COACHES' STATEMENTS

COACH KEN HATFIELD OF CLEMSON: This was a hard-fought ball game between two great teams. I just couldn't be prouder of how we played the ball possession so well. We fought so well the entire first half.

Rodney Blunt couldn't have lifted us much better than he did. Randall Williams got hurt in pre-game warm-ups. Derrick Witherspoon was also hurt and really couldn't play. Rodney Blunt just did a yeoman's job. Then Junior (Howard) Hzell could play and Tony Kennedy came in on that last crucial job and got that critical first down with that long run. He had some tremendous blocking in his offensive line. So a lot of people made a contribution pikcing up the slack where necessary.

Larry Ryans made a tremendous contribution with his running the reverse, catching passes and returning kickoffs. Chuck Lynch--what can you say--that last punt going dead at the four. We definitely won the kicking game.

This was one game where there was no great field position by either team, Maybe both of us had a relative good position once, but it was not a critical factor in the game.

The greatest thing that pleased me was the effort we put forth in the first half. We had played so poorly in the first half of the last three games. This turned out to be a great momentum game. We thought our defense was ready to play and it was.

But we're just halfway through the season and many important are left to be played.

I thought their freshman quarterback Geoff Bender did a tremendous job of keeping State in the game. We wanted to stop (Charles) Davenport because he is a big play man. Despite our concentration, he still made some outstanding plays. He's just a quality ball player.

COACH DIDK SHERIDAN OF NORTH CAROLINA STATE: This was the first time all year that we were really knocked around on defense. They did everything they wanted to do and that's not been happening to us.

"We knew they had a great defense and that we couldn't give up too many points. To their credit, they controlled the ball and did what they needed to do.

"We missed a lot of tackles today. We actually had people in position but they just missed. It is very important that we respond positively from today."

"On the touchdown that they lined up in field goal position, we had a safety called and lined up correctly. They just knocked us off the ball."
