Clemson vs. Georgia Tech
Saturday, Oct. 28, 2000
Clemson Memorial Stadium

Clemson Coach Tommy Bowden

They've had a tendency to stop us. They are a well coached team. They made one more play than we did right there at the end. We brought Willie in off the bench with Woody going down and I thought he did a good job of bring us back. Again, they made one more play.

I was kinda disappointed (with Clemson's defense on Georgia Tech's final drive. I did not think they would be that productive, but they were. We played hard., It was a 60 minute game, we've told them it's a 60-minute game, it's going to be all four quarters and it was.

I don't know that they manhandled us. I think most of their production was on the short passes outside. To me Tech's (454 yards passing) was more of a skill problem than an upfront problem.

Toure Francis blocked one and gave us the ball on the 6-inch line and then Brian Mance returned a punt for a TD. When you block a punt and return one for a touchdown, you should win the game. Georgia Tech is a good team. I don't know how good we are, I really don't. I guess we'll find out here in the next two weeks, I don't think our players quit. We'll have to learn from this and go on.

QB change — Woody could not go. His ankle. Had he been healthy, we would have played him. He could not run on his ankle.

There was a lot of momentum swings — which to me tells a lot about a team's ability to bounce back and retake control. That hasn't happened a lot this year with this team this year. Hopefully we can learn from it and put it to use over the next two games.

Georgia Tech Coach George O'Leary

Let me just say this: it was a great college game. Either team could have won it. I think that's what college football is about. Both teams fought extremely hard. I think both teams played well on defense. I think the offenses were optimistic as far as getting some points on the board. Obviously special teams had a factor in the game.

I think it was a great win for Georgia Tech up here. It was a tough game for Clemson. It was a great college game, and I'm extremely proud of our players because they have handled setbacks extremely well all year. And when we're down with 1:56 left, they just found a way to come back and get the win. It was a great college game, a great win for Georgia Tech.

On Defense – I thought the defense played well. They went out there against a very good Clemson team and never gave up. They gave up a couple of plays. I thought they tackled better against a team that puts a lot of points on the board. Godsey came up with some big plays on third down when we had to have them. We were running some timing routes and were able to get a lot of yards on just underneath stuff on two very good corners. We were able to do some things against a very exceptional football team and we just happened to have the ball last.

Clemson vs. Georgia Tech Clemson Postgame Notes

*Clemson injuries: Joe Don Reames suffered a sprained neck and did not return for the second half. He was taken to Oconee Hospital in Seneca. X-rays were negative. His status will be reevaluated on Sunday. Woodrow Dantzler took a hit on his left ankle in the first quarter, played the rest of the half, but at halftime decided it was too painful to continue. "I took a hit early in the first quarter at just about the same place on my ankle as last week. I thought I could be effective, but at halftime it was just too painful. It was disappointing. Credit Georgia Tech, their defense was very good. This hurts now, but we will come back."

*Clemson scored four touchdowns in the game, three passing and one on a punt return. That gives Clemson a school record 51 touchdowns for the season. The previous record was 48, set by the 1950 Clemson team, a team that was honored before the game. That Clemson team was 9-0-1 in 1950, the first Clemson team to finish a season ranked in the final top 10.

*Clemson also set a school record for points scored in a season. The Tigers have now scored 373 points this year, a school record. The previous best was 368 set in 1978 and 1989. Rod Gardner's leaping touchdown in the endzone that put Clemson up 28-24 with 1:52 left, broke the record.

*Travis Zachery had 16-101 rushing. That was his third 100-yard rushing game in his last four. He now has 488 yards rushing in his last four games, giving him 122 per game over this period of time. He scored a touchdown on a 29-yard pass reception, his 35th career touchdown. He already had the Clemson overall touchdown record.

