

CLEMSON VS. APPALACHIAN STATE
CLEMSON MEMORIAL STADIUM, CLEMSON, SC
SEPTEMBER 22, 1990

WEATHER SUMMARY: A cold front bringing precipitation stretches across the Tennessee Valley early Saturday. This front will move East across the upstate of South Carolina in the early afternoon today and off the Carolina coast this evening. A northerly flow will follow this front, bringing fair weather, cooler temperatures, and gusty winds to our area for the remainder of the weekend and early next week.

TODAY'S FORECAST: Partly sunny this afternoon with a slight chance of thundershowers. Low temperatures will be in the low 80s. Winds will be from the Northeast 5-10 mph. Four to five hours of sunshine is expected today. Tonight, clear skies, low temperatures in the 60s.

FIELD CONDITIONS AT 12:00 noon: Skies: Partly Cloudy
Temperature: 78
Humidity: 65%
Winds: Northeast 7mph

LINEUP CHANGES:

Appalachian State: Split End--John Brown will start in place of Kemal Atkins

Clemson: Flanker--Larry Ryans will start in place of Doug Thomas

Three Clemson Starters: Rodney Blunt, Stacy Long, and Doug Thomas will not dress for today's game

APPALACHIAN HEAD COACH JERRY MOORE

"I had forgotten in the last 18 months the biggest difference in I-A and I-AA --- speed...I was in awe of Clemson's team speed...I think our team played extremely hard today, but we couldn't offset Clemson's talent, their great speed...We had a hard time offensively coming up with plays that could really get us going... we would have something and Clemson's speed would negate it...on defense, we would where we needed to be, but their speed would cause the play to be a big one...the defense holds and Gardocki kicks a 57-yard field goal...we put them in a third and long and they hit on a 40-yard touchdown pass...We learned some things out there today and I think Clemson learned some things this afternoon... Clemson's a great team..."

CLEMSON HEAD COACH KEN HATFIELD

We didn't look all that pretty, but we accomplished a lot of things we wanted to do offensively. One of our goals before the game was to either score at least 40 points or have over 500 yards of total offense, and we challenged our players on this.

I thought the first team offensive line did a great job. We got a quick lead--17-0-- then we put the whole second team in and they just hadn't played as much. It only takes one guy to mess up and it hurts your effectiveness and we just couldn't get our momentum going again in the first half. Certainly the sweep on the first play of the second half was a big play (by Ronald Williams). I was glad we got to play a lot of second teamers and I think that will pay dividends in the long run.

Another goal was to shut Appalachian out, and I think we needed a goal that was realistic. We wanted to have our practice set up where we wouldn't have a let down. We kept the pressure on all day long, but Appalachian State kept fighting and kept swinging and they had a lot of spunk and they deserve a lot of credit. But I think the real difference was the speed of the game.

Our defense stayed in there and we didn't give them anything long, and that was a real key to the game in getting the shut out.

I thought our two halfbacks (Derrick Witherspoon and Ronald Williams) came in and played with a lot of poise, and remember, they were still in high school at this time last year. They made some big things happen and that is going to help up in the long run. We're still young in those areas and I think they grew up a lot today and I think it will give us good depth at the running back position.
