2015-16

In a wild overtime game, Pitt outlasted North Carolina in the opening round of the 2016 ACC Tournament, 82-72, earning its first tournament win as a member of the league.

For the second time of the season against the Tar Heels, the Panthers had three players tally double-doubles, led by freshman Brenna Wise who had a monster game with a career-high 25 points and 10 rebounds.

Stasha Carey added 15 points and 10 rebounds, while Yacine Diop had 14 points and 12 rebounds. Point guard Aysia Bugg also had a standout performance with a career-best 20 points, and contributed seven rebounds and six assists.

With Pitt clinging to a 3-point lead, North Carolina's Jamie Cherry hit a desperation 30-foot 3-pointer with 0:01 seconds on the clock to force overtime. The Panthers regrouped and opened the extra session on a 7-0 run and ultimately outscored the Tar Heels 15-5 in overtime.

After the thrilling overtime victory against UNC, the Panthers had a hard time slowing down Miami offensively as the Hurricanes shot 60 percent for the game.

Both Wise and Diop scored 17 points for the Panthers. In her first ever postseason action, Wise averaged 21 points and eight rebounds in the two games.

2019-20

The Panthers saved their best game of the season for the opening round of the ACC Tournament as freshman Dayshanette Harris knocked down the game-winning jumper with 2.7 seconds left to secure a 67-65 victory for Pitt.

Harris drained a jumper with 2.7 seconds left to give Pitt the 67-65 lead over the defending ACC champs before securing the win with a steal on the ensuing inbound pass by the Irish.

The freshman sensation, Harris, finished off her first career double-double with 20 points, 10 rebounds, three assists and three steals as the Panthers notched their second ACC Tournament win in program history. It was the sixth double-double for a Panther in the ACC Tournament.

Junior Gabbie Green finished off her game with 14 points on 4-for-5 from behind the arc while Amber Brown added 12 points and Ismini Prapa came off the bench and netted 12 points on 4-for-4 from deep in the win.

After the thrilling win over Notre Dame, the Panthers weren't able to advance to the quarterfinals for the first time as #7 Georgia Tech earned the 68-58 win.

Harris once again led the Pitt charge as she netted 21 points and five boards while Brown added 12 points and seven rebounds in the defeat.

LANCE WHITE

HEAD COACH | 5TH SEASON | TEXAS TECH '96

Lance White enters his fifth season at the helm of the Panthers in 2022-23 after being named as the ninth head coach in Pitt women's basketball history on April 19, 2018.

The Panthers closed out their 2021-22 campaign with an 11-19 overall record and 2-16 ACC mark. Pitt dominated non-conference opponents as they earned a 9-2 record, their best record in the non-conference portion of their schedule since 2009-10 (11-2). Following the season Dayshanette Harris and Liatu King earned Academic All-ACC honors for their work in the classroom and court. Under White's tutelage, Pitt has placed seven on Academic All-ACC squads.

Much to the satisfaction of White, rebounding has become one of the Panthers' biggest strengths. Since White arrived at Pitt for the 2018-19 season, the Panthers have gone from 14th in the ACC (2017-18) in rebounding (33.1 rpg) to first in the ACC (43.9 rpg) last season. Overall, Pitt went from 325th in the NCAA in rebounding prior to White up to ninth in the NCAA last season, marking the biggest improvement in the nation across the four-year span. Pitt also led the ACC and ranked 14th in the NCAA in offensive rebounds per game (15.6 orpg). As a team, Pitt had six players averaging at least 3.1 rebounds per contest which was the most in the ACC.

The 2020-21 campaign was an interesting one for all involved but the Panthers continued to forge ahead on the court. White's offense continued their steady improvement as they finished the season averaging 64.3 points per game during ACC contests, their highest per game average since joining the conference in 2013-14. The offense also netted 70+ points five times and 80+ points twice, the most by Pitt since joining the ACC.

Junior transfer Jayla Everett was able to make an immediate impact for the Panthers as she led the team in scoring (15.4 ppg) and three-pointers (52). Her 15.4 ppg was the highest per game average by a Pitt transfer in program history while also leading all ACC newcomers. Everett also earned Honorable Mention All-ACC honors, marking the first player under Coach White to earn All-Conference recognition and just the second in program history (Brianna Kiesel).

