Clemson vs. South Carolina
November 20, 2004

Clemson game notes

- The win in today's game marked the 600th in school history.
- Tommy Bowden improved to 5-1 in his six games versus South Carolina. The Tigers finished 6-5, and are now eligible for a bowl for the sixth time under Bowden.
- Clemson's opening score just 52 seconds into the game was the fastest since September 28, 1996 when Nealon Greene and Joe Woods connected on an 80-yard touchdown pass versus Wake Forest. Reggie Merriweather's three-yard touchdown run gave Clemson the points off of the fumble forced by David Dunham on the opening kickoff.
- Clemson's opening drive of the third quarter took 7:14 off the clock, covering 15 plays. The Tigers converted 3-3 third downs on the drive.
- The Tigers had 22:02 time of possession in the second half. The Gamecocks were held to just 4-16 on third-down conversions.
- Reggie Merriweather's second touchdown of the game was his 10th of the season. He became the first Clemson running back to have double figures in touchdowns since Travis Zachery in 2001. He finished the regular season with 11 scores.
- Reggie Merriweather had three touchdowns in the game, the second time in his career he has rushed for at least three touchdowns. He finished the game with 125 rushing yards, the second time in his career he has topped the century mark in rushing.
- Reggie Merriweather's 28 rushes were the most by a Clemson player since Travis Zachery had 29-151 versus Maryland in 2000.
- Leroy Hill had two tackles for loss in the game, giving him 20 for the season. He passed Rob Bodine for fifth place on the Tigers' all-time list for tackles behind the line of scrimmage.
- Tramaine Billie had a career-high three tackles for loss, and finished the regular season with 10.
- Tye Hill established a Clemson single-season record with his 18th pass deflection in the first quarter. The previous record was 17, held by Dextra Polite since 1999. He had four in the game and finished the regular season with 21 PBUs.
- Cory Groover's third-quarter interception was Clemson's fourth this season by a defensive lineman. Charles Bennett (2) and Eric Coleman are the others who have intercepted passes.
- Gaines Adams had his second blocked punt of the season, although the play resulted in a first down after a nine-yard rush by Gamecock punter Josh Brown.
- Chansi Stuckey had seven grabs for 74 yards in his first significant action in quite some time. The sophomore receiver had just seven catches over the Tigers' last seven games.
- The Tiger defense held South Carolina to just 66 rushing yards on 28 attempts, and the pass defense held Gamecock quarterbacks to a 33 percent completion rate.
- Airese Currie had just one catch in the game, a 16-yarder from Whitehurst. However, the senior Columbia, SC native is now tied for seventh all-time in Clemson history in terms of career receptions with 138.

SOUTH CAROLINA GAME NOTES
South Carolina vs. Clemson
November 20, 2004

Game captains today for South Carolina were Rod Wilson, Dondrial Pinkins, Preston Thorne, Jonathan Alston.

South Carolina's first first down of the game was the result of Josh Brown advancing a blocked punt with 30 seconds remaining in the first quarter.

The 14-0 deficit to Clemson ties for the largest first quarter deficit by South Carolina this season. The Gamecocks also trailed Ole Miss 14-0 after the first quarter on October 9. The Rebels won the game 31-28.

Jamacia Jackson's interception in the second quarter was his second of the season and his career. His first interception was in the 2004 opener against Vanderbilt when he returned an interception 98 yards for a touchdown.

Syvelle Newton's 54-yard touchdown pass to Cory Boyd in the second quarter was Newton's sixth touchdown pass of the season. It was Boyd's first TD reception of the season and his fourth TD overall.

Lou Holtz Quotes

"It was disappointing, frustrating. Congratulate Clemson, they played well. No reason, no excuse whatsoever to have a team come off the bench, either team. I don't know what caused it, but that should never be part of college football.

"Three straight years we have gone downhill in November, and it is nobody's fault but mine. We come out of two-a-days and we are tough, and the year goes along and we have too much finesse and we lose our toughness. It is nobody's fault but mine. That is why you can't be a finesse football team. Didn't practice being tough enough, didn't put them in tough enough positions.

"Team not good enough to play in a bowl the way we played the past two weeks. We were pretty good in the beginning of the year, and we lose our toughness."

On career

"I will address that on Monday in a press conference, but you would have to not know that President Bush got elected to not know what my future is."

On offense

"I thought that it was the worst since 1999 the last half of the year. I want to add that it was field position. We had poor field position the whole game. I have to look at the film, but that was bad in all respects." We start off fumbling the kickoff. Even then you play back and you are down 14-7 at halftime. You have them 3rd down and 10 and you let them convert and they go down and score. Too much finesse on both offense and defense."

On emotion

"I was more emotional until the opening kickoff. I just feel bad because three straight years, it is so obvious that we lost what we had in two a days."

On brawl

"We are going to look at the tapes to see if we need to suspend anyone. It discourages me, this is the first time that this has ever happened to me in a football game. There is no excuse, I take responsibility. There is no place in football for it. Since this was my last regular season game, I was disappointed that things got out of hand between the two teams even before kickoff. You go play the game, usually the team that does that stuff is the team that is not winning."

On Merriweather

"He ran the ball hard. They played physical and ran physical. That was the main difference in the ball game. When we come out of two a days, we are a sound, fundamental ball club. Obviously I didn't work them enough, didn't work on fundamentals enough."

On record against Clemson

"I consider this my biggest disappointment. Not just that we lost, but the way we lost the past couple of years. They controlled the line of scrimmage. You look at it in hindsight, and you ride off into the sunset, and you say three straight years we lost because of our toughness. I didn't work them enough. I plan on coaching the bowl game."

"We came out in the first five minutes of the second half and they convert that 3rd and 10. I take responsibility for this. I don't know why it takes me so long to figure it out. Three straight years and three bad November's."
