Head Coach Tommy Bowden Quotes

On the winning field goal with seconds remaining

"Well, we got a little used to it with the games last year, but hopefully, the rest of the year won't be like it was tonight."

On Charlie Whitehurst's status

"I think it was strictly that he was banged up a little bit. He was borderline going back in, but the doctors were a little indecisive. He gave the right answers to the questions but they just weren't quite quick enough."

On the play of the offensive line

"The multiple formations took a little pressure off of them. It keeps the defense off balance. It helps when the defense plays well too. When you get behind, you can't do that. Their quarterback is a great player and had a good game. But, our defense made the stops when we needed too and we got some turnovers when we had to. Then offensively, Rob Spence and the staff did a great job of controlling the ball and just getting three yards here and five yards there."

On the running backs

"Davis is a very, very talented player. I think once he learns what he's doing as far learning blocking schemes and some of the protections. I think a lot of good things could happen for him in the future."

Dennis Franchione Quotes

Go for 2: "With nine minutes left in the game, I felt like more would happen. We got the ball with 6 minutes left, but we went three and out, for what I think was the only time in the game".

"Clemson didn't make any mistakes, they didn't make many penalties, and their kicker was flawless".

"I told my players that it was going to be a one play game, and we didn't make the one or two plays needed"

"We played good defense in the red zone"

On James Davis "He is going to be a good back for them. Clemson is better running the ball this year than they were last."

On Reggie McNeal "He was off on a couple of throws tonight, but he played a pretty good football game".

"In the first quarter we had a penalty that took away a touchdown"

"We have some resolve, I told my players that it was going to be a 60 minute game, but we played 59:54".
