Last Time Out...

Marshall advanced in the NCAA Tournament with a tough 2-1 overtime victory over Fordham in the second round. Milo Yosef scored both goals for Marshall. The Herd took a 1-0 lead in the 25th minute as Yosef rifled in a shot off a pass from Vitor Dias. The Rams hit the equalizer in the 43rd minute and the teams went in at the half tied at 1-1. Both teams had chances in the second half. Marshall had three shots on goal, all stopped by Josh Levine the goalkeeper for Fordham. Oliver Semmler made an incredible diving stop with two minutes and 49 seconds left in regulation to help save the game for the Herd. Semmler laid out to his left side and got just enough of the ball to tip it and deflect it off the post and away from the net. Dias had one more shot on goal with one minute to go that was stopped by Levine. In overtime, Marshall had three shots while the Rams had just one. Fordham had a shot blocked just 33 seconds into the period. After that, the Herd maintained control. Pedro Dolabella had a shot saved in the 92nd minute and then Yosef took a shot that went wide in the 94th minute. Finally, in the 97th minute, Gabriel Alves made a few moves through the defense in the midfield and found an open Jamil Roberts on the left side who made a quick one-touch pass to the middle of the box where Yosef was charging in. Yosef knocked it in passed the keeper for the golden goal. Yosef has now three NCAA Tournament goals as he also scored the game-winner against West Virginia in the second round in 2019. In the match, Marshall outshot Fordham 16-9 and 8-2 on goal. The Rams had six corner kicks to the Herd's two, however Marshall's defense was up to the task every time.

Herd Notes

- Sunday will be the first ever meeting between Marshall and Clemson.
- On tuesday (May 4) Vitor Dias was named a MAC Hermann Trophy Semifinalist. Dias is the first player in program history named a semifinalist for this prestigious award.
- In four years under head coach Chris Grassie, Marshall is 42-24-9 good for a .620 winning percentage, including 26-5-5 (.792) over the last two championship seasons. In the four previous years before Coach Grassie took over, the Herd was 23-40-12, a .387 winning percentage.
- A Herd player has won C-USA Offensive MVP in back-to-back seasons for the 1st time in program history. Milo Yosef won the honor in 2019 and Vitor Dias claimed the award in spring 2021.
- Jamil Roberts is second all-time in team history with 20 career assists. He moved into second with an assist

- on the game-winner against FAU (4/3).
- Nathan Dossantos has been named C-USA Defensive Player of the Week three times this year including the last two weeks of the season. The centerback was a pivotal piece of a stifling Herd defense all season long. Jamil Roberts in a tweet said "just rename it the Dossantos Trophy already."
- The Marshall defense limited chances for its opponents all season long, but went through a particular streak of not allowing a shot on goal for 322 minutes and 58 seconds of clock time. The Herd allowed a goal to Old Dominion in the 25th minute back on March 27th. ODU did not register another shot on target through the double overtime draw. Marshall then held FAU and UAB without a shot on goal in back-to-back contests. No. 12 Charlotte finally broke the streak at 57:58 that was saved by Oliver Semmler in the Championship match.

- Vitor Dias stepped up in a big way in spring 2021 to lead the team with 6 goals & 16 points. He also led C-USA in points, and tied for the lead in points per game (1.50) and goals. Dias had two matches with a career-high 2 goals against WVU Tech & again at South Carolina.
- Jamil Roberts was drafted in the 3rd round, No. 77 overall, in the 2021 MLS Superdraft by Sporting Kansas City. It made back-to-back drafts that a Herd player was taken as Paulo Pita was picked No. 24 overall in the first round by Los Angeles FC in 2020. Pita was the first selection from Marshall since goalkeeper Daniel Withrow (4th Rd. Columbus Crew) in 2013. Roberts is the 5th Herd player selected. Byron Carmichael (2003 6th Rd. Kansas City Wizards) & Jeremy Ashe (2006 4th Rd. Chicago Fire) were the others.

