COACHES' QUOTES:

Duke coach Red Wilson:

(Coach Wilson was asked about going to the shotgun offense):

I guess everybody wants to know why you do those things; why we didn't go to it earlier. But that was THE first time we had practised it live all year. It is just a matter of time for us to perfect it.

I was kind of the Lone Ranger--none of the other coaches had wanted to put it in; they had never been involved with it before.

It will help us a lot... and it is an exciting offense. When ~~the~~ Craig Browning went down with an injured ankle, it left us with only a freshman to run this very demanding and difficult offense.

It will give the teams against us something to worry about and to prepare against. The shotgun is at Duke to stay.

(About linebacker Jimmy Tyson): He had a freak injury--he stepped on a needle... He will be out of the hospital ~~today~~ tomorrow and should be able to play next Saturday.

Clemson Coach Danny Ford: Duke did a heck of a job. ~~They~~ They hung in there until the very end. Coach Wilson and his staff had 'em ready to play. I thought Duke was the best prepared team we've played this year. They played exciting football and kept our defense on the field more than we would have liked.

We got a little bit sluggish after we got that 28th point, and it was my fault that we went to the bench too early. But it was hot out there. Course, it was hot on Duke's side of the field, too.

Hopefully, I learned something from going to the bench too early. But we got to play a lot of people. Anytime you can come up into North Carolina and win, you gotta be happy.

Duke didn't surprise us on the shotgun, but they did on the no huddle.

Tracy (Perry) ran the ball well from tailback, McSwain ran well for a freshman. Our offensive line has to be doing something well.

Defensively, we ~~let~~ let them have too easy a field position and they got 10 points on us. But that was ~~because~~ because Duke hung in there and played a determined game. But overall, I was pleased with our performance.

We decided to go with Bob Pauling on the extra points and let Obed kick off. If we had tried a field goal, Pauling would have kicked. ~~We~~ We'll let 'em go at it again next week and decide who'll kick against State.
