CLEMSON TO FACE WAKE FOREST IN WINSTON-SALEM ON SATURDAY

After a successful two-game homestand, the No. 5/5 Clemson Tigers will hit the road this week when the team travels to face the No. 21/16 Wake Forest Demon Deacons on Saturday, Sept. 24. Kickoff for the early contest at Truist Field is set for noon ET.

With Clemson earning its ninth consecutive victory last week and with Louisiana's 15-game winning streak concluding by virtue of a defeat at Rice, the Tigers enter this week sporting the nation's longest active winning streak. A win Saturday would push Clemson's streak to 10 games and would represent the Tigers' 11th double-digit winning streak in program history.

Saturday's game will be one of only three between two teams ranked in this week's AP Top 25. It will be only the third matchup between two ranked teams in the soon-to-be 88-game series history between Clemson and Wake Forest. Clemson won both of the previous AP Top 25 matchups between the two programs, with Frank Howard's ranked Tigers topping Peahead Walker's ranked Demon Deacons squads on the road in both 1948 and 1950.

Clemson has been ranked in the AP Top 25 in 29 previous matchups with Wake Forest, posting a 28-1 record in those games including wins in each of the last 28. Clemson is also 4-2 all-time against ranked Wake Forest teams, including last season when unranked Clemson earned a 48-27 win against a Demon Deacon team that entered the game ranked No. 13 in the AP Poll and No. 10 in the College Football Playoff rankings.

Through three games, Clemson running back Will Shipley is reaching the end zone at a historic pace. With two rushing touchdowns in each of Clemson's first three games, Shipley has six touchdowns on the year and stands as the first Clemson player in records back to 1950 to rush for multiple touchdowns in each of the first three games of a season.

Shipley, Minnesota's Mohamed Ibrahim and Georgia Southern's Jalen White are currently the only players in the country with multiple rushing touchdowns in three different games this season. Since 2000, Shipley is one of only five ACC players — and one of only three ACC running backs — to rush for multiple touchdowns in each of a season's first three games, joining Louisville's Malik Cunningham (2021), Louisville's Lamar Jackson (2016), Virginia's Wali Lundy (2004) and Georgia Tech's Tony Hollins (2002).

Note: Clemson's current streak can join this list with a win this week

- Clemson attempting to improve to 70-17-1 all-time against Wake Forest. Wake Forest would be the second opponent against which Clemson has won 70 games all-time, including its 72 all-time wins against South Carolina.

- Clemson attempting to win its 14th consecutive game against Wake Forest, dating back to 2009. It would mark Clemson's second 14-game winning streak in series history, trailing a 15-game streak from 1977-91. Clemson's current 13-game winning streak against Wake Forest is the Tigers' longest active winning streak against an ACC foe.

- Clemson attempting to defeat an ACC Atlantic Division opponent for the 43rd time in its last 45 opportunities. Those figures include games against traditional Atlantic opponents in a divisionless season in 2020.

- Clemson attempting to improve to 32-4 in true road games since 2015.

- Clemson attempting to earn a seventh straight road victory against Wake Forest, dating to 2010. Clemson's last loss in Winston-Salem came in 2008, leading to Dabo Swinney being named Clemson's Interim Head Coach four days later.

- Clemson attempting to record a seven-game road winning streak against a single opponent for the sixth time in school history. It would match Clemson's seven-game streak at South Carolina from 1934-40 for the fifth-longest road winning streak in school history.

- Clemson and Wake Forest meeting in a matchup of two AP-ranked teams for only the third time in series history. No. 10 Clemson defeated No. 19 Wake Forest, 21-14, in 1948, and No. 16 Clemson defeated No. 17 Wake Forest, 13-12, in 1950.

- Clemson attempting to improve to 29-1 all-time against Wake Forest in games in which the Tigers are ranked in the AP Top 25. Clemson's only loss to Wake Forest while ranked was in 1945. Ranked Clemson teams have won 28 consecutive games against the Demon Deacons spanning the 1948-2020 seasons.

- Head Coach Dabo Swinney attempting to improve to 14-0 as a head coach against Wake Forest. Wake Forest is one of five ACC schools against which Swinney is undefeated as head coach, a list that also includes Duke (3-0), Louisville (7-0), Virginia (5-0) and Virginia Tech (6-0).

- Swinney attempting to improve to 33-3 all-time against teams from the state of North Carolina. It would be his 26th win against a North Carolina-based team in his last 27 opportunities since 2012.

- Swinney coaching his 190th career game as Clemson's head coach to pull within one game of North Carolina and Wake Forest's Bill Dooley (191) for third-most career games as an ACC head coach.

- Clemson attempting to improve to 25-7 against AP Top 25 teams since 2015. Clemson's current 24 wins against AP Top 25 teams are tied with Georgia for the fourth-most in the country in that span.

- Clemson attempting to add another tombstone to its graveyard outside the Poe Indoor Facility. The graveyard commemorates Clemson wins against ranked teams away from home. Clemson's most recent tombstone victory came in the 2020 ACC Championship Game with a resounding 34-10 win against No. 2 Notre Dame.

- Clemson attempting to improve to 29-2 in September games since 2015.

- Clemson attempting to score 45 points in back-to-back games for the first time since the Pitt and Virginia Tech games to end the 2020 regular season. Reaching even the 40-point mark would give Clemson back-to-back 40-point performances for the first time since last year's UConn and Wake Forest games.

- Clemson attempting to score 35 points in a fourth consecutive game for the first time since a seven-game streak to open the 2020 season.

- Clemson attempting to reach the 30-point mark for the ninth time in a 10-game span, dating to last season. Clemson has averaged 36.2 points during its current nine-game winning streak.

- Clemson attempting to rush for four touchdowns in consecutive games for the first time since the final two games of the 2020 regular season against Pitt and Virginia Tech.

- Clemson attempting to score at least three rushing touchdowns in four consecutive games for the first time since late in the 2019 regular season.

- Clemson attempting to reach the 200-yard mark in both rushing and passing yardage in consecutive games for the first time since the 2019 South Carolina and Virginia games.

- Clemson attempting to reach the 500-yard mark in back-to-back games for the first time since games against Miami (Fla.) and Georgia Tech in 2020.

- Clemson attempting to reach the 200-yard (or 250-yard) mark in rushing yardage in consecutive games for the first time since rushing for 332 and 265 yards, respectively, against Wake Forest and South Carolina last season.

- Clemson attempting to average at least seven yards per play in back-to-back games for the first time since 2020 against Virginia Tech and in the ACC Championship Game against Notre Dame.

- Clemson attempting to intercept a pass in an eighth consecutive game for the first time since the 2018-19 seasons.

- Clemson attempting to pick off multiple passes in consecutive games for the first time since the Virginia and Miami (Fla.) games early in the 2020 season.

- Clemson attempting to pick off three or more passes in back-to-back games for the first time since 2008 against Virginia and South Carolina. Those games also represent the last time Clemson has recorded four or more takeaways in back-to-back games.

- Clemson, which was plus-three in the turnover margin last week, attempting to finish plus-three or better in the turnover margin in consecutive games for the first time since 2007 against Furman and NC State.

- Clemson attempting to finish even or positive in the turnover margin for an eighth consecutive game, dating to last season. It would be Clemson's first time doing so since a nine-game streak in 2019. Clemson's last game in which it lost the turnover margin was on Nov. 6 last season at Louisville.

- Clemson (three) entering the game tied with Temple for national lead in blocked kicks (both kicks and punts).

- Clemson (three) entering the game with its most blocked kicks (including punts) in a season since 2016 (five).

- Wide receiver Beaux Collins attempting to catch a touchdown for a career-long fourth consecutive game.

- Collins attempting to become the first Clemson player with a touchdown catch in four straight games since Tee Higgins' five-game streak late in the 2019 season.

- Collins attempting to become the first Clemson player to post a receiving touchdown in each of the first four games of a season since Sammy Watkins in 2011.

- Running back Kobe Pace attempting to rush for a touchdown in three consecutive games for the first time in his career.

- Placekicker B.T. Potter (371 career points) needing nine points to pass Greg Huegel (379 from 2015-18) for fourth in school history in career points.

- Potter (371) chasing No. 13 Xavier Beitia (375 from 2001-04), No. 12 Christopher Dunn (377 from 2018-

NOTES

21) and No. 10 Greg Huegel (379 from 2015-18) on the ACC's career scoring list. (Note: Syracuse's Andre Szmyt is still active and is presently tied with Huegel for 10th.)

- Potter (200) needing four extra points to pass Chandler Catanzaro (203 from 2010-13) for second on Clemson's leaderboard for career PATs.

- Potter (57) needing three field goals to join Nelson Welch, Chandler Catanzaro, Obed Ariri and Chris Gardocki as the only players in school history with 60 career field goals.

- Potter entering the game having scored in 43 consecutive contests. Potter has scored in every game since earning the starting placekicking job prior to the 2019 season. He served as the team's kickoff specialist in 2018.

- Potter attempting to add to his Clemson records for career field goals of 40 yards or more (26) and 50 yards or more (seven).

- Running back Will Shipley attempting to rush for a touchdown in a seventh consecutive game, dating to last season, which would be Clemson's longest streak since Travis Etienne rushed for a touchdown in seven straight games in 2020.

- Shipley (six) attempting to tie Kenny Flowers (seven consecutive games in 1985) and Travis Etienne (seven-game streaks in 2018 and 2020) for the sixth-longest streak of consecutive games with a rushing touchdown in Clemson history.

- Shipley, who is already the first Clemson player since at least 1950 to open a season with multiple rushing touchdowns in each of the first three games of a season, attempting to score multiple rushing touchdowns in a fourth consecutive game to open the year.

- Shipley attempting to record multiple rushing touchdowns in four consecutive games for the first time in his career. He would be the first Clemson player to accomplish the feat since James Davis in 2006.

- Shipley, who averaged a career-high 11.6 yards per carry last week, attempting to become the first Clemson player to average more than 10 yards per carry in consecutive games since Travis Etienne against Georgia Southern and Georgia Tech in 2018.

- Shipley attempting to post back-to-back 100-yard rushing games for the second time in his career (2021 vs. Wake Forest and South Carolina).

- Shipley (987) needing 13 more rushing yards to reach 1,000 career rushing yards.

- Shipley (17) needing three rushing touchdowns to reach 20 career rushing touchdowns. If he accomplishes the feat on Saturday, he would do so in his 14th career game at Clemson. Of note: Clemson (and ACC) all-time rushing touchdown leader Travis Etienne (70) did not score his 20th career rushing touchdown until his 18th career game.

- Linebacker Jeremiah Trotter Jr., cornerback Malcolm Greene and safety R.J. Mickens all trying to intercept passes in consecutive games for the first time in their careers.

- Quarterback DJ Uiagalelei attempting to improve to 15-4 as a starter. He would become the 17th Clemson player since World War II to earn at least 15 career victories as starting quarterback.

- Uiagalelei attempting to post three consecutive games with a passer rating of 145.0 or better for the first time in his career.

-- ON THE OPPONENT --

SERIES HISTORY VS. WAKE FOREST

Clemson owns 69 all-time wins over Wake Forest, its second-highest victory total against any opponent (72 wins vs. South Carolina). Clemson has a 59-9-1 lead in the series since the formation of the ACC in 1953, an .862 winning percentage.

