Clemson vs. Wake Forest Notes

*Clemson outscored Wake Forest 10-0 in the fourth period to gain a 12-3 victory. This is the first time Clemson won a game in which it trailed entering the fourth quarter since the 1996 Georgia Tech game at Clemson. The Tigers trailed that game 25-21 entering the final quarter and won 28-25.

*Today's game is the first time since the 1997 NC State game in Raleigh that Clemson has overcome a deficit at any time in the fourth period and came back to gain victory. Clemson trailed NC State 17-13 in the middle of the fourth quarter, and then booted two field goals to win 19-17. Clemson led entering the fourth quarter of that game.

*Brandon Streeter came off the bench to complete 3-7 passes for 72 yards in the fourth quarter. Streeter also scored a clinching touchdown on a one yard run, his first rushing touchdown of the season. Clemson had gone five entire quarters without a touchdown prior to his score. With Streeter at the controls, Clemson gained 106 yards of total offense. He led Clemson to 10 points. Clemson gained 143 yards of total offense in the fourth quarter after gaining just 250 in the first three periods.

*Brian Wofford had 9 catches for 109 yards. That tied his career high for catches in a game. His last catch, a 31-yarder that brought Clemson inside the 10 on Clemson's last drive, put him over the 100-yard mark and ahead of Tony Horne on Clemson's all-time list. He now has 121 catches for his career, one more than Horne had in his four-year career. Wofford is now fourth in Clemson history, trailing only Terry Smith, Perry Tuttle and Jerry Butler.

*Today was the fifth straight game that Clemson has passed for at least 200 yards against Wake Forest. In fact, Clemson has thrown for at least 273 against the Deacs for three straight games. The Tigers had 350 passing last year in a 29-19 Wake Forest victory at Clemson.

*Clemson had two interceptions today, one by Dextra Polite and one by Alex Ardley. They now have seven combined this year. Clemson had just seven interceptions all of last season. The Tigers now have 13 as a team this year, nearly double the total of last season.

*The Tigers enhanced their #17 ranking in passing efficiency defense, holding the Deacs to just 128 yards passing and two interceptions. Wake Forest completed 13-24 passes, the sixth straight game Clemson has held the opposition under 55 percent completion percentage.

*Rod Gardner had five catches for 69 yards. His 55 catches for the year rank third best in Clemson history. Tony Horne had 70 in 1997 for the single season record and Jerry Butler had 58 in 1978.

*Brandon Streeter's mother was told by Brandon to take this week off and not attend the game. He didn't think he would get into the game. Mrs. Streeter attends almost all of Clemson's games from their home in Gettysburg, PA. Brandon's father, Barry, is the head coach at Gettysburg College in Pennsylvania. He will attend Clemson's regular season finale at South Carolina. Mrs. Streeter will be back on the road next week for Brandon's final home game against Duke.

WAKE FOREST - CLEMSON COACHES QUOTES*Wake Forest Head Coach Jim Caldwell

"Obviously, it (the loss) squeezes things in on us a little bit. We don't have any breathing room, that's for certain. It's a tough loss. We blew some scoring opportunities that we had and defensively, we played great. We played very, very tough against a team that had a lot of wrinkles. They did a nice job of scrapping around and making some things happen. We just couldn't put it all together."

"We had a couple situations with penalties that really hurt us - the offsides on the six-inch line. We had another penalty in scoring territory. We just had some penalties that hurt us. Streeter certainly threw the ball well. They didn't do anything different from what they've shown. The three-step drop is really a quick passing game. They certainly don't hold the ball very long."

"I knew that, without question, our defense has been playing very well. I don't think there's any doubt about that. They're going to find a way to stop you from running the ball consistently. I knew it would be a tough hard-fought battle. I didn't think it would be anything more than a 17-14 game. That's the kind of game that I thought it would be, which it should have been. When you're on the six-inch line, you expect to be able to get some points down in that area - at least you try to kick a field goal. We certainly did not perform well offensively."

"That was a key game. It's over with now, and we've got to look ahead. Every team is trying to do the same thing we're doing. One ballgame is not going to make or break your season. This one certainly doesn't give us any cushion, that's for sure. We've got a tough stretch ahead of us. If you play well and do all the things that you're supposed to do right, the best team wins in that situation. I just don't think we played very well. We were just penalized way too much during the course of the game. That's a good football team. They're playing well."

on the offense:

"When you play bad and win- play great on defense and bad on offense-Brandon Streeter can come in and speak us. That's a good way for him to start closing out his career."

on making a quarterback change

"It wasn't so much what Woody (Woodrow Dantzler) was not doing, sometimes just a little change can spark something, and that's what happened. I didn't know this morning whether he was going to be able to play or not. The doctors hadn't released him. The decision is easy once the doctors approve it and he risks no further harm medically. I thought Wake Forest did an excellent job on defense and made us execute with precision on offense and we couldn't do it. It really wasn't so much Woody as it was a lack of productivity on the entire offense."

on the defense

"It was a weird game for us because we were not very productive on offense. It was probably the first time in a long time that we came close to getting shut out on offense- not scoring a touchdown. When you play great defense, it gives you great flexibility on offense and you don't have to be very good. That's what happened today. This time we played great on defense and didn't on offense- and we won the game."
