

CLEMSON VS. NORTH CAROLINA

16 NOVEMBER 1968

OFFICIALS FOR TODAY'S GAME

Referee--Carl Dean

Umpire--Tom Chambers

Head Lineman--M. E. McClenny

Field Judge--Tom Richert

Back Judge--Bob Shoaf

Clock Operator--Art Hodges

TODAY'S WEATHER--a t 1 p.m.

Temperature: 62 degrees

Relative Humidity: 90 per cent

Wind: South, 5 miles an hour

FORECAST: Cloudy and mild with occasional light rain. Afternoon temperatures 62 to 66 degrees. Wind southwesterly 8 to 16 miles an hour

The front causing the weather in Clemson at this time is in western Tennessee. There is a band of light rain from Greenville to Clemson then southwestward into Central Alabama. From this band to the front there is some blue sky with some clearing. The system isn't moving too fast and I hesitate to call for clearing at Clemson this afternoon.

RAINFALL: From 5 a.m. this morning until noon: .31 inches

SOUTH CAROLINA FORECAST: Most cloudy northwest, partly cloudy elsewhere with chance of showers or occasional rain in the mountains and Piedmont this afternoon and tonight, spreading over area Sunday. Continued mild. Lows tonight most 50's. ~~Highs~~ Highs Sunday mostly 60's

~~NOBLE~~

Quotes from Clemson Head Coach Frank Howard

"It sure is nice to win. But it's ~~obvious~~ obvious that we'll have to look sharper next week if we're going to beat the Gamecocks(USC). I really think our boys were just plain weary out there ~~at~~ today. It's been a long, rough season for 'em and they're getting tired."

" The rain was not a factor in my opinion. I thought North Carolina would fold but insteady they just kept getting stronger. That Bomar is a great quarterback. We kept trying to dump him all afternoon and he made us look silly more than once. "

" For all that good playing we did in the first half, we were only three points ahead of North Carolina at the half. Just goes to show you that a few yards here and there ~~make~~ make a lot difference. We should have score a couple more times in the first half. But when we made those two quick ones in the second half, I thought we had it made. Then North Carolina came back and all that playing they did down on the goal line was enough to give you heart failure. I'M just glad we got them ~~max~~ out of they way and can get down to business on the South Carolina game."

QUOTES BY COACH BILL DOOLEY: "I was proud of my team, the way it kept coming back. We just didn't do the job of getting the ball in the end zone. We wasted too many opportunities. If we had scored the next-to-last time we got down there, we would have been right back in the game.

"Clemson certainly is an outstanding team. I said before the game Clemson has the best defensive team in the Atlantic Coast Conference and that's a fact. They're tough all along the line.

"And that Yauger. He's unbelievable. I know Gore is a great back, but this Yauger is going to make Clemson fans forget his real fast. You can't stop Yauger with your arms. We even hit him solid knocks several times and he still went for extra yardage. Believe me, he's some football player.

"It looked pretty dark for us when we gave them the easy one on the pass interception early in the second half. But my players came charging right back. I told them I had no complaints at all as far as the effort was concerned.

"Even in the first half, however, we just didn't cash in on our scoring opportunities. We've been in most of the games we've played this season, practically all of them except that real bad game against Virginia last week. But close doesn't count."

OFFICIALS FOR TODAY'S GAME

Referee--Carl Dean

Umpire--Tom Chambers

Head Linesman--M. E. McClenny

Field Judge--Tom Richert

Back Judge--Bob Shoaf

Clock Operator--Art Hodges

TODAY'S WEATHER--a t 1 p.m.

Temperature: 62 degrees

Relative Humidity: 90 per cent

Wind: South, 5 miles an hour

FORECAST: Cloudy and mild with occasional light rain. Afternoon temperatures 62 to 66 degrees. Wind southwesterly 8 to 16 miles an hour

The front causing the weather in Clemson at this time is in western Tennessee. There is a band of light rain from Greenville to Clemson then southwestward into Central Alabama. From this band to the front there is some blue sky with some clearing. The system isn't moving too fast and I hesitate to call for clearing at Clemson this afternoon.

RAINFALL: From 5 a.m. this morning until noon: .31 inches

SOUTH CAROLINA FORECAST: Most cloudy northwest, partly cloudy elsewhere with chance of showers or occasional rain in the mountains and Piedmont this afternoon and tonight, spreading over area Sunday. Continued mild. Lows tonight most 50's. ~~Highs~~ Highs Sunday mostly 60's