Clemson has played Wake Forest in football 70 consecutive years, as the last year the two schools did not play was 1952. With the pandemic interrupting Clemson's series against South Carolina in 2020, Clemson's 70 straight years facing Wake Forest comprise its longest active string of consecutive seasons against one opponent. Barring a postseason meeting, that streak of consecutive years playing one another will end in 2024 by virtue of the ACC moving to a new scheduling model.

Clemson has won 13 in a row in the series, all under Head Coach Dabo Swinney, by a combined score of 527-167. That represents an average victory margin of 27.7, and Clemson has scored at least 28 points in all 13 games.

STREAKIN' AGAINST THE DEACONS

Clemson enters this year's game against Wake Forest in search of its 14th consecutive victory against the Demon Deacons. Clemson's 13-game winning streak is its longest active winning streak against any FBS foe.

The Tigers have produced 10-game winning streaks against opponents eight times in school history. Wake Forest is the only opponent against whom Clemson has recorded multiple winning streaks of 10-plus games, posting a 15-game winning streak against the Demon Deacons from 1977-91 as well as a 10-game streak from 1940-50.

Clemson has recorded three winning streaks of 10 or more games against Wake Forest in comparison to a combined five 10-game streaks against all other opponents (Furman, Virginia, The Citadel, Presbyterian and Boston College).

SERIES MEMORIES

- 1981: Clemson defeated Wake Forest on Halloween by an 82-24 score. That was the highest-scoring ACC game in Clemson history until 2012 when NC State and Clemson combined for 110 points in a 62-48 Clemson win. Clemson was 12-for-12 on third down in that 1981 game and gained 756 yards of total offense, including 536 on the ground, still school records for the modern era.

- 1982: Clemson defeated Wake Forest in Tokyo, Japan by a 21-17 score to close out an ACC Championship season. The two teams have played three neutral-site games over the years, including that one in Japan.

- 2006: Clemson won at Wake Forest, 27-17. The late Gaines Adams had a game-changing 66-yard fumble return on a botched field goal attempt in the fourth quarter to cut the Demon Deacons' lead to 17-10. The Tigers scored 24 points in the fourth period to gain the victory against the eventual ACC champions.

- 2011: The Tigers won 31-28 on a 43-yard field goal by Chandler Catanzaro on the last play of the game. That gave the Tigers the Atlantic Division title, and Clemson went on to win its first ACC title in 20 years.

- 2018: Clemson defeated Wake Forest, 63-3, on the road as Clemson's 60-point margin of victory was, at the time, the program's largest margin in conference play in school history. By rushing for 471 yards on 40 carries, Clemson averaged 11.8 yards per carry, breaking the previous school record set on Oct. 17, 1903 against Georgia Tech (11.2). Between Travis Etienne (167), Lyn-J Dixon (163) and Adam Choice (128), Clemson had three players reach the 100-yard rushing mark in a single game for only the sixth time in team history.

- 2020: Clemson defeated Wake Forest, 37-13, in front of an announced crowd of 68 people in the Tigers' first game under COVID-19 protocols.

- 2021: Unranked Clemson faced CFP No. 10 (and AP No. 13) Wake Forest in what represented only the fourth matchup in series history in which the Deacons entered ranked higher than Clemson. Clemson never trailed in storming to a 48-27 victory.

FRANK AND PEAHEAD

While Clemson Head Coach Dabo Swinney and Wake Forest Head Coach Dave Clawson have a very public and longstanding mutual admiration for one another, their fellowship is certainly not the most unique among coaches in the history of the Clemson/Wake Forest series.

Only one coach in history — Wake Forest's Peahead Walker — won as many as four games against Clemson without a loss in Death Valley. Frank Howard and Walker had a close friendship, but Peahead had a 4-0 record against Howard in Death Valley.

Walker fielded tough teams but lost five in a row to the Tigers from 1937-41, including his first two outings against Howard, 39-0 and 29-0, after Jess Neely's departure for Rice in 1940.

Walker then won six in a row against Howard from 1942-47, knocking No. 16-ranked Clemson out of a likely AP Top 20 finish in 1945 with a season-ending 13-6 victory. Even if Walker conceded that three of his wins from 1942-44 were during Howard's depleted "war years," he still held a 3-2 edge over his soon-to-be comedic partner on the gridiron speaking circuit.

In the final three years of the Howard-Walker rivalry from 1948-50, both the Tigers and Deacons were at their strongest. In going undefeated in both 1948 and 1950, Clemson faced only one Top 20 team in regular season play each year: Peahead's No. 19 Wake Forest in 1948 and his No. 17 Deacons in 1950, both on the road. Howard's 21-14 and 13-12 wins, respectively, enabled his Tigers to finish No. 11 and No. 10 in the nation; Peahead's 1948 Deacons settled for a No. 20 national ranking.

Howard once told the following story of one of his most memorable pranks on Walker: "I told some of the highway patrolmen that Peahead was a good buddy of mine, but that they should pretend he resembled a fugitive that was on the loose, get him off the bus and handcuff him to a telephone pole. And they did it! After they let him loose and his team got dressed, he took the players over to the stadium. He stood by the gate to identify the players as they passed through. Then the officer at the gate wasn't going to let Peahead in because he didn't have a sideline pass. I suppose he had misplaced his in the confusion when he got 'arrested.' Peahead was beside himself. He got someone to go down on the field and get his captain to come over to the gate. His captain's name was Pat Preston. Peahead said, 'Pat, tell this officer who I am.' Preston looked at him and said, 'Officer, I've never seen that fellow before in my life.' Peahead told me later that after he got Preston back to Wake Forest, 'I ran him around that field until he knew who I was.'

LAST MEETING

Clemson 49, Wake Forest 27

(Nov. 20, 2021, Clemson, S.C.)

CLEMSON, S.C. – Clemson sent its senior class out with an undefeated home record over a four-year span with a 48-27 win over CFP No. 10 Wake Forest on Senior Day in front of a crowd of 81,048.

A trio of underclassmen stood out for the Tigers offensively in running backs Will Shipley and Kobe Pace and wide receiver Beaux Collins. Pace romped for 191 yards and a pair of touchdowns on the ground, while Shipley accounted for 175 all-purpose yards (112 rushing, 18 receiving, 45 kickoff return), two rushing touchdowns. Shipley also added a passing touchdown to Davis Allen. Collins added 137 yards and a score on four catches from his high school teammate, DJ Uiagalelei, including a spectacular one-handed grab - one of two receptions of 50-plus yards for Collins on the day.

Clemson's defense recorded 10 tackles for loss, seven sacks, broke up ten passes and forced three turnovers while holding Wake Forest to just 36 yards rushing on 31 carries. Clemson outgained the Demon Deacons 543-406 and averaged 7.3 yards per play.

Clemson came out in the second half and scored 31 points highlighted by a 58-yard touchdown pass from Uiagalelei to Collins, which Collins caught with one hand while being defended by a Wake Forest player. Pace would account for two of the touchdowns with runs of eight and two yards. Kicker B.T. Potter added three second-half points and Shipley would record his second touchdown run of the afternoon in the second half.

Wake Forest scored 17 points in the second half on a 31-yard field goal and a rushing touchdown by Quinton Cooley, and a receiving touchdown by Blake Whiteheart.

Potter kicked a season-long 50-yard field goal in the opening quarter to give the Tigers the early 3-0 lead. The field goal was Potter's sixth of his career from 50 yards or more, giving him sole possession of the school record for career 50-yard field goals, shared previously with Chris Gardocki (1988-90) and Donald Igwebuike (1981-84).

After eluding two near-sacks, Uiagalelei connected with Collins down the right sideline for a 52-yard reception to set up first-and-goal at the seven-yard line for the Tigers. Shipley dived over the top four plays later to cap the nine-play, 77-yard drive with a one-yard touchdown run to put Clemson up 10-0 early.

After the Tigers' defense held deep in its territory, Wake Forest got on the board following a 23-yard field goal by Nick Sciba.

The Tigers answered the Demon Deacons score with an 11-play, 71-yard drive, which ended with Shipley throwing a jump pass to tight end Davis Allen to extend the lead to 17-3. Christian Turner would score a touchdown from one-yard out to pull the Demon Deacons to a 17-10 deficit at the half in advance of Clemson's second-half romp.

TOMBSTONE OPPORTUNITY

To commemorate wins against ranked teams away from Death Valley, Clemson constructed a graveyard at the entrance to the Clemson practice fields near the Poe Indoor Facility and the Allen N. Reeves Football Complex.

At the time of its inception, the graveyard initially commemorated Top 20 road wins. It has since expanded to include any Top 25 win away from home. Under Dabo Swinney's watch, the Tigers have added 24 tombstones to the graveyard — including four during Clemson's 2016 national championship campaign and another three during its 2018 national title run.

A win on Saturday would represent Clemson's first tombstone victory since the 2020 ACC Championship Game against No. 2 Notre Dame in Charlotte.

SWINNEY VS. NORTHERN NEIGHBORS

Clemson Head Coach Dabo Swinney has a 32-3 all-time record against teams from North Carolina.

Swinney's only losses to teams from North Carolina were at North Carolina in 2010 (21-16) and at NC State in 2011 (37-13) and 2021 (27-21). Swinney is also 17-4 in games played inside the state limits of North Carolina (including six ACC Championship Game wins in Charlotte) with wins in 15 of his last 17 trips to the state.

ON THIS DATE

- Sept. 24, 1947: Clemson flew to Boston College on an Eastern Airline DC-4. It marked the first time that a state football team had flown to a football game. The quicker traveling did not help, however, as Boston College defeated the Tigers, 32-22.

- Sept. 24, 1966: Clemson played the first game in which Howard's Rock was present at Death Valley. Clemson downed Virginia, 40-35, in one of the most exciting games in the history of the facility and adding to the legend of Howard's Rock. Clemson trailed 35-17 with just over a quarter remaining in the game but rode the passing of Jimmy Addison to keep its perfect record alive against Virginia. Addison was 12-of-19 for 283 yards and three touchdowns, including a 74-yarder to Jackie Jackson with 3:49 remaining that proved to be the game-winner.

- Sept. 24, 2011: Tajh Boyd passed for 344 yards and three touchdowns in leading Clemson to a 35-30 victory over No. 11 Florida State. Freshman Sammy Watkins had seven receptions for 141 yards and two touchdowns. The Tigers had 443 yards of total offense against a defense that finished the year fifth in the country in total defense.

- Overall: Clemson is 8-2 all-time in games contested on Sept. 24, including a 28-7 win against Wake Forest in 1960.

NOTES FROM LAST GAME

- Clemson gained 521 total yards, a season high. It was Clemson's 79th 400-yard game since 2015, tied for second-most in the nation, and its 49th 500-yard game in that span.

- Clemson recorded 280 rushing yards and 241 passing yards, its 57th game exceeding 200 yards in both categories under Dabo Swinney. Clemson is now 57-0 when both passing and rushing for 200+ yards under Swinney.

- Clemson's 280 rushing yards were a season high, its highest single-game rushing total since a 332-yard rushing effort against Wake Forest last season.

- With four rushing touchdowns Saturday, Clemson has now rushed for at least three touchdowns for the sixth time in a seven-game span for the first time since the 2019 season finale and first six games of 2020.

- Clemson reached the 40-point threshold for the first time since back-to-back 40-point games against UConn and Wake Forest last season. It was Clemson's 49th game with 40 or more points since 2015, fourth-most in the nation.

