No. 10 seed Rutgers Scarlet Knights (15-11) vs. No. 7 seed Clemson Tigers (16-7)

Friday, March 18, 2021 | 9:20 p.m.

Bankers Life Fieldhouse | Indianapolis, Ind.

TV: TBS (Spero Dedes, play-by-play; Brandon Haywood, analyst; Lauren Shehidi; reporter)
Radio: Rutgers Sports Properties Radio Network (WCTC 1450 AM/WOR 710 AM; Jerry Recco and Joe Boylan; Sirius 137, XM 207), Westwood One (Kevin Kugler, Brian O'Connell), WRSU 88.7 FM
Series Record: Clemson leads, 2-1

Last Meeting: Clemson 76, Rutgers 58 (November 26, 2015)

OPENING TIP: For the first time in 30 years, Rutgers men's basketball will play in an NCAA Tournament game. The Scarlet Knights are making their first NCAA appearance since 1991. RU will be looking for their first NCAA Tournament victory since 1983. The game will take place at Bankers Life Fieldhouse at 9:20 p.m. and be televised by TBS, with Spero Dedes, Brandon Haywood and Lauren Shehidi joining the broadcast.

HOW DID THEY GET HERE: Rutgers was prepared for this challenge by excelling in the best league in the nation, as The Big Ten was ranked as the nation's top conference by Ken Pomeroy, and Rutgers strength of schedule ranked as the 8th toughest nationally. The Scarlet Knights won 15 games, including 11 wins over Big Ten foes, and finished sixth in the Big Ten

The Scarlet Knights played seven games against teams that earned No. 1 or No. 2 seeds - No. 1 Illinois, No. 1 Michigan, No. 2 Iowa and No. 2 Ohio State. The Scarlet Knights faced also faced NCAA Tournament teams in No. 4 Purdue, No. 9 Wisconsin, No. 10 Maryland, No. 11 Michigan State and No. 11 Syracuse. RU earned wins over Illinois, Purdue, Maryland, Michigan State and Syracuse. In the NET, Rutgers had four Quad 1 Win, 10 Wins in Quad 1 + 2, no Losses in Quadrant 3 or 4, and average opponent NET ranking that was 6th toughest in nation and a NET Strength of Schedule the was 10th toughest in the nation.

A TWO YEAR JOURNEY: The Scarlet Knights have been building towards this moment for the last two years. In 2019-20, the Scarlet Knights were on the precipice of snapping the program's long NCAA Tournament drought when the COVID-19 pandemic struck. Rutgers had won 20 games, including a dramatic final week of the season with a win over No. 9 Maryland and then overtime road win over Purdue to ensure that their position in the NCAAs. However, the team was pulled off the court during warmups for their Big Ten Tournament game against Michigan, and shortly after, the 2020 NCAA Tournament cancellation followed.

Expectations were raised for this season, opening the year ranked 24th and peaking at No. 11 in the rankings. The Scarlet Knights responded by ensuring a winning record in back-to-back seasons. That marked the first time that RU had back-to-back winning seasons since 1990-91 and 1991-92.

THE BUILD: Steve Pikiell was introduced as Rutgers' head coach on March 22, 2016, taking the helm of a program that had gone 17-47 over its past two seasons. He boldly declared at his introductory press conference: "We want to dance here. That's our goal, to dance. I believe we will dance." Pikiell subsequently backed up that promise by doing exactly that, as the Scarlet Knights are going dancing. Pikiell rebuilt the program through talent evaluation and development, taking a team built on toughness on a steady rise. Rutgers won 21 Big Ten games over the past two seasons after winning 16 combined in its first five years as a league member.

NAMES TO KNOW: The Scarlet Knights have been boosted by a host of individual contributions, as Coach Pikiell references having eight potential starters in players that provide key minutes: Geo Baker, Jacob Young, Paul Mulcahy, Ron Harper Jr., Myles Johnson, Caleb McConnell, Montez Mathis and Cliff Omoruyi. The Scarlet Knights had four all-conference players, led by Third Team All-Big Ten and Second Team All-District Ron Harper Jr. (15.4 points per game). Harper Jr., a junior, just surpassed 1,000 career points. Jacob Young, Geo Baker and Myles Johnson were named Honorable Mention All-Big Ten. A pesky defender with elite speed, Young was the Big Ten leader in steals was finishing second on RU in scoring. Baker has been alongside Pikiell throughout the build, growing from an underrated recruit to a three-time all-conference selection know for his clutch stepback jump shot. Myles Johnson, also named to the Big Ten All-Defensive Team, is one of just two Power 5 players with 60+ blocks and 25+ steals, joining a projected NBA Lottery Draft Pick in USC's Evan Mobley.

