CLEMSON 10

VIRGINIA 7

coaches' quotes, clemson at virginia, october 8, 1988

clemson's first 0-0 halftime game since 1979 georgia, first time clemson shut out in first half since 1987, nc state

clemson coach danny ford

(in the lockerroom) "I'm very proud of you--you did what you had to do to win the ballgame. Great job defensively. Offense--you showed a lot of poise and courage. I'm glad to get the game out of the way. We also got the turnovers out of our systems--let's not have any more heart attacks."

(to the press)"It's very good to win a game like this one. Virginia played very hard. We hurt ourselves on the fumbles. Had one turnover early and one was caused by a hard hit from a Virginia player. They made a nice play in the end zone against us on the touchdown. I thought we played good defense ---we gave up yardage but not points. In the end the offense showed a lot of poise. It was a great play by Chip Davis. Virginia played well--that's a credit to coach Welsh. We dodged a bullet. Virginia kept us from making the big play and made us earn it. It's time to go home--I've had it."

Game balls went to OT Frank DeIulio, DT J.C. Harper, FB Cameron Gibson, and FS Rusty Charpia. The coach's game ball went to quarterback coach Jack Crowe.

VIRGINIA COACH GEORGE HERKEN WELSH

We played well enough to win, but we didn't. We played 60 minutes of football for the first time all season. We only got seven points on offense but that doesn't mean we didn't have a good effort on offense.

(On attitude when Virginia led with 5:27 ~~xxx~~ left) You can't be optimistic against anybody. You'd like to think you can win in that situation, but Clemson's been pretty good in those situations against other teams.

We had a great effort and we lost. Now we have to regroup. This kind of effort should help us, but you ~~xxx~~ don't know if it will. You don't want to be too high when you win or too low when you lose. It's next week that's important.

(On defensive effort) We had a good effort from everybody. The line didn't get knocked off the ball like they have the ~~xx~~ past couple of years against Clemson and we got good run support.
