Virginia Head Coach Al Groh

On game:

"Terrific college football game. Both teams played heroically. It is a great win for Clemson, and it is a heartbreaking loss for our team."

On first half defense:

"Everything is about points on defense. It's not about other numbers, it's about points. And Clemson only had 10 points. They (the defense) did the things that they were supposed to do. They got us out of some tough situations, but they also put us in some tough situations. We were able to limit red zone opportunities for Clemson, and that kept us in the game early."

On kicking the field goal in overtime:

"We wanted to make sure that we stayed in the game. We just missed several third-and-ones in the game, and at that point it's a little bit like playing Russian Roulette. Would I like to go for it on fourth-and-one? Sure, but if you go for it and miss, then the game is over. If you kick a field goal, then you have some more plays and a chance to win the game."

On the game's final play:

"We were in the same situation here two years ago. Two years ago, our guy went up and won the game, and today their guy went up and won the game, and that's all that counts. The kid (Whitehurst) made a good throw, and the kid (Youngblood) made a good catch, and that's all that needs to be said about it. I congratulate them for winning."

Clemson Head Coach Tommy Bowden

On the fans

"I was proud for people that came, with the bad forecast and all. They really supported us."

On coming off the loss and the motivation for the game

"I wish it was something I said. Sometimes it's just the chemistry of team. They just get into a mind set. Our defense set the tone early in the game that it was going to be a heck of a match for their offense. The offense responded too. We got in the red-zone a couple of times and didn't score points, but we got them when we really needed."

On the play of Yusef Kelly

"He hadn't been in the doghouse; he was legitimately hurt. He jumped right back into this mold, like last year against South Carolina. Virginia plays a defense with a lot of zone blocking and he was able to move the pile."

On the overtime play

"Our staff, Brad Scott, Mike O'Cain, Burton Burns, Ron West, Dabo Swinney, had a pretty good plan going into the game and again Charlie, with Kevin being 6'5", he just had to throw it up and get it close. There were so many good plays throughout the game; that one just happened to be last. John Lovett and the defensive staff prepared our guys well for the Virginia who was leading the ACC in rushing."

On the injuries

"We were playing without four starters, with J.J. Howard getting injured early. We lost some leadership, but we had guys step up and not lose any ground. That's a sign you are beginning to make some improvement as a team. Our players never quit. Vontrell Jamison made some big plays for us. He had been working hard and was ready to step up. I saw Gene Pate go down too, but Cole Chason did a great job stepping in to hold for us."

On the short preparation for N.C. State

"We are going to try to get some sleep tonight and then get right to work tomorrow, but it's easier after a win."

Clemson vs. Virginia, 10/11/03
Player Quotes

Wide Receiver Kevin Youngblood:

"The last play was intended for me. It surprised me when they signaled it in. As soon as we got the play, my adrenaline went up as high as it could go. That's something that I've dreamed about forever, making the game-winning catch. I finally did it. I appreciate the coaches for that."

Quarterback Charlie Whitehurst:

"It was just a huge win. We came off of last week thinking we might've won it if we made a few more plays. It's just nice to go out there and make those plays this week, and to prove to yourselves that you can do it. We hadn't beaten a ranked team in a while, so it feels pretty good. We kind of silenced the critics with this one."

Running Back Yusef Kelly:

"I think I bring a physical presence to the offense. I think that when the guys in front of me look back and see me in there, they want to get the first down. They want to blow their man off the ball. All it takes is one player to spark an offense. I don't know if it was me, but somebody definitely did it today. The fan support was great today also."

Linebacker John Leake:

"We just kept telling ourselves, 'we are not going to lose this game.' That's the temperament I had. I told the defense to keep telling that to themselves. If we gave it 110 percent, we would not lose this game. It was a big win."

"We were doing pretty good against the run. We did pretty well, but we can still get better. In the first half, we played great and they didn't score any points. Both sides of the ball let up a little bit in the third quarter. In the fourth quarter, we came out strong and we got the win."