- Clemson reached the 30-point mark for the eighth time in a nine-game span, dating to last season. Clemson has averaged 36.2 points per game in its current nine-game winning streak, dating to last season.

- Clemson never trailed in the contest and has not trailed in 408:03 of elapsed game time, dating back to Clemson's game against UConn on Nov. 13, 2021. Clemson trailed 7-3 in that game until a six-yard touchdown run by Will Swinney on a fake field goal with 3:03 remaining in the first quarter.

- Clemson won the turnover margin, 4-1, its first time finishing plus-three or better in the category since last year's Boston College game. Clemson now has a 68-4 record when winning the turnover margin since 2011.

NOTES

- Clemson produced three interceptions among its four takeaways, its most interceptions and takeaways in a single game since picking off four passes against Pitt in November 2020.

- Clemson scored 21 points off of the four takeaways. Clemson also scored an additional seven points following a turnover on downs.

- Clemson finished even or positive in the turnover margin for the seventh straight game, dating to last season. It represents Clemson's first time doing so since a nine-game streak in 2019.

- Clemson yielded just six rushing yards. That was the third-fewest for the Bulldogs in a game dating back to Oct. 23, 1999. It was the lowest rushing total allowed by Clemson since holding UConn to -21 rushing yards last November.

- Clemson's 280-6 margin (plus-274) in rushing yardage was Clemson's largest since out-rushing Wake Forest by 296 yards last season.

- Running back Will Shipley rushed 12 times for a career-high 139 yards with two touchdowns. His previous career high was 128 rushing yards, set against both Florida State and South Carolina in 2021.

- Shipley (11.6-yard average) became the first Clemson player to average 10 yards per carry on at least 10 attempts since Travis Etienne in the 2020 ACC Championship Game against Notre Dame.

- Shipley's 100-yard rushing game was Clemson's first individual 100-yard rushing game of the season and the fourth of his career. Clemson is now 57-2 when having a 100-yard rusher since 2011.

- Shipley, who had two touchdowns against both Georgia Tech and Furman, became the first Clemson player to rush for multiple touchdowns in three straight games since Travis Etienne later in the 2019 season (vs. Boston College, Wofford and NC State).

- Shipley became the first Clemson player in records back to 1950 to open a season with multiple rushing touchdowns in each of the first three games of a season.

- Shipley added his fifth rushing touchdown of the season on a two-yard touchdown run on Clemson's second drive.

- Shipley became the first Clemson player to score at least five rushing touchdowns in the first three games of a season since Kelly Bryant in 2017. Shipley became the first Clemson running back to accomplish the feat since James Davis in 2006.

- Shipley added a 32-yard touchdown run in the third quarter, the longest scoring run of his career.

- Shipley has rushed for a touchdown in six consecutive games, dating to last season, Clemson's longest streak since Travis Etienne rushed for a touchdown in seven straight games in 2020.

- Quarterback DJ Uiagalelei improved to 14-4 as Clemson's starting quarterback in his career. Uiagalelei completed 17-of-29 passes for 221 yards with two touchdowns and no interceptions.

- Uiagalelei also rushed nine times for a season-high 62 rushing yards, one shy of his career high set in 2021 at NC State.

- Running back Phil Mafah scored his first rushing touchdown of the season on a four-yard run in the third quarter. It was his fourth career rushing touchdown.

- Wide receiver Beaux Collins scored on a 32-yard catch-and-run from Uiagalelei on the first play following a Louisiana Tech turnover on downs.

- Collins has now caught a touchdown in three consecutive games, tying his career-long streak set last year against Louisville, UConn and Wake Forest.

- Collins became the first Clemson player to catch a touchdown pass in each of the first three games of a season since Sammy Watkins in 2011.

- Wide receiver Antonio Williams scored his first career touchdown on a 19-yard pass from Uiagalelei in the fourth quarter.

- Williams also recorded a career-long 38-yard reception in the second quarter.

- Running back Kobe Pace rushed for a three-yard touchdown in the fourth quarter and has now rushed for a touchdown in back-to-back games for the third time in his career (vs. Boston College and Syracuse in 2021 and vs. Wake Forest and South Carolina in 2021).

- Clemson opened the scoring on a nine-play, 70-yard drive on the game's opening possession culminating with a 22-yard B.T. Potter field goal.

- With the field goal, Potter (57) passed Aaron Hunt (55 from 2000-03) for sole possession of fifth on Clemson's leaderboard for career field goals made.

- Potter added a 36-yard field goal in the second quarter.

- With 12 points in the game, Potter (371) passed Pitt's Chris Blewitt (363 from 2013-16) for 14th in career scoring and 13th in career kick scoring in ACC history.

- Potter's sixth PAT of the game was the 200th of his career, making him only the sixth kicker in ACC history — and third in Clemson history — to reach the mark.

- Clemson recorded the game's first takeaway on an interception by safety R.J. Mickens, his first of the season and the third of his career.

- Linebacker Jeremiah Trotter Jr. recorded his first career interception on Louisiana Tech's first possession of the second half. Trotter's interception immediately preceded Shipley's 32-yard touchdown run on the following play.

- Cornerback Malcolm Greene recorded his first interception of the season on Louisiana Tech's following possession. It was his second career interception and his first since Nov. 28, 2020 against Pitt.

- Clemson recorded its fourth takeaway of the game on the first career fumble recovery by linebacker Kevin Swint.

- Defensive end Myles Murphy recorded his first sack of the season in the second quarter. It was his first sack of the season and his first since Nov. 20, 2021 against Wake Forest.

- Clemson's defense recorded 12 pass breakups, surpassing Clemson's 10 against Wake Forest last season for the most by the Tigers under Dabo Swinney.

- Clemson has now intercepted a pass in seven consecutive games for the first time since an eight-game streak across the 2018-19 seasons.

- Defensive tackle Payton Page recorded his first career field goal block on a 56-yard attempt in the second quarter. It was Clemson's first field goal block since the 2020 season opener at Wake Forest (Bryan Bresee).

- The block was Clemson's third special teams block of the season, including two punt blocks in the season opener. This season marks Clemson's first with three blocked kicks (placekicks and punts) since 2016 (five).

- Quarterback Hunter Johnson made his season debut in the fourth quarter. After spending the 2018-21 seasons at Northwestern in between his two stints at Clemson, the game marked 1,750 days since his last appearance for Clemson in the 2017 ACC Championship Game.

- Clemson has now scored on its opening possession in seven of its last eight games, dating to last season. Clemson is now 69-4 when scoring first since 2015.

- Clemson faced a Conference USA opponent for only the second time in school history. Clemson defeated Charlotte, 52-10, in its first game against an active Conference USA opponent in 2019.

- Clemson faced Louisiana Tech Head Coach Sonny Cumbie for the first time. Clemson improved to 41-4 since 2011 when facing an opposing head coach for the first time.

- Captains for the contest were safety Carson Donnelly, cornerback Sheridan Jones, offensive tackle Jordan McFadden and tight end Luke Price.

WITH THE WIN...

- Clemson won its ninth straight game to extend the Power Five's longest active winning streak.

- Clemson's current nine-game winning streak represents the 14th winning streak of nine games or more in program history.

- Clemson won its 36th consecutive home game to extend its school record for both the longest home winning streak and longest home unbeaten streak in school history (as well as extend the nation's longest active home winning streak). No member of Clemson's roster has lost a home game at Clemson in their careers.

- Clemson (36) passed 2006-11 Boise State (35) for sole possession of the 14th-longest home winning streak in FBS history. Clemson pulled within one game of the ACC record (Florida State, 37 from 1992-2001) in that category.

- Clemson improved to 23-4 in night games since the start of the 2018 season. Clemson is now 42-7 at night since 2015.

- Clemson won its 18th consecutive night game in Death Valley, a streak that dates back to the middle of the 2013 season.

- Clemson is now a national-best 55-1 at home in the College Football Playoff era (since 2014).

- Clemson won its 26th consecutive non-conference home game. Clemson's active 26-game non-conference winning streak at home is the longest such winning streak in program history. Clemson's last home loss in non-conference play was in 2012.

- Clemson improved to 36-3 against non-conference opponents at Death Valley under Dabo Swinney.

- Clemson won its 36th consecutive game against unranked opponents when ranked in the AP Top 5, the longest active streak in college football according to ESPN Stats & Info.

- Clemson improved to 120-13 against AP-unranked teams under Dabo Swinney, including a 97-3 mark against unranked teams since the start of the 2012 season.

- Clemson improved to 75-2 at home against AP-unranked opponents under Dabo Swinney. Clemson's only home losses under Swinney to opponents unranked in the AP Poll came in Swinney's first game as interim head coach in 2008 (21-17 loss to Georgia Tech) and during a national championship season in 2016 (43-42 loss to Pitt). Clemson has now won its last 31 games against AP-unranked opponents in Death Valley.

- Clemson improved to 4-0 all-time against Louisiana

Tech. Louisiana Tech is one of 44 historical opponents against which the Tigers have a perfect all-time record.

- Clemson led 13-6 at halftime and has now won 99 of its last 101 games, including each of its last 62, when leading after two quarters.

- Clemson improved to 121-2 since 2011 when leading after three quarters.

- Clemson now has a 119-2 record when totaling more first downs than its opponent since 2011 and has won its last 60 such contests.

- Clemson improved to 73-1 when rushing for 200+ yards under Dabo Swinney.

- Clemson improved to 28-2 in September games since 2015.

- Clemson has now won 100 of its last 101 games when holding teams under 23 points (dates to 2010), including 89 straight prior to a season-opening 10-3 loss to Georgia in 2021.

ONE OF THE ERA'S WINNINGEST PROGRAMS

Alabama and Clemson rank No. 1 and 2 in the country in wins since 2015, with the two teams combining for five out of seven national championships in that time frame.

MOST WINS (SINCE 2015)

Rk	School	W	L	Pct.
1.	Alabama	95	8	.922
2.	Clemson	92	10	.902
3.	Ohio State	82	10	.891
4.	Oklahoma	81	14	.853
5.	Georgia	79	18	.814

Clemson won 69 games during the 2015-19 seasons, the most in a five-year period in the AP Poll era (since 1936). Clemson's accounts for three of the six best five-year runs in terms of total wins in the AP Poll era.

MOST WINS IN A FIVE-YEAR SPAN (AP POLL ERA)

Rk	School	Years	Streak
1.	Clemson	2015-19	69
2.	Alabama	2014-18	67
3.	Alabama	2015-19	66
4.	Clemson	2016-20	65
	Alabama	2016-20	65
	Clemson	2014-18	65

Clemson has a 134-21 record since starting its current stretch of 10-win seasons in 2011. Only Alabama (143-14) has more wins since 2011.

MOST WINS (SINCE 2011)

Rk	School	W	L	Pct.
1.	Alabama	143	14	.911
2.	Clemson	134	21	.865
3.	Ohio State	126	20	.863
4.	Oklahoma	120	27	.816
5.	Georgia	119	32	.788

Clemson's lofty perch in that ranking reflects not only its dominance against middle and lower tier opponents, but also its success in matchups with other premier programs. Since 2011, Clemson has played 13 other programs that entered 2022 ranked in the top 30 in wins by a Power Five program in that span. Clemson is 49-12 (.803) against those programs in that span and is .500 or better against 12 of the 13 teams.

Narrowed further among the winningest Power Five programs, Clemson is 8-5 (.615) against the top five, 12-7 (.632) against the top 10 and 21-10 (.677) against the top 15.

