COACHES QUOTES

COACH ~~MAXX~~ DANNY FORD, CLEMSON

Ford told his players in the ~~x~~ dressing room: "I'm real proud of you. We played good defense again, and the offense looked a lot better. We got ~~g~~ better this week like we were supposed to."

To the press: We're very glad to get the shutout. The defense has worked real hard all ~~the~~ season, and this is one of the rewards they get for playing consistent.

We're still making some mistakes that might hurt us one day. We had a couple of fumbles, we let them get away on that long punt return, and the penalties -- we're still having too many of them.

The offense played a lot better, but we can't continue to put the ball on the ground.

Virginia Tech hung in there well. Coach Dooley and his coaches did a good job preparing for us. But they had a lot of people hurt, and this definitely worked against them.

This was our first trip on the road, but I thought our coaches prepared the team well for the game. We saw what we thought we would see except for on thing and we adjusted to that at halftime.

We ran some two tight end offense, putting a tackle over there, and we were ~~x~~ just trying to get a little better blocking on that side.

(NOTE: Tailback ~~x~~ Lester Brown suffered bruised ribs in the first half and was in civilian ~~xxxx~~ clothes during the second. The severity of the injury is not known at this time.

Also, Clemson has allowed three touchdowns this year, all coming in the final quarter. Virginia scored with just over 10 minutes remaining, Maryland with less than two minutes and Georgia scored with nine seconds remaining.

COACH BILL DOOLEY OF VIRGINIA TECH

I don't think I need to tell you that Clemson has a heckuva football team. We feared going into the game their ball-control offense. And they certainly did a good job in that department. We might have been able to control them a little better had we not lost McDougald and Hill, two of our best defensive players. But that's no excuse because Clemson executes very well.

We had a good opportunity early and didn't take advantage of it. We forced Clemson to punt and would have had excellent field position. But we fumbled the ball.

I think Clemson defensively is better than Florida State, and that's saying a lot because Florida State is pretty darn good. However, any chance we had to move the ball on them we kicked away by dropping several key passes.

McDougald didn't practice much this week because of a bruised hip. So he goes in the game and gets hit on that hip again. Hill came out with a pulled groin muscle.

Kenny Lewis could have played more today, but we decided not to use him much. He's been nursing a sore heel and we needed to give him time to get ready again.

I congratulate Danny Ford and his Clemson team. They gave us a good whipping. We've just got to regroup and get ready for the ~~xxxx~~ rest of the season.