WHAT IS RUTGERS BASKETBALL KNOW FOR:

It all starts with defense and rebounding. Rutgers is 12-1 this season when outrebounding its opponent. Steve Pikiell preaches holding team's to the "Speed Limit" of 65 points, something that RU has done nine times this season with the 18th ranked defensive efficiency in the nation.

WITH A WIN: A victory for Rutgers over Clemson would represent the team's first NCAA Tournament victory since 1983, when Rutgers defeated Southwestern Louisiana (now known as University of Louisiana at Lafayette).

LONE PLAYER EXPERIENCE: Rutgers guard Jacob Young brings NCAA experience to this Scarlet Knights squad. A transfer from Texas, he played in the 2018 NCAA Tournament with the Longhorns. He played 40 minutes off the bench, scoring eight points and collecting two rebounds in an overtime loss to Nevada.

STAFF IN THE POSTSEASON: Head Coach Steve Pikiell makes his second NCAA Tournament appearance as a head coach. Previously, he led Stony Brook to an America East championship in 2016, where the Seawolves lost to Kentucky in the opening round. Pikiell also made three NCAA Tournament appearances as an assistant coach - 2005 with George Washington, 2000 with Central Connecticut State and 1992 with UConn.

In 1991, when Rutgers last played in the postseason, Steve Pikiell was playing at UConn. A team captain, he led the No. 11 seed Huskies to the Sweet Sixteen, where they fell to eventual national champion Duke.

Two Rutgers assistant coaches also have experience with the NCAA Tournament. Associate Head Coach Karl Hobbs led George Washington to three NCAA appearances and went to seven NCAA Tournaments as an assistant coach with UConn (winning two national championships). Brandin Knight advanced to 10 NCAA Tournaments as either a staffer (eight) or student-athlete, including four Sweet Sixteen appearances. Director of Player Development went to the NCAA Tournament as an assistant coach at UNLV in 1998, Director of Basketball Operations Ben Asher went as a graduate assistant at N.C. State in 2014 and three times as a manager at West Virginia. Director of Basketball Administration T.J. Thompson played in the NCAA Tournament at GW.

THE 1991 SCARLET KNIGHTS: The last Rutgers team to play in the NCAA Tournament, the team faced Arizona State on March 15, 1991 at The Omni in Atlanta, Georgia. The venue was subsequently closed in 1997. Rutgers had two 20-point scorers in that game, but a 21-point, 11 rebound effort from Keith Hughes along with 20 points from Earl Duncan was not enough in a 79-76 loss. RU could not hold on to a six-point halftime lead as the Sun Devils scored 49 in the second half, behind 25 from each of Isaac Austin and Tarance Wheeler.

The 1990-91 squad went 19-10 in the regular season and 14-4 in Atlantic-10 play under head coach Bob Wenzel.

Keith Hughes was named Atlantic 10 Player of the Year, and was selected in the 1991 NBA Draft by the Houston Rockets. Hughes led the team with 21.0 points and 10.0 rebounds. Earl Duncan was second on the team with 15.7 points, while Brent Dabbs was named Atlantic 10 Newcomer of the Year after averaging 13.5 points and 7.5 rebounds.

THE 1983 SCARLET KNIGHTS: The last Rutgers team to win an NCAA Tournament game, the Rutgers Scarlet Knights defeated Southwest Louisiana (now known as the University of Louisiana at Lafayette), 60-53, at the Hartford Civic Center. In a low scoring affair, Rutgers was led by 11 points from Clarence Tillman and nine from Brian Ellerbe. The Scarlet Knights subsequently fell in their next game to St. John's by a final score of 66-65.

Rutgers went 23-8 in the 1982-83 campaign. Prior to last season, that marked the last RU team to reach 20 wins in the regular season.

The team was led by two future NBA players in Roy Hinson and John Battle. Hinson averaged 16.6 points and 8.6 rebounds while Black had 12.6 points per game. Clarence Tillman also joined them in double-figure scoring.

Hinson was the Atlantic 10 Co-Player of the Year and was a first-round NBA Draft pick of the Cleveland Cavaliers.

CRAFTED TO HONOR THE PAST: Earlier this season, the Scarlet Knights debuted new throwback uniforms to honor and recognize the contributions of the 1983 team. RU wore the uniforms in the home win against Michigan State and at Iowa.

THE SERIES: Rutgers has faced Clemson twice since joining the Big Ten, both prior to head coach Steve Pikiell taking the helm of the program.

