STANDOUT MOMENTS

- Sophomores Regan Spencer and Millie Thompson threw Clemson's first combined no-hitter against Kent State, a five-inning run-rule victory.
- Sophomore McKenzie Clark hit the program's first inside the park home run against Akron on Feb. 26 dropping a ball into right center. She crossed home two steps ahead of the throw reaching the plate.
- Freshman Aby Vieira recorded her first collegiate home run with a grand slam out of right center against Akron. The grand slam was Clemson's first of the season.
- The Tigers defeated No. 13/8 Duke in run-rule fashion for another program first picking up a five-inning 10-2 win behind an eight strikeout performance from Thompson in the circle.
- Clemson finished with 10 home runs against the Tar Heels led by Marissa Guimbarada hitting four, Logoleo hitting three - including a grand slam, Vieira hitting two and Maddie Moore tallying one.
- Guimbarada was named ACC Co-Player of the Week after the UNC series where she recorded four homers and eight RBIs. Guimbarada was also selected as one of the top NFCA performances of the week alongside teammate Alia Logoleo who tallied four home runs and 12 RBIs through four games.
- Thompson threw her first solo-career no-hitter with a five inning performance against Furman. Thompson threw only 52 pitches, 38 strikes, and picked up two strikeouts on the way to earning the Tigers' fifth program no-no.
- Arielle Oda tallied her first career home run with a two-run shot out of right field in the second game against Furman.

MCKENZIE "PIE" CLARK

- Sophomore McKenzie Clark got off to a slow start in 2022 but hit her stride nicely in the middle of the season ready to prove why she was an ACC Preseason Selection.

- Clark, best known by her nickname "Pie," has been flexible and productive in the lineup floating between the leadoff and second spot.
- Clark is batting .352 in conference play clocking 19 hits - including five home runs - 14 runs scored and 12 RBIs.
- On the season, Clark is batting .316 off 42 hits with 22 RBIs and 32 runs scored. She has also stolen six bases and hit seven home runs - including an inside the park homer vs. Akron.
- She holds a 20-game reached-base streak heading into the Florida State series.
- Defensively, Clark is one of three consistent starters that has posted a perfect 1.000 fielding percentage covering the center field grass with ease and grace putting her on pace to be in the top running for an inaugural Golden Glove Award. She has 32 putouts and three assists on the year.

FIRST 100

- Clemson softball played its 100th game in program history on March 13 against Illinois at the Tiger Invitational. The Tigers won 4-0 behind Millie Thompson's first collegiate career shutout with a career-high 11 strikeouts.
- The 100th game was played almost five years to the date of the program being announced - program addition was announced on March 14, 2017.
- Through the first 100 games, the softball team paced itself to tie the best start by any program at Clemson. Softball ties women's tennis with 78 wins. Other sports at Clemson can be found below.
- Clemson is now closing in on 100 wins in less than three years.
- The softball team is once again on pace to hit 100 victories in the fewest games. The only team close to competing with it is women's tennis who hit 100 wins in only the 128 game played. Softball is has 96 wins through 123 games entering the FSU series.

CAREER MILESTONES

- Clemson softball reaches new milestones both as a team and individually every day.
- Against Notre Dame, three Tigers hit career benchmarks.
- Valerie Cagle opened the series on Thursday earning her 50th career win in the circle. She followed that on Saturday with her 500th career strikeout in only 84 appearances.
- Millie Thompson also hit a big milestone striking out 150th batter on Friday's game.
- Sam Russ rounded out the Tigers when she stole her 22nd base on the year and 125th of her career vs. the Fighting Irish. Russ is one stolen bases away from tying Clemson's single-season record (23) with McKenzie Clark in 2021 and two from holding it outright.

MILLIE ROCKED

- Sophomore left-handed pitcher Millie Thompson has come into her own in her second season with the program.
- She is posting a 1.62 ERA through 18 appearances and 78 innings pitched. She has three solo shutouts, the first three of her career, and has combined for five.
- She is second on the team with nine wins and has struck out 80 batters while only allowing 54 hits and giving up only 10 walks.
- Thompson started the season throwing a combined no-hitter with teammate Regan Spencer.
- She followed that performance with her first solo career no-no against Furman in the second game of the doubleheader. She was one error away from throwing a perfect game that happened during the first batter of the game.
- Other notable performance from Thompson include: a 5.0 IP run-rule victory over No. 13 Duke with eight strikeouts and no walks; a nine-strikeout performance vs. Louisville; a career-high 11 strikeouts in shutout victory over Illinois.

