Postgame Quotes
NC State coach Chuck Amato

On the game:

Tonight we got Clemson at their best. The atmosphere in the stadium was great, the fans created the type of place that we wanted to play, they were perfect.

Our defense played well tonight, but our kicking game was the best part of our performance this evening. It (the kicking game) was what kept us in the game. Our punts and kicks helped us great field position. Our special teams were fantastic as well. The offense tonight sputtered, they did not perform.

The mistakes that we made upset me greatly especially the ones made on simple plays. We did not make plays tonight at all. Our third down conversion percentage must improve, we must get better, and we must.

On being prepared for tonight's game:

We were concerned about our offense; however, the team had a great week of practice. There were many plays that we should have made but we did not. I thought that we were prepared entering this game.

On the rest of the season:

We must stay positive. We as coaches need to continue to teach and coach these kids; moreover we need to positively coach them. We will make the fans proud of this team before the season is over, we will.

Postgame Quotes
Clemson coach Tommy Bowden

The key tonight was our defense. We were able to shut them out in the second half and the defense is the reason we came away with the win.

On the team's attitude:

You lose three in a row and people start questioning your teams' mental stability, but we have some strong senior leadership that kept up the good spirit and good fight that we continued to show tonight. We have a lot of freshmen and redshirt-freshmen playing for us, especially on defense, and they've never played at this level before, but there was no hint of quit from them. I tip my hat to the seniors for taking those freshmen under their wing.

On the offensive line's performance and keeping possession for so long in the fourth quarter:

Our offensive line played very well against a great defense tonight. I thought those guys did a great job.

On the breakaway speed of James Davis:

James showed tonight, against a talented defense, that he is a difference maker. He's got an extra gear.

On the game not going down to the wire for once:

We've played a tough schedule and when you play against people like that, you get lots of games that go down to the wire. Sure, I wish we could have won a few more, but I like the way that things are shaping up.

NC STATE POST GAME NOTES
Vs. Clemson – October 13, 2005

- Senior Manny Lawson set a new school record with his seventh career blocked punt in the third quarter.
- NC State has now lost six straight conference games at Carter-Finley Stadium.
- Clemson scored the first 21 points of the game, the biggest deficit for the Pack at the opening of a game since Minnesota jumped out to a 24-0 lead in the 2000 Micronpc.com Bowl.
- NC State was down 28-10, the largest halftime deficit since the 2003 game at Wake Forest (28-10).
- Darrell Blackman finished with the third-most kickoff return yards in school history. He returned three kicks for a total of 161 yards (just 14 shy of the school record).
- NC State's 8-play 80-yard touchdown drive in the second quarter was its third 80-yard drive in the last two games.
- Tramain Hall moved into sole possession of eighth place on NC State's career receptions list with 114 for his career.
- Jay Davis moved into ninth place on NC State's career passing yards list with 3,446 for his career.
- Garland Heath recorded his team-leading third interception of the season.
- John Deraney missed his first field goal of the season, a 36-yard attempt in the first quarter. He is now 8-of-9 this season.
- Clemson's James Davis' 143 yards rushing were the most for an opposing player against NC State since Bellamy of Connecticut ran for 166 in 2003.