PREVIOUS MEETINGS:

Dec. 1, 2014 - In its first ever appearance in the ACC-Big Ten Challenge, used a late run and a career-high 20 points from sophomore forward Junior Etou to defeat Clemson 69-64 at Littlejohn Coliseum. The Scarlet Knights committed just three turnovers to complete their third game in four days and earn the hard-fought victory. Etou was joined in double figures by senior forward Kadeem Jack, senior guard Myles Mack and junior center Greg Lewis. Jack shot 6-of-11 to score 15 points, Mack contributed 12 points and eight assists and Lewis had a career-best 11 points and two blocks.

Nov. 26 2015 - Rutgers got 13 points from junior forward De-shawn Freeman and 11 points from sophomore D.J. Foreman, but fell 76-58 to Clemson in the consolation game of the Men Who Speak Up Main Event Heavyweight Bracket at the MGM Grand Arena. The Scarlet Knights shot 46.8 percent, but were outrebounded 36-25. Clemson got 22 points from each of its starting forwards, Jaron Blossomgame and Donte Grantham, who combined to shoot 16-of-24. Center Landry Nnoko added 14 points on a 6-of-7 performance from the field for the Tigers.

March 16, 1999 - Clemson defeated Rutgers 78-69 in a post-season NIT meeting in front of a sold-out crowd of 8,512 at The RAC. Rutgers tried to cut into a 14-point deficit, as a Geoff Billett three-pointer got RU back within four, but they could get no further.

THE OPPONENT: The Clemson Tigers enter the NCAA Tournament as the 7 seed with a 16-7 record and 10-6 record in the ACC. The Tigers have two key wins against NCAA Tournament teams Alabama, Florida State, Syracuse and North Carolina. Clemson is led by senior forward Aamir Simms who leads the team in points per game (13.3), rebounds per game (6.2), and assists (2.7). Simms is 42nd nationally in field-goal percentage (54.3, 3rd in the ACC) and is 8th in the ACC in offensive rebounds per game (2.4).

Clemson is ranked 14th nationally in scoring defense (62.0) but they are 292nd in total rebounds per game (32.65). Each team in the matchup is top-20 in the nation in defensive efficiency (Rutgers 18th, Clemson 20th).

In their history, the Tigers have posted 29 postseason appearances, four Sweet Sixteens, one Elite Eight, and were the 1990 ACC regular season champions. The team last made the NCAA Tournament in 2018, defeating No. 12 New Mexico State in the First Round and No. 4 Auburn in the Second Round to advance to the Sweet Sixteen, where they fell to No. 1 Clemson. The Tigers have won at least one game in each of their past two NCAA Tournament appearances, also winning against No. 12 UAB in the First Round in 2011.

READY TO DANCE

The Scarlet Knights celebrated Selection Sunday at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway, home of the Indy 500, where they joined as a team to celebrate their accomplishments and witness the name 'Rutgers' be revealed in the bracket for the first time in 30 years.

"Our guys are excited to be in the tournament for the first time in 30 years and to have a chance to play for a national championship," head coach Steve Pikiell said. "We have a great group of guys that have worked very hard. It's a real challenging league. We navigated Covid. I'm thankful for a lot of people for all their hard work to get us to this point. I'm really excited for Rutgers nation. It's a great honor. It's a great opportunity and we're very excited about it."

The NCAA Tournament marks a milestone for the program, and symbolizes the ascent of the entire Rutgers Athletic department. On Selection Monday, the Rutgers women's basketball team earned its 26th selection to the NCAA Women's Basketball Tournament. Rutgers is one of just 26 schools to make both the men's and women's NCAA Tournaments.

Rutgers also has seven other ranked nationally programs - men's lacrosse (6), field hockey (9), women's rowing (10), wrestling (14), women's lacrosse (15), women's soccer (21) and women's basketball (21).

A HISTORY OF BUILDING WINNERS

Throughout Steve Pikiell's career he has been instrumental in turnarounds that have resulted in conference championships and NCAA berths.

Rutgers Men's Basketball 2020-21 Regular Season Notables

Two-Year Journey

- Rutgers went 14-10 in the regular season, ensuring a winning record in back-to-back seasons. That marked the first time that RU had back-to-back winning seasons since 1990-91 and 1991-92.
- Rutgers won 10 Big Ten Conference Games. That marked double-digit conference wins for the second straight season after winning 11 in 2019-20.
 - o That was the first time that RU had double-digit conference wins in consecutive seasons since the 1989-90 and 1990-91 campaigns.
 - o RU finished .500 or better in conference play for the first time since the 1989-90 and 1990-91 campaigns.
- Rutgers won 21 Big Ten games over the past two seasons after winning 16 combined in its first five years as a league member.