14-WIN SEASONS

There have been 16 seasons of 14 or more wins since the NCAA split Division I in 1978. Clemson accounts for four of those 14-win seasons, matching Alabama for the most 14-win seasons in that span.

10-WIN SEASONS

Clemson entered 2022 riding a streak of 11 consecutive seasons with 10+ wins. The program's 10th consecutive 10-win season in 2020 made Clemson only the third program in FBS history to produce a "double-double" — double-digit wins in a double-digit number of consecutive seasons. Clemson's gritty 10-win season in 2021 extended the streak to 11.

The record for consecutive 10-win seasons is 14, shared by Florida State (1987-2000) and Alabama (2008-21). This season, Clemson will attempt to join those two as the only programs ever to reach 10 wins in a dozen straight seasons.

The Tigers have 18 10-win seasons in school history, with 11 coming under Dabo Swinney.

Eight full seasons into the College Football Playoff era, Clemson has already cemented itself as one of the tournament's powerhouses of its inaugural decade. SENIOR SUCCESS

Every January, Head Coach Dabo Swinney conducts his first official meeting with his new team. The first order of business in the meeting is to "reset the room," reorganizing the seating arrangement with seniors in front and all succeeding classes in order behind them in the team auditorium.

Clemson's recent senior classes have placed themselves among select company in college football history. The 2017, 2018, 2019 and 2020 Clemson seniors account for four of only 13 four-year classes in FBS history to reach 50 career wins. That includes the 2018 and 2019 groups that are tied with the 2018 Alabama seniors for the most wins in FBS history (55 wins in four years).

HISTORIC CONFERENCE REIGN

Even though the Tigers entered the final week of the season still alive in the conference title race for "A"nother "C"lemson "C"hampionship, Clemson's six-year reign atop the ACC ended in 2021.

With a sixth straight conference title in 2020, Clemson became the first program ever to win 20 ACC Championships, five more than Florida State, which ranks second with 15. That year, Clemson became the first program in the conference championship game era to win six straight conference championship games. Clemson also became the first ACC program to win six consecutive outright titles, as Florida State had a streak of nine straight ACC titles, but that streak included two co-championships that prevented Bobby Bowden's Seminoles from ever winning more than three straight titles outright.

Including titles from its days as a member of the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association and Southern Conference, Clemson has 26 conference championships overall, also the most of any current ACC school. Duke ranks second among the ACC's current membership with 18 overall conference titles, including 11 Southern Conference titles and seven ACC titles.

The Tigers won the 1900, 1902 and 1903 SIAA Conference championships under John Heisman, then the 1906 SIAA title under Bob Williams. Clemson also won the 1940 and 1948 Southern Conference titles under Frank Howard. Howard won eight total conference titles, including two in the Southern Conference and six in the ACC.

POWER OVER THE POWER FIVE

Early in his head coaching tenure, Dabo Swinney laid out his belief to then-Clemson athletic director Terry Don Phillips that the Tigers needed to add tough non-conference challenges on top of their tests in ACC play to serve as a foundation for the program's growth.

"I had a conversation with Terry Don and said, 'Terry Don, I know we are not very good right now, but we need to play people because that is going to help me teach and help me develop the culture and the mindset that you have to have to win at the highest level,'" recounted Swinney. "I didn't think we had that, and that's what we committed to. That's what we've done."

That scheduling philosophy and culture change has resonated in the Clemson program, and since 2013, no team can claim more wins against Power Five Conference opponents than the Tigers.

That includes 13 wins against Power Five opponents in 2018, the first team ever to reach that figure.

SIGN AND DEVELOP

While proud of his incoming classes, Head Coach Dabo Swinney has long stated that a true ranking of a recruiting class cannot and should not be published until four years later when the group can be evaluated on performance rather than potential.

Much to Swinney's delight, The Athletic has annually assumed that role in recent years, re-ranking every recruiting class four years later to account for on-field performance.

For its re-rankings, The Athletic uses the following grading scale: 5 points: All-American, award winner, top-50 NFL Draft pick; 4: Multi-year starter, all-conference honors; 3: One-year starter or key reserve; 2: Career backup; 0: Minor or no contribution, left the program. The outlet also adds a bonus to each program's class average, derived from its total number of wins from 2017 through 2020 (e.g.: For re-ranking the Class of 2017, Clemson won 51 games, so its class average received a bonus of 0.51).

Even in its current stretch of recruiting success, Swinney has often pointed out Clemson drops in rankings as its commitment to not oversigning leads to smaller recruiting classes, as well as noting that much of Clemson's on-field success is a function of the program's development, citing All-Americans like former three-star Isaiah Simmons or former two-star Nolan Turner. The re-rankings illustrate Clemson's pristine recent track record of talent identification, culture fit, resource allocation and player development.

CLEMSON RECRUITING RANKINGS AND RE-RANKINGS (VIA THE ATHLETIC)

Class	Rank	Re-Rank	Diff.	Record
2014	16	6	+10	50-7
2015	9	2	+7	55-4
2016	11	1	+10	55-4
2017	16	5	+11	51-5
2018	7	2	+5	49-6
Average	11.8	3.2	+8.6

Note: Initial rank according to 247 Composite

On average, Clemson finished roughly 12th in the 247 Composite team rankings across the 2014-18 recruiting cycles. Upon re-ranking those groups, despite having little room for improvement while recruiting at a Top 15 clip in that span, Clemson ranked 3.2 on average in the re-rankings, a ratings bump of about eight-and-a-half spots. Each of those Clemson classes averaged at least 12 wins a season during their careers.

ESTEEMED COMPANY

Head Coach Dabo Swinney's run of excellence in his tenure at Clemson has placed him in the company of college football legends.

Swinney boasts a career winning percentage of .810, sitting as one of only 14 head coaches in history with at least 10 seasons of FBS head coaching experience to post a mark of .800 or better.

ONE OF THE FASTEST TO 150 WINS

With a win against Iowa State in the 2021 Cheez-It Bowl, Head Coach Dabo Swinney earned his 150th career head coaching win in only his 186th career game.

NOTES

Among coaches who qualify for the NCAA FBS record book by virtue of five years or 50 wins as a major college head coach, only 16 entered 2022 having reached 150 career wins in 200 games or less. Fourteen of the 16 are College Football Hall of Famers, with the 15th and 16th — Swinney and Urban Meyer — likely to be inducted upon meeting eligibility requirements.

Swinney became the sixth-fastest FBS coach to 150 career wins — two games behind Fielding Yost and Joe Paterno — and the fourth-fastest in the modern era.

Four previous Clemson head coaches earned 150+ FBS wins in their careers: John Heisman (186), Jess Neely (207), Frank Howard (165) and Ken Hatfield (168). Howard, a College Football Hall of Famer, is the only coach to reach 150 career wins as Clemson's head coach. He recorded his 150th victory in his 273rd career game, in a 14-10 victory against Maryland in 1966 that clinched a piece of what later became an outright ACC title. Heisman earned win No. 150 in game No. 203, Neely earned it in game No. 268, and Hatfield did it in game 259, though none of those three won more than 43 games in their Clemson tenures.

Included below are the number of games needed for a sample of other notable coaches to reach 150 victories: John Vaught (201), Mark Richt (205), Red Blaik (207), Dan Devine (208), Woody Hayes (209), Bear Bryant (212), Ara Parseghian (212), Pat Dye (212), Bobby Bowden (213), Pop Warner (214), LaVell Edwards (214), Jim Tressel (214), Vince Dooley (214), Amos Alonzo Stagg (225), John Cooper (225), Frank Beamer (230), Lou Holtz (230), Bill Snyder (231), Johnny Majors (255), George Welsh (261), Hayden Fry (277).

FIRST 15 SEASONS

With his 150th career win in the 2021 Cheez-It Bowl, Dabo Swinney moved into third on the all-time leaderboard for the most wins through the first 15 years of a head coaching career in FBS history, moving past College Football Hall of Famer Barry Switzer.

Impressively, Swinney has amassed his total despite not having the benefit of a full season in his first year. Swinney went 4-3 on an interim basis in his first season in 2008 after taking over for Tommy Bowden in October.

Swinney can continue to add to his total in his 15th season in 2022.

HEAD COACH CONTINUITY

Over the last decade, Clemson became a beacon of stability in the increasingly unstable environment of college football. Clemson Head Coach Dabo Swinney is in his 20th overall season at Clemson in 2022, including his 14th full season as head coach (and his 15th including an interim stint in 2008).

From the start of Swinney's first season as full-time head coach in 2009 through 2021, there have been more than 400 head coaching tenures in the FBS (excluding those by interims), but only one such tenure at Clemson.

Clemson is the only school in the ACC with only one head coach since the start of the 2009 season, and among the 13 schools ever to qualify for the College Football Playoff, only Clemson and Alabama have had only one head coach since 2009.

NOTES

SIX "FINAL FOURS" FOR SWINNEY

While the term "Final Four" may still be the linguistic property of college basketball, since the advent of the four-team College Football Playoff in 2014, Head Coach Dabo Swinney had Clemson among the sport's final four teams six times from 2015-20, becoming the first coach to lead a team to six consecutive College Football Playoffs since the format's institution in 2014.

The NCAA men's college basketball tournament dates to 1939. In the history of that tournament, only John Wooden of UCLA (nine from 1967-75) and Mike Krzyzewski of Duke (five from 1988-92) coached teams to at least five consecutive Final Fours. With his sixth "Final Four" appearance in 2020, Swinney joined basketball's Wooden as the only college football or men's basketball coaches to take teams to six consecutive Final Fours in their respective sports.

During Wooden's streak of nine straight Final Fours, he recorded eight championships and a semifinal loss. Coach K's Blue Devils recorded two championships, a second-place finish and three semifinal losses. Nick Saban's Final Four history includes three championships, three runner-up finishes and a semifinal loss, while Swinney so far has two championships, two runner-up finishes and two semifinal losses.

Swinney is among only nine coaches in football and men's basketball to record six career Final Four berths. He is one of only six with a winning record in Final Four games.

Swinney's ability to place his team among the nation's elite quartet has also been illustrated by the polls. Clemson finished first in the AP Poll in 2016 and 2018, second in 2015 and 2019, third in 2020 and fourth in 2017. Swinney became just the fourth coach to record at least six consecutive top four finishes since the AP Poll began in 1936, an exclusive list that also includes Florida State's Bobby Bowden (13), USC's Pete Carroll (seven) and Oklahoma's Bud Wilkinson (six).

Clemson's streak represented the fifth time a program has had a run of at least six top four finishes in the AP Poll. Miami (Fla.) had a seven-year run from 1986-92 with two different head coaches leading the program.

CHAMPIONSHIP HERITAGE

After being named Clemson's full-time coach in December of 2008, Head Coach Dabo Swinney set about securing his first signing class in 2009.

His first class, which he tabbed the "Dandy Dozen," brought home Clemson's first ACC title since 1991 during their junior campaign in 2011. Every Clemson signing class under Swinney except for the classes of 2021 and 2022 has at least one ACC title to their credit in their tenures at Clemson, and every signing class from 2012-20 earned at least one College Football Playoff berth.

HISTORY AT NO. 1

In the 2019 and 2020 preseason polls, Clemson became the sixth program since the inception of the preseason poll in 1950 ever to open consecutive preseason polls at No. 1, joining Alabama (2016-18), USC (2004-05), Oklahoma (1985-87, 1974-75, 1956-57), Ohio State (1969-70) and Notre Dame (1953-54).

