GAME 12

• Carolina will become the first men's basketball program to play 1,000 regular-season Atlantic Coast Conference games when the Tar Heels play host to Clemson on Saturday, January 9, at 7 p.m.

• The Tar Heels are 707-292 in 999 regular-season ACC games. The 707 wins are also the most in ACC history.

• Carolina is 7-4 overall this season, 2-2 in the ACC. The Tar Heels have won two straight – a 66-65 home win over Notre Dame and a 67-65 victory at Miami. Leaky Black hit the game-winner against the Irish with 9.1 seconds to play; Andrew Platek scored the winner against the Canes with 3.6 to go.

• Carolina's four ACC games have been decided by three, five, one and two points. Six of UNC's 11 games this season have been decided by five or fewer points.

• This is the first time in the Roy Williams era the Tar Heels have played four consecutive games decided by five or fewer points.

• It is the first time UNC has played four straight games decided by five or fewer points since Jan. 21-30, 1988. The last time it occurred more than four games in a row was the Final Four games against Houston and Georgetown in 1982 and the first four games in 1982-83.

• Miami led, 53-43, with 12 minutes to play. It was Carolina's first second-half comeback from a double-digit deficit since beating Louisville after trailing by 13 in 2015 in Chapel Hill.

• The wins over Notre Dame and Miami marked the first time UNC won consecutive games by two or fewer points since the wins over Kentucky and Oregon in the 2017 NCAA regional final and national semifinal, respectively.

• It also marked the first time in the ACC era UNC won consecutive games when shooting under 35 percent from the floor.

• More notes from the UNC-Miami game are on page 12-13.

• Clemson is 9-1 overall, 3-1 in the ACC. The Tigers are coming off a 74-70 overtime win at home over NC State.

• Carolina's 67-65 win at Miami on January 5 came three days after the Tigers beat Miami, 66-65, in Coral Gables.

• Carolina and Clemson are ranked 14th and first, respectively, in the country in defensive efficiency (KenPom).

2020-21 POSTGAME NOTES

GAME 1: UNC 79, CHARLESTON 60

- Caleb Love and RJ Davis started at guard, the first time two freshmen guards started in a game for UNC since Ty Lawson and Wayne Ellington started vs. Georgetown in the 2007 NCAA East Regional final (they started together 32 times that year).
- This is the third pair of Tar Heel freshmen guards to start under head coach Roy Williams. In 2005-06, freshmen guards Bobby Frason and Marcus Ginyard started 14 times, including the season opener.
- Love became the eighth freshman to start at the point in Roy Williams' 18 seasons at UNC (Quentin Thomas in 2004-05, Bobby Frason in 2005-06, Marcus Paige in 2012-13, Nate Britt in 2013-14, Jalek Felton in 2017-18, Coby White in 2018-19, Cole Anthony in 2019-20 and Love).
- Five Tar Heel freshmen combined to score 50 points, the most in a season opener since 2002-03 (Rashad McCants, Sean May, Raymond Felton and David Noel scored 58 vs. Penn State, the most ever by UNC freshmen in their first game).
- Carolina did not allow a field goal until the 11:23 mark of the first half (it was a three-pointer by Zep Jasper to make the score 16-5, UNC).
- Charleston took its only lead of the game at 43-42 with 15:00 to play, before the Tar Heels went on a 17-0 run over the next 4:43 to take a 59-43 lead.
- Love led UNC with 17 points. It marked the second straight season a freshman point guard led UNC in scoring in the season opener (last year Cole Anthony set the ACC scoring record for freshman in a debut with 34 against Notre Dame).
- Love was 8 for 8 from the free throw line, the best performance ever by a Tar Heel in his first game (Danny Green went 6 for 6 as a freshman in the 2005-06 opener vs. Gardner-Webb).
- Love became the seventh UNC freshman point guard to play 25 or more minutes in his first game (with Phil Ford, Kenny Smith, Ed Cota, Raymond Felton, Marcus Paige and Cole Anthony). His 17 points are the second most among those seven players (Anthony had 34 last year) and he is the only player with as few as one turnover (Kenny Smith had two vs. Missouri).
- Sophomore Armando Bacot (11) and freshmen Love (17), Day'Ron Sharpe (13) and Davis (11) scored in double figures. It was the first time three Tar Heel freshmen scored in double figures since 12/21/19 against UCLA when Bacot, Anthony Harris and Jeremiah Francis did that.
- It was the first time three freshmen scored in double figures in the season opener since the 2010-11 season when Harrison Barnes (14), Reggie Bullock (12) and Kendall Marshall (10) against Lipscomb.
- Sharpe had a double-double (13 points and 10 rebounds) in his debut (Anthony also did that last year).
- Sharpe became the 11th Tar Heel with a double-double in his first game. The list includes sophomores Lennie Rosenbluth, Larry Miller, Rusty Clark and Bobby Jones, and freshmen James Worthy, Sam Perkins, Pete Chilcutt, Sean May, Ed Davis, Cole Anthony and Sharpe.
- Garrison Brooks had 11 rebounds, the 15th time in his career he grabbed double-figure rebounds.