Marshall in the Rankings

Back on September 24, 2001, Marshall was 6-1-0 including two wins over future Conference USA opponents UCF and FIU when the Herd received votes in the NCAA/United Soccer Coaches Poll (called the NSCAA - National Soccer Coaches Association of America at the time) for the first time in program history. Marshall was 26th overall, just outside of the Top 25. The Herd then defeated Western Michigan and Northern Illinois in Mid-American Conference action. Those two victories moved Marshall into the Top 25 for the first time with a ranking of 23rd on October 1, 2001. Unfortunately for the Herd, staying in the Top 25 was not in the cards as the squad lost its next two and eventually five of the next six. Two weeks with Marshall University listed as either a ranked or “also receiving votes” team.

On September 24, 2019, exactly 18 years later, Marshall found itself again moving into the national conversation following a 2-1 win over the 2018 National Championship Runners-Up the Akron Zips. The Herd was in the “also receiving votes” spot at 29th overall with a record of 5-1-1.

The following week, Marshall traveled to Old Dominion and came away with a convincing 4-1 victory. The Herd was again in the “also receiving votes” category and moved up to just on the cusp of the Top 25 at 26th overall on October 1.

Marshall then won two more matches at home over Dayton (2-0) and UAB (6-0). The Herd was still in the conversation, but slipped back one spot to 27th overall on October 8th. The next match could be the one that Marshall needed to move into the Top 25 for the first time in 18 years, a road contest at then No. 5 Charlotte.

The Herd went down to Charlotte and battled to a 0-0 draw against one of the top programs not only in Conference USA but in the country. That match was enough to open the eyes of many voters as the Herd jumped up from 27th overall to No. 21 on October 15, its highest ever ranking, and its first Top 25 ranking in 6,588 days.

Following the ranking, Marshall traveled west and came back with two more wins over Loyola Marymount (4-1) and San Diego State (5-1). With the convincing wins, the Herd moved up to 15th, a new highest ranking in program history. Marshall’s first match after the No. 15 ranking was a 2-2 draw on the road at Wright State. Following the draw, Marshall suffered just its second loss of the season in overtime at Florida Atlantic.

Despite the draw and the loss, the Herd stayed in the rankings dropping down to 20th. Conference USA for the third-consecutive week had four teams all in the top 25 with FIU (#13), Kentucky (#15), Charlotte (#18) and Marshall (#20).

Marshall returned to Hoops Family Field after a month on the road, ranked 20th, and defeated #15 Kentucky in front of a record crowd. After the win, Marshall moved up to 14th in the standings. It is the highest ranking in program history. All four of C-USA’s top teams still remained in the top 25 with Marshall (#14), Kentucky (#16), Charlotte (#17) and FIU (#19).

The Herd capped the regular season with a win at No. 19 FIU to take the top overall seed in the C-USA Tournament and the Regular Season Title. It was the first regular season championship for Marshall in C-USA and its first for the program since 2000, back in the Mid-American Conference days. When the rankings came out on Tuesday, Marshall was in its highest spot at No. 13. Conference USA still showcased its strong soccer programs with four teams in the top 25 with No. 15 Kentucky, No. 17 Charlotte and No. 23 FIU.

With the Herd’s wins over Kentucky and Charlotte in the Conference USA Tournament, Marshall has now moved up again to a new highest ranking of 11th. The Herd secured a first round bye in the NCAA Tournament and will host West Virginia on Sunday, Nov. 24.

In the spring of 2021, Marshall returned to the rankings in the first posting on March 2 and have stayed there the rest of the year. The Herd’s highest ranking of the season and in program history was No. 8 on March 16 and March 23. Marshall went into the regular season finale, and also the Conference USA Championship match, against No. 12 Charlotte and defeated the 49ers 2-0. It was the Herd’s 15th victory all-time over a ranked opponent and the seventh in the Coach Grassie era.

The top-seed, and 13th-ranked, Marshall men's soccer team is the 2019 Conference USA Tournament Champions and receive the automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament. The Herd defeated the No. 2 seed, and 17th-ranked, Charlotte 49ers, 1-0 Sunday afternoon in the second overtime. Junior Pedro Dolabella scored the Golden Goal in the 103rd minute.

The Thundering Herd wins its first double – conference regular season and tournament championship – in program history. Marshall improved to 15-2-3, a record number of wins in a single-season in team history. The Charlotte 49ers lost its third-straight C-USA Championship match.