Prior to topping out at No. 3 in 2021, Clemson appeared at No. 1 in at least one AP Poll in six consecutive years from 2015-20. Dabo Swinney joined Nick Saban (14) as the only coach in AP Poll history (since 1936) to lead a team to at least one No. 1 ranking in six consecutive years. Clemson, Alabama (14 from 2008-21) and Miami (seven from 1986-92) are the only programs to appear at No. 1 in at least six consecutive years.

Records reflect results as the AP No. 1, not total games coached

A total of 22 coaches have led the AP's top-ranked team into a game at least 15 times. Eighteen of the 22 coaches on the list are College Football Hall of Famers. Swinney holds a total of nine career victories over five coaches on the list, including two each over Bob Stoops, Nick Saban, Urban Meyer and Steve Spurrier and one over Bobby Bowden.

NOTES

Despite not reaching No. 1 until 1981, Clemson has been No. 1 in 25 polls all-time, 16th-most of any program.

NATION'S LONGEST WIN STREAK

With Clemson having been eulogized and all but left for dead after a 4-3 start in 2021, there wasn't much national optimism for a rebound or for Clemson to carry much momentum into 2022.

Instead, Clemson won its final six games of the 2021 season and has since won its first three games of 2022, giving the Tigers the nation's longest active winning streak.

WHEN IN DOUBT, CLEMSON RESPONDS

In Head Coach Dabo Swinney's tenure, the Tigers have routinely responded well following dips in the AP rankings.

Under Swinney, Clemson is 29-6 in games in which it enters ranked lower in the AP Poll than it did in its previous contest. This includes the 2014, 2016, 2017, 2018 and 2021 season openers in which Clemson opened the season lower than its ranking from the final game of the previous campaign. Before a loss to Georgia to open 2021, Clemson had won its previous 17 games when entering ranked lower in the AP Poll than in its previous game.

Clemson is also 29-7 in games following a loss under Swinney, including season openers following a loss in the previous season finale. Losses to Top 5 opponents Ohio State and Georgia across the 2020 and 2021 seasons ended a streak of 127 games since losing back-to-back contests, which had been the longest active streak in the nation and the longest in ACC history.

Previously, Clemson's last time losing back-to-back games had come in 2011. That also represents the last time Clemson has lost consecutive games in a single season.

ACC WINNING STREAKS

Clemson has won 59 of its last 64 games vs. ACC opponents, a time frame that includes ACC Championship Game wins against North Carolina (2015), Virginia Tech (2016), Miami (2017), Pitt (2018), Virginia (2019) and Notre Dame (2020). Clemson has an active winning streak against 11 of its 13 ACC counterparts, with at least three games comprising each of those 11 streaks.

Notes: Clemson won its last four games against Maryland prior to the Terrapins' exit from the ACC; the Terps' last win over Clemson came in 2009 at Maryland. Clemson also won its last meeting against Notre Dame in the Irish's lone season of ACC membership.

Clemson is responsible for three of the eight-longest winning streaks in ACC conference play all-time.

TAKING CARE OF BUSINESS

Prior to a loss at NC State in late September of 2021, Clemson had won 36 consecutive games against teams unranked in the AP Poll, the program's second-longest such winning streak since the inception of the poll in 1936. Prior to the loss to NC State, Clemson's last defeat at the hands of an unranked squad had come in 2017 at Syracuse.

Clemson's longest winning streak against unranked teams came across the 2012-16 seasons, when Clemson won 46 in a row starting with a season-opening win against Auburn in 2012 and ending with an upset loss to Pitt in 2016.

Clemson is 120-13 against AP-unranked teams under Dabo Swinney, including wins in 97 of 100 games against those unranked teams since the start of the 2012 season.

RETURNING EXPERIENCE

The 2021 Tigers faced a perfect storm of injuries, attrition, adversity and inexperience in key positions but battled to finish 10-3 in what Head Coach Dabo Swinney called a victory for the team's culture. Clemson continued its historic 10-win-season streak despite only four offensive or defensive players starting every game and despite the Tigers ending the season with an incredible 30 scholarship players unavailable.

But for all the strife those injuries created in 2021, Clemson stands to benefit from them greatly in 2022. Entering fall camp, Clemson returned 53 lettermen among its 81 returning players that have appeared in at least one game at Clemson, and while Clemson returned 15 of its 22 primary offensive and defensive starters from 2021, a total of 36 different returning players entered 2022 having started at least one career game for the Tigers.

SHIP HAPPENS

Despite Clemson's roster featuring a backfield group that players and coaches have described as a trio of NFL-caliber running backs, sophomore Will Shipley has emerged as a difference maker early in his career and early in the 2022 season.

Shipley recorded multiple touchdowns on the ground in each of Clemson's first three games, giving him multiple rushing touchdowns in seven of his 13 career games played. He became the first Clemson player in records back to 1950 to score multiple rushing touchdowns in each of the first three games of a season.

Shipley is already one of six Clemson players since 2000 to record at least seven career games with multiple rushing touchdowns.

SHIP'S MAIDEN VOYAGE IN 2021

Despite missing three games due to multiple injuries, running back Will Shipley led Clemson in rushing touchdowns (11), total touchdowns (11), rushing attempts (149) and rushing yards (738) as a true freshman in 2021.

Shipley's freshman performance in 2021 was another entry in Clemson's recent history of feature backs declaring their arrival immediately. Clemson was led in rushing yards in each of the previous seven years by either Wayne Gallman (2014-16) or Travis Etienne (2017-20), both of whom led Clemson in rushing in their freshman seasons (Gallman's redshirt freshman season in 2014 and Etienne's true freshman season in 2017). Before Shipley, the last time someone other than Etienne or Gallman led Clemson in rushing in a season was 2013 (Rod McDowell), when Shipley was in fifth grade.

Shipley's 2021 performance ranked second in rushing touchdowns by a Clemson true freshman since 1972.

CLIMBING THE CHARTS

DJ Uiagalelei enters this week's game with a 14-4 career record as Clemson's starter, including a 1-1 mark in 2020, a 10-3 record in 2021 and a 3-0 record so far this season.

With a win this week, Uiagalelei can become only the 17th Clemson player since World War II to earn 15 career victories as the Tigers' starting quarterback.

INTERCEPTION AVOIDANCE

In his debut season in 2020, Uiagalelei became only the second FBS player since 2000 to throw at least 115 passes and record at least five passing touchdowns and no interceptions, joining Georgia Southern's Shai Werts from 2018.

Uiagalelei's first career interception came on his 12th pass of the 2021 season opener, the 129th pass attempt of his career. His interception-free streak of 128 passes concluded only 37 attempts shy of the Clemson record for most pass attempts without an interception to start a career, held by Cullen Harper (first 165 passes of his career that spanned 2005-07).

He ranks second in Clemson records in career interception percentage among qualified passers.

"BIG CINCO'S" BIG COMEBACKS

In Uiagalelei's first career start in October of 2020, Clemson trailed Boston College at home, 28-10, with 1:02 remaining in the first half. With no timeouts, Uiagalelei led a 10-play, 42-yard drive in 55 seconds to get a B.T. Potter 50-yard field goal before half. The drive jumpstarted Clemson's comeback 34-28 victory, as the Tigers scored 24 unanswered for the win. Of note:

- Clemson trailed by 18 points in the first half, making the win Clemson's largest home comeback victory in school history.

- The win tied for the second-largest comeback win in school history at any location, matching an 18-point comeback at Maryland in 2011, which had also stood as Clemson's largest comeback win under Dabo Swinney.

Home games in bold. Comeback engineered by Uiagalelei italicized.

In 2021, Uiagalelei helped engineer fourth-quarter comeback wins in back-to-back games against Florida State on Oct. 30 and at Louisville on Nov. 6. Against Florida State, Clemson led going into the fourth quarter but fell behind on a strip-sack recovered for a touchdown with fewer than eight minutes to play. Uiagalelei and Clemson engineered a three-play, 58-yard touchdown drive to reclaim the lead with fewer than three minutes to play in the win.

A week later, Clemson trailed 24-17 entering the fourth quarter but outscored the Cardinals 13-0 in the final frame to earn the victory. The wins gave Clemson fourth-quarter comeback victories in back-to-back games for the first time in the Dabo Swinney era.

It was the first time since 2005 that Clemson played consecutive games that it won with a fourth-quarter comeback. In the season opener that year, Clemson defeated Texas A&M, 25-24, after kicker Jad Dean kicked a 42-yard game-winning field goal with two second remaining for the win. A week later, Clemson faced a 10-point fourth-quarter deficit against Maryland but used a 51-yard Charlie Whitehurst touchdown pass and a 38-yard touchdown run by Reggie Merriweather to outscore the Terps 14-0 in the final frame for a 28-24 win.

Uiagalelei is one of seven Clemson quarterbacks since 2000 to engineer multiple fourth-quarter wins

Uiagalelei made his Clemson-South Carolina rivalry debut in 2021 and led the Tigers to a 30-0 road win in Columbia. In doing so, he became the 23rd Clemson quarterback since 1954 to win his first start against the Gamecocks, joining Charlie Bussey (1955), Bill Barbary (1957), Lowndes Shingler (1960), Jim Parker (1963), Jimmy Addison (1966), Ken Pengitore (1972), Mark Fellers (1974), Steve Fuller (1976), Homer Jordan (1980), Mike Eppley (1983), Rodney Williams (1985), Chris Morocco (1989), DeChane Cameron (1990), Dexter McCleon (1993), Brandon Streeter (1998), Woodrow Dantzler (1999), Charlie Whitehurst (2002), Cullen Harper (2007), Dashaun Watson (2014), Kelly Bryant (2017) and Trevor Lawrence (2018).

-- NO. 16 WR WILL TAYLOR --

MAVERICK CLEARED FOR TAKEOFF

In the summer of 2021, a pair of Clemson enrollees faced a difficult decision. Though both had signed as dual-sport scholarship athletes to play football and baseball at Clemson, incoming freshman quarterback Bubba Chandler and wide receiver Will Taylor were both slated as presumptive early-round picks in the 2021 MLB Draft.

When the draft came, Chandler made known his services would be available to MLB teams and opted for pro baseball after being selected in the third round by the Pittsburgh Pirates. However, despite first-round feedback, Taylor told MLB teams he wanted to pursue his dream of playing both sports at Clemson and told Clemson coaches Dabo Swinney (football) and Monte Lee (former baseball coach) of his intent to play collegiately.

"I've heard the term 'life-changing' [money] and that's true, but also it was going to have to be the perfect situation for me to leave this place," Taylor said of his options. "We kind of knew what the college experience was going to be like. We didn't really know what the professional life was like."

The Texas Rangers took a flyer on Taylor in the 19th round, but Taylor was already mentally on his way to carving out a role on Clemson's football team. He won the starting punt return job in Clemson's season opener against Georgia and a week later recorded a 51-yard punt return against SC State.

Taylor's attitude garnered him the nickname "Maverick" from former offensive coordinator Tony Elliott.

"I called him Maverick first [because] he reminds me of a young Tom Cruise from Top Gun. He's got that feistiness to him, that edge to him. I think he likes it too," Elliott said in 2021. "He provides a spark around here. What I think he's done, too, he has garnered the respect of everybody in that locker room. It's obviously tough for him, coming in as a baseball and football guy, so he came in with some challenges. But he came in here and right away showed the guys in the locker room that 'Hey, I'm a football guy. I'll do whatever it takes,' and kind of dispelled all of that."