Success in the Best League in the Nation

- Rutgers finished tied for sixth in the Big Ten Conference standings. It was the team's second straight season finishing in the top half of the league's standings.
- Rutgers earned an opening-round bye in the conference tournament for the second straight season. Prior to last season, RU had not earned an opening round bye since the 1995 Atlantic 10 Championship.
- The No. 7 seed represents the highest that RU has ever been seeded in a Big Ten Tournament.
- The last time that RU finished top-6 in the league in two straight seasons was 1990-91 and 1991-92.
- The Big Ten was ranked as the nation's top conference by Ken Pomeroy, and Rutgers strength of schedule ranked as the 8th toughest nationally.

Winning Away From Home

- Won four conference road games, most since joining the Big Ten. The last time that RU won four road league games in a season was in 1990-91.
- It marks just the third time in the past 15 seasons that RU won four road games overall.
- Rutgers swept the home-and-home series with three opponents: Indiana, Northwestern and Minnesota. That marked the first time RU swept three home-and-home series since joining the Big Ten and first time since 1990-91. Rutgers swept five home-and-home series over the past two seasons after never previously achieving a sweep in Big Ten play prior.

Earning Recognition

- Spent 11 weeks nationally ranked or receiving votes in the Associated Press poll, peaking at No. 11 in the nation. Rutgers spent three weeks ranked in the top-15 nationally. The preseason ranking was the team's first since 1978-79.
- Geo Baker won Rutgers' first ever Big Ten Player of the Week award following his performance against Indiana (20 points, 10 assists, 5 rebounds).
- Ron Harper Jr. was named a Semifinalist for the Wooden Award and Finalist for the Julius Erving Award.
- Harper Jr. was named National Player of the Week by ESPN following consecutive 27- and 28-point outbursts in wins over Maryland and Illinois.

IN THE CLASSROOM

While student-athletes have had to deal with an upheaval to their typical mode of learning as classes transitioned to a virtual setting, the Scarlet Knights persevered and excelled. For the fall, Rutgers had a 3.48 term GPA as a team. The squad currently boasts a cumulative GPA of 3.24. 15 student-athletes hold a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or better. Seven student-athletes had a GPA of 3.5 or higher last semester: Myles Johnson, Caleb McConnell, Paul Mulcahy, Clifford Omoruyi, Mawot Mag, Daniel Lobach and Aiden Terry. Rutgers also earned the 2020 NABC Team Academic Excellence Award, earning the recognition for the first time in the eight-year history of the award. Myles Johnson and Nick Brooks were also named to the NABC Honors Court. Johnson was on the Dean's List every semester he was eligible with a 3.5 GPA in Engineering.

2019-20 NOTABLES

Last season was a historic campaign for the Scarlet Knights. Rutgers surpassed a number of milestones that for the first time in a long time.

A snapshot of the accomplishments:

- First 20-win regular season in 37 years, since 1982-83.
- First 20-win season overall in 16 years, since 2003-04.
- Earned most conference victories (11) in 29 years, since 1990-91.
- Posted first winning league record in 29 years.
- Had first winning season in 14 years, since 2005-06.
- 12-3 start was best through 15 games in 44 years, since the 1975-76 undefeated regular season.
- Earned first opening round bye in a conference tournament in 25 years, since the 1995 Atlantic 10 Championship.
- Most ranked wins (four) in 18 years, since the 2001-02 campaign.
- Joined the rankings for the first time in 41 years, since final 1978-79 poll.

HARPER JR. AWARD HUNTING

Ron Harper Jr. is on the Wooden Award Watch List (top player) and the Julius Erving Award Watch List (top small forward). Harper Jr. was one of 20 players to make the Late Season Watch List for the Wooden Award and was listed as a Midseason All-American. He is one of five remaining candidates for the Julius Erving Award.

GEO BAKER: ALL CLASS

Geo Baker was named as one of the 30 candidates nationwide for the Senior CLASS Award. The award focuses on the total student-athlete and use the platform in athletics to make a positive impact as leaders in their communities, something that Baker has continued to do as a Scarlet Knight as he has spoken out against racial injustice and inspired future generations of Scarlet Knights to replicate his 'step-back' challenge and positive works. In addition to this honor, Baker was named Preseason All-Big Ten and to the Bob Cousy Award Watch List.

WHAT ARE YOU GRATEFUL 4?

Amidst the challenges that pandemic has brought, sophomore Paul Mulcahy stepped up to have a proactive and positive voice in the community. He started the 'Grateful4 Foundation'. Playing off of his uniform number (#4), Mulcahy started a social media initiative challenging others to name four things that they are grateful for, inspiring others to adopt a positive mindset.