GUIMBARDA GREATNESS

- Graduate Marissa Guimbarda has been a key contributor to Clemson's offense over the past three seasons.
- Prior to her time in the Orange and Regalia, Guimbarda played two seasons at Furman.
- Most recently, she hit a walk off two-run homer against her former team, Furman, to give Clemson the 3-2 win. The homer brings her career total to 58.
- Guimbarda hit four home runs against North Carolina. She is currently ranked sixth among action players in the NCAA for most home runs in her career.
- She hit 24 while at Furman and has 34 at Clemson.
- Guimbarda becomes the 196th player in NCAA Division I history to hit 50 homers during her collegiate career.

CONSISTENT CAMMY

- Cammy Pereira has been a consistent presence since signing to join Clemson's inaugural class being the Tigers' go-to face of the program in different situations.
- Pereira was recently recognized at the Clemson Board Meeting as a notable student-athlete having been the driving force to multiple Clemson initiatives including but not limited to: being the leader of the Tigers Unite affinity group CU Pride, spoken at several panels regarding issues in the LGBTQ community, participating in Clemson academic research, is a Paw Pal mentor and a student liaison for the We CU Committee for staff engagement.
- Following her time at Clemson, Pereira will attend medical school at Via College of Osteopathic Medicine beginning in July.
- Pereira became the third softball player at Clemson to be awarded the Weaver-James-Corrigan postgraduate scholarship by the ACC.
- On the field this season, Pereira has started every game at second base and maintains a .290 average with 25 runs scored and 19 RBIs.

CAGLE CALLS GAME

- Prior to 2022, Cagle was named a Preseason First Team All-American by D1Softball and Softball America.
- After opening the St. Pete/Clearwater Tournament with a run-rule victory over TTU, she pitched nine innings to defeat No. 18/15 Tennessee. She struck out 13 batters en route to earning the victory.
- Cagle threw a complete-game shutout against the No. 6/5 Huskies with 10 strikeouts and hit a solo homer in the sixth inning to upset Washington.
- Against Louisville, the Yorktown, Va. native picked up 12 strikeouts in eight innings of work and limited opponents to a .138 batting average - she also shutout the Cardinals in five innings of work for the run-rule victory on Saturday.

NOTES

- In the first midweek against South Carolina, Cagle notched 11 strikeouts in the circle and kicked off the game with a three-run homer in the bottom of the first.
- Last season, Cagle became the first softball player in ACC history to be named both the Player and Freshman of the Year.
- She was named a NFCA Second Team All-American, a NFCA National Freshman of the Year Top-3 finalist and a USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year Top 10 Finalist last season.

DANGE(RUSS)

- Graduate transfer Sam Russ comes to Clemson to use her final year of eligibility.
- Russ decided to use her extra year at Clemson after her father, Frank Russ, played baseball for the Tigers from 1980-83 and her mom graduated from Clemson.
- Russ spent her first four years at NC State where she was a three-time ACC selection and holds the Wolf-pack's record for both career (103) and single season (32) stolen bases.
- She currently ranks first in the NCAA among active D1 players for most career stolen bases (125).

TOP 25 VICTORIES

- The Tigers defeated two top 25 programs at the St. Pete/Clearwater Elite Invitational in No. 18/15 Tennessee an No. 6/45 Washington.
- Clemson took Tennessee to nine innings to earn the 4-3 win with six players recording a hit, including Marissa Guimbarde hitting a solo blast out of left field.
- Clemson picked up its first top-10 victory in program history defeating the No. 6/5 Washington Huskies in seven innings on the final day of the 2022 St. Pete/Clearwater Elite Invitational.
- Valerie Cagle earned both wins in the circle. She threw all 9.0 innings with 13 strikeouts against Tennessee and a complete 7.0 inning game against the Huskies, picking up 10 strikeouts and limiting them to only four hits.
- The Washington win was Clemson's first seven-inning win this season and handed the Huskies their first loss.
- The Tigers captured a run-rule victory over a ranked opponent for the first time in program history defeating No. 13/8 Duke in five innings, 10-2.
- Millie Thompson pitched all five innings, striking out eight batters without giving up a walk to earn the victory for the Tigers.
- Clemson knothched two walk off wins over the No. 23/25 Notre Dame Fighting Irish. They opened the series with a 3-2 victory and clinched the rubber match with a 2-1 win.

