300 yards, marking the first time in ESPN Stats & Info searchable data going back to 1996 that a team had held the first 12 opponents of a season under that mark. ACC Coastal Division champion Virginia became the first team to hit the 300-yard plateau on Clemson, accounting for 387 in the ACC Championship Game.

Included below is a look at the most games holding opponents under 300 yards to open a season since 2000.

MOST CONSECUTIVE GAMES HOLDING TEAMS UNDER 300 YARDS TO OPEN A SEASON

| Rk | School     | Season | Games |
|----|------------|--------|-------|
| 1. | Clemson    | 2019   | 12    |
| 2. | Ohio State | 2019   | 11    |
| 3. | Alabama    | 2011   | 10    |
| 4. | LSU        | 2006   | 9     |
| 5. | Alabama    | 2012   | 8     |

Note: FBS teams since 2000

Clemson has held opponents under 300 yards of offense 27 times since the start of the 2018 season, the most in the country.

MOST GAMES HOLDING OPPONENTS UNDER 300 YARDS (SINCE 2018)

| Rk | School          | Games |
|----|-----------------|-------|
| 1. | Clemson         | 27    |
| 2. | Georgia         | 22    |

| 4. | UAB             | 20    |
| 5. | Alabama         | 19    |

DEFENSIVE POINT THRESHOLDS

Prior to surrendering 23 points in the 2019 Fiesta Bowl, Clemson had not surrendered more than 20 points since the 2018 regular season finale and had held 16 consecutive opponents to 20 or fewer points. A defensive streak of that length had not occurred at Clemson in 79 years, when Hall of Fame coaches Jess Neely and Frank Howard combined for a 31-game streak across the 1937-40 seasons.

Prior to the 16-game streak in 2018-19, there had been only four streaks of 15 or more such games in Clemson history. All four came in a vastly different era not just for college football, but for Clemson University as well. At the time of all four previous streaks, Clemson was an all-male, military institution still operating as Clemson Agricultural College before becoming known as Clemson University in 1964.

CONSECUTIVE OPPONENTS HELD TO 20 OR FEWER POINTS (CLEMSON HISTORY)

| Rk | Seasons   | Games |
|----|-----------|-------|
| 1. | 1899-1905 | 38    |
| 2. | 1937-40   | 31    |

| 4. | 2018-19   | 16    |
| 5. | 1933-34   | 15    |

Just above the 20-point threshold, Clemson has won 88 consecutive games when holding opponents under 23 points, a streak that dates to the 2010 season. Since 2014, Clemson has held opponents to 22 or fewer points in 70 games, the most in the nation. Clemson is 70-0 in those contests.

GAMES HOLDING OPPONENTS UNDER 23 POINTS (SINCE 2014)

STOPPING THE RUN

Clemson has held opponents to 2.0 or fewer yards per carry in 24 games in the College Football Playoff era (since 2014), the second-most in the country. Clemson is 23-1 in those contests.

Clemson opened 2020 with two such performances. Clemson allowed only 1.1 yards per carry in its season

POINTS ALLOWED PER POSSESSION

Since Brent Venables joined Clemson as defensive coordinator prior to the 2012 season, Clemson has allowed only 1.14 points per possession against FBS opponents, the second-fewest in the country in that span. No program has given up fewer points per possession against FBS opponents since 2018, as Clemson's 0.91 points allowed per possession since the start of the 2018 season makes Clemson the only program in the country to allow fewer than a full point per drive to opponents.

THE CFP ERA'S DOMINANT DEFENSE

Since the advent of the College Football Playoff in 2014, Clemson has routinely produced one of the nation's elite defenses.

Clemson has ranked in the Top 10 in the country in total defense in each of the last six seasons and has ranked among the Top 10 in scoring defense in four of those campaigns.

CLEMSON DEFENSE SINCE 2014

| Year | Yds/G | Rank | Pts/G | Rank |
|------|-------|------|-------|------|
| 2014 | 260.8 | 1    | 16.7  | 3    |
| 2015 | 313.0 | 10   | 21.7  | 24   |

| 2019 | 288.3 | 6    | 13.5  | 3    |

Clemson is the only program in the country to produce a Top 10 defense in each of the last six years.

BACKFIELD INVADERS

Clemson's defense calls Death Valley home but might as well file for dual residency in opponents' backfields. Since Brent Venables took over as Clemson's defensive coordinator in 2012, Clemson leads the nation in both sacks and tackles for loss, and has led the country in tackles for loss in five of the previous eight seasons.

* - indicates shared lead

Clemson's success sacking quarterbacks has not been limited to a handful of high-production players but is instead indicative of team-wide success. In the College Football Playoff era (since 2014), 72 different Clemson players have recorded at least half a sack, including a nation-high 19 different players in 2020.

MOST PLAYERS WITH AT LEAST HALF A SACK (FBS, 2020)

| 4. | Notre Dame | 15      |
|    | Virginia   | 14      |

Despite no individual player having more than 4.0 sacks this season, Clemson's 38 sacks rank second in the country. The only team ahead of Clemson is Pitt, whom Clemson out-sacked, 6-3, on Nov. 28.

TAKEAWAYS, NO GIVEAWAYS

Clemson emphasizes the importance of turnover margin every week on what it dubs "TANOGA Tuesday," standing for "TakeAways, NO GiveAways."

Clemson has 12 giveaways in 10 games this season, a 1.20 turnovers-per-game mark that would rank 10th in school history. Clemson finished 2019 with 15 giveaways on the season, as its 1.0 per-game average in giveaways ranked third in school history, behind only the 1940 and 2007 seasons.

FEWEST TURNOVERS PER GAME (CLEMSON HISTORY)

Note: Clemson has 1.20 turnovers per game in 2020

The 2019 Tigers won the turnover margin 11 times, Clemson's most in a season under Dabo Swinney. Clemson won the turnover margin for the first time in 2020 in its third game against Virginia. Clemson finished plus-two in turnovers that game, then finished plus-two the following week as well against Miami. Clemson's top performance in the turnover margin this season came in a plus-four effort against Pitt.

Last year, Clemson's plus-15 margin in turnovers tied with the 1989 team for the ninth-best mark in school history, and at +1.00 per game, Clemson finished eighth in the country in turnover margin per game, the program's first time ranking in the Top 10 in the category since 2007 (+1.00, ninth). By total margin rather than by per-game margin, Clemson finished tied for sixth in the country in 2019.