"I can't imagine an ending like this," Dolabella said after hitting the game-winner. "We've been overlooked and we proved again that we are the best team. Whatever happens we are the best. Everybody deserves it. Nobody works harder than we do. So for all the Marshall fans, everybody in Huntington, this is for you. We love you. We Are Marshall!"

Dolabella was named the Tournament Offensive MVP. Senior Carlos Diaz-Salcedo was named Tournament Defensive MVP. Also joining Dolabella and Diaz-Salcedo on the All-Tournament Team are sophomore Vinicius Fernandes and redshirt sophomore Collin Mocyunas.

"I'm extremely pleased for our lads," third-year Herd head coach Chris Grassie said. "They were immense today. Charlotte is a very organized and difficult team to play again. And the strong wind made things very interesting, particularly in the first half. But we held strong and were brave enough to try and make the game.

"From the second half onwards there only looked like one winner! Pedro (Dolabella) was phenomenal today and thoroughly deserved the goal! It's great to win on a set piece. Paulo (Pita) was solid on net all day and came for every cross it seemed, so he took the pressure off. Carlos (Diaz-Salcedo) and Illal (Osmanu) were a wall and so comfortable on the ball. (Ryan) Sirk came on and did a great job for us. Collin (Mocyunas) was superb and didn't get beat once. Joao Pedro (Souza) was a real handful for them to deal with on the flank. Max (Schneider) was a beast today. Jonas (Westmeyer) and Vitor (Dias) did a great job in the midfield for us. Jamil (Roberts) and Milo (Yosef) were threatening all day long. Vini Fernandes was like Pedro, such a joy today. He (Fernandes) was unplayable with his skill and energy.

"We should definitely be seeded now, so we will look forward to another home match on Sunday. Let's see if we can break that home match attendance record for the second time this season! Go Herd!"

The match started right from the first whistle as a tough, physical battle between the top two seeds in the C-USA Tournament on a cold and very windy day. Charlotte dominated possession through the first 45 minutes and outshot Marshall 7-3 and 5-2 on goal. Redshirt senior keeper Paulo Pita recorded the save on all five shots to help keep the match scoreless. The 49ers thought it had grabbed the first goal in the 16th minute, but the flag came up for an offsides call on Charlotte on the near side of the field.

The Herd's two shots on goal in first half came from freshman Joao Souza and sophomore Vitor Dias.

In the second half, Marshall made the adjustment in the attack and put the pressure on the 49ers. As the Herd now played with the wind at its back, the squad outshot Charlotte 7-2 in the half with two on goal. Unfortunately for the Herd, Elliot Panico made both saves. Pita who was worked in the first half needed to make just one save in the second frame. Dolabella and junior Jamil Roberts had the two shots on goal for Marshall.

Just like when the two teams met back on Oct. 12, 90 minutes was not enough as the zeros rolled up on the clock and the title match was still scoreless with the Golden Goal in effect. First to score wins.

The first overtime period continued as a physical battle. Marshall managed the only shot during the 10-minute extra frame as redshirt freshman Milo Yosef was wide. Again, 100 minutes was not enough time to decide the Championship match, and so it moved to double-overtime.

Marshall now playing with the wind in its face, much like the first half, kept up the strong play and the pressure on Charlotte. After a foul and a yellow card against Marshall, Pita jumped out to stop any further effort on the free kick and immediately got the ball headed downfield. Roberts tapped the ball to Yosef who battle toward the end line and the ball deflected off a 49er defender to grant the Herd a corner kick.

Senior Jonas Westmeyer, who has taken nearly 80 corner kicks in his two-year Marshall career, sent the shot from the far corner to the near side of the goal. Dolabella leaped and sent the header low, which bounced off Panico's gloves and into the net. The celebration for the Herd ensued.

Behind second-half goals from senior midfielder Pedro Dolabella and junior defender Jan-Erik Leinhos and a shutout from junior goalkeeper Oliver Semmler, the No. 12 Charlotte 49ers (6-3-1, 6-1-0 C-USA) 2-0 on Sunday capturing the 2020 Conference USA Men's Regular Season Championship on Senior Day. The Herd earned a bid into the 2020-21 NCAA Division I Men's Soccer Tournament with the victory.

Semmler recorded his seventh shutout of the season, earning the 2020 Conference USA Golden Glove Award for most shutouts in the conference.