BLK DEV

In addition to being an elite big man in the Big Ten, junior Myles Johnson has always been extremely dedicated to his academic pursuits in the School of Engineering. Recently, he founded the BLKdev organization, which seeks to inspire African-American youths to get involved with the world of STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics). He created a website that features educational resources, scholarship application information, black STEM news and a collection of stories that show representation to the young students he hopes to inspire. Johnson spends his mornings working as a Firmware Development Intern with IBM.

SPEAKING UP FOR CHANGE

As social injustices have been prevalent this year, members of the program have been vocal to speak up for change, including in participating in marches for social justice. Another effort that the student-athletes have spearheaded is the creation of a uniform patch for this season. This patch, of which there are five different versions, feature different sayings that the team chose that were meaningful to them. The five patches read "Better Together" (traditional white jersey), "End Racial Inequality" (black jersey), "Love Conquers Hate" (throwback white jersey), "Say Their Names" (road red jersey) and "We are the Change" (throwback red).

HOME COOKING

Last year, RU secured the most regular season home wins in the nation (18) and set a program record for home wins in a season. The RAC was ranked among the top-5 venues in the nation by The Front Office. This season there will be no fans at the RAC as Rutgers abides by attendance limits set by the Governor's office. However, there will be cutouts populating the seats. Behind the basket are Shining Knight cutouts, honoring pediatric patients facing healthcare challenges. RWJBarnabas Health, the Official Healthcare provider of Rutgers Athletics, introduced the Shining Knight of the Game during the 2019 Football Season. This meaningful initiative was designed to lift the spirits and shine the spotlight on a pediatric patient, teenager or young adult facing adversity and living with various healthcare challenges. There are also a number of celebrity cutouts of notable Rutgers alumni, the Sopranos cast and famous New Jersey bred celebrité. Additionally, Rutgers is honoring a number of staff members in facilities and athletic training that served as essential workers, continuing to do their jobs in person throughout the pandemic.

HOLDING FOES UNDER 40

In the shot clock era, Rutgers has held an opponent under 40 points 10 times. Steve Pikiell has been the head coach in six(*) of those contests.

Opponent	Date	Site	Result

CAPTAINS

The Scarlet Knights recently named additional captains. Joining Geo Baker (a returning captain) are Myles Johnson and Mamadou Docuoure.

SPEED LIMIT: 65

Rutgers' head coach Steve Pikiell preaches defensive intensity, with a 'speed limit' in mind: a goal of holding opponents from surpassing 65 total points in the game (done nine times this season). The Scarlet Knights have gotten great presence from both their guards hounding the opponents' leading scorers, as well gaining a reputation for being a fierce shot blocking team for any foes that enter the paint.

CRAFTED TO HONOR THE PAST

The Scarlet Knights debuted a new throwback uniform in the win over Michigan State. The red uniform pays homage to the 1982-83 Rutgers team that was the last RU squad to win an NCAA Tournament game. Under head coach Tom Young, RU finished with a 23-8 record and won the Atlantic-10 regular season title, then defeated Southwestern Louisiana in the first round of the NAAs.

GETTING OLDER

The past few years, the resurgence of Rutgers basketball has been led by a youth movement, with the Scarlet Knights' accomplishments coming with one of the younger rosters in the NCAA. Last season, Rutgers ranked 242nd in the nation in terms of experience. This season, Rutgers boasts on older roster. Seven of the 12 scholarship players on this season are upperclassmen, as compared to five upperclassmen last season.

WELCOME NEWCOMERS

The Scarlet Knights welcome in a highly anticipated four-member freshman class to the roster. The class is highlighted by Cliff Omoruyi, a consensus four-star prospect from Roselle Catholic in New Jersey. He is joined by Oskar Palmquist, who enrolled early to begin practicing with the team in the spring, and forwards Mawot Mag and Dean Reiber. Jaden Jones, a high-profile recruit as member of the Class of 2021, enrolled early to join the team for the spring semester and begin practice.

Jersey Roots, Global Reach

That Rutgers University motto rings true with the members of the men's basketball program. The team has a stronghold of key New Jersey players, with four-star signees from New Jersey in three consecutive classes (Cliff Omoruyi (2020), Paul Mulcahy (2019) and Ron Harper, Jr. (2018)) electing to stay home. New Jersey is the most represented state on the program's roster, with five members of the team playing high school basketball in New Jersey. Overall, the roster is diverse, with eight different states (New Jersey, New Hampshire, North Carolina, Maryland, Florida, Kentucky, Texas and California) and five different countries (USA, Sweden, Australia, Nigeria and Mali) represented.