Clemson enters this week ranked tied for fourth in the nation in turnover margin, aided in part by 22 takeaways (tied for second-most in the country), including 13 interceptions (tied for seventh-most in the country).

POINTS OFF TURNOVERS

Clemson's offense and defense have both been dominant in possessions following turnovers since the 2018 ACC Championship Game. Since that time, the Tigers hold a 279-59 advantage against opponents in points off turnovers.

Clemson outscored opponents off turnovers, 134-21, in 2019, and its +7.53-point-per-game differential off turnovers ranked third in the country. This season, Clemson is outscoring opponents 107-31 off turnovers, with 21 of the 31 points allowed surrendered directly by the Clemson offense.

Prior to giving up seven points on a pick-six against Syracuse on Oct. 24, Clemson had not surrendered points off a turnover in 15 full games. The streak lasted more than a calendar year, dating to Sept. 28, 2019, when North Carolina converted a lost fumble into a touchdown and won the points-off-turnover battle, 7-0.

On Nov. 7, Notre Dame scored on a 45-yard field goal following a Clemson fumble. Clemson had entered the game having played its last 17 complete games without having surrendered a point off of a turnover defensively prior to that possession, as its only points surrendered off turnovers in that span had come on behalf of the Clemson offense.

SPOTLIGHT ON THE SPECIALISTS

- B.T. Potter, PK: Clemson's cannon-legged Lou Groza Award semifinalist has been remarkably consistent on both his shortest kicks and his longest kicks throughout his career. He is 139-for-140 on PATs, and his 122 consecutive PATs prior to his first miss shattered Clemson's school record (88 by Mark Buchholz from 2007-08). Potter, who has been one of the nation's foremost touchback specialists throughout his career, is also 5-for-6 on field goal attempts of 50 yards or more during his Clemson tenure, tying Clemson's record for career field goals of 50 yards or more.

- Will Spiers, P: A four-year starter at punter, Spiers made his 47th career start on Oct. 3, breaking Cole Chason's Clemson record for a punter (46 from 2003-06). His experience has been evident in his finish to the 2019 season and his hot start in 2020. In 2019, he finished with a career-high 41.7-yard net average, the second-best single-season mark in school history behind Dale Hatcher's 1984 performance (42.4), and he saved his best performances for the biggest games, dropping 10 of his 16 punts in last year's College Football Playoff inside the 20. He averaged at least 50.0 yards per punt in three-straight games against Miami, Georgia Tech and Syracuse this year, a career-long streak.

- Will Swinney, H: Spiers is not the only four-year starter among Clemson's special teams corps. Swinney is in his fourth season as Clemson's primary holder and has held for more placekicks than any player in Clemson history. Since 2017, Clemson has scored 449 points on placekicks, including field goals and PATs. Swinney, a 2020 William V. Campbell Trophy semifinalist, has held for 444 of those 449 points, and including his receiving touchdown vs. Louisville in 2018, he's touched the ball for 450 total points for Clemson in his career. Clemson's only five kicking points not held by Will Swinney in his career were instead held by his brother, Drew. Clemson's last hold by any player outside the Swinney family was on the final point of Clemson's 2016 national championship following Hunter Renfrow's touchdown with one second remaining.

- Jack Maddox, LS: Maddox is in his first-year as Clemson's starting long snapper. A native of Acton, Mass., his attention first turned to Clemson after visiting his uncle, who is a professor at the university. He walked on at Clemson, and this past August, the redshirt junior was en route to Clemson's Applied Science Lab to take a nap when Head Coach Dabo Swinney approached him and asked him if he'd already paid his fall tuition. Upon Maddox confirming that he had, Swinney told him he'd have a little extra money in his pocket this semester, as Maddox was being placed on scholarship for the 2020 season.

- Quinn Castner, PK: Castner joined Clemson's program in August. At 140 pounds, the 5-foot-5 walk-on became the 15th player below 150 pounds to appear on Clemson's roster since 1944. He became a viral sensation for his debut against The Citadel once Dabo Swinney, after exaggerating Castner's vitals as "5-foot-3 and 80 pounds... maybe," told the following anecdote about Castner and Clemson's current culture: "I put him out there and gave him a chance to kick one off, and listen, he ain't kicked one deep in the end zone yet since he's been here... So I put the first [team] kickoff out there and said, 'All right, boys, we've got a little wind, I'm putting my man Quinn out there. Y'all know this is coming out and y'all need some dadgum practice...' Potter booms 'em out of the end zone and I wanted them to get a little work, so I got my man Quinn out there, and what does he do? He kicks that sucker four yards deep in the end zone, and the whole team went crazy. They just loved it, and, I mean, that's special."

RÉSUMÉ BUILDERS

With the College Football Playoff selection show less than a week away, teams around the country are polishing their résumés for evaluation by the selection committee.

One of the metrics used by the committee to evaluate teams is Strength of Record, described by SportSource Analytics as such: "The Strength of Record (SoR) Rating is a measurement of a team's performance against the average margin of victory of the opponent. For example, if a team plays an opponent that wins by 7 points on average and they beat that team by 10 points, then they would have SoR Rating of +17 for that game. Each game is also adjusted for home and away factors. When viewed as an overall rating, it tells you that a team typically performs better (if positive) or worse

(if negative) against opponents than teams typically perform against them."

Clemson ranks third in the country in Strength of Record in 2020.

PLAYERS PER GAME

One year after leading all AP Top 25 finishers with an average of 72.5 players per game in 2018, Clemson once again lapped the field in average players per game in 2019.

Clemson played an average of 76.0 players per game in 2019, an average that far exceeded all Power Five programs by more than 11 players — a full unit — per game.

The approach to creating functional depth and rewarding players ready to play has been a key philosophy for Head Coach Dabo Swinney, whose own collegiate playing career was hatched as a walk-on fighting for playing time in Alabama's receiving corps.

"We're fully committed to playing guys who deserve to play," Swinney said. "You commit to a guy early in the season, and even if a guy has only played 10 percent of the snaps, when you get to game eight or nine, they've got some good experience."

That philosophy was on display in record fashion against Charlotte in September 2019, when Clemson played a school-record 111 players. Clemson later played 105 players against Wofford and 93 players against Wake Forest that season as well.

