THE KICKOFF

» The University of Louisville men's soccer team closes out the regular season with No. 1 Clemson on Friday night. Kickoff from Dr. Mark & Cindy Lynn Stadium is scheduled for 7 p.m. ET and will be televised on ACC Network Extra.

» Louisville earned its way back into the win column last Friday with a 2-1 victory over Virginia. Aboubacar Camara netted the first goal of the match before Eric Danquah outran the Cavaliers' back four for his first career goal to extend the lead. Virginia responded late on a converted penalty kick, but it was not enough as the two freshman secured the 2-1 win.

» Pedro Fonesca and Aboubacar Camara are tied for the team-lead with 11 points. Fonesca has contributed four goals and three assists, while Camara has recorded a team-high five goals and an assist. Elijah Amo ranks second on the team with three goals and three assists for nine points.

» Louisville trails the all-time series against Clemson 2-4-1, with all seven matches coming since the Cardinals became an ACC member. Louisville is 1-1-1 at home in the series. The teams last faced off inside Dr. Mark & Cindy Lynn Stadium on Oct. 20, 2018, when Elijah Amo netted the game-winning goal 20 seconds into the second overtime period.

LOUISVILLE HEAD COACH: JOHN MICHAEL HAYDEN

John Michael Hayden, a Louisville native who served as an assistant coach with the Cardinals for four seasons, was named head coach of the University of Louisville men's soccer program by UofL Vice-President/Director of Athletics Vince Tyra on Dec. 27, 2018.

Hayden became the fifth head coach in the history of the UofL men's soccer program, which completed its 40th season in 2018. During his four seasons as an assistant coach with the Cardinals (2012, 2016-18), the program accumulated a 52-19-11 record overall with four NCAA Championship berths, three Elite Eight appearances and two conference championships.

In his first season at the helm, Hayden led the Cardinals to a 10-8-2 overall record and a 3-4-1 record in ACC play. The Cards handed eventual national champion Georgetown its only loss of the season with a 1-0 double overtime victory at Lynn Stadium. Hayden became the first Louisville head coach to lead the Cardinals to a pair of NCAA wins in their first season, including an upset of No. 14 UC Davis. The Cards qualified for the NCAA Tournament for the fourth straight year. The Cardinals advanced to the third round of the NCAA Tournament for the third time in the last four years and the seventh time in the last 10 seasons. Under Hayden, Cherif Dieye was named to the All-ACC Second Team and was named a United Soccer Coaches All-South Region Second Team. Dieye became UofL's 23rd player chosen all-time in the MLS SuperDraft and the seventh player to be drafted in the first round.

In three seasons as an assistant at UofL from 2016-18, the Cardinals 38-13-10 overall. Louisville registered its first ACC Championship title in 2018, defeating Notre Dame, Wake Forest and North Carolina in a span of eight days to win the ACC championship.

UofL reached the NCAA Tournament in all three seasons, including national quarterfinal appearances in 2016 and 2017.

Prior to returning to Louisville, Hayden served as associate head coach at Xavier University in 2015 helping the Musketeers compile 12 wins and earn a No. 10 ranking in the NSCAA poll. XU won at No. 2 Notre Dame and No. 1 Creighton during the fall, widely considered to be the first time any team had knocked off the top two NSCAA-ranked teams on the road in the same season.

Hayden joined the Musketeers after spending two successful seasons as an assistant coach at Lipscomb University, where he helped the Bisons to a program-best 12-4-1 record and A-Sun regular season title in 2014. Lipscomb was 21-13-3 overall during his two years in Nashville, racking up several conference honors in the process. Hayden trained the 2014 A-Sun Defender of the Year, Luke Gearin, and the A-Sun Freshman of the Year, Ivan Alvarado. In 2013, he mentored A-Sun Player of the Year Omar Djabi and assisted A-Sun Coach of the Year Charles Morrow – both program firsts for the Bisons.

Ahead of his two years at Lipscomb, Hayden helped lift Louisville to a 14-6-1 record, a BIG EAST Red Division regular season championship and an Elite Eight appearance in the NCAA Tournament during a highly successful 2012 season. Before his first stint with the Cardinals, Hayden served as Director of Coaching with the Kentucky Fire Juniors USYSA club, obtaining his USSF National "A" coaching license and traveling to Spain with U.S. Soccer as part of a development workshop with the international powerhouses FC Barcelona and Real Madrid.

Hayden was a decorated player before transitioning into coaching, playing collegiately at Indiana University winning back-to-back NCAA championships with the Hoosiers in 2003 and 2004. He scored an overtime header against No. 3 Maryland in the 2004 College Cup, sending IU to the title match. During his sophomore season, Hayden scored career-highs with seven goals, four assists and 18 total points – tying for the team lead with six game-winning goals. Hayden was a Big Ten All-Conference selection in 2004 and 2006 and was named to the NCAA College Cup All-Tournament Team during the Hoosiers' 2004 title run.

In 2007, Hayden was selected 13th overall in the MLS SuperDraft by the Houston Dynamo. His pro debut came on July 10, 2007 in the Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup against Charleston Battery. In his rookie season, the Dynamo won an MLS Cup Championship. He wrapped up his professional career after signing with the Louisville Lightning in January of 2010.

A two-time Parade Magazine All-American at Louisville's Trinity High School, Hayden was named NSCAA/adidas Kentucky Player of the Year along with Gatorade and Eurosport honors. When he signed with IU, he was recognized as a top-25 recruit by Soccer America.

In 2007, Hayden married Hollie Minogue, who played soccer for Louisville's women's team and the couple has two sons, Liam and Jacob.

