>>OPENING TIP

- Charleston Southern sees their third of three Atlantic Coast Conference teams in Clemson. The Bucs saw Wake Forest and Georgia Tech earlier in the year as the other two ACC schools.
- CSU eclipsed the century mark for the second time since in the 2021-22 campaign, amassing 119 points against Bob Jones.
- A.J. Hamrick had a career game against Bob Jones, recording just the second Charleston Southern double-double on the season.
- The Bucs will look to continue the success on the offensive side of the ball, but have struggles to score on the road in three previous road affairs. The Buc Dome has seen CSU score on average 118.5 in two contests.

LAST TIME OUT

- Four different Bucs were in double-digits at Georgia Tech last week, with Deontaye Buskey scoring 11 after being held scoreless in his last road contest at Wake Forest. Tahlik Chavez led the way for CSU with 15 on 5-15 shooting from the field. Both Buskey and Chavez hit three treys, the only two Bucs to hit multiple threes in the contest.
- Senior Sadarius Bowser had a big game on the block for CSU, scoring 10 points on 3-4 shooting from the floor to go along with a perfect 4-4 mark from the charity stripe. Freshman Taje' Kelly made the most of his first career start as well, matching Bowser's 10 points while grabbing three boards.
- Charleston Southern found themselves in a ballgame last time out with a chance to beat Georgia Tech in front of their home fans. CSU saw just a six-point deficit with less than seven minutes to play but was held scoreless after the four-minute mark to fall just short in Atlanta, Georgia.

A WIN ON FRIDAY WOULD...

- Give the Bucs their first ever over Clemson
- Be the Bucs first win over an Atlantic Coast Conference school in three tries

SCOUTING THE TIGERS

- Clemson is coming off two straight losses after starting the year 4-0. The two losses come in their play at the Charleston Classic, falling to a Top-25 team in St. Bonaventure in the semis and West Virginia in the consolation game.
- PJ Hall is leading the Tigers in the scoring department, as the sophomore forward bring a 14.5 points per game clip into the contest. Hall finished with a career-high 22 points against a tough St. Bonaventure side, while also chasing down eight rebounds in that game.

SERIES HISTORY

- Clemson leads the series 19-0.

Barclay Radebaugh has presided over one of the most successful stretches in Charleston Southern history during his 15 years as head coach. Radebaugh is the winningest coach in school history and one of only eight coaches to win multiple Big South Coach of the Year awards. He directed CSU to NIT berths in 2013 and 2015 as well as a trip to the CollegeInsider.com Tournament (CIT) in 2019 with a win over Florida Atlantic inside the Buc Dome.

Despite battling injuries down the stretch, Radebaugh led the Bucs to another Big South Conference quarterfinals run and came within minutes of defeating the top-seeded Radford Highlanders on their home floor. Under his tutelage, the Bucs also collected another Power 5 win over Missouri in the SEC taking down the Tigers 68-60 with stifling defense and clutch shooting from the floor. Phlandrous Fleming Jr. also became just the second Buccaneer to be named the Big South Defensive Player of the Year joining CSU Hall of Fame player Kelvin Martin.

For the second-straight season, the Bucs made a late-season charge to capture a top-six Big South Tournament seed as they took care of No. 10 USC Upstate in the Opening Round then proceeded to upset No. 3 Winthrop to reach the semifinals. The Bucs finished with an 18-16 overall record and 9-7 Big South mark and made their CollegeInsider.com Tournament (CIT) debut taking down Florida Atlantic from Conference-USA before battling with Big South foe Hampton. The Bucs' push as well as individual performances helped lead to two student-athletes earning All-Big South honors - highlighted by Christian Keeling making All-Big South first team and Dontrell Shuler earning All-Freshman honors.