Clemson's high-water mark for player participation this season is 96 against The Citadel in the team's home opener. Clemson approached that mark with 94 against Pitt in November.

* - first year of new redshirt regulations

Clemson opened the season by playing 78 of 80 available players in the season opener at Wake Forest. The only two available Tigers who did not appear in the contest were reserve running back Lyn-J Dixon, who was being held for emergency situations, and reserve placekicker Jonathan Weitz. A week later, 96 of Clemson's 105 dressed players saw action against The Citadel. Clemson has recorded 731 combined man-games out of a possible 952 from available players this season, meaning Clemson has played an average of 76.8 percent of its available players in each game this season.

YOUTH + EXPERIENCE

One year after Clemson returned a school-record 61 lettermen for the 2018 season, Clemson entered the 2019 campaign with a roster that included 80 freshmen and sophomores. Clemson's 2020 squad is a mixture of youth and experience, as Clemson has 60 returning lettermen yet still features a roster that entered the year with 81 players classified as freshmen or sophomores.

In the first year of new redshirt regulations in 2018, Clemson played a then-school-record 20 true freshmen. Clemson immediately shattered that record in its 2019 season opener, with 27 true freshmen making their collegiate debuts in that contest. An additional eight true freshmen made their debuts to push that total to a school-record 36. The only true freshmen not to see game action for Clemson in 2019 were injured linebackers Bryton Constantin and Matthew Maloney.

Clemson's 78-player participation in its 2020 season opener included 22 true freshmen from Clemson's most recent 23-player recruiting class who made their collegiate debuts in the contest. The only Clemson true freshman signee who did not play in the game was DeMonte Capehart, who did not travel with the team.

Capehart made his debut a week later against The Citadel, as did true freshmen walk-ons Hunter Helms, Quinn Castner and Bubba McAtee. Walk-on Will Blackston made his debut in November vs.

Pitt. Clemson's 27 true freshman to see game action were the second-most in the country as of the end of Clemson's regular season.

Note: Through end of Clemson regular season (Dec. 5)

Clemson's youth has been evident in the starting lineup as well. While the focus on Clemson's experienced offensive backfield created an impression of an overtly veteran roster, Clemson has actually had 26 different players who earned their first career starts at some point in 2020: CB Andrew Booth Jr., DL Bryan Bresee, S Joseph Charleston, TE Braden Galloway, CB Mario Goodrich, CB Malcolm Greene, DE K.J. Henry, LB Mike Jones Jr., CB Sheridan Jones, WR Frank Ladson Jr., DE Justin Mascoll, OT Jordan McFadden, DE Myles Murphy, WR Joseph Ngata, S Jalyn Phillips, WR Cornell Powell, OL Will Putnam, LB Trenton Simpson, LB Baylon Spector, WR Brannon Spector, S Ray Thornton III, QB D.J. Uiagalelei, LB Jake Venables, WR E.J. Williams, DT Jordan Williams and S Lannden Zanders.

Clemson's 26 first-time starters are tied for the second-most in the country.

| 5. | Utah State     | 23        |

Note: Through end of Clemson regular season (Dec. 5)

Clemson has started 40 different players this year (38 excluding kicker B.T. Potter and punter Will Spiers). That includes 23 different starters on defense. As first noted by Larry Williams of Tiger Illustrated, the 23 different starters are the Clemson defense's most in a year since Brent Venables' arrival as defensive coordinator in 2012. Clemson's average under Venables has been 16.5, and Clemson's two national title teams of that era in 2016 and 2018 started 16 and 15 different players, respectively.

MEETING (AND BEATING) THE BEST

Clemson's first Top 25 matchup of the season came in a 42-17 win against No. 7 Miami on Oct. 10.

Since 2015, Clemson is 22-4 (.846) against AP Top 25 teams, the second-best winning percentage in the country.

TAKING CARE OF BUSINESS

Clemson has won 34 consecutive games against teams unranked in the AP Poll, the program's second-longest such winning streak since the inception of the poll in 1936. Clemson's last defeat at the hands of an unranked squad came in 2017 at Syracuse.

Clemson's longest winning streak against unranked teams came across the 2012-16 seasons, when Clemson won 46 in a row starting with a season-opening win against Auburn in 2012 and ending with an upset loss to Pitt in 2016.

Clemson is 108-12 against AP-unranked teams under Dabo Swinney, including wins in 85 of 87 games against those unranked teams since the start of the 2012 season.

600-YARD GAMES

After setting a school record with five 600-yard games in 2019, Clemson produced its first 600-yard game of 2020 on Oct. 17 at Georgia Tech when the Tigers accumulated 671 yards in a resounding 73-7 win. Clemson threw for exactly 500 yards in the contest, the second-most in a game in school history but its most in a victory and its most in a road game in school annals.

Clemson outgained Georgia Tech, 671-204, after outgaining Miami by 340 yards a week earlier, helping Clemson outgain consecutive ACC opponents by 300-plus yards for the first time since the Louisville and Boston College games in 2018.

By outgaining Georgia Tech by 467 yards, Clemson tied for its fourth-largest yardage differential in a game since 1953. It was Clemson's second-largest yardage margin against an ACC opponent all-time, trailing only a 497-yard yardage differential against Boston College last season.

400-YARD GAMES

Clemson has reached the 400-yard mark in each of its first 10 games this season, the second-longest streak to open a season in school history, behind only the 2018 Tigers, which reached the 400-yard mark in all 15 games of their 15-0 national championship season.

Clemson's 10 400-yard games in 2020 are tied for the FBS lead and its 72 400-yard games since 2015 are the most in the country.

COMEBACK FOR THE AGES

On Oct. 31, Clemson trailed Boston College at home, 28-10, with 1:02 remaining in the first half with no remaining timeouts. Quarterback D.J. Uiagalelei then led a 10-play, 42-yard drive in 55 seconds to get a B.T. Potter 50-yard field goal before half. The drive jumpstarted Clemson's comeback 34-28 victory, as the Tigers scored 24 unanswered for the win. Of note:

- Clemson trailed by 18 points in the first half, making the win Clemson's largest home comeback victory in school history. Clemson's largest comeback victory in Death Valley prior to Saturday had come in 1966, when Clemson turned a 17-point 35-18 deficit into a 40-35 win against Virginia.

- The win tied for the second-largest comeback win in school history at any location, matching an 18-point comeback at Maryland in 2011, which had also stood as Clemson's largest comeback win under Dabo Swinney.