YOUNG PROGRAM

- The Clemson softball team has accomplished multiple feats for being a program with just over 100 games.
- Entering this season, the only players with over 100 collegiate games under their belts are transfers that began their careers at other programs. These players include Marissa Guimbarde, Grace Mattimore, Cammy Pereira, Sam Russ and Bailey Taylor.
- Valerie Cagle surpassed the 100-game mark after starting every game in program history for the Tigers. JoJo Hyatt hit the 100-game mark at Georgia, while Logoleo and Oda surpassed it during the UNC series.
- The remaining 20 players on the 2022 roster have appeared in less than 100 games led by McKenzie Clark (96) and Carlee Shannon (95).
- The Tigers won the ACC Regular Season Title in their first complete season in 2021 after the 2020 inaugural season was cut short due to COVID-19.

- In the second season, the Tigers also competed in the ACC Championship game and at the Tuscaloosa Regional.

ACC PRESEASON HONORS

- The Tigers have been picked to finish second in the ACC
- Clemson pitcher Valerie Cagle and outfielder McKenzie Clark were named to the 2022 Preseason All-ACC Team based on vote by the league's head coaches.
- Cagle returns after being named the ACC Player and Freshman of the Year in 2021. She batted .404 with a .821 slugging percentage and 17 home runs. She also led the Tigers with a 1.16 ERA and 267 strikeouts.
- Clark had a breakout freshman season posting a .355 average and .639 slugging percentage. She stole a team-high 23 bases in 2021 and was an NFCA All-Region Selection.

CLEMSON+

- Clemson Athletics and IPTAY have launched Clemson+, a streaming service dedicated to showing what it's like to be a Tiger.
- Clemson+ showcases the best video content, and is now available on all major streaming platforms, via the Clemson Tigers app and web browser.
- The subscription will be included as an exclusive benefit to more than 26,000 IPTAY and Collegiate Club members.
- Clemson softball will be apart of the initial launch of Clemson+ with a Clemson Softball All-Access feature.
- Get an inside look at the day-to-day aspects of the Clemson softball program and exclusive interviews with the coaching staff and student-athletes. Additional episodes are added every two weeks.

LEGACY - BLACK HISTORY MONTH

- February allowed us to shine a spotlight on the many contributions, successes and challenges of African Americans at Clemson.
- The next iteration will feature student-athletes and staff members talking about an inspirational Black person in their lives.
- Clemson softball's own Morgan Johnson's has penned a letter to Jackie Robinson about his influence and the impact he has had on her career in the sports community.
- Johnson sat down with ESPN to discuss the impact Jackie Robinson had on her life as we near the 75th anniversary since he broke the color barrier in baseball on April 15. The interview can be found on ESPN's YouTube channel and on the sister-site, Andscape.
- Her feature is now live on ClemsonTigers.com. View it on the main page under "My Story."

FALL ACADEMIC SUCCESS

- Clemson University student-athletes earned a 3.19 cumulative GPA in the Fall 2021 semester, the seventh consecutive semester greater than 3.0, and the third-highest ever.
- Clemson softball set a program-record 3.48 GPA in the fall of 2021.
- Clemson's department-wide graduation success rate (GSR) also hit a record of 95 percent in the most recent release.

SEASON TICKETS SOLD OUT

- The Clemson community continues to show its unwavering support to the Clemson softball team through ticket sales.

HEAD COACH JOHN RITTMAN

John Rittman, a longtime head coach and member of the USA Softball Women's National Team coaching pool, was named the first Head Coach of Clemson Softball on Nov. 3, 2017. Rittman came to Clemson after serving as the Associate Head Coach at the University of Kansas from 2015-17. Rittman joined the Jayhawks after 18 seasons as the Head Coach at Stanford University and 10 years on the United States National Team coaching staff (2001-08, 2016-18).

