POST-GAME COMMENTS FROM NORTH CAROLINA PLAYERS
UNC vs. Clemson, October 21, 2001

UNC Quarterback Ronald Curry:

"We knew we were up against a good team and they were going to keep fighting back. When we were up by 17 we felt like we had a good rhythm going on offense. We did a lot of good things tonight but we didn't make the plays we needed to make to win. This is a building block for us. Losing hurts but the offense played well and the defense played well. We just didn't make the plays we needed to make to win."

(On his injury):

"I thought it was another season ending injury but the good Lord blessed me. It felt like it was worse than what it was. I'm just glad the doctors felt that I ~~can~~ ^{could} play."

UNC Defensive Tackle Ryan Sims:

"This hurts a lot but we've got to move on. This is hard because it's at home and we've got to travel next week. We've just got to pick it up and play well next week."

UNC Linebacker Brandon Spoon:

"We knew they had a powerful offense and the ability to score points. We came out with a lot of enthusiasm and intensity, but we played tight once we got the lead. No one likes losing and losing a conference game is big. But there's no doubt in my mind we can come out and win our next four games. We've got to play hard and practice hard. We know what we have to do and we are going to come out with fire and intensity in the next game."