- The game was Clemson's 15th victory all-time when trailing by 14 or more points at any point of the game. It was Clemson's sixth such comeback win under Dabo Swinney and its first since the 2019 Fiesta Bowl, when Clemson overcame a 16-point deficit for a win.

- Clemson overcame a 15-point halftime deficit, its largest halftime deficit overcome by Clemson in a victory since overcoming a 21-point halftime deficit in a 29-28 win at Virginia in 1992.

- Clemson trailed by two points entering the fourth quarter. It was Clemson's 10th win under Dabo Swinney when trailing after three quarters and its first since 2018 against Syracuse.

MEMORABLE DAY IN "THE A"

Clemson's 73-7 win at Georgia Tech on Oct. 17 resonated historically. Among the superlatives from that contest:

- Clemson's 66-point victory margin was the largest in a game between two ACC teams since the conference's inception in 1953.

- The 66-point victory margin tied for Clemson's seventh-largest in school history and its largest since a 66-point win against South Carolina State in 2014. It was Clemson's second-largest win all-time against a school presently in the Football Bowl Subdivision, trailing only a 73-0 victory against Georgia Tech in 1903.

- Clemson's 73 points represented Clemson's third-most against an ACC opponent all-time, trailing its 82-point performance against Wake Forest in 1981 and its 77 points against Louisville in 2018. However, both of those performances came at home, so Saturday's output was the most scored by Clemson in an ACC road game all-time, passing its 63 at Wake Forest in 2018.

- Clemson's 73 points tied for Clemson's second-most points in a road game in school history, trailing its 94 against Furman in 1915 and matching its 73 at Georgia Tech in 1903.

- Clemson opened the game with a modern-era school-record 52 points in the first half. Clemson's previous high against an ACC opponent in a first half was 49 in its opening two frames against Wake Forest in its national championship campaign in 1981.

- Clemson produced 473 yards in the first half, only 14 yards shy of the school record for yards in a half (487 vs. Duke in 2012).

- Clemson tied a school record for points in a quarter with 35 in the second quarter, matching its second quarter against Wake Forest in 1981 and its third quarter against North Carolina in 2011.

- Clemson threw seven passing touchdowns, breaking the school record of six set previously against Central Michigan in 2007, against Duke in 2012, against North Carolina in 2014 and against South Carolina in 2016.

- Four different players (including starting punter and emergency quarterback Will Spiers) completed at least two passes and 17 different players caught a pass to contribute to the Tigers' second 500-yard passing day in school history. Clemson's 17 different players recording a reception were its most in a single-game under Dabo Swinney.

WALK-ON QB MAKES CLEMSON HISTORY

Clemson had four different players complete at least two passes in its 73-7 rout of Georgia Tech on Oct. 17. That included 24 completions by starting quarterback Trevor Lawrence, two by reserve quarterback Taisun Phommachanh and two by starting punter/emergency quarterback Will Spiers, but it also featured a 5-for-7 passing performance by true freshman walk-on quarterback Hunter Helms.

Helms' five completions went for 74 yards and two touchdowns, including touchdown passes to running back Kobe Pace and wide receiver Ajou Ajou. Helms became only the third quarterback who joined Clemson as an original walk-on since 1954 to throw a touchdown pass, joining Nick Schuessler (three touchdown passes in 2016) and Donny McElveen (one in 2010).

Helms and Schuessler are the only original walk-on quarterbacks to throw multiple touchdown passes in a game for Clemson, as Helms' two-touchdown game at Georgia Tech joined Schuessler's two-touchdown performance against Syracuse in 2016. However, Schuessler had been placed on scholarship by that point of his career, making Helms the first Clemson quarterback to throw two touchdown passes in a game while still on walk-on status.

RAIN, RAIN, GO AWAY YOU CAN STAY

Clemson played its first rain game of the 2020 season on Oct. 10, when the Tigers faced two sets of Hurricanes: one a football team from Miami, and the other remnants of Hurricane Delta.

Clemson defeated Miami, 42-17, in the rain that evening while winning the turnover margin, 3-1. With the victory, Clemson improved to 10-1 in rain games under Dabo Swinney and pushed its turnover margin in those games to 28-13 (+15).

HISTORIC PARALLELS IN 2020

By virtue of an open date on Nov. 14 and a postponed game initially scheduled for Nov. 21, Clemson's game against Pitt was its first game action in 21 days. Clemson has had similar (and longer) layoffs prior to postseason play in many years, but the 21-day layoff this year was Clemson's longest between regular season games in a single season since 1918, when Clemson went 28 days between games against Georgia Tech and South Carolina.

That year also marked the last major pandemic in American history, as the Spanish Flu and — of greater impact — World War I combined to affect the 1918 college football season. That year, Clemson played its second game of the season on Oct. 5 at Georgia Tech, but did not play games against Auburn (Oct. 19) and South Carolina (Oct. 31) as scheduled. Clemson finally returned to action against South Carolina on Nov. 2, a 39-0 Clemson win.

The United States War Department ruled that Student Army Training Corps schools, of which Clemson was one, could not have its students away for more than 24 hours on football trips for portions of that year.

That rule created some invention by necessity on Nov. 16, when Clemson and The Citadel agreed to play their annual game at a neutral site at South Carolina's stadium. With the game at that location, both schools' cadets and football teams were able to make the trip to Columbia and return to duty on time. Clemson's John O'Dell scored the game's only touchdown, as the Tigers won 7-0, and both teams made it back to their campuses before their passes expired.

Clemson had also hoped to play an in-state contest against Wofford on Oct. 26, 1918. A story from The Tiger Newspaper archived by Clemson University Special Collections and featured by WYFF indicated that Clemson awaited the Wofford team at the train station, but Wofford's delegation did not arrive. The story reported that a telegram was sent from Wofford saying the team was on the way, but a second indicated "military authorities would not grant their permission to come over and play the game."

On Nov. 21 this year, Clemson traveled to Tallahassee and was prepared to play against Florida State until the game was postponed roughly three hours prior to kickoff. The last time Clemson had a game postponed after the team had already traveled to the site was in 1963, when the Tigers were slated to play South Carolina on Saturday, Nov. 23. That game was postponed following the assassination of President John F. Kennedy. The teams would play on Thanksgiving Day, with Clemson earning a 24-20 win.