The electrifying slot receiver who trained as an emergency quarterback in his first year had his freshman football season end prematurely — and his freshman baseball season start late — as the result of an ACL tear in Clemson's fifth football game.

Beyond his multi-sport skillset that has Swinney and his baseball counterparts debating whether his future is as an NFL slot receiver or as an MLB outfielder, Taylor's demeanor, mindset and drive continue to impress them most.

"This kid turned down millions of dollars to play football and baseball and chase his dream," Swinney said. "He's just a natural. He's a gamer. He's got incredible moxie and poise."

Allen took ownership of Clemson's starting spot in Clemson's fourth game of 2021. Two games later, Allen was a focal point of Clemson's offense (and special teams) in a 17-14 win at Syracuse.

Allen recorded eight receptions for 49 yards in that game, including a spectacular highlight-reel grab to convert a fake punt and extend an eventual touchdown drive. His eight receptions were one shy of the Clemson single-game record for a tight end, shared by Brandon Ford (2012) and John McMakin (1970).

ALL-CONFERENCE O-LINEMEN

From 2015-21, the Tigers produced a total of 25 All-ACC selections along the offensive line, including 10 first-team honors. Clemson's 25 all-conference selections by offensive linemen are the second-most of any Power Five program, and its 10 first-team selections are tied with Washington for the fourth-most in that span.

-- DEFENSE --

THE CFP ERA'S DOMINANT DEFENSE

Since the advent of the College Football Playoff in 2014, Clemson has routinely produced one of the nation's elite defenses.

Clemson has ranked in the Top 15 in the country in total defense in each of the last eight seasons and has ranked among the Top 25 in scoring defense in each of those campaigns (including four Top 5 finishes in the category). The 2021 season was Clemson's sixth time finishing in the Top 10 in both categories in the last eight years.

A week after the performance against UConn, Clemson held Wake Forest to 36 rushing yards. Clemson's 15 rushing yards allowed over that two-week span were Clemson's fewest allowed in a two-game stretch on record back to 1954. The previous two-game best in that timeframe was 20 against South Carolina State and Florida State in early 2014.

POINTS ALLOWED PER POSSESSION

Since making staff changes after allowing 70 points in the Orange Bowl to end the 2011 season, Clemson has allowed only 1.19 points per possession against FBS opponents, the third-fewest in the country in that span. No program has given up fewer points per possession against FBS opponents since 2018, as Clemson's 0.96

Last year, Clemson held UConn to 0-of-14 on third downs, marking the third time since 1978 that the Tigers have shut a team out on third downs. It was the most third downs faced by Clemson in a game in which it didn't allow a third-down conversion in that span.

Across Clemson's first three games in November 2021, Clemson's defense made 24 consecutive third down stops. That streak included its last six third downs faced at Louisville on Nov. 6, all 14 third downs faced vs. UConn on Nov. 13 and the first four third downs faced vs. Wake Forest on Nov. 20.

SportSource Analytics tracks three-and-out percentages as well as "Hard Stops," possessions in which a defense forces a turnover, creates a three-and-out or makes a fourth down stop. Clemson leads the nation in both since 2013.

WELCOME BACK, POTTER

Head Coach Dabo Swinney joked on Signing Day in February that Clemson's biggest signee of its 2022 recruiting class wasn't a freshman or a transfer, it was placekicker B.T. Potter, who opted to use his extra year of eligibility and return for his super senior fifth season. Potter was a Groza Award semifinalist in 2019 and enters 2022 as a prime candidate for that award, as he is Clemson's school record holder in career field goals of both 40-plus and 50-plus yards and ranks among the leaders in Clemson history in career PATs, career points by a kicker, career points and field goals.

Potter is the only player in Clemson history to score 100 points in three different seasons, has been one of the nation's foremost kickoff specialists and holds the Clemson record for consecutive PATs made (122 from 2018-20).

THE OTHER SWINNEY DYNASTY

Like Colquitts punting at Tennessee, Swinneys holding at Clemson are becoming a dynasty of their own.

Head Coach Dabo Swinney's oldest son, Will, arrived at Clemson in 2017 and immediately earned Clemson's starting holder position on placekicks. He played five seasons and a record-tying 69 games at Clemson through 2021. In those five seasons, Clemson scored 565 points on placekicks, including field goals and PATs, and he held for 558 of those 565 points.

The only seven Clemson kicking points not held by Will in his career were instead held by his brother, Drew, now Clemson's starter at the position in 2022. Drew is joined on the roster this season by the youngest of the three Swinney boys, Clay, who could claim the role in future seasons. Clay's arrival creates a plausible scenario in which every Clemson placekick in a full 10-year span from 2017-26 could be held by a Swinney.

Clemson's last hold by any player outside the Swinney family was on the final point of Clemson's 2016 national championship, as Seth Ryan, coincidentally also the son of a famous long-time coach (Rex Ryan), held the PAT following Hunter Renfrow's game-winning touchdown with one second remaining.

SUCCESSING DESPITE ATTRITION

Attrition unlike any Clemson had faced in the Dabo Swinney era reared its head in 2021. By the time Clemson wrapped up its 2021 Cheez-It Bowl win, for various reasons, the Tigers were without the services of 30 scholarship players from the start of the season.

Clemson had 48 different players record at least one start in 2021, eight more than its 40 different starters in 2020's erratic and unpredictable pandemic-impacted season. Only 23 Clemson players played in every game, and only six started every game (including kicker and punter).

STRENGTH OF RECORD

Clemson's only losses in 2021 came in one-score games against No. 1 Georgia and No. 20 North Carolina State and a 10-point loss to No. 13 Pitt, three teams that finished 2021 with a combined 34-7 record (all AP rankings from final poll).

Clemson has lost only 10 games since 2015 and only six games since 2018. Six of Clemson's 10 losses since 2015 have come against AP Top 5 teams, and those six were all College Football Playoff participants that season.

The opponents to whom Clemson has lost since 2015 have a combined final record of 104-25, a winning percentage of .806. Since 2018, opponents responsible for Clemson's defeats have a combined final record of 65-10 (.867).

CARDIAC CLEMSON

In rattling off 10 consecutive 10-win seasons from 2011-20, Clemson's dominance resulted in the Tigers playing only 32 games decided by one possession, the 13th-fewest in the FBS in that span (with many of the teams ranked lower having not played at the FBS level throughout that entire timeframe).

The Tigers diverged a bit from their runaway-game reputation in 2021, as cardiac Clemson had seven of its 12 games against FBS opponents in 2021 be decided by eight or fewer points (and nine of the 12 be decided by 10 or fewer points). Clemson nearly played another one-possession game against Florida State on Oct. 30 until a defensive touchdown on a desperation lateral play on the final play of the game gave Clemson a 10-point victory margin over the Seminoles.

Clemson's nine games with a margin of 10 or fewer points tied for second nationally.

PLAYERS PER GAME

Announcers, you're going to need a bigger board.

In four of the last five seasons, Clemson led all Power Five conference teams in average players per game. Prior to the 2021 season in which Clemson's playing rotations were limited by significant attrition, the last time Clemson did not lead Power Five teams in that category was in 2016, when Clemson finished second in that category.

2019	Clemson	76.0
2020	Clemson	72.0
2021	Duke	65.2

Note: includes independent Notre Dame, which has College Football Playoff access equivalent with Power Five conferences

Clemson has not only often led the nation in that category but has typically lapped the field. In 2019, Clemson played an average of 76.0 players per game, an average that far exceeded all Power Five programs by more than 11 players — a full unit — per game. Clemson's lead in that category in 2020 was more than seven players per game.

Clemson finished fourth in the Power Five with 63.9 players per game in 2021 but tied for the Power Five lead in total players played.

The approach to creating functional depth and rewarding players ready to play has been a key philosophy for Head Coach Dabo Swinney, whose own collegiate playing career was hatched as a walk-on fighting for playing time in Alabama's receiving corps.

"We're fully committed to playing guys who deserve to play," Swinney said. "You commit to a guy early in the season, and even if a guy has only played 10 percent of the snaps, when you get to game eight or nine, they've got some good experience."

Clemson played 90 players in its 48-20 win against

Louisiana Tech, one shy of cracking the Top 10 under Swinney.

YOUTH IS SERVED

In the first year of new redshirt regulations in 2018, Clemson played a then-school-record 20 true freshmen. Clemson immediately shattered that record in its 2019 season opener, with 27 true freshmen making their collegiate debuts in that contest. An additional eight true freshmen made their debuts to push that 2019 total to a school-record 36.

In 2020, Clemson played 27 true freshmen, tied for the most in the country at the end of the regular season. Twenty-two first-year freshmen made their debut for Clemson in 2021. Coinciding with redshirt rule changes, Clemson's four most recent seasons have resulted in the most game action for first-year freshmen since 1982.

Clemson's 20 true freshmen to make their Clemson debuts in 2022 include: WR Antonio Williams, CB Jeadyn Lukus, S Sherrod Covil Jr., LB Wade Woodaz, S Kylon Griffin, RB Keith Adams Jr., CB Toriano Pride Jr., LB T.J. Dudley, LB Fletcher Cothran, LB Kobe McCloud, TE Griffin Batt, K Robert Gunn III, S/P Brodey Conn, S Caleb Nix, S Boston Miller, OL Collin Sadler, OL Blake Miller, TE Josh Sapp, WR Clay Swinney and DT Caden Story.

In the 2021 season opener against Georgia, Clemson started two true freshmen in the first game of a season for the first time under Dabo Swinney. Safety Andrew Mukuba became the first Clemson true freshman to start at defensive back in records back to 1973, and guard Marcus Tate became only the third true freshman offensive lineman to start a season opener at Clemson since 1973, joining center James Farr (1980) and tackle Mitch Hyatt (2015).

In 2022, true freshman Blake Miller added himself to the list, as his physical and mental preparedness impressed Clemson's veterans, including fellow offensive lineman Walker Parks.

"Blake came in in January, and we had to check his birth certificate because we thought he was 25 years old," Parks said. "That might be the most developed freshman we've ever seen, out-lifting dudes and out-running dudes... He's a great player, he's smart, picks things up fast and he's physical."

NOTES

OFFENSIVE BALANCE

Clemson's distribution of talent throughout its offense and its willingness to adapt to how defenses are game planning has resulted in the Tigers fielding one of the nation's more balanced offenses in recent years. In 2018, Clemson set a school record with 3,723 rushing yards. In 2020, Clemson set a school record with 348.5 passing yards per game.

Clemson has exceeded both 200 passing yards and 200 rushing yards in 57 games under Dabo Swinney, posting a perfect record in those contests. Clemson's 23 such games since the start of the 2018 season are among the most in the country.

4.	Clemson	23
5.	Alabama	21

Since 2018, Clemson is one of only two programs in the country to both rush for at least 11,000 rushing yards and pass for at least 15,000 passing yards. Clemson was also the only program in the country to rush for 150+ rushing touchdowns and throw 120+ passing touchdowns from 2018-21.

FBS TEAMS WITH 11,000 RUSHING YARDS AND 15,000 PASSING YARDS FROM 2018-21

School	Rush Yds.	Pass Yds.	Total Yds
Clemson	11,359	15,177	26,536
Oklahoma	11,234	15,578	26,812

Clemson has averaged at least 200 rushing yards and 200 passing yards per game four times in school history, with two of those seasons occurring in the 2018 and 2019 campaigns. Clemson broke the 3,000-yard mark both rushing and passing in both 2018 and 2019, two of three 3,000/3,000 seasons in school history (2015).