Radebaugh delivered one of his best coaching jobs in 2017-18 as the Bucs won eight of their final 11 games and twice pushed UNC Asheville, the league's regular season champion, to the brink. Powered by Christian Keeling and a young nucleus featuring freshmen Phlandrous Fleming Jr. and Ty Jones, among others, CSU rallied from a 2-7 start to conference play to finish 9-9. CSU's 7-2 record during the second half of league action tied Asheville for the Big South's best mark. Included in that run was a win at eventual Big South Tournament champion Radford and the Bucs' first win at Winthrop since 2002. CSU also defeated Illinois State in overtime in November, knocking off a Redbirds squad that would go on to advance to the Missouri Valley Conference Tournament title game. Keeling collected Second Team All-Big South honors, while Fleming was named to the All-Freshman Team and was runner-up for Freshman of the Year.

In 2016-17, a young team with eight newcomers gelled late in the year under Radebaugh's guidance. CSU went 8-8 over its final 16 games to rebound from an 0-4 start to Big South play and build momentum for the coming season. Keeling led the way with one of the best freshman seasons in Big South history. Keeling set a CSU freshman scoring record with 539 points, becoming the sixth freshman in league history to tally 500 points. He was named to the Big South All-Freshman Team and was an honorable mention all-conference pick.

Radebaugh has established CSU as a perennial Big South contender thanks in part to its ability to protect the Buc Dome. CSU went 13-2 at home in 2014-15, improving its mark in the building over a six-year stretch (2009-10 to 2014-15) to 67-18 overall, and 39-13 in Big South play.

Radebaugh led CSU to the National Invitation Tournament in 2015. The Bucs made the most of the experience just as they did in 2013, leading Old Dominion by six points at halftime before falling to the top-seeded Monarchs.

The postseason bid was CSU's second in three years after the program had just one in its first 47 years.

Saah Nimley capped off a brilliant playing career under Radebaugh's guidance by capturing Big South Player of the Year accolades. He was also named an Associated Press Honorable Mention All-American, making him the first player in program history to receive the honor. Only 63 players in the entire country were recognized by the AP. Nimley finished the year ranked 5th nationally in scoring and three-pointers per game, had 17 20-point games, seven 30-point games, and was the only player in the country to record four consecutive 30-point efforts.

Will Saunders garnered 2nd Team All-Conference accolades under Radebaugh's tutelage, while Arlon Harper was named Honorable Mention All-Conference.

In 2012-13 the sophomore backcourt of Saah Nimley (All-Big South 1st Team) and Arlon Harper (All-Big South 2nd Team) led CSU to an NIT berth for just the second postseason appearance in program history. Radebaugh and a still young squad made the most of the experience, giving top-seeded Southern Miss all it could handle in a 78-71 loss before a raucous partisan crowd in Hattiesburg.

Radebaugh earned Big South Conference Coach of the Year honors for his efforts in 2011-12, as the Bucs went 19-12 and advanced to the conference tournament semifinals behind a starting lineup which featured three freshmen and a junior college transfer. CSU's 19 wins were the program's most since 1994-1995, as the Bucs secured their first winning season since 1996-1997. Senior Kelvin Martin led the way for Radebaugh's young group, as the forward played his way onto the all-conference first team while earning a nod as the league's defensive player of the year for a second consecutive season. The freshmen duo of Saah Nimley and Arlon Harper helped power a CSU offense which featured outstanding balance and had four players in double figures for the majority of the season (Martin, Nimley, Harper, and Mathiang Muo). As a team, CSU finished the season 22nd nationally in scoring (76.9 ppg), 20th in three-point field goals per game (8.4), 30th in three-point field goal percentage (38.0%), 40th in steals per game (8.1) and 27th in turnover margin (+2.7).

The Bucs opened the season in style when they led Big 12 power Kansas State by 14 at halftime, before taking the Wildcats all the way to the wire in a 72-67 loss. Radebaugh's squad also enjoyed a home-and-away sweep of Atlantic Sun foe Stetson, a 33-point home victory over VMI, an 18-point blowout of then first-place Campbell, a triumph at Big South regular season and tournament champion and previously undefeated UNC Asheville, and a conference tournament win over Liberty.