*Brian Mance's 88-yard punt return tied for the fourth longest punt return in Clemson history. It was the longest by a Tiger since 1991 when Darnell Stephens raced 89 yards in a win over Maryland. Mance had 105 yards in punt returns in the game, just the seventh 100-yard game in that category in Clemson history. It was the first 100-yard punt return game by a Tiger since 1997 when Tony Horne had 106 against UTEP.

*Clemson has now lost to Georgia Tech four consecutive years by exactly three points. It was the fifth straight year that the Clemson Georgia Tech game has been decided by exactly three points.

*Clemson certainly had its best game of the year from a punt return team standpoint, it contributed to two of Clemson's four touchdowns. Toure Francis had his first career block in the first period, leading to Woody Dantzler's one-yard run. Then, Brian Mance had the 88-yard punt return for a score. Clemson had 130 team punt return yards for the game, ninth highest figure in school history.

*The 97 plays by Georgia Tech tied for second most ever against the Tigers. The record is 99 by South Carolina in 1968. It was the most by a Clemson opponent since 1970 when North Carolina ran 97.

*Tech's defense held Clemson to a season low 354 yards of total offense and a season low 28 points.

*Georgia Tech had 454 yards passing, most ever against Clemson. The previous high was 442 by Florida State (an offense coordinated by current Clemson tight ends coach Brad Scott) in 1993. George Godsey had all 454 yards passing, the most ever against Clemson. The previous best was 418 by John Kaleo of Maryland in 1992. Godsey also set the Clemson opponent record for total offense with 450. The previous record was 410 by Joe Hamilton of Georgia Tech last year.

*Kelly Campbell had 14-209 receiving, the most receptions ever against Clemson. The previous best was 13 set by three different players, all of whom played for Duke. The 209 receiving yards tied for the third most ever against Clemson.

GEORGIA TECH GAME NOTES

October 28, 2000 – Georgia Tech vs. Clemson

*The win over 4th-ranked Clemson marks the highest ranked team Georgia Tech has beaten since defeating No. 1-ranked Virginia on Nov. 3, 1990, also on the road.

*Georgia Tech defeated Clemson by three points for the fourth straight year. The last five meetings have been decided by three points.

* Georgia Tech has won four in a row over Clemson for the first time since 1970-71-72-73.

*Sophomore defensive end GREG GATHERS recorded his 10th and 11th sacks of the season in the first half, becoming the sixth player in Tech history to total at least 10 sacks in a season (the last to accomplish that feat was FELIPE CLAYBROOKS, who recorded 10 sacks in 1998).

*Junior NICK ROGERS bagged his 9th sack of the year in the second quarter. One more sack would give the Yellow Jackets two players with at least 10 sacks for the second time in school history. Coleman Rudolph (13) and Marco Coleman (10) each topped 10 sacks in 1991.

*Junior GEORGE GODSEY completed 13 of 24 for 225 yards in the first half. It was the second time in the last three games that Godsey has eclipsed the 200 yard-mark in the first half (he had 242 yards in the first half against Wake Forest).

*Georgia Tech single game records set by GODSEY:

454 Passing Yards (old record is 416 by Darrell Gast vs. Duke in 1987)

35 Completions (old record, 28 by Todd Rampley vs. Wake Forest, 1988)

57 attempts is the second most in school history (record 61 by Larry Good vs. Tennessee, 1968)

With 18 touchdown passes, GODSEY has now thrown more TD passes this season than any Tech quarterback except Joe Hamilton last season, who set the school record with 29. Godsey also topped 2,000 yards for the season (2007).

*KELLY CAMPBELL tied the school record with 14 receptions, also held by Robert Lavette (Notre Dame, 1981), Steve Harkey (South Carolina, 1970) and John Sias (Navy, 1968). Campbell's previous high was 11 receptions vs. Duke in 1999

*Junior KELLY CAMPBELL now stands in second place in Tech history in both career receptions (129) and career yards (2,013).

*CAMPBELL set a new career high with 209 yards, the fourth best total in school history.

*Georgia Tech set school team records with 454 yards passing and 35 completions