YARDS PER PLAY

Clemson shattered its school record for yards per play in 2018 at 7.35, the program's first time exceeding seven yards per play in a season. That record stood for barely 12 months until Clemson broke it again in 2019 by averaging 7.38 yards per play. Including Clemson averaging 6.69 yards per play in 2020, Clemson's top three yards-per-play averages in school history have all come within the four previous seasons.

MOST YARDS PER PLAY (CLEMSON HISTORY)

1.	2019	7.38
2.	2018	7.35
3.	2020	6.69
4.	2006	6.50
5.	2015	6.39

In 2018-19, Clemson became only the third school since 2000 to average 7.35 or better yards per play in back-to-back seasons, joining Alabama, which did it across 2018-19, and Oklahoma, which was in the midst of a four-year streak across the 2016-19 seasons.

Collectively, Clemson averaged 7.2 yards per play across the 2018-20 seasons, joining Oklahoma (7.9) and Alabama (7.8) as the only programs to average at least seven yards per play across those three seasons.

650-POINT SEASONS

Clemson remains responsible for two of the 22 650-point seasons in major college football history and two of only 16 since Division I split in 1978. Clemson was the first school with back-to-back 650-point seasons since Yale in 1888-89, predating the start of official NCAA recordkeeping in 1937 and the second year of which was coincidentally the year Clemson was founded.

TAKEAWAYS, NO GIVEAWAYS

Clemson emphasizes the importance of turnover margin every week on what it dubs "TANOGA Tuesday," standing for "TakeAways, NO GiveAways."

Here is a breakdown of Clemson's turnover history in games coached by Dabo Swinney:

CLEMSON TURNOVER HISTORY UNDER DABO SWINNEY

POINTS OFF TURNOVERS

Clemson's offense and defense have both been dominant in possessions following turnovers since the 2018 ACC Championship Game. Since that time, the Tigers hold a 360-93 advantage against opponents in points off turnovers.

In 2021, Clemson allowed only 27 points off turnovers. However, 21 of those points came off of two pick-sixes and a strip-sack fumble return, so the Clemson defense surrendered only an incredible six points on possessions following Clemson turnovers last year. The only offenses to score following a Clemson turnover in 2021 were South Carolina State, which turned a fumble at the Clemson 36 into a field goal, and Iowa State, which turned an interception at the Clemson 28 into three points.

Clemson's best performance of the 2022 season in that category came in its third game against Louisiana Tech. The Tigers won the points off turnover battle, 21-0, in the game and also added a touchdown after a turnover on downs, accounting for 28 points in Clemson's 28-point win.

FINISH

In 2018, Clemson debuted a new version of its "This is Why We Work" fourth quarter video at Death Valley, a hype video imploring the team to finish and featuring Director of Strength and Conditioning Joey Batson bellowing:

"Let me tell you something right now: they don't put championship rings on smooth hands! You gotta go earn it! You gotta go earn it six seconds at a time! You win championships when the stadium is empty, when the band ain't playing, when the cheerleaders ain't cheering, when it's just you and your brothers right beside you. That's when you win championships! In the fourth quarter, that is when we shine!"

The video and the speech became a part of Clemson lore, buoyed by its playing during Clemson's comeback win against Syracuse that year en route to a 15-0 national championship season. Over the years, the video has changed but the speech remains the same, with many Clemson fans yelling it in unison as it plays.

Clemson's fixation on finishing has led to the Tigers owning the fourth quarter, with Clemson holding a 121-2 record since 2011 when leading after three quarters. Clemson is also the only Power Five school to be undefeated since 2017 in games in which it holds a lead at halftime.

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

- Through the summer of 2022, of 328 eligible players who completed their athletic eligibility at Clemson and/or graduated early in Dabo Swinney's 13+ full years as head coach, 322 (98 percent) have earned a degree during their time at Clemson.

- Clemson broke program multi-year APR records in three straight years from 2017-19 (987 in 2016-17, 992 in 2017-18 and 993 in 2018-19) before the NCAA suspended APR reporting during the COVID-19 pandemic. Upon reinstatement of APR reporting in June 2022, Clemson shattered its multi-year APR record with a 999 covering the 2017-18 through 2020-21 academic years.

- Clemson's 999 APR in that span tied Ole Miss for the FBS lead and finished tied for second nationally across all of Division I, trailing only Columbia University of the Ivy League. Clemson lofty academic success in that period coincided with on-field excellence that included four ACC titles, four College Football Playoff berths, two national championship game berths and the 2018 national championship.

3.	2017-18	992
4.	2016-17	987
5.	2011-12	985

- Clemson, Air Force, Navy, Northwestern and Washington are the only FBS programs to produce a 985+ multi-year APR in each of the last four reported cycles.

- Clemson is the only program in the country to have finished in both the Top 10 percent of NCAA APR data AND the AP Top 25 in 10 of the last 11 academic cycles.

- Clemson is the only FBS program since the NCAA created the APR metric in 2003 to win a national championship and an APR Public Recognition Award in the same year multiple times. Alabama is the only other school to accomplish the title/APR double in a single year once (2011-12 academic year).

Clemson's national academic success has understandably resulted in the shattering of its own internal metrics:

- Clemson posted a program-record 3.11 cumulative GPA in Spring 2022, including a record 81 of 109 players earning a 3.0 or better, far exceeding the previous spring record of 63. Of the 81 with a 3.0 or better, 14 earned a perfect 4.0.

- According to current projections by Clemson's academic staff, 31 different players on Clemson's current roster are expected to have completed their degree program prior to bowl season. Entering the bowl season of its 2018 national championship campaign, Clemson's roster featured 26 graduates, the most of any bowl team that year.

ALL EYES ON CLEMSON

"Where the Blue Ridge yawns its greatness, where the Tigers play..."

Those are the opening words to Clemson's alma mater. In recent years, "where the Tigers play" has also been where eyes and television sets inevitably turn.

From 2018-21, Clemson games accounted four of the five most-watched college football games and five of the 12 most-watched games in that span.

The interest in watching Clemson play hasn't been limited to television broadcasts. Clemson continues to provide one of the marquee in-venue experiences in all of sports, as Clemson enters 2022 having been ranked in the Top 20 in the nation average home attendance at Memorial Stadium for 41 straight seasons.

DEATH VALLEY RENOVATIONS

Clemson's home opener against Furman on Sept. 10 also represented the debut of a substantial number of enhancements to Memorial Stadium and the gameday experience at Death Valley. Among the most recent updates:

- Clemson's videoboard got its first major upgrade since 2005, with nearly five times the surface area of the previous board, which was last updated before the 2012 season. The new video system, affectionately and unofficially nicknamed "DaboTron," measures 127 feet wide by 57 feet tall, eighth-largest in the NCAA. It also sits 20 feet off the ground, giving fans a 365-day open view into the stadium. The new board also features color LED fixtures on the inside and custom portal LED lights for the team entrance. Ribbon boards on the north, south, and west, along with new corner video boards in the west were also upgraded to be higher quality, easier to read, and more immersive.

- The eight main stadium light poles were updated to an LED system, which allows for individual light fixture control, spotlighting of Howard's Rock, and higher-quality field lighting.

- A Tiger has sat atop the video board since the 1970s, and a new Tiger will debut this season, measuring nearly 17 feet wide, with eyes that light up and a tail that wags. The Tiger will also be able to be raised and lowered out of the board as needed. Later this season, the previous Tiger is expected to be available as an interactive element at Tigertown Tailgate. Fans will be able to take a photo with the Tiger and have the tail wag and eyes light up.

- The west side of the stadium received a facelift with the addition of IPTAY's Masters Club, a 688-seat premium area on the concourse level. As part of this renovation, concessions and restrooms in the west were relocated and expanded to the terraces, allowing easier pedestrian flow and access.

- Clemson Athletics partnered with Kulture City to make all its venues and all the programs and events that those venues host sensory inclusive. This new initiative promotes an accommodating and positive experience for all guests and fans with a sensory issue that visits athletic events at Clemson University. Clemson is the first school in the country to be Sensory Certified at every venue. Memorial Stadium, Historic Riggs Field, Littlejohn Coliseum, Jervey Gym, Doug Kingsmore Stadium, and McWhorter Stadium will all carry the Certification and will have available sensory bags, noise canceling headphones, fidget tools, verbal cue cards, and strobe reduction glasses to guests, at Guest Services Stands while attending Events in Clemson Athletic Venues.

- As part of the stadium facade updates, Clemson installed new signage honoring the all-time greats, championship years, and backlighting the traditional "Clemson Welcomes You To Death Valley" signage.

Clemson will begin Phase II of renovations following the 2022 season, including a new gameday locker room and a complete reimagining of Lot 5 and the Tiger Walk experience as a 365-day destination for Clemson fans.

NEW CONTRACT FOR SWINNEY

Clemson Director of Athletics Graham Neff announced on Sept. 8 that Clemson and Dabo Swinney agreed to a new, enhanced contract. The terms of the agreement, approved by the Clemson University Board of Trustees Compensation Committee that day, extended Swinney's contract through the 2031 football season.

The contract reflects both Swinney's status as one of the nation's elite coaches and Clemson's continued commitment to its storied football program. Swinney, who has led Clemson to two of its three national titles in school history, is one of only two active head coaches with multiple FBS national championships.

Clemson's football success has mirrored Clemson University's continued ascent as one of the nation's premier public universities. As Clemson has made six College Football Playoff appearances in the last seven years, the University set records in applications, fundraising and numerous academic benchmarks while being named in August as one of the nation's three most-trusted public universities.

Quotes from key figures are included below:

Director of Athletics Graham Neff: "I am appreciative of the support from the Board of Trustees to President Clements to ensure we can continue to build on a firm foundation, as Clemson football and Coach Swinney's leadership are a key driver for our university. Coach Swinney and his family's impact on our community and department cannot be understated, and his success and stability nationally is truly uncommon. It is critical that Clemson continue to invest in our football program, and ensure our head coach is at Clemson for a long, long time. The best is yet to come."

Head Coach Dabo Swinney: "It is hard for me to believe I am in my 14th full season as your head coach, and I remain eternally grateful and honored for the opportunity to continue coaching and developing young people of excellence at Clemson." Swinney said. "This agreement is representative of what has been collectively built here and the success we've had both academically and athletically. It is a reflection of the ALL IN commitment of so many people, including our players, our staff, our fans, our administration and our University leadership. While I am certainly proud of our accomplishments on the field, the most rewarding part remains the relationships forged within this program and the ability to positively impact those around us. I am appreciative of the leadership of President Jim Clements, our Board of Trustees and Director of Athletics Graham Neff, and I am thankful for their continued faith in me as well as their steadfast commitment to the future of Clemson Football. Our core mission remains unchanged: Graduate our players, equip them with the tools they need for life, give them a great college experience, and win championships. I do not take for granted the Clemson Family's unwavering love and support and its faith in our program to carry out that mission every day. It is a blessing to be your head coach and to call Clemson our home."

Clemson University President Jim Clements: "Over the past 20 years, Coach Swinney has impacted our football program, our university and the entire Clemson area community, in profound ways. The culture of success and achievement he has instilled in our student-athletes, through both on-field victories and academic accomplishments, is truly remarkable," said Clemson President Jim Clements. "I'm excited Dabo, Kathleen, and their family will remain part of the Clemson Family for years to come."