During the second season and first complete year, Rittman propelled Clemson to even higher heights by becoming the ACC Regular Season Champions after posting a 29-5 ACC record and winning seven ACC series, including six series sweeps. The Tigers were ACC Tournament Runner-Ups after shutting out both Georgia Tech and then-No. 20 Virginia Tech in the first two rounds before dropping the championship game, 1-0, to then-No. 21 Duke. Rittman was named ACC Coach of the Year and guided Valerie Cagle to being the first student-athlete in league history to be named both the ACC Freshman and Player of the Year in the same season. Clemson finished with six individuals earning nine All-ACC team selections following the regular season, including three on the first team. Cagle and freshman McKenzie Clark were named to the NFCA All-Region team. The honors continued to roll in for Cagle as she became the first Clemson softball All-American garnering second team honors from the NFCA, was a JWOS First Team All-American, a Top-Three Finalist for the NFCA's National Freshman of the Year and a Top-10 Finalist for USA Softball's Collegiate Player of the Year. Behind Rittman's efforts, Clemson climbed as high as No. 13 in the NFCA national rankings and No. 10 in the ESPN/USA Softball rankings before finishing the season at No. 18 in the NFCA poll. Rittman led the Tigers to their first postseason appearance traveling to the Tuscaloosa Regional to defeat Troy twice, including a five-inning run-rule victory in the opening game that capped off a historic second season.

In its inaugural season, Rittman transcended Clemson into a nationally-respected program. Rittman guided Clemson, which was predicted to finish in 10th in the conference, according to the 2020 ACC preseason poll, to a 19-8 overall record, including 5-1 in ACC play. The Tigers, who won both of their ACC series against Virginia and Pitt, won 11 of their final 12 games before the 2020 season was cut short due to the coronavirus pandemic (COVID-19). Additionally, Clemson went 14-2 at Clemson Softball Stadium (now McWhorter Stadium), which included a 13-game home win streak that spanned 25 days. Rittman and the Tigers generated plenty of enthusiasm among the Clemson faithful as the first-year program ranked fourth nationally in attendance (24,860) and fifth in average attendance (1,544/game) in 2020. On March 3, the National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) announced the first-year program received votes (10) in the fifth edition of the 2020 USA Today/NFCA D1 Top 25 Coaches Poll. The announcement came after Clemson defeated then-No. 14 Georgia, 4-1, on Feb. 26 at Clemson Softball Stadium before sweeping the Cavaliers to win its first-ever ACC series. Under the direction of Rittman, three Tigers in Valerie Cagle (twice), Marissa Guimbarda and Logan Caymol earned ACC weekly honors on four occasions, the most by any ACC program in 2020. Cagle, a true freshman in 2020, was second in the nation in RBIs (36), while Guimbarda finished the season fourth nationally in home runs (11). Both Cagle and Guimbarda led the ACC in RBIs and home runs, respectively.

At Stanford, Rittman and the Cardinals recorded 18-consecutive winning seasons, made 16-straight NCAA appearances, notched 13 40-win seasons and produced at least one All-American in 15 of his last 17 seasons. As head coach, Rittman accumulated a 750-351-3 overall mark, coached a national player of the year, 16 All-Americans, earned five Super Regional appearances, two Women's College World Series appearances and maintained a spot in every regular-season NFCA top-25 poll for more than a decade.

Rittman served on the staff of the USA Softball team which won gold at both the 2016 Women's Softball World Championship and the 2017 Pan Am Qualifier. He also worked with Team USA from 2001-08, coaching the 2004 Olympic gold medal winners in Athens and the 2008 silver medalists in Beijing. Team USA also won gold medals at the 2002 and 2006 World Championship and the 2003 and 2007 Pan Am Games.

Prior to being named head coach at Stanford, Rittman spent four seasons as an assistant coach at the University of Washington, focusing on hitting and defense. Rittman helped start the program and, within just four seasons, the Huskies had earned a No. 1 national ranking, won the 1996 Pac-10 Championship, made three NCAA Tournament appearances and notched a runner-up finish in their first trip to the Women's College World Series. Washington became the first team since Texas A&M (1983) to advance to the championship game in its first appearance at the WCWS.

Before his appointment at Washington, Rittman spent two seasons as an assistant at the University of Minnesota. During his second year, the Golden Gophers won the Big Ten Conference with a 20-4 league record. The Gophers set team and individual records in almost every offensive category. The Minnesota squad led the nation in hits and total bases en route to a No. 15 national ranking. Rittman also helped produce two Golden Gopher All-Americans.

From 1988-90, Rittman was an assistant coach at the University of Oregon. During his stay, the Ducks played in the 1989 Women's College World Series, set several team and individual offensive records and produced an All-American.

Rittman graduated from New Mexico State with a degree in journalism in 1986. He was a three-year letterwinner in baseball as an outfielder at NMSU after transferring from Yavapai Junior College in Prescott, Arizona.

Rittman and his wife, Lorie, a former softball player at the University of Oklahoma, are the parents of Justin, a UCLA graduate and former fullback for the Bruins, and Jake, a senior punter at Notre Dame.