MULTI-GOAL GAMES

CAMARA PROVING TO BE SCORING THREAT

Freshman Aboubacar Camara recorded a goal and an assist in six matches during the fall. However, he has been the top scoring threat for the Cardinals during the spring season.

Camara recorded the opening goal at NC State, the second tally in the win over Syracuse, the first goal at Wake Forest, and netted the early lead vs. Virginia. Three out of his four goals this spring have come off assists from senior Elijah Amo.

CARDINALS LIGHT UP THE SCOREBOARD TO OPEN SPRING

In the midst of the recent two-match winning streak, Louisville found the back of the net six times compared to the 10 total goals scored in the fall. The last time the program scored six goals over a two-game stretch was back-to-back 3-0 victories over in-state rival Kentucky and Florida Atlantic in the opening weeks of the 2019 season. Louisville remains undefeated (4-0-1) this season when scoring two or more goals.

SPRING SEASON OFFERS CLEAN SLATE

With the 2020 season spread across the fall and spring semesters, the spring season presents a clean slate to teams in the ACC.

The conference standings are reset for the spring and ACC teams will play six matches. Teams will return to two divisions, Atlantic and Coastal, and play five matches within their division as well as one cross-division game.

The Atlantic Division champion will play the Coastal Division champion at the higher seed on April 13. The winner of the divisional champion match will play at Clemson (which won ACC Championship in the fall) on April 17 to determine the ACC's automatic qualifier for the NCAA Tournament. If Clemson is the Atlantic Division champion, the April 13 match will not be played.

CARDINALS ADD SIX TO SPRING ROSTER

Head coach John Michael Hayden added six student-athletes to the roster for the spring season, with four eligible to play immediately.

Detre Bell (Cal State Bakersfield), Zeiko Harris (Appalachian State) and Matty Walters (Bowling Green) all transferred after their programs didn't play in the fall, while Macoumba Ba arrived on campus from Senegal.

Bell started 43 matches in goal at CSUB, recording 11 shutouts, while Harris was a three-year starter at Appalachian State and the 2019 Sun Belt Conference Defensive Player of the Year.

AMO, CONTE SELECTED IN MAJOR LEAGUE SOCCER SUPERDRAFT

Seniors Lamine Conte and Elijah Amo were each taken in the 2021 Major League Soccer SuperDraft in January. Elijah Amo was selected in the second round with the 34th overall pick by Real Salt Lake, while Lamine Conte followed six picks later at No. 40 to New York Red Bulls.

Amo and Conte are the 24th and 25th student-athletes from Louisville chosen in the MLS SuperDraft all-time, giving the Cardinals 10 draft picks in the last five years.

FONSECA PICKING UP WHERE HE LEFT OFF

Junior forward Pedro Fonseca entered the 2020 season with high expectations after a strong close to the 2019 season and earning a spot on the ACC Preseason Watch List.

After missing a large chunk of 2019 due to injury, Fonseca returned in time for the postseason and made an immediate impact. The Brazilian scored in two of Louisville's three NCAA Tournament matches and added an assist in the other.

He has picked up right where he left off last season, finding the back of the net for four goals, adding three assists to his total. Fonseca has recorded goals against No. 1 Wake Forest, Notre Dame, and No. 5 Virginia, in addition to opening the spring portion of the season with a three-point performance at NC State. He is tied for the team-lead with 11 points in 13 matches this season.

ABDIKADIR DANGEROUS ON SET PIECES

Junior Haji Abdikadir tallied a goal in the final match of the fall at Notre Dame, but his biggest impact on the offensive end has been in the assist department. Abdikadir has served as the primary set piece taker for the Cardinals and helped them convert on three occasions.

Pedro Fonseca headed home a free kick against Wake Forest, while Bryce LeBel at Kentucky and Aboubacar Camara at Syracuse each put home goals off corner kicks from Abdikadir.

DR. MARK & CINDY LYNN STADIUM

After more than a decade of playing in the Cardinal Park Track and Soccer Stadium, the University of Louisville men's and women's soccer teams moved into the premiere soccer venue in the country in 2014.

Dr. Mark & Cindy Lynn Stadium, a $18.5 million, state-of-the-art soccer stadium features seating capacity for more than 5,300 and includes a 15,500-square-foot training center.

The natural turf field is surrounded by chairback seating for 2,300 in the main grandstand, bleacher seating for 900 in the east end zone and two berms, which can accommodate 2,100. It is the second-largest on-campus facility project the Cardinals have built.

In addition to the pitch, the complex surrounding the area is fully loaded to ensure Louisville's student-athletes enjoy their experiences. The building features separate team locker rooms in addition to their opponents, along with coaches' locker rooms. When they are not in competition or training, the men's and women's teams have the ability to spend time in their own lounge areas located in their respective locker rooms.

Also, Cardinal student-athletes and coaches will be provided an 830-square-foot meeting/video room for scouting purposes.

When Louisville is practicing or warming up before a match, they can take advantage of an approximately 700-square-foot indoor warm-up area designed to give the Cardinals the maximum space for training.

For fans entering arguably the best soccer stadium in the country, they are greeted by six ticket windows, staffed by Louisville's ticket office, to help limit long wait times. Upon gaining admission, fans will be greeted by the main concession stand that features up to 14 queues or they can stroll around the concourse that extends around the end lines.

Housed atop the grandstand at midfield, the press box has ample amounts of room and amenities to accommodate those covering the game. Adjacent to the press box is a donor suite, along with a separate television suite, radio suite, an area for the media as well as an operations room.

The Cardinals are 47-20-14 all-time at Dr. Mark and Cindy Lynn Stadium, including 14-10-6 against ranked foes. Louisville hosted NCAA Championship matches at Lynn Stadium during the 2014, 2016, 2017, 2018 and 2019 seasons.