ALL-ACC SELECTIONS IN 2021

Clemson's 10 selections to the 2021 All-ACC Team were second-most in the conference. Clemson has now produced double-digit All-ACC selections in each of the last seven seasons.

Clemson collected four first-team selections, all from the defense, as defensive tackle Tyler Davis, linebacker James Skalski and cornerbacks Andrew Booth Jr. and Mario Goodrich all earned first-team nods. Three Clemson players were selected to the second team, including offensive tackle Jordan McFadden, defensive end Myles Murphy and placekicker B.T. Potter. Defensive end Xavier Thomas, defensive tackle Bryan Bresee and safety Andrew Mukuba rounded out the selections with third-team honors.

RELATIVELY SPEAKING

Clemson's 2022 roster has many connections to college and professional athletics. Below is a list of notable connections:

- Keith Adams Jr., RB: Son of Keith Adams, a Clemson Athletic Hall of Famer at linebacker for the Tigers from 1998-2000.

- Davis Allen, TE: Son of John Allen, a linebacker who lettered at Georgia from 1989-91; also the brother of Reed Allen, who played defensive end at the United States Air Force Academy.

- Bryan Bresee, DT: Brother of Mount St. Mary's women's basketball player Kendall Bresee; son of James Madison offensive guard Richie Bresee and college basketball player Meghan Bresee.

- Jake Briningstool, TE: Son of Tony Briningstool, a linebacker who played at Michigan State from 1987-92.

- Brodey Conn, S/P: Son of Clemson Co-Defensive Coordinator/Safeties Coach Mickey Conn.

- David Cote, LB: Third Cote sibling to play for Clemson. His brothers, Kyle (2016 and 2018) and Peter (2018), both won national championships as walk-on safeties at Clemson.

- Carson Donnelly, DB: Father, Chris, played at Alabama with Dabo Swinney.

- Hamp Greene, WR: Son of Hamp Greene, who was a kicker on Alabama's 1992 national championship squad with Dabo Swinney.

- K.J. Henry, DE: Son of Keith Henry, former assistant coach at Western Carolina (2019-21), Catawba College (2013-16) and Wake Forest (2001-2011), among other stops.

- Tye Herbstreit, WR: Son of former Ohio State quarterback Kirk Herbstreit.

- Trent Howard, OL: Father, Johnny Howard, played at Alabama with Dabo Swinney.

- Sheridan Jones, CB: Brother of UNC Greensboro baseball player Kennedy Jones, who was the 2022

SoCon tournament MVP.

- Jaheim Lawson, DE: Brother of Shaq Lawson, a 2015 consensus All-American at Clemson and 2016 first-round pick.

- Tristan Leigh, OL: Father, Stan, played running back at Virginia from 1990-94.

- Armon Mason, DE: Father, Anthony, played 13 years in the NBA, earning an All-Star selection and an NBA Sixth Man of the Year Award.

- Kobe McCloud, LB: brother of former Clemson wide receiver Ray-Ray McCloud (2015-17); also brother of Arizona quarterback Jordan McCloud.

- R.J. Mickens, S: Son of former Texas A&M All-American defensive back and 11-year NFL veteran Ray Mickens.

- Myles Murphy, DE: Father, Willard, played at Tennessee-Chattanooga.

- Joseph Ngata, WR: Brother of Washington linebacker Ariel Ngata and Arizona State running back Daniyel Ngata.

- Caleb Nix, S: Son of former Auburn quarterback Patrick Nix; brother of Oregon quarterback (and former Auburn quarterback) Bo Nix.

- Ruke Orhoro, DE: Cousin of three family members who played or are still playing college football — Michael Ojemudia (Iowa), Mario Ojemudia (Michigan) and Ovie Oghoufo (Notre Dame).

- Walker Parks, OL: Son of former Kentucky offensive lineman David Parks.

- Trent Pearman, QB: Son of former Clemson tight end and current Director of Football Scouting Danny Pearman.

- Luke Price, TE: Brother of former Clemson offensive lineman Phillip Price.

- Josh Sapp, TE: Son of former Clemson quarterback/defensive end Patrick Sapp (1992-95).

- Will Shipley, RB: Brother of Penn lacrosse player James Shipley.

- Drew Swinney and Clay Swinney, WRs: Sons of Clemson Head Coach Dabo Swinney and brothers of former Clemson wide receiver/holder Will Swinney

- Brannon Spector, WR: Son of former Clemson receiver Robbie Spector and brother of former Clemson linebacker Baylon Spector.

- Caden Story, DT: Son of former Jacksonville State football and baseball player Clifford Story, and nephew of 14-year NFL tight end Marcus Pollard.

- Jeremiah Trotter Jr., LB: Son of Jeremiah Trotter Sr., a four-time Pro Bowler who played 12 NFL seasons for the Eagles, Redskins and Buccaneers from 1998-2009.

- Cole Turner, WR: Son of former Alabama player Kevin Turner, who played eight years in the NFL with New England Patriots and Philadelphia Eagles, and brother of former Clemson All-America safety Nolan Turner.

- Tyler Venables, S: Son of Oklahoma head coach and former Clemson defensive coordinator Brent Venables; brother of former Clemson linebacker and current student coach Jake Venables.

#WRU IN THE NFL

Clemson players accounted for a national-best three of the 23 1,000-yard seasons by NFL wide receivers in 2021.

SCHOOLS TO PRODUCE 1,000-YARD NFL WIDE RECEIVERS IN 2021

Rk	School (Players)	WRs

Las Vegas Raiders wide receiver Hunter Renfrow enjoyed a career year, catching a team-high 103 passes for 1,038 yards and nine touchdowns, including two scores in a playoff-clinching prime-time win in Week 18. Renfrow joined Pro Football Hall of Famers Tim Brown and Jerry Rice as the only wide receivers in Raiders history to record 90 or more catches in a season.

Los Angeles Chargers wide receiver Mike Williams posted career highs in receiving yards (1,146) and receptions (76) while adding nine touchdowns. And despite playing two fewer games than the year before, Cincinnati Bengals wide receiver Tee Higgins put up career numbers with 74 catches for 1,091 yards and added six touchdown catches for a second straight regular season before catching two touchdowns in Super Bowl LVI.

Clemson has had 11 receivers drafted since the 2013 NFL Draft, tied for the most in the country.

*Note: For listing purposes, Clemson chose to progress classes as though 2020 was a normal year of eligibility. For example, players listed as redshirt sophomores in 2022 following a "redshirt year" in 2020 did not officially redshirt in 2020, but would have qualified for one in a normal year. Clemson will denote extra years of eligibility on the back end of players' careers (i.e.: "Super Seniors" in 2022 are listed with the "+Sr." designation).

2022 GAME RECAPS

GAME 1	CLEMSON	41
	GEORGIA TECH	10
	SEPT. 5, 2022 MERCEDES-BENZ STADIUM • ATLANTA, GA.

ATLANTA — No. 4 Clemson defeated Georgia Tech, 41-10, at Mercedes-Benz Stadium on Labor Day night. Clemson's special teams had a superlative performance, as Carson Donnelly and Wade Woodaz both blocked punts to give Clemson multiple punt blocks in a single game for the first time since 2007.

Clemson's defense made an impact on the game's first play from scrimmage, as pressure from defensive end K.J. Henry resulted in safety Andrew Mukuba's first career interception.

In the second quarter, after its first punt block, Clemson opened the scoring on a one-yard touchdown run by running back Will Shipley. Clemson then drove 67 yards in eight plays and extended the lead on a six-yard touchdown pass from quarterback DJ Uiagalelei to wide receiver Beaux Collins. Clemson would carry a 14-3 lead into halftime.

Georgia Tech drew to within four on a 13-yard touchdown pass early in the third quarter. The Tiger offense provided a quick answer to take a 17-10 lead, as B.T. Potter hit a 29-yard field goal with 5:41 to play in the third quarter, capping a 12-play, 63-yard drive.

The field goal started Clemson's run of 27 unanswered points down the stretch to earn the win. Potter converted field goal attempts of 29 and 32 yards, and the first-team offense added rushing touchdowns by Uiagalelei and Shipley before ceding to the second unit, when true freshman quarterback Cade Klubnik led Clemson 66 yards and found Will Taylor in the end zone for a three-yard touchdown pass, pushing the final margin to 41-10.

GAME 2	FURMAN	12
	CLEMSON	35
	SEPT. 10, 2022 MEMORIAL STADIUM • CLEMSON, S.C.

CLEMSON, S.C. — No. 5/4 Clemson scored touchdowns on five of its first six drives in a 35-12 win against Furman. Clemson debuted new renovations to Memorial Stadium, including its 7,100-plus-square-foot videoboard, on a cool, overcast afternoon.

The win was Clemson's 35th consecutive victory at home, only the 15th home winning streak of 35 games or more in FBS history.

Quarterback DJ Uiagalelei completed 21-for-27 passes for 231 yards for a career-high 166.7 passer rating. Clemson rushed for 147 yards on 28 carries, led by Will Shipley, who scored two touchdowns.

Clemson's defense held Furman to 12 points, forced two turnovers and recorded two fourth-down stops. The unit registered nine tackles for loss. Five different Clemson players registered at least seven tackles, including LaVonta Bentley, who had three tackles for loss.

Clemson scored touchdowns on each of its first three possessions with two touchdown runs by Shipley bookending a two-yard touchdown pass from Uiagalelei to Jake Briningstool, giving the Tigers a 21-3 lead early in the second quarter. The teams traded touchdowns in the final two minutes of the first half to enter halftime with a 28-9 Clemson advantage.

Clemson opened the second half with a stop on Barrett Carter's first career interception. On the ensuing drive, Beaux Collins toe-tapped a nine-yard pass from Uiagalelei in the right side of the end zone to give Clemson a 35-9 lead. Furman added a field goal with 48 seconds to play in the third quarter, and a scoreless fourth quarter resulted in the 35-12 final score.

GAME 3	LOUISIANA TECH	20
	CLEMSON	48
	SEPT. 17, 2022 MEMORIAL STADIUM • CLEMSON, S.C.

CLEMSON, S.C. — Sophomore running back Will Shipley rushed 12 times for a career-high 139 yards and two touchdowns as Clemson used a 35-point second half in a 48-20 victory over Louisiana Tech. Clemson gained 521 total yards, including 280 on the ground, and forced four turnovers, leading to 21 Tiger points.

The Tigers' defense kept the Bulldogs out of the end zone for the first three quarters and held Louisiana Tech to only six total rushing yards. Quarterback DJ Uiagalelei was 17-of-29 for 221 yards and two scores through the air and picked up 62 yards on the ground on nine carries.

Clemson scored on eight of its 13 drives, not including running out the clock on its final possession. With the game set at 13-6 entering the second half, Clemson exploded for three touchdowns, including a twice scoring 32-yard touchdowns on one-play drives.

Shipley's performance made him the first Clemson player on record back to 1950 to score multiple rushing touchdowns in each of the first three games of a season. He averaged 11.6 yards per carry and became the first Clemson player to average at least 10 yards per carry on at least 10 attempts since Travis Etienne in the 2020 ACC Championship Game against Notre Dame.

R.J. Mickens, Jeremiah Trotter Jr. and Malcolm Greene all recorded interceptions in the contest, while Kevin Swint recorded his first career fumble recovery on a wild snap.