80+ CLUB

With 11 letterwinners returning, the Scarlet Knights bring back a large percentage of their production from last season. RU brings back 80% of its scoring, 81% of its rebounding, 92% of its assists, 84% of its steals and 80% of its blocks. Rutgers is one of just two Power 5 programs to bring back at least 80% of production in each category, and the lone team to reach 80% in all five categories in the Big Ten.

WHAT THE MEDIA IS SAYING ABOUT RUTGERS

- "I love them. I love their identity. They are going to rebound, they'll defend. Their backcourt is as physical as any in the Big Ten. They can guard the ball, they can attack, they can make shots. They have a tremendous toughness about them. I think they'll be in the upper third of the Big Ten. Steve's done an incredible, incredible job. He's gotten his type of guys. He's built it like Jim Calhoun built the UConn program. I enjoy watching them play and I think they're a really special team."
Seth Greenberg, ESPN
- "The Scarlet Knights have become a thing in college basketball for the first time in a very long time. Pikiell has had to build his roster the hard way, not by out-recruiting his competitors so much as out-evaluating them. The resources for sustained success are now in place. They know they have a lot more room to rise."
Seth Davis, The Athletic
- "Breaking into the AP poll in year four was a huge accomplishment for Steve Pikiell, who is one of the nicest men in the industry. Just a kind and humble man. Coaches always talk about building it the right way, brick by brick, and here's an example of a guy really doing that."
Gary Parrish, CBS Sports
- "Steve Pikiell has made Rutgers basketball nationally relevant. So damn cool. Ron Harper Jr. should write a book, titled: How to Make Major Strides During a Pandemic"
Jeff Goodman, ESPN
- "Steve Pikiell, what a great job he's done, they're ranked in the top-25. This is an elite defensive group. Their offense has gotten better every year. They've come such a long way under coach Pikiell. They've got great size. They can crush you on the glass. Rutgers has been terrific and Steve Pikiell deserves a lot of the credit for what they've done."
Robbie Hummell, BTN
- "No question, Rutgers can finish in the top-4 in the Big Ten in the 2020-21 season. They added a big time recruit in Cliff Omoruyi from New Jersey, a rim protector, still getting better offensively. You add him to Myles Johnson inside, that's a great 1-2 punch. They also bring back Geo Baker, a big shot maker, Ron Harper Jr., who you can count on at both ends of the floor. I love Jacob Young's defense. Paul Mulcahy, Montez Mathis, another on the ball defender who can keep a perimeter driver out of the lane. This Rutgers team is going to defend. They're going to play extremely hard. They're going to win games at The RAC, maybe every one. They'll win games on the road this season too."
Andy Katz, NCAA.com
- "They can contend for a Big Ten Championship if they stay healthy and get some breaks. They're always going to play defense, that's a constant with them. Now they have multiple ways to score the ball and that's what makes them so dangerous. Steve's defense is always going to make it tough to score. Now they can win a game in the 50s or in the 80s with the way they can play at both ends of the floor."
John Beilien, Former Michigan Head Coach
- "Rutgers is a team that hasn't been talked about enough nationally, but Rutgers is legit. They are really good. Ron Harper Jr. is an excellent scorer. Geo Baker, Myles Johnson, who gobbles up just about every rebound. Jacob Young is a really good player. They're very, very good."
Jay Bilas, ESPN
- Ron Harper Jr. has turned himself into one of the best players in college basketball. Big time shooter with an outstanding feel for the game.
Jonathan Givony, ESPN
- "Steve Pikiell has built a program that will be a legitimate contender at the top of the Big Ten in what should be the deepest year that the conference has seen in recent memory. The Scarlet Knights have experience, depth, elite rim protection, and a burgeoning star in Ron Harper Jr. The Scarlet Knights are now a team that others are chasing. Expect that sentiment to continue all season long."
Jon Rothstein
- "Steve Pikiell has done an amazing job at Rutgers. Having followed his career, I'm not surprised. He's a blue-collar guy, a hard hat guy, and he's got a really good nucleus. They were going to be a NCAA Tournament team last year. I really like their team."
Fran Fraschilla, NCAA.com

