Coach Bowden Postgame Radio Quotes

On the game:

“He had two games in one week, and we’ve never done that. I don’t think I’ve ever had that as an assistant or a head coach. You’re never sure what you are going to get after a big game like the one we had against Florida State on Monday. In all I’m very pleased to have two wins in a week

On the short break:

After coming off an emotional game we wanted to stay away from a let down. I was very pleased with the turnout of the crowd when we came out of the tunnel. I’m thankful that the crowd came out and gave us a true homefield advantage.

On Cullen Harper:

I’m very pleased with how he played. They loaded nine guys in the box at times, so we had the opportunity to throw it a bit. He did a good job executing and making his throws.

On Harper’s 5 TD passes:

That gives him a lot of confidence. Willy Korn has pushed him hard in the off-season and Cullen has really stepped up. Cullen has shown a lot of character and this is only going to help him.

On kickoff coverage:

Mark Buchholz has been doing a great job putting the ball in the corner consistently. It’s funny, it’s a lot of the same guys on the coverage team, but I think Andre Powell has been doing a great job with the unit.

On Linthicum:

He’s been a little banged up recently, but he’s shown a lot of courage. The FSU game really gave him a lot of confidence and he’s played very well.

On Willy Korn’s first appearance:

Well, he came out throwing. We wanted to make sure we got some work in throwing the ball downfield. We want to be sure we can go downfield if we need to.