Clemson vs. Virginia Notes
Clemson Memorial Stadium
October 11, 2003

- *This was Clemson's first win over a ranked team since the 2001 victory over a ninth ranked Georgia Tech team in Atlanta. Ironically, that was also Clemson's last overtime game. The Tigers defeated the Yellow Jackets 47-44 in overtime on a walk-off six-yard run by Woody Dantzler. Clemson had lost eight straight games to top 25 teams prior to today.
- *Clemson is now 3-0 in overtime games in its history. The Tigers defeated Duke at Death Valley in 1997 by a 29-20 score, then downed Georgia Tech 47-44 in overtime in Atlanta in 2001.
- *Clemson won the game on a four yard touchdown pass from Charlie Whitehurst to Kevin Youngblood. Two years earlier, Virginia had beaten Clemson 26-24 on a one-yard touchdown pass to Billy McMullen with one second left in regulation.
- *This was just the fifth "walk-off" football victory in Clemson history. Each of the three overtime games, Clemson won the game with a score on the last play of the overtime period. David Treadwell had two game winning field goals on the last play of the game during his career. He accomplished that with a 36-yard field goal at Virginia Tech in 1985 and with a 46-yard field goal at Georgia in 1986. This was just the second walk-off victory for the Tigers in Clemson Memorial Stadium.
- *Clemson had a season high 488 yards of total offense in today's game. Virginia was 21st in the nation in scoring defense and 15th in pass efficiency defense heading into the game. Clemson also had a season high 194 yards rushing.
- *Clemson had 29 first downs in today's game, the same total the Tigers had two years ago in a 26-24 loss to the Cavaliers. The 29 first downs were the second most by the Tigers in a game this year (31 vs. Middle Tennessee), but tied for eighth most in a single game in Clemson history.
- *Junior running back Yusef Kelly had a season high 88 yards in 25 attempts today. He had one rush for one yard in the five previous games prior to today. It was the most rushing yards in a game for Kelly since he had a career high 99 yards rushing against Ball State last year. The 25 carries tied Kelly's career high. He had 25 carries against Louisiana Tech last year.
- *Clemson is now 4-0 against teams with right handed quarterbacks and 0-2 against teams with left handed starting quarterbacks.
- *Clemson ran 91 plays today, the most by a Clemson team since 2000 when the Tigers had 95 plays in a victory over NC State. Clemson had 46 rushes and 45 passes in today's game. It was the sixth most plays in a single game in Clemson history.
- *Clemson wore all orange for today's game. It was Clemson's first win in all orange uniforms since the 2000 NC State game.
- *Clemson gained victory today without the services of four starters for much of the game. Khaleed Vaughn, starting defensive end, Eric Sampson, starting WHIP linebacker, and Airese Currie, starting wide receiver, did not dress for this game. J.J. Howard, Clemson starting defensive end, missed most of the game with a knee injury. Howard will be re-examined on Sunday, but the injury is believed to be serious. He will not play at NC State. Clemson holder Gene Pate suffered a broken leg while running down the hill with the team prior to the game. He is out for the season. Pate was already playing with a torn ACL. Cole Chason, Clemson's starting punter, filled that role, the first time he has held in a Clemson game.
- *Tye Hill had his first career interception in today's game. He had his first career touchdown at Virginia last year on a 32-yard run.
- *Kevin Youngblood had nine receptions today for 87 yards. Youngblood moved into eighth place on Clemson's career reception list with the performance and now has 110 catches for his career.
- *Tony Elliott's 50-yard catch in the first period was the longest reception of his career.
- *Derrick Hamilton's 29-yard completion to Youngblood was his first career pass attempt. It was the first completion by a Clemson receiver since last year when Tony Elliott had a 37-yard completion to Youngblood at Florida State.
- *Charlie Whitehurst completed 27-44 passes for 265 yards and two scores in today's game. He has now completed at least 20 passes in five straight games and in eight of the 11 games he has started in his Clemson career. He is now 7-4 as a starter at Clemson. The 27 completions tied for his second highest total as a Clemson player. He had a record 34 completions at Duke last year and had 27 in a victory over South Carolina.
- *Today was Clemson's 200th ACC victory in history. Clemson is the first school to reach the 200 victory mark. It was just the third time Clemson has won an ACC game on the last play of the game.
- *Virginia entered this game leading the ACC in rushing with an average of 184 yards per game. Clemson held the Cavaliers to 53 yards rushing on the day.
- *Clemson gained 102 yards in 14 first down plays in the fourth quarter.
- *Leroy Hill entered the game third in the nation in tackles for loss per game with 12 in five games. He enhanced that ranking with four tackles for loss today, giving him 16 for the season in just six games. In addition to those tackles for loss, he also had the stop on a third-and-one play in overtime for the Cavaliers.
- *Roverback Jamaal Fudge had 17 tackles today to tie his career high of 17 set earlier this year against Middle Tennessee.
- *Clemson is now 28-3-2 on homecoming games since 1971. It was the fourth straight win for the Tigers over a top 25 team on homecoming.
- *Clemson is now 25-2-1 against Virginia in games played in October and November.
- *Aaron Hunt had six points today on one field goal and three extra points, giving him 262 points for his career. He moved ahead of Chris Gardocki today on Clemson's career scoring list into fourth place. Gardocki, still with the Cleveland Browns, had 261 points between 1988-90
