COACH TOMMY WEST OF CLEMSON: To be quite honest, don't know if we deserved to get it to overtime. We played about as poorly as we could play. We did almost everything we could to lose the game. But I want to give our players credit for fighting the fight and keeping the faith, staying in it, finding a way to win it...and that's what happens in the end. When you make those kind of mistakes, and then still come back and win, then you should have no complaints, but don't guess we're ever satisfied.

I thought the fans stayed behind the team...and we really need them...they perked the defense up at times. I know that they weren't satisfied with some our decisions, especially when it was fourth and short on the goal line, but we got six points out of that and it came in to play later in the game. I know that our decision wasn't very popular, but I really wasn't close. I decided I was going to take the points. I didn't want to come out of there empty. We took the points. You can look at it any way you want to, but I was happy to have those points in the end.

We expected Duke to bring people, come at us and blitz us, and they did, We just did not look in sync...it was pretty obvious that we missed Raymond Priester today, but just never could get anything going, but when we did, we'd get a penalty, or turn it over. I thought we played really poorly on offense. I thought our defense fought hard. We gave them 10 points on turnovers in the first half and you can't do that.

With their formations, it's really hard to call a good defensive game, but we put pressure on their quarterback...they ran the trap option once and caught us in a blitz and scored an easy touchdown, but overall I thought Reggie (Herring) did an outstanding job because it's difficult sometimes to get pressure just when you want it

Duke Notes vs. Clemson

*Today's game marked the first overtime contest in school history.

*Lay Marshall's TD run was his 19th career touchdown. He ranks 7th all-time at Duke in career TDs (rushing).

*Corey Thomas' six catches for 68 yards moved him into fifth all-time on Duke's career receptions chart. He now owns 144 catches for 1,956 yards. Today he moved past Doug Green, who caught 142 receptions from 1983-87.

*Strong Safety Darius Clark got his first career touchdown when he recovered a fumble and returned it in the end zone.