In 2001, Clemson's scheduled Sept. 15 game against Duke was postponed midweek following the Sept. 11 attacks. That game was moved to Dec. 1, 2001. Clemson's game against Virginia Tech on Dec. 5 this year was Clemson's first December regular season game since that postponed Duke game in 2001 and represented Clemson's latest regular season finale since Dec. 8, 1928 against The Citadel.

OFFENSIVE BALANCE

Clemson has featured remarkable offensive balance while qualifying for the College Football Playoff National Championship Game in each of the last two years. Clemson has averaged at least 200 rushing yards and 200 passing yards per game four times in school history, with two of those seasons occurring in the 2018 and 2019 campaigns.

Clemson exceeded the 200/200 mark rushing and passing in 2019 by averaging 240.4 rushing yards per game and 288.3 passing yards per game. Clemson was one of only three teams in 2019 to average at least 240 yards per game in each category, along with fellow CFP participants Ohio State and Oklahoma. Clemson broke the 3,000-yard mark both rushing and passing in 2019, making the campaign only the third 3,000/3,000 season in school history (2015 and 2018).

Clemson has exceeded both 200 passing yards and 200 rushing yards in 52 games under Dabo Swinney, posting a perfect record in those contests. Clemson's 18 such games since the start of the 2018 season are fourth-most in the country.

GAMES WITH 200 RUSHING YARDS AND 200 PASSING YARDS (SINCE 2018)

| 4. | Clemson    | 18    |
| 5. | Memphis    | 17    |

Clemson was one of only six FBS programs to both rush and pass for at least 6,000 yards each across the 2018-19 seasons. Clemson was the only of those six schools to reach both 7,000 rushing yards and 7,000 passing yards in that span.

TIGHT END RENAISSANCE

Last year, Clemson tight ends combined for 26 receptions for 239 yards and no scores in 2019. A year earlier, the Tigers recorded 17 catches for 161 yards and two scores by tight ends in 2018.

With junior tight end Braden Galloway returning in 2020 after playing only in the College Football Playoff a year ago to join a group that included talented sophomore Davis Allen and veteran J.C. Chalk, observers anticipated more influence from the tight ends in the Clemson offense in 2020.

That anticipation became reality in the season opener against Wake Forest when Galloway, Allen and Chalk combined for seven catches for 114 yards and a touchdown.

"When you have a great tight end in there that's a threat down the field, it just creates more matchup problems," Head Coach Dabo Swinney said following the game.

The group's 114 yards at Wake Forest ranked as the third-most receiving yards for the tight end position in a single game under Swinney, eight yards shy of the top mark of 122 against Florida State in 2016. It was the sixth game of at least 100 receiving yards by Clemson tight ends in the Swinney era.

The unit put together another superlative performance on Oct. 10 against Miami, as Braden Galloway (four receptions for 114 yards with two touchdowns) and Davis Allen (22-yard receiving touchdown) combined for five catches for 96 yards and three touchdowns. It was the first time that Clemson tight ends combined for three scores in a game.

Note: Clemson's most receptions by tight ends in a single game under Swinney is 10 for 74 yards vs. LSU in 2012 Peach Bowl.

This season has been the most productive for Clemson tight ends since the 2016 National Championship team featured the play of All-American Jordan Leggett. Clemson tight ends had 797 receiving yards that year, most in the Swinney era, on 52 catches.

The record for receptions for the tight end position under Swinney is 65, in 2011 when the Tigers featured John Mackey Award winner Dwayne Allen.

YARDS PER PLAY

Clemson shattered its school record for yards per play in 2018 at 7.35, the program's first time exceeding seven yards per play in a season. That record stood for barely 12 months until Clemson broke it again in 2019 by averaging 7.38 yards per play. Clemson is averaging 6.59 yards per play in 2020, which would be the third-best mark in school history over the course of a full season.

MOST YARDS PER PLAY (CLEMSON HISTORY)

| Rk | Year | No.  |
|----|------|------|
| 1. | 2019 | 7.38 |
| 2. | 2018 | 7.35 |
| 3. | 2020 | 6.59 |
| 4. | 2006 | 6.50 |
| 5. | 2015 | 6.39 |

In 2018-19, Clemson became only the third school since 2000 to average 7.35 or better yards per play in back-to-back seasons, joining Alabama, which did it across 2018-19, and Oklahoma, which was in the midst of a four-year streak across the 2016-19 seasons.

650-POINT SEASONS

Clemson scored 659 points in 2019, concluding the season only five points shy of tying the school record of 664 set in 2018. Clemson is responsible for two of the 22 650-point seasons in major college football history and two of only 16 since Division I split in 1978. Clemson was the first school with back-to-back 650-point seasons since Yale in 1888-89, predating the start of official NCAA recordkeeping in 1937 and the second year of which was coincidentally the year Clemson was founded.

CLOSE-GAME SUCCESS

Though Clemson has not played a large number of one-possession games in recent years, the Tigers have proven very adept at winning such contests since 2011. In that span, the Tigers have played 32 games with a final margin of eight points or less, and Clemson's .844 winning percentage in those one-possession contests is the best in the country in that time frame.

Clemson's win against Ohio State in the Fiesta Bowl last season pitted the nation's top two teams in one-score games since 2011 against one another in a win-or-go-home one-possession game. With the six-point win, Clemson improved to 26-4 in one-score games in that span, reaching the mark against a Buckeye squad that entered the game with a .735 winning percentage since 2011 in one-score games.

Clemson is 1-1 in one-score games this season, including a win vs. Boston College and a double-overtime loss at Notre Dame.

OWNING THE "MIDDLE EIGHT"

During its current run of five consecutive College Football Playoff appearances dating to 2015, Clemson has frequently won one of the hidden "games within the game."

SportSource Analytics tracks the "Middle Eight," the section of the game defined as the final four minutes of the first half and the first four minutes of the second half. Clemson has outscored opponents in that time window 53 times since 2015, posting a 51-2 record in those contests.

Clemson was historically strong in that category in 2018, outscoring opponents 132-10 in the middle eight, an average margin of +8.1 points per game. That per-game differential was the largest by any program in the country since 2013. Clemson outscored opponents in the Middle Eight 10 times in 2019, posting a 108-24 advantage in that time window.

