Clemson Head Coach Tommy Bowden Quotes
9/11/04 vs. Georgia Tech

On the outcome of the game

"We just didn't play smart football. It was a matter of execution on our part. It wasn't anything they did. Georgia Tech did not quit, and I give them credit for that. It came down to an execution stand-point on our part and we had that fumble on the punt-snap. Geoff (Rigsby) hasn't done that in a year and a half, and it just happened to happen tonight. I think the problems happened inside our locker room and not inside theirs, as far as from correction stand-point."

On what to say to the team afterwards

"I don't want to take anything from Georgia Tech. They played hard all game, but as I told our team, the team making all that noise cheering wasn't the team that beat us. The team that beat us is in this locker room. It's my job as the head coach to make the correct changes to solve the problems. The problems were that we couldn't block one of their guys I can't do much about a 6'5" guy over a 5'10" guy, but there are some other things that I'll search for this week."

On the running game

"Kyle (Browning) and Reggie (Merriweather) broke through for some long ones. The running game picked up, but we didn't play smart and got a celebration penalty for it that gave them 30 yards and points with seconds that might not have been on the clock."

Clemson Quarterback Charlie Whitehurst

"It is a game of inches. I wonder how close on got on those two plays. But you have to give them credit for not giving up."

"We have had tough losses before. Wake Forest was a tough one last year. But we didn't give up and we won't give up now."

Clemson Running Back Reggie Merriweather

"It felt great to contribute tonight, but not getting the win really hurts. During the week the coaches told me that I would get an opportunity and I did. I just ran as hard as I could every time I was on the field. I hope this will give the coaches confidence in me."

Clemson Linebacker Leroy Hill

"That is a tough one to take. To be that close to a win and have it taken out of our hands really hurts. As seniors we will regroup and have everyone focused on the next game. This game doesn't end our season. We still have everything to play for."

Georgia Tech vs. Clemson – September 11, 2004
Georgia Tech Head Coach Chan Gailey

“You may watch a lot of football in your life, but you may never see anything like that. I hope you enjoyed it. I did.”

On the game’s ending:

“You’d like to get a good punt return, or have someone get pressure and he (punter) bobbles the snap. Freaky things happen. The last extra point was really big. That was a huge play in the ballgame, and most people don’t even think about it.”

On Freshman WR Calvin Johnson:

“He has shown a lot of potential in practice, and he has made plays like that in practice. It was just a matter of time in our thoughts as to when he would make them in a game. And he really put it together tonight.”

On play of Reggie Ball:

“Our protection was not very good at times, and it (pressure) really got to him. We just tried to simplify our protections, and it really helped us going into the two-minute offense.”

NOTING GEORGIA TECH

- * Levon Thomas recorded career highs with eight catches and 100 yards. His previous highs were 4 catches vs. Georgia, 2002; and 66 yards vs. Citadel, 2001)
- * Calvin Johnson finished the game with eight receptions for 3 touchdowns including the game-winning touchdown with eleven seconds left.
- * Dawan Landry’s third-quarter interception was the third of his career
- * P.J. Daniels ran for his eight career 100-yard game. Daniels 103 yards makes 1,974 for his career.
- * First win at Clemson since 2000 when Kerry Watkins made a diving catch with just seven seconds left to give Tech a 31-28 win.
- * First win over a ranked team since Tech defeated Auburn last season 17-3.
- * Tech’s four-point win marks the eighth time in the past nine years that the final of the Tech/Clemson game has been determined by a touchdown or less.

Clemson vs. Georgia Tech Game Notes

September 11, 2004

- Leroy Hill had 15 tackles on the night, including three for loss. He also had his second and third sacks of the season versus the Yellow Jackets. He now has 11 sacks and 34 tackles for loss in his career.
- Reggie Merriweather scored his first career touchdown in the fourth quarter when he broke away for a 62-yard run. The carry was the longest by a Clemson running back since Tommy Bowden began coaching the Tigers in 1999. It was the longest run from scrimmage by a Tiger tailback since Raymond Priester had a 65-yard carry versus South Carolina in 1996. He finished with eight carries for 90 yards.
- Kyle Browning followed Merriweather's run with the second longest carry by a tailback under Bowden. He had a 54-yard run in the late fourth quarter to help put the game away for the Tigers. Browning had five carries for 80 yards.
- Clemson had six sacks in the game versus Georgia Tech. Bobby Williamson had his first career tackle and sack on the same play, a 16-yard loss for Georgia Tech quarterback Reggie Ball. Gaines Adams had his first sack of the season, a five-yard sack on the ensuing play after Williamson's sack in the second quarter.
- Tye Hill established a career-high with four pass breakups in the contest. He also had his first sack of the season, the second of his career. He had two tackles for loss in the game.
- Curtis Baham caught his first pass of the season, a nine-yard completion on Clemson's second offensive possession of the first quarter. He had his second career touchdown with 12:49 left in the second quarter, a 22-yard reception from Whitehurst.
- Cole Chason tied his career-best with a 50-yard punt in the first quarter.
- Ben Hall had his first reception of the season, a 26-yard grab in the closing moments of the first quarter.
- Tramaine Billie got his first career interception, courtesy of a pass breakup from Travis Pugh on a deep throw from Reggie Ball. It was also the first interception of the 2004 season for the Tiger defense.
- Kelvin Grant set a career-high with six catches for 80 yards. His previous high was five receptions at Wake Forest last season.
- Charlie Whitehurst had his first career punt on the opening possession for the Tigers, a 25-yard "quick kick" on fourth and six.