"We thought we had opportunities all day and all season," Marshall head coach Chris Grassie said after the win. "They were bringing the game to us, which I appreciate. They were trying to press us high. They left some gaps. We were able to stretch them in the second half and it opened all sorts of gaps from there."

Prior to the contest, MU honored Kyle Winquist and Jamil Roberts as part of the Senior Day ceremony.

Just over three minutes into the game, senior forward Jamil Roberts had an opportunity down the left wing, but he pushed the shot just right of the goal.

Sophomore midfielder Joao Souza had the lone shot on goal in the first half, but it was saved in the 42nd minute.

Charlotte nearly put the first goal in the net when an Alex Willis attempt hit the crossbar in the 62nd minute.

A little over two minutes later, the 49ers were called for a handball in the box and the Herd was awarded a penalty kick. Leinhos stepped up to the spot and hit the back of the net for his fourth goal of the season. The defender is 3-for-3 on penalty kicks this season, 5-for-5 in his career.

Then in the 69th minute, sophomore forward Milo Yosef left a ball for Dolabella, who struck it from outside the box, then had his shot go off the bottom of the crossbar and just cross the line to put MU up 2-0.

It was Dolabella's first goal of the season with his last coming on Nov. 17, 2019, in the 2019 C-USA Championship Game in a 1-0, two-overtime win over Charlotte.

Semmler then made three of his four saves in the second half in quick succession in the 79th, 82nd and 83rd minutes to preserve the victory for the Herd.

The journey for the Marshall men's soccer program has been one to savor. The next destination is sweet.

A rowdy record crowd of 2,126 rocked the aluminum bleachers at Hoops Family Field and witnessed history on a cool and windy Sunday afternoon.

In the first postseason meeting between the Mountain State's only Division I men's soccer programs – and in front of an ESPN audience – Marshall defeated visiting West Virginia, 2-1, to advance to the Sweet 16 in the Thundering Herd's first NCAA Tournament appearance.

"I feel like everyone was waiting for this game," Marshall senior goalkeeper Paulo Pita said. "The whole state."

The participants delivered on the biggest possible stage, and the end result is the latest on a lengthy list of accomplishments for the Herd men's soccer program this season. Marshall, which finished the season ranked No. 11 and is seeded the same in this 48-team event, has set a school record for wins (16), captured the regular season and post-season Conference USA championships, reached its highest national ranking in the program's existence, earned its first berth into the NCAA field, and then hosted – and beat – the Mountaineers in Huntington.

The college soccer world has been put on notice: Marshall has arrived.

"When I came to Marshall ... I made it clear that I was going to transfer to a top Division I soccer program because I wanted to make the next level," Pita said. "When I committed to Marshall a lot of people were like, why are you going to Marshall? Now, the answer is here: because this is a top Division I soccer program."

Marshall (16-2-3) struck first on a goal by junior Jamil Roberts, who took a ball from sophomore Collin Mocyunas and knocked it past the keeper from the left side to break the scoreless tie 9:37 into the match.

West Virginia, the Mid-American Conference tournament champions, found the equalizer 38:32 into the first half when Logan Lucas beat Pita on a header. That left little time before intermission for the Herd to find another goal.

Marshall's answer came with under three minutes left of the half when senior Jonas Westmeyer sent in a cross and freshman Milo Yosef headed the ball into the goal to give the Herd a 2-1 lead.

"To be fair, I think the ball would have went in without me," said Yosef, who was the C-USA Offensive MVP and Freshman of the Year. "Got a deflection of my hair and it went in."

The teams played to a scoreless second half, but Marshall dominated possession. The Herd out-shot the Mountaineers 11-8, and Marshall led in corner kicks, 11-4.

Marshall is one of the final 16 teams in the race to win the national championship. Last season, Maryland – also an 11 seed – captured the title. The Herd is hoping to reproduce that same magic, and the next stop will be the winner of Boston College and sixth-seeded Washington. Those teams meet Sunday night. In the next two rounds, the highest remaining seed will host, so Marshall could have additional games at Hoops Family Field before the College Cup – the men's soccer version of the Final Four – in Cary, North Carolina.

On Sunday afternoon, however, the Marshall coaching staff could take a few minutes to cherish a win against West Virginia. This matchup was the first meeting between the schools in 15 years.