Clemson recorded a critical middle eight performance in its 2019 Fiesta Bowl win against Ohio State. Trailing 16-0 prior to the final four minutes of the first half, Clemson scored 14 points in the half's waning minutes to pull the halftime deficit to two. The 14-point momentum swing in that span helped Clemson to victory in the fifth-largest comeback in school history.

Clemson's top performance in the Middle Eight so far in 2020 came in its 73-3 win against Georgia Tech on Oct. 17. Clemson finished +21 in the category by virtue of three touchdowns in the final four minutes of the first half.

-- OFFENSIVE LINE --

ALL-CONFERENCE O-LINEMEN

As Clemson climbed into the elite echelon of college football programs during the last decade, observers posited that Clemson's rise coincided with the rapid ascent of its offensive line play.

During Clemson's five-year run of College Football Playoff appearances from 2015-19, the Tigers produced a total of 22 All-ACC selections along the offensive line, including 10 first-team honors. Clemson's 22 all-conference selections by offensive linemen are the most of any Power Five program, and its 10 first-team selections are tied with Oklahoma for the most in that span.

PASS PROTECTION

Clemson's protection for quarterback Trevor Lawrence has taken on an almost-mythical quality in recent years, according to Syracuse Head Coach Dino Babers, whose own prolific 2019 defensive line was held without a sack against Clemson last year.

"[It's like] Game of Thrones. He's got a castle, he's got a moat, he's got some dragons. That dude's protected," Babers said.

The standard remains high for Clemson's 2020 unit, which features four new starters. Last year, led by four seniors, Clemson's 2019 offensive line was named as a Joe Moore Award semifinalist, and its metrics compared favorably to the four lines that went on to be named as finalists, including the LSU squad that earned the award and helped lead the Bayou Bengals to a national championship. The unit has also been selected as a Joe Moore Award "Unit of Interest" in 2020.

Though Clemson's 2020 offensive line features four new starters from 2019, the unit does not lack experience among its starting five. Clemson's four new starters — Matt Bockhorst, Cade Stewart, Will Putnam and Jordan McFadden — entered the 2020 season with 1,821 combined offensive snaps in their careers as a function of Clemson's philosophy of developing its depth by furnishing playing time for reserves whenever possible.

Swinney was effusive in his praise of his starting offensive line's performance in Week 1, describing it to his team as "poetry in motion" and "as good of an offensive line performance as we've had in my time here."

"Our offensive line, I'm telling you, that first group — I don't think I've ever had so much fun watching and grading the tape," Swinney said of the line's performance against Wake Forest. "It was just awesome to watch those guys play... They do a lot of moving, and we just handled it so well. That set the tone for everything."

TRENCH WARFARE

Clemson's success in its 38-2 run since 2018 has been powered in part at the line of scrimmage, where Clemson holds a 139-51 edge over opponents in sacks in that time frame, including a 38-16 edge this season. Clemson's +88 margin in sacks since 2018 is by far the top differential in the country, as no other program can boast a sack differential greater than +67 since 2018.

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

Clemson has matched its on-field success in recent years with national acclaim for its success in the classroom. Of note:

- Clemson set a program record in APR in the NCAA's most recent figures released in May 2020, recording a multi-year APR score of 993 for the 2018-19 academic year. The performance marked the third straight year Clemson broke its program record in the metric after breaking its 992 from 2017-18, which had broken its 987 mark from 2016-17.

- Clemson's 993 multi-year APR ranked fourth in the Power Five and fifth among FBS programs, trailing only Washington (999), Ole Miss (997), Northwestern (995) and Air Force (995). That metric covered a four-year span in which Clemson matched its off-field success with on-field accolades that included a 55-4 record, four College Football Playoff appearances and two national championships.

- The NCAA recognized Clemson with its annual APR Public Recognition Award, which is bestowed upon programs ranking in the Top 10 percent of their respective sports. Only 37 of the 130 FBS programs have earned at least one APR recognition since the 2009-10 academic year. Only 30 of them have earned it multiple times. Clemson, Duke and Northwestern programs are the only ones to earn the award nine or more times in that 10-year span.

- Clemson is one of only six FBS programs with an active streak of having earned an APR Public Recognition Award in each of the last three academic years, a group that also includes Air Force, Boston College, Navy, Northwestern and Washington.

- With its most recent award for the 2018-19 academic year, Clemson is now the only FBS program since the NCAA created the APR metric in 2003 to win a national championship and an APR Public Recognition Award in the same year multiple times. Alabama is the only other school to accomplish the title/APR double in a single year once (2011-12 academic year).

| 5. | 2013-14       | 984 |

In addition to the APR honors, in November 2019, the AFCA announced that Clemson had repeated as Academic Achievement Award winners, making Clemson the only school in the country to earn the award across both of the 2018-19 seasons. Clemson had earned the award a year earlier as well in the midst of major college football's first 15-0 season since 1897.

ACC: WE DO THIS

Entering the 2020 season, the ACC was tied for the most football national titles of any conference since 2013 (three of the last seven). The conference has had a team in either the College Football Playoff or the BCS National Championship Game in each of the past seven years.

No conference produced more bowl teams in 2019 than the ACC, which placed 10 of its 14 members in bowl games. With the selection of 10 teams in 2019, the ACC has had 42 bowl teams in the previous four years, including double-digit selections all four years (11 in 2016, 10 in 2017, 11 in 2018 and 10 in 2019).

MOST BOWL TEAMS BY CONFERENCE (2019)

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. – A stellar outing by quarterback Trevor Lawrence and a Clemson-record 18th career 100-yard rushing performance by running back Travis Etienne led No. 1 Clemson to a 37-13 victory over Wake Forest in front of only 68 people in the first game under COVID-19 protocols.

Lawrence went 22-of-28 for 351 yards and a touchdown along with two touchdown runs. With 102 yards, Etienne passed Wayne Gallman (17 from 2014-16) for Clemson's career 100-yard rushing games record.

Defensively, Winston-Salem native K.J. Henry recorded the first of Clemson's six sacks on the night. Myles Murphy (2.0) and Bryan Bresee (0.5) each contributed sacks, become Clemson's first true freshmen with sacks in a season-opener since 2016.

Lawrence's two rushing touchdowns gave the Tigers a 14-0 first quarter lead, marking his first career game with multiple rushing touchdowns. His first passing touchdown of the season was a 12-yard strike to tight end J.C. Chalk in the second quarter.