WHAT OTHER COACHES ARE SAYING ABOUT RUTGERS

- "This is a really good Rutgers team. They play with a lot of confidence. Ron Harper Jr. is playing at an all league level. Jacob Young has been terrific. They have a lot of good players."
Maryland Head Coach Mark Turgeon
- "Rutgers is a tremendous opponent that's very deserving of their ranking. A veteran team that has excellent perimeter play and is one of the top defensive teams in the country. They're very connected on the defensive end. They have great athleticism in the paint and depth in the size of guys that protect the rim."
Illinois Head Coach Brad Underwood
- "This is a tremendous Rutgers team. They are deep, balanced, really well coached. They have a lot of returning guys and emerging guys in terms of all-conference caliber players. Myles Johnson has tremendous size. He is a really effective big in our league that doesn't get talked about enough."
Ohio State Head Coach Chris Holtmann
- "Ron Harper Jr. is a very good player. He's very poised and good about picking his spots and taking what comes to him. Jacob Young is a hard charging, tough cover, good player. He can make a pull-up, make a three, drive, try and dunk on you. Great in transition, coming at you. Geo Baker is a phenomenal player, a veteran, experienced shot maker. Myles Johnson is leading the league in blocks, he's long, he can score at the rim. They have a lot of pieces. You have to be able to guard them and handle their pressure. They're a physical team, a good rebounding team. Steve Pikiell is a great coach. He's blue collar and he fits in the Big Ten. You know when you play his teams, they are going to compete and lay it on the line. They're physical. They have shot makers now. They can get you in transition, in the half court. They have good size. Rutgers has done a good job of finding themselves a great coach, they've done a great job of accumulating a team, but also playing together. They've got good individual pieces. Guys are working, they are developing. But they're also tough. I have a lot of respect for them."
Purdue Head Coach Matt Painter
- "Steve Pikiell didn't take shortcuts. He came in here; he has his philosophy of how he wants to play and the kind of players he wants to recruit. They've done a great job in evaluation. You look out there and there are a lot of guys who maybe by the star rankings and all of that, but they found guys that fit how they want to play and they've developed them. They've done a great job with that and now they're getting a lot of confidence. I sensed it with us when we did our build to get to the tournament. The difference from hoping you're going to win versus believing you're going to win and you see that in their kids' eyes, especially at home. I've been a big fan of Steve (Pikiell), I've always been. He's a terrific coach and his kids play really hard. He's done a great job building this program."
Northwestern Head Coach Chris Collins
- "That is a really, really good basketball team. They're well coached, they are quick and they are aggressive. They fly around defensively. Their defensive effort is really good and it has been since Steve has been there."
Iowa Head Coach Fran McCaffery
- "There is no one I like more in this league than Steve Pikiell. Since day, his humility and humbleness, he coaches with an old school mentality. His teams are tough, they work hard. I love the way he's built it. Last year they got better, this year they are a lot better. Ron Harper Jr. has turned himself into not just one of the better players in the league, but one of the better players in the country. He's upped his value tremendously, and that's what happens when a team plays together. Geo Baker is improving each and every game. Jacob Young is another one of the most improved players in the game. Myles Johnson is blossoming into a very nice player. They now have experience and guys know what it's like to go through the grind, and they just kept getting better and that's a credit to Steve. I think this is one of the best team in the league and one of the most well-coached teams in the league."
Michigan State Head Coach Tom Izzo
- "Rutgers plays with great energy, great intensity. They are a very physical team and they are tough on the defensive end. That's a veteran group with a lot of chemistry and they are well coached."
Northwestern Head Coach Chris Collins

UTILIZING THE LATEST TRAINING TECHNOLOGIES

Assistant Athletics Director-Strength and Conditioning David VanDyke and Athletic trainer Rich Campbell have made a significant impact on the health and well-being of men's basketball student-athletes. In their initial four seasons, men's basketball players have been sidelined a total of just 20 combined games due to injury. The Scarlet Knights had three total games missed among players in 2019-20, three in 2018-19, 11 in 2017-18 and three in 2016-17.

Rutgers strives to implement the latest technologies to benefit its programs and student-athletes. In that effort, men's basketball utilizes Sparta Science, Catapult, Polar Team Pro and GymAware. Sparta Science provides an objective measure of how players react to gravity with validated scientific assessments and provides evidence-based training prescriptions. Catapult replaces laboratory-based performance testing with microtechnology to obtain actionable data in real time regarding performance. Polar Team Pro provides real-time heart rate data to make objective decisions. GymAware is the gold standard Linear Positional Transducer (LPT with angle measurement) for measuring performance, implementing Velocity Based Training and monitoring power.

Before and after every season, men's basketball welcomes BAM (Basic Athletic Measurement) to the RAC to conduct player testing. A team of strength and conditioning coaches and technology professionals who utilize the most reliable methods and precise measuring tools, BAM has conducted the NBA Draft combine since 2009. Results are registered to a BAMScore™, a proprietary index for reliably measuring athletic performance, and placed in a requisite category. As a result, players receive the information necessary to gauge personal and professional aspirations.

WELCOME SIGNEES

Rutgers welcomed the newest two Scarlet Knights on November 11 as Jaden Jones and Jalen Miller signed NLLs. Jaden Jones graduated high school early to enroll at Rutgers for the spring semester and began practicing on January 16, while Jalen Miller is set to join the Scarlet Knights for the fall.