"You've seen the atmosphere; it's really nice to have that rivalry just for the sake of soccer," said Peta Ivanovic, an assistant for Marshall head coach Chris Grassie. "You see the joy it brings to the people and how it unites the community. Chris and I have talked about it ... we're really making a lot of people happy and we're really happy ourselves. From that side it's really nice. We wish we could play them every year. I think it would be really nice. I think it would create a really nice atmosphere and push soccer and development in this state into the foreground."

The 11th-ranked Marshall men's soccer team's 2019 season came to an end Sunday night, 4-1, in the third round of the NCAA Tournament at No. 6 Washington.

The Thundering Herd ends the year with a 16-3-3 record. The Huskies improve to 17-3 and move on to play at the 3rd-ranked Georgetown Hoyas in the Quarterfinals.

Marshall was outshot 23-6 in the match and 13-2 on goal. The Huskies scored first in the eighth minute. Junior Jamil Roberts stepped up for a penalty kick in the 24th minute and converted for the equalizer against one of the best keepers in the country in Sam Fowler, who is second in the NCAA in goals against average entering the match. For Roberts, it was his eighth goal of the season, a career-high and second on the team.

Washington scored the go-ahead goal in the 43rd minute. Marshall trailed 2-1 at the halftime break. The Huskies scored two more times in the second frame.

Redshirt senior keeper Paulo Pita was busy during the match recording a season-high nine saves.

The Herd had a record-breaking season. The 16 wins bested the old mark of 14 set by the 2000 Marshall squad that also won the Mid-American Conference Regular Season title. The three losses are also a program record for the fewest in a season set by the 2000 team and tied in 2010 and 2012.

Marshall moved into the NCAA/United Soccer Coaches Poll back on Oct. 15, with a ranking of 21st. It was the first time the Herd was ranked since Oct. 1, 2001. Marshall also stayed in the Top 25 for the rest of the season and peaked with the No. 11 spot leading into the NCAA Tournament. The Herd saw its attendance steadily rise throughout the season, culminating in record-breaking crowds for Marshall's final two home matches.

The Herd won the Conference USA Regular Season Championship after being picked to finish fourth in the pre-season coaches' poll. Marshall finished off the double-championship feat after defeating the Charlotte 49ers with a Golden Goal by junior Pedro Dolabella in double overtime. The Herd was most likely looking at least an at-large bid into the NCAA Tournament, but the C-USA Cup win guaranteed Marshall its first ever trip into the NCAA postseason.

During a packed NCAA Selection Show watch party, Marshall learned that it had earned a first round bye and would be hosting a second round match. In front of a record crowd of 2,126, the Herd defeated the West Virginia Mountaineers, 2-1. Marshall's first NCAA Tournament match, and its first NCAA Tournament win.

Redshirt freshman Milo Yosef had a banner season with 12 goals. Yosef became the first Herd player to score double-digit goals in a season since Tom Jackson in 2011, and scored the most by a Herd player since Hall of Famer Byron Carmichael put up 15 goals in his senior season of 2002. Yosef led Conference USA in six offensive categories and was named Offensive MVP and Freshman of the Year.

Head coach Chris Grassie in just his third season at the helm has led Marshall on a steady climb. With eight wins in each of his first two seasons – as well as advancing to the semi-finals in the C-USA Tournament both years – Grassie doubled his win total and was named Coach of the Year.

The 2019 senior class of Paulo Pita, Illal Osmanu, Carlos Diaz-Salcedo, Jonas Westmeyer and Bryce Notardonato were all major pieces to the Herd's success. Pita played every minute in goal this season and recorded eight shutouts, the second-most in a season in team history, and was named the C-USA Co-Golden Glove Award winner. Osmanu was named Conference USA Defensive Player of the Week back-to-back weeks in October and was also honored as an all-conference First Team member. Diaz-Salcedo, the only player still on the team from the pre-Grassie days, was named the C-USA Tournament Defensive MVP and garnered All-Academic team honors. Westmeyer was second on the team in assists with nine, including the helpers on four game-winners. Notardonato was the back-up keeper who provided immense help and work to his teammates in practice.

Roberts with his 10 assists, tied the program record for most in a season and led Conference USA. The junior was also among the leaders in the country in assists as he entered the match at Washington tied for fifth in the NCAA.