A career-long-tying 52-yard B.T. Potter field goal as the first half expired gave Clemson a 27-0 halftime lead. During the game, Potter broke Mark Buchholz's Clemson record for consecutive PATs (88 from 2007-08).

Clemson carried a 37-3 lead into the fourth quarter before surrendering the final 10 points. The Tigers played 78 of their 80 available players in the contest.

CLEMSON, S.C. – No. 1 Clemson won its home opener in front of a socially distanced crowd of 18,609 fans at Memorial Stadium, defeating The Citadel by a score of 49-0. The victory marked Clemson's 31st consecutive regular season win, passing the 2013-15 Florida State Seminoles for the longest such streak in ACC history.

Quarterback Trevor Lawrence went 8-of-9 passing for 168 yards with three passing touchdowns and a rushing touchdown. Freshman quarterback D.J. Uiagalelei added his first two career scores on the ground.

All of Clemson's points came in a 49-point first half, Clemson's most points in the first two quarters of play since scoring 49 against Temple in a 63-9 victory on Oct. 12, 2006.

Clemson's defense held the Bulldogs to just 162 total yards and added a score of its own when linebacker James Skalski returned a fumble 17 yards for the first touchdown of his career. Freshman Myles Murphy added two tackles for loss and forced the fumble that led to the Skalski scoop-and-score.

Wide receiver Frank Ladson Jr. recorded career highs in receptions (three), receiving yards (87) and receiving touchdowns (two).

Clemson produced its first shutout since the 2016 Fiesta Bowl, a 31-0 win against Ohio State. It was Clemson's first regular season shutout since a 54-0 win against Syracuse in 2016. The shutout was Clemson's seventh under Head Coach Dabo Swinney, and its fifth home shutout in his tenure.

CLEMSON, S.C. – Clemson improved to 3-0 with a 41-23 win against Virginia at Memorial Stadium. The win extended Clemson's winning streak on Saturdays to 46, passing the 1953-57 Oklahoma Sooners for the longest such streak in FBS history.

Trevor Lawrence was 25-for-38 passing for 329 yards and three touchdowns, including two to Amari Rodgers. Travis Etienne totaled 187 yards from scrimmage, including 73 on the ground and a career-high and Clemson running back record 114 through the air.

Clemson's defense picked off Virginia quarterback Brennan Armstrong twice. Nolan Turner recorded the Tigers' first interception of the season in the second quarter, and on the first drive of the second half, Andrew Booth Jr. made a spectacular one-handed interception, the first of his career, in the corner of the end zone.

Lyn-J Dixon returned the opening kickoff of the game for a career-long 52 yards, setting the tone for Clemson to run out to a 24-3 lead before a late second-quarter Virginia touchdown made it 24-10 Clemson at the half.

The Tigers opened the second half scoring off the Booth interception with a 42-yard Potter field goal. The Cavaliers answered with a touchdown before Etienne recorded his second score of the game to give Clemson a 34-17 lead. Chez Mellusi added a fourth quarter two-yard rushing touchdown, his first of the season and first since the 2019 ACC Championship against the Cavaliers, to extend the Tiger lead to 41-17 before a late Virginia touchdown brought the final score to 41-23.

CLEMSON, S.C. — No. 1 Clemson earned a 42-17 victory over No. 7 Miami (Fla.) in Clemson's first regular season matchup of Top 10 teams since 2016.

Clemson's defense kept the Hurricanes offense in check all night, allowing only 210 yards, while the offense piled up 550. Sheridan Jones, Derion Kendrick and Kane Patterson all had interceptions while the Clemson pass rush totaled five sacks.

Trevor Lawrence completed 29-of-41 passes for 292 yards and three touchdowns and Travis Etienne ran for 149 yards and two scores and caught a game-high eight passes for 73 yards. Etienne's second rushing touchdown was the 60th of his career, making him only the 12th player in official FBS records to score 60 career rushing touchdowns.

Braden Galloway produced the first multi-touchdown game by a Clemson tight end since 2016, catching touchdown passes of 24 and 11 yards. Davis Allen added his first career touchdown as well to give Clemson tight ends three touchdowns in the contest.

Clemson controlled the ball for 12:31 of the first quarter and ran 25 plays to Miami's six. At halftime, Clemson held a 21-3 advantage in first downs.

Miami scored its first touchdown of the game on the final play of the first half, blocking a 61-yard field goal attempt by B.T. Potter and returning it 48 yards for a touchdown. It was one of three Miami field goal blocks.

Clemson's 25-point win represented its sixth victory of 25 points or more against an AP Top 10 opponent all-time.

ATLANTA — No. 1 Clemson cruised to the largest conference win in ACC history, defeating Georgia Tech, 73-7, at Bobby Dodd Stadium.

Clemson scored a modern-era school-record 52 first-half points, as Trevor Lawrence was 22-for-27 passing for 391 yards and five touchdowns in the first half alone. Lawrence finished with a career-high 404 passing yards. Wide receiver Amari Rodgers found the end zone twice in a career-high 161 yard performance as 17 different Tigers caught a pass, the most in the Dabo Swinney era.

Among those with a touchdown was defensive tackle Nyles Pinckney, who scored on a one-yard touchdown run in the second quarter. Travis Etienne scored a three-yard rushing touchdown in the second quarter as well, giving him 408 career points to break Chandler Catanzaro's school record of 404.

The Tiger defense forced three turnovers and totaled four sacks. Clemson held Georgia Tech to seven first downs, its second straight game holding its opponent to single-digit first downs.

Chef Mellusi, Kobe Pace and Ajou Ajou added second half touchdowns. Pace's came on Hunter Helms's first career touchdown pass. Ajou's touchdown, also from Helms, marked the first of his career as well.

CLEMSON, S.C. — Top-ranked Clemson improved to 6-0 with a 47-21 victory over Syracuse. After Clemson raced out to a 17-0 lead, Syracuse pulled to within six points at 27-21 before Clemson rattled off 20 unanswered points to seal the game.

The Tigers' defense forced a momentum-swinging strip-sack in the third quarter that was returned for a touchdown by Andrew Booth Jr. Clemson also had three interceptions, one each by Nolan Turner, Mike Jones Jr. and Jalyn Phillips.

Travis Etienne scored three rushing touchdowns on 16 carries and totaled 86 yards on the ground. Trevor Lawrence was 27-of-43 passing for 289 yards and two touchdowns.