Jaden Jones

Guard / Forward

6-8, 195

Dallas, Texas / DasCHE Spartans

Prior to Rutgers:

Four-star prospect ... earned MVP honors at the Wooten Top 150 camp in Mansfield, Texas ... as a junior, averaged 25 points and six rebounds per game ... ranked as high as the No. 96 ranked recruit and the No. 22 wing by 247 Sports ... previously played at Prolific Prep in California where he was a teammate of current Scarlet Knight Mawot Mag ... chose Rutgers over reported finalists LSU, Arizona, USC, Alabama, Colorado and San Diego State

Coach Pikiell on Jones:

"We are so excited to welcome Jaden Jones into our Rutgers family. Jaden is a multi-position, versatile player that is a talented scorer who can really shoot the basketball and score at all three levels. He has great work ethic and he continues to improve. He is exceptional young man that comes from a great family and is a great student. He brings the whole package to Piscataway. Jaden is going to have a great career here at Rutgers and I can't wait to coach him."

Jalen Miller

Guard / 6-3, 190

Cumberland, Md. / Bishop Walsh School

Prior to Rutgers:

Averaged 15 points, 10 assists and 5.5 rebounds as a junior. .. ranked as high as No. 235 in the nation and the No. 42 point guard by 247 Sports ... number three ranked player in Maryland by Prep Hoops ... consensus three-star prospect ... chose Rutgers over 17 reported scholarship offers

Coach Pikiell on Miller:

"Rutgers nation is going to love Jalen Miller. He is a tough and athletic, two-way point guard who comes to us from a terrific program. He can get to the rim, he is an exceptional defender and most importantly, he's an exceptional student and a young man that will represent the Scarlet Knights the right way. He possesses all the tools we want in a Rutgers basketball player. We're really excited to have him join us."

Coach Pikiell on Oskar Palmquist

"Oskar is a 6'8 versatile, athletic and tough player with a tremendous basketball IQ. The combination of his skill set and work ethic excites us greatly. He is a member of the Swedish national team and his experience competing at the international level has prepared him well to come in and compete in the Big Ten. His athleticism and ability to shoot the ball are really exciting to us with his ability to score at all three levels."

Coach Pikiell on Cliff Omoruyi

"Cliff checks all the boxes for us. He is a great addition to the Rutgers University community. He is a great kid, a great student and is driven to reach his full potential on and off the court. He is extremely competitive and has a proven track record as a winner. He is a hard worker. We are excited to add the top player in the state of New Jersey to our core of talented returners and signees that we already have in place."

#15 MYLES JOHNSON

CENTER | JUNIOR | 6-11 | 255
LONG BEACH, CALIF. | LONG BEACH POLYTECHNIC HIGH SCHOOL

@MYLESTHEMONSTER

- Redshirt junior and team captain has started 45 times in his career
- Currently 2nd all-time at RU in career FG%, and 8th in blocks
- Finished reg. season second in the Big Ten in blocks and fifth in rebounds
- Had 60+ blocks and 25 steals, the only player in the Big Ten and one of two in Power 5 (Evan Mobley, USC) to reach those marks.
- Putback dunk against Michigan State was #1 play on SportsCenter
- Has been tremendously successful and involved off the court, both in the classroom and the community
- Established BLKdev, an initiative to inspire minority youths to participate in STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics)
- Doing firmware development internship currently with IBM
- Academically, has been named to Dean List in every eligible semester while earning Engineering degree.
- Two-time Big Ten All-Academic honoree (2019-20 and 2018-19) and named to NABC Honors Court in 2020
- Featured on B1G Impact Roundtable on Big Ten Network on the role of college sports in the push toward greater equality
- Developed tremendous since needing to redshirt season as a freshman
- Chose Rutgers over offers from Ivy League schools and developed into one of the Big Ten's top big men.

Coach Pikiell on Dean Reiber

"Dean is a 6'10" versatile and skilled offensive player that plays the game with tremendous passion and energy. His ability to play multiple positions makes him a perfect fit for the way we want to play. His rebounding ability and toughness will translate well in the Big Ten, a league where those two things are crucial. Dean continues our trend of not just adding great players, but also great people. Dean is an honor roll student that comes from a tremendous family."

Coach Pikiell on Jaden Jones

"We are so excited to welcome Jaden Jones into our Rutgers family" Jaden is a multi-position, versatile player that is a talented scorer who can really shoot the basketball and score at all three levels. He has great work ethic and he continues to improve. He is exceptional young man that comes from a great family and is a great student. He brings the whole package to Piscataway. Jaden is going to have a great career here at Rutgers and I can't wait to coach him."