- Andrew Platek made a career-high four steals (previous was two twice) and tied his career high with two blocked shots. He won UNC's defensive player of the game award for the first time in his career.
- Puff Johnson played 2:53 (made a three) and Walker Kessler played 4:23 (six points and four rebounds) due to missing several recent practices because of Covid safety protocol.
- UNC shot under 40 percent for the first time in a win since the Yale game on 12/30/19. UNC had lost its previous six games when shooting under 40 percent.
- UNC scored 30 second-chance points for the first time since beating Tennessee Tech on Nov. 16, 2018.
- Carolina committed only nine turnovers and equaled that number by blocking nine shots. UNC turned the ball over 18 times in the season opener vs. Notre Dame a year ago.
- The nine turnovers equaled the second fewest in a season opener in the Roy Williams era.
- Carolina is 99-12 in season openers, including 17-1 under head coach Roy Williams.

CREENTIALS

Media seating in the Smith Center will be limited to approximately 15 seats (not including broadcast and radio networks) due to the pandemic. Seats will be reserved in this order: media that regularly cover Carolina Basketball, the visiting team and national media.

Credentials will be issued on a game-by-game basis (no season credentials).

Please make credential requests online at SportsSystems.com/UNCBasketball

Media will be able to request credentials beginning two weeks before each scheduled game for a window of time that ends one week prior to the game. For example, the system will accept credentials for the Jan. 23 game vs. NC State from 8 a.m. on January 9 to 5 p.m. on January 16.

We are not accepting photo or minicam requests for credentials. There are only a limited number of photo opportunities, which will be handled directly by Steve Kirschner, Senior Associate A.D. for Communications.

Approved credentials may be picked up at media will call at Smith Center Entrance D, which will open one hour before the scheduled starting time. Entrance D is diagonally across the building from the media entrance last season. Entrance D is closest to the reserved parking lot behind the natatorium and the Smith Center/basketball offices.

All briefcases, computer bags and photo equipment are subject to search.

AWAY GAME CREDENTIALS

ACC Games: email Kirschner (each school will have different access...the schools will let Kirschner if, and how many, media/photographer seats will be available for the visiting team).

PARKING

Parking will be emailed to you by Emilee McCollum of the Smith Center staff. Please note that at least for the first few games, media parking is in the Manning Drive lot (this is a recent change). To access: from Manning Drive, turn onto Bowles Drive (turn on the end of Bowles Drive closest to 15-501, not up the hill by the dorms). Once on Bowles, turn on Tar Heel Boulevard (which is just a driveway that leads behind the natatorium and the arena). Just before the security hut turn left and that's the Manning Drive lot.

HEALTH & SAFETY

Acceptance of a credential acknowledges and assumes risks associated with Covid-19 and the bearer agrees not to use the credential in the event that he or she is sick or symptomatic.

An online health survey must be completed before media is allowed to enter the Smith Center. The survey will be emailed to you several days before the game; please go online and fill it out the day of the game (it takes about a minute to complete). Temperature checks will be done at the media entrance (Gate D). Once you have passed a temperature check and are allowed to enter the arena, please proceed to the media seating in section 212.

A mask must be worn at all times in the Smith Center. Media representatives must bring their own mask that fully covers their nose and mouth, plus any other personal protective equipment they wish to use. We ask that you do not attend the game if you are experiencing any symptoms of Covid-19.

Hand sanitizer dispensers will be available throughout the arena.

Individuals must sit in their assigned seat and adhere to physical distancing guidelines (at least six feet apart) while moving within the arena.

MEDIA WORK ROOM, MEDIA SEATING IN ARENA

The media work room adjacent to the visiting team's locker room will be closed this season. Upon entering the arena, media should proceed directly to their assigned seats in section 212 and plan to work there for the duration of your visit to the Smith Center.

A limited number of photographers may be allowed to shoot from designated areas around the arena. Those assignments will be coordinated by Steve Kirschner. Availability will be very limited and may change over the course of the season due to the pandemic. Other than a photographer and videographer who travel with each team and are tested on a regular basis, photo/video spots that are assigned will be at least 15 feet (and could be farther away) from the edge of the essential personnel perimeter that has been established by the ACC.

There will be a pool photographer and pool videographer assigned to each game who will provide still and video images for media use through a digital sharing site managed by the Atlantic Coast Conference. Check with Kirschner for details.

POSTGAME AVAILABILITY

All postgame interviews with Coach Williams and UNC players will be via Zoom or another digital platform. The raw files for UNC will be archived to GoHeels.com and a select number of quotes may be posted and distributed.

NON-GAMEDAY INTERVIEWS

All interviews will be done this season via Zoom or by phone.

Throughout the season, Williams and players should be available via Zoom a day or two before select games. A schedule of these sessions will be posted in the game notes.

Interview requests should be made through the athletic communications office. Contact Kirschner with interview requests for Coach Williams. Due to contractual obligations, Williams is unable to participate in live radio call-in shows.

Media should direct player interview requests to Matt Bowers (mattbowers@unc.edu, 919-619-7021). Player interviews typically occur before practice. Players are not available for interviews on game day or on non-practice days.

ACC TELECONFERENCE

Beginning in January, Roy Williams will be available on most Mondays for 10 minutes on the ACC teleconference. Coaches do not participate on the Monday call if their teams play that evening (UNC plays on Monday on Feb. 8 and March 1). Media should contact Kirschner or the ACC for the teleconference number.