Off the court in 2020-21, sophomore Dayshanette Harris claimed her second straight Academic All-ACC award while the Panthers posted a 3.16 team GPA. Pitt also had eight ACC Honor Roll members, the most since 2016-17.

During the 2019-20 season, White's second season in charge, the Panthers showed growth in every part of the program and it was capped with an ACC Tournament victory over the defending ACC Champions, Notre Dame. The win over the Irish marked just the Panthers second ACC Tournament win in program history as freshman sensation Dayshanette Harris knocked down the game-winning jumper with just 2.7 seconds left in the game. With the win, Pitt handed Notre Dame just their second loss in ACC Tournament history.

The foundation for the Pitt program was laid in season two as White's "First Class" of seven student-athletes made huge impacts that will shape the program for years to come. The Pitt freshman class of Harris, Amber Brown, Emy Hayford and Rita Igbokwe was not only the best freshman class in the ACC but they were one of the best in the NCAA. The quartet averaged 31.0 points/game combined, the most ever by a Pitt freshman class.

The youthful Panthers roster during the 2019-20 campaign was able to gain loads of experience that will help down the road as Pitt was the only team in the ACC to start five newcomers, doing so in the final seven games of the season.

During his final season at Florida State (2017-18), the Seminoles posted 25 or more wins for the fourth consecutive season, finishing with a 26-7 overall record and averaged the second-most points in a season in program history with 81.0 points per game. It was just the second time FSU averaged 80 or more points per game in a season. The team ranked in the Top 20 nationally in field goal percentage (20th), offensive rebounds per game (16th), rebound margin (sixth), rebounds per game (11th), scoring margin (10th) and scoring offense (13th). The Seminoles led the ACC in rebounding offense (42.8), rebounding margin (+10.0) and offensive rebounding percentage (41.4 percent).

During his time at FSU, 10 players were selected in the WNBA Draft, eight earned ACC All-Defensive team honors and 37 earned all-conference awards. He helped the Seminoles reach the NCAA Tournament in 13 of the past 14 years, while the team won at least one NCAA Tournament game in each of its past 15 appearances.

For his standout coaching efforts during the 2016-17 season, White was named the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) National Assistant Coach of the Year.

White helped FSU reach new levels of success and brought an infectious energy to the program. He directed the Seminole defense and offense during his tenure in addition to being one of the country's top recruiters.

Florida State captured back-to-back regular season ACC co-titles in 2010 and 2011, and advanced to the 2010 NCAA Tournament Elite Eight. After serving as assistant coach for the first nine seasons in Tallahassee, White was promoted to associate head coach in advance of the 2012-13 campaign.

Prior to FSU, White spent 11 seasons at Texas Tech, including five years as an assistant coach with the Lady Raiders' top-10 program under legendary head coach Marsha Sharp. With White on staff, Texas Tech won three Big 12 championships and advanced to seven consecutive NCAA Tournaments, including five Sweet 16 and two Elite Eight appearances. He was a student assistant on Tech's 1993 national championship team and a graduate assistant coach for two seasons before being elevated to a full-time coach in 1998.

While in Lubbock, White worked with some of the best players the game has ever seen, including National Player of the Year and three-time WNBA MVP Sheryl Swoopes as well as Plenette Pierson, who was named 2007 WNBA Sixth Woman of the Year.

A 1996 graduate of Texas Tech, White earned his bachelor's degree in exercise and sports science. He went on to receive a master's degree in sports administration in August 1998. He attended Lubbock Christian University for three semesters before transferring to Texas Tech in January 1993.

As a high school athlete in Spur, he was a three-time All-District selection, two-time All-Region, and two-time third team all-state choice in basketball. His high school basketball and football teams advanced to the regional round both his junior and senior years. In addition to his football and basketball accolades, he was listed in the Spalding Top 100 tennis players in 1991.

He is married to the former Melanie Smith. The Whites are the proud parents of Quentin and Vivian.
