Clemson Head Coach Tommy Bowden:

"I didn't have my team ready to play. It was obvious, they had their team ready and I didn't. We need to find a solution. I thought defensively, had we generated anything on offense, it probably would've been good enough to win."

"We couldn't convert short yardage. That was the worst I've ever had in that situation."

"I apologize to the crowd. They came out and did what we asked them to do and we didn't respond to them as a team. Defensively, if we look at the overall performance, had we generated anything, we could've been more productive."

On State's playing to go at Justin Miller- "He made the only big play for us on offense on the kick off return. I wish we had a bunch more like him. He's obviously a good player."

On the next game at Duke- "We'll work hard to get a plan down; we've got to be more productive and generate more offense. We made real good progress for about five or six weeks and the last two weeks; we've been out of sync. We'll work hard and find some solutions."

"I thought the effort was good and the fans generated some enthusiasm. I wish we could've done something to assist them (the fans) because they sure came out in full force. It's obvious from a coach's standpoint that I didn't. He had his team prepared better in four days than I did, and I'll work hard to get that corrected."
