1998 vs. Georgia Tech

Coach Tommy West of Clemson--This is a hard one to take. It boiled down to the fact that they carried out their plays and we didn't. We were slow in our operation there in the end.

But this team has vattled and I thought they were ready to play. We can't complain. It was a big game for us, on national television. We came out to play and we played hard.

Until the aend (the last Tech drive) I thought the defense battled every foot of the way. But we were in man coverage and didn't cover a man. It was a mistake on our part.

Our offensive line played well and we moved the ball good on the ground, especially in the first half. We threw the ball deep well and I thought that our first drive in the second half. We wanted to get some points on the first drive of the second half and we did. We utilized fourth down a couple of times.

Travis (Zachery) is getting better running the ball and he completed a pass and I think that he continues to get better every week., and he made a big catch too. I don't think that this team doesn't think it can win, but we haven't. Our team put every ounce of everything they had in this game, and they did what we asked them to do, but we still didn't win.

You would think that something good is going to happen to this team before it's over with.

NOTING GEORGIA TECH

Georgia Tech won its sixth ACC victory of the year, tying the school record. Tech also won six ACC games in 1990, when the Jackets won their only ACC title with a 6-0-1 record.

With 37 yards rushing, Joe Hamilton became Tech's all-time leader in rushing yards by a QB. He now has 941 yards. He broke the record formerly held by wishbone quarterback Danny Myers (921).

Hamilton also moved into second place in Tech history in career pass completions (397, passed Mike Kelley, 391), and into third place in career pass attempts (672, passed Eddie McAshan, 666)

With 71 yards receiving, Dez White broke the Tech season record for receiving yards. He now has 910 yards. He broke the record held by John Sias (902 in 1968).

Tech has now won five straight road games, dating back to last years Duke contest. The last time the Jackets won five in a row on the road was in the 1955 and 1956 seasons, when Tech won six in a row.

This is the first game Tech has won this year in which the defense did not score.

GEORGIA TECH HEAD COACH GEORGE O'LEARY

"It was a heartbreaking loss for Clemson, who I thought played very tonight. They ~~XXXXX~~ did the right things on defense. We just got some lucky breaks at the end of the game and were fortunate enough to punch the ball in. It was a good college game, well played by both teams in a lot of areas, and we're very fortunate to walk out of here with a win. We made some plays when we had to make them, but I thought Clemson did a great job. They gave great effort on defense and really did some things tonight that we respect. They were well prepared to play us ~~XXXXX~~ tonight.

"We just went to the two-minute drill with no huddle. We have about four or five plays we run at that time. They did a good job putting pressure on Joe and Charlie Rogers got underneath on that little angle route. That was a big play. It was nothing new. We threw some five-cuts and three-cuts, which I thought we should have been doing much more of anyway. I thought we made plays when we had to make them. It was a good win for Georgia Tech.

"Basically we didn't play very offensively, and I thought Clemson had a lot to do with that. Clemson played very well. They're as athletic as you're going to see. And we dropped about eight or nine passes today. I don't think some of the receivers had their days. You've got to make those plays. Give credit to Clemson for putting pressure on the receivers and really sort of frustrating ~~XXXX~~ Joe at times as far as what was happening