Syracuse returned a Lawrence interception 39 yards for a touchdown and the Tigers responded with another Potter field goal to give them a 27-14 lead as the first half expired. With Clemson's fumble return touchdown and Syracuse's interception return touchdown, the game was Clemson's first in which both teams recorded a defensive touchdown since 2014 when Clemson's Jadar Johnson and South Carolina State's Dominique Mitchell each scored via fumble return.

The win gave Clemson a school-record 26-game home unbeaten streak. Clemson went unbeaten in 25 straight games at Memorial Stadium from 1980-84 with 23 wins and two ties in that span.

CLEMSON, S.C. — No. 1 Clemson scored 24 unanswered points to overcome an 18-point deficit to defeat Boston College, 34-28 at Death Valley. The comeback tied for the second-largest in school history and was Clemson's largest at Memorial Stadium all-time.

Running Travis Etienne totaled 224 all-purpose yards, including 84 rushing on 20 carries, becoming the ACC's all-time leading rusher by breaking the record held by NC State's Ted Brown (4,602) since 1978. His 140 receiving yards also broke his own school running back record set earlier this season against Virginia (114).

Making his first career start, quarterback D.J. Uiagalelei dazzled, going 30-for-41 passing for 342 yards and two touchdowns. He also added 25 yards and a touchdown on the ground after learning on Thursday he would start in place of Trevor Lawrence, who missed the game after testing positive for COVID-19.

The Eagles scored on their opening two possessions, and Clemson was one yard away from tying the game at 14 when Boston College picked up a fumbled exchange and returned it 97 yards for a touchdown for a 21-7 lead. Boston College extended the lead to 28-10 with 1:02 remaining in the second quarter, but a B.T. Potter 50-yard field goal cut Clemson's halftime deficit to 15.

Clemson outscored Boston College in the third quarter, 13-0, to cut the lead to two on a touchdown run and touchdown pass by Uiagalelei. Clemson took its first lead early in the fourth quarter on a 17-yard touchdown run by Etienne. The Eagles had the ball at their four-yard line with 1:24 remaining, but on the drive's first play, freshman Bryan Bresee forced an intentional grounding penalty in the endzone for a safety to seal the win.

NOTRE DAME, Ind. — No. 1 Clemson fell to No. 4 Notre Dame, 47-40, in double overtime in the highest-ranked matchup of ACC squads in conference history.

The Irish jumped out to an early 10-0 lead. The Tigers responded with a 53-yard bomb from D.J. Uiagalelei to Cornell Powell. Powell finished with a career-high 161 yards on six receptions. Uiagalelei finished with 439 passing yards, the most ever surrendered by Notre Dame.

The second quarter saw the two teams exchange field goals before an Etienne fumble was recovered by Notre Dame and returned for a touchdown to give the Irish a 20-10 advantage before ultimately going into halftime at 23-13 in favor of Notre Dame.

The Tigers scored 10 consecutive points to open the third, tying the game at 23. Another Notre Dame field goal gave the Irish a 26-23 lead, which was quickly erased by B.T. Potter's career-high fourth field goal of the game. With 9:14 remaining and the score locked at 26-26, Uiagalelei led the Tigers on a 12-play, 74-yard touchdown drive lasting 5:41 capped by a Travis Etienne three-yard touchdown run to give Clemson the lead.

In their last possession of regulation, Notre Dame cashed in on a 91-yard touchdown drive that sent the game into overtime. Both teams scored touchdowns in the first frame, but when Notre Dame opened the second overtime period with a score, the Tigers allowed two sacks to thwart the comeback bid.

CLEMSON, S.C. — No. 4 Clemson defeated Pitt, 52-17, on Senior Day behind a 403-yard passing performance by Trevor Lawrence in his return from a two-game absence. Clemson forced five turnovers, including four interceptions, two from cornerback Mario Goodrich. The game was Clemson's first in 21 days, its longest regular season layoff since 1918.

The Tigers raced out to a 31-0 lead behind 31 first-quarter points, a school record against an FBS opponent. E.J. Williams, wearing No. 39 to honor his father on Military Appreciation Day, opened the scoring with his first career touchdown catch. Cornell Powell added a first-quarter score amid a career-high 176 receiving yards and became only the third Tiger ever to post at least 150 receiving yards in back-to-back games.

The Tigers took a 38-10 lead into halftime, but a Lawrence fumble on the opening play of the second half led to a Panthers touchdown that cut the deficit to 21 points. After the two teams traded several punts, Travis Etienne cashed in his second score on a three-yard touchdown run. A late Chez Mellusi receiving touchdown from D.J. Uiagalelei brought the final score to 52-17.

With the victory on Senior Day, Clemson's 2020 seniors finished 27-0 at home, the first Clemson class to go undefeated at Death Valley and the first FBS class to go undefeated at home since Boise State and Oklahoma in 2010.

BLACKSBURG, Va. — No. 4/3 Clemson defeated Virginia Tech, 45-10, to advance to its sixth consecutive ACC Championship Game. With the win, Trevor Lawrence (33-1) passed Rodney Williams, Tajh Boyd and Deshaun Watson to become the winningest starting quarterback in school history.

Tied at 10-10 early in the second quarter, Clemson rattled off 35 unanswered points for the victory.

Clemson opened the scoring with a 28-yard B.T. Potter field goal, but the Hokies responded to take their only lead of the game on a seven-play, 75-yard touchdown drive. The Tigers regained the advantage when Lawrence scampered for a 17-yard score.

After a 54-yard Virginia Tech field goal evened the score at 10-10, Lyn-J Dixon capped off a 75-yard drive with a 19-yard touchdown run. The Tigers escaped with a 17-10 halftime lead after a hail mary pass was caught at the one-yard line as the half expired.

After Myles Murphy forced his third fumble of the season, Clemson cashed in on the turnover with a seven-yard Lawrence touchdown run to open the second-half scoring. Derion Kendrick later scooped a Virginia Tech fumble and returned it 66 yards for a touchdown to give Clemson a 31-10 third quarter lead.

In the fourth quarter, Lawrence found Cornell Powell for a 65-yard touchdown. Darien Rencher, who won the Disney Spirit Award earlier in the week, capped the scoring by taking a handoff 50 yards for his first touchdown of the season and the longest rush of his career.
