GAME NOTES

Rodney Williams moved up a notch in several categories in the Clemson record book. He moved to third place, passing Homer Jordan in career passing yardage. His 74 yards against Furman gives him 3,649 career passing yards. Williams also moved up in career pass attempts, his 11 attempts gave him a career total of 557 to pass Steve Fuller's 554. In career interception avoidance, Williams moved ahead of Harvey White and Randy Anderson. His avoidance percentage is now .0413.

The Clemson offense has now played 12 quarters of football without committing a turnover with Rodney Williams in at quarterback.

COACHES QUOTES

FURMAN HEAD COACH JIMMY SATTERFIELD: "First, let me say that it was a tremendous opportunity for us to come over here. We're glad to be playing Clemson. It's good for us, and I think it's good for football in South Carolina. Coach Ford and the Clemson people have a tremendous program, and they've done a lot for football in this state and region."

"I thought Clemson's defense played well. That was the real key to this game. They are big and quick, and that caused us a lot of problems. That #55 (Jesse Hatcher) is a great football player, and #12 (John Johnson) is a quality player, too. They can play for anybody."

"We're obviously dissapointed in not winning. We didn't execute well in the third and three, third and two situations. But a lot of that had to do with Clemson. They're a very experienced club."

"I thought Bobby Daugherty ran well for us, and Kennet Goldsmith played hard. Our defense played well, better than I thought we would. We knew coming in that mistakes on our part would be critical, and in that first series, we had the fumble. That put us in the hole early - just the kind of thing we didn't won't to be facing."

"I was proud of our effort. I think we battled hard to the end, and I commend our guys for the effort. We're going to be a pretty good team if we maintain this type of intensity (the type we had today).

COACH DANNY FORD OF CLEMSON:

I'd like to compliment Furman on the fine exhibition of football. They gave us a hard contest and stopped our offense more times that we would like to think about.

The punt returns of ours gave us good field position and we didn't have to go so far to score. I thought the punting game and the kicking game was much better than last week. But I didn't think we were as sharp this week as last. And of course, Furman had something to do with that. We had a couple of bad penalties that hurt, especially the one that was away from the ball. But as we look at the films Sunday, we'll see that Furman was responsible for the way we looked at times.

I thought we became a little more aggressive in the second half, particular on defense. We didn't score in our first possession of the second half like I want us to do every game. But I thought the seniors had them decently ready to play.

Gardocki and Seyle kicked well and Lott and Woolford had some good returns.

Our tackling wasn't crisp at times, but I thought we played the option well. We didn't throw the ball well, but I thought we had a lot of good things happen for us.

Morocco played well when he went in and because of his performance, guess we should have had him in there earlier.

We wanted to be 2-0 after the first two games and that's where we are, so don't guess you can as for much more.

Game balls were given to Coach Wayne Bolt and players Cameron Gibson, Richard Smith and Ricardo Hooper