Marshall was 12th in the country in scoring offense this season with 2.19 goals per game and tied for fifth, with third-ranked Georgetown, in total goals with 46 coming into today's action.

The future looks very bright for the Marshall men's soccer team, building off its best season in program history.

The 10th-ranked Marshall men's soccer team earned a 2-1, overtime victory against the 23rd-ranked Fordham Rams in the second round of the NCAA Tournament on Sunday. Redshirt sophomore Milo Yosef scored both goals for the Herd including the golden goal in the 97th minute.

The Thundering Herd improves to 10-2-2 and moves on the third round to face the No. 1 seed Clemson Tigers (14-3-2). That match is scheduled for Thursday, May 6. The season comes to an end for Fordham as the Rams suffered its first loss of the season finishing 7-1-2.

"It was tough," Herd head coach Chris Grassie said. "The pitch was very sticky. You could see the ball moving a little slower and so we had to slow things down a little bit. (Fordham) played very well (head coach) Carlo (Acquista) had them very well organized. In the second half we had a lot more opportunities to play and get in and we were trying to break them down, but they did a really good job and made it tough for us.

"Credit to the guys, they kept battling. And Milo Yosef finally hitting his stride. We had been talking about it that he was looking good, getting into the box. We just need to get him into the box and he is going to score goals."

Marshall advances to the third round with a 2-1 win for the second-straight season. The Herd beat WVU 2-1 in the second round in 2019. Yosef scored the game-winner in that match as well in the 42nd minute.

The first half was a defensive battle as both teams had five shots, the Herd had two shots on goal and the Rams had one on target. The first shot on goal was the first goal of the match from Yosef. The Aachen, Germany native received a pass from junior Vitor Dias on the near side and fired in a shot passed Josh Levine, the Rams keeper in the 25th minute. It was Yosef's first goal since scoring twice against WVU Tech on Feb. 21. Yosef did net two assists over the final three matches of the regular season with one on the game-winner against Florida Atlantic and again on the second goal against Charlotte for the Conference USA Championship.

The Rams hit the equalizer in the 43rd minute as Max Rogers scored his second goal of the season. Marshall did not sit back and wait for halftime as the Herd fired off four shots over the next 90 seconds including one on goal from Dias that was stopped by Levine. The teams went in at the half tied at 1-1.

In the second half, Marshall outshot Fordham 8-3, with 3-1 on goal, yet the defenses continued to make the plays on both side. The Herd had a couple of shot attempts blocked by the Rams' defense. Junior Vinicius Fernandes had the first shot on goal of the second half in the 80th minute, then almost three minutes later Yosef had another chance on goal, both were saved by Levine.

Junior goalkeeper Oliver Semmler made an incredible diving save toward the near post in the 88th minute to help save the game for the Herd. Semmler was completely stretched out, got his fingers on the ball to deflect it off the post and away from the net. Dias had one more shot on goal with one minute left and Levine made the save.

The teams were still tied at 1-1 after 90 minutes and headed to overtime.

In the extra period, Marshall again outshot Fordham 3-1. Senior Pedro Dolabella had a chance in the 92nd minute that was saved by Levine. Finally, in the 97th minute, freshman Gabriel Alves in the midfield found senior Jamil Roberts on the left side. Roberts took the pass and fired a low cross into the box that found Yosef for a quick touch passed the keeper and into the net for the golden goal and the celebration ensued. For Yosef, it was his second of the match, fourth of the year and 16th of his career. It was also the fifth time that Yosef has scored twice in a single match in his Marshall career. Roberts netted his team-leading fifth assist of the season and the 20th of his career.

Marshall then got together to watch No. 1 Clemson play American University, wanting to find out its opponent for Thursday. Clemson trailed 1-0 until hitting the equalizer in the 52nd minute, and then the game-winner in the 62nd minute for the 2-1 victory.

"Obviously Clemson is a top team and the number one seed for a reason," coach Grassie said. "We feel confident playing against anybody. We want to take this program to national prominence, want to win a national championship and you have to beat the best teams. We are excited about the opportunity to do that. It is going to be a fantastic football matchup and hopefully today was good prep for us to say 'hey wake up this is the tournament, time to go.'"

The match will be played at WakeMed Field in Cary, N.C.
