QUOTING AUBURN HEAD COACH RALPH JORDAN:

"This might have been our finest defensive effort this season. Offensively we started off slowly but after we got the first TD we seemed to pick up. Our boys adjusted to several things on their own. Clemson showed us some new stuff but we picked it up well. Our execution got better in the middle of part of the game. Again, it was a good team effort."

QUOTING CLEMSON HEAD COACH FRANK HOWARD:

"Auburn's got a helluva football team. I hope they don't get us where we want to play that bad."

Howard told his players in the dressing room: "This ~~thing~~ might get us down, but it won't keep us down. We looked terrible --- terrible, and I think you all will agree to that."

"But Auburn has a fine football team. Course we helped them some, but we didn't help them like that score shows. Auburn has a great defense. They had so many men up there we couldn't block. They had us slightly outclassed today. It's kinda hard to throw with seven of them back there (referring to four linebackers and three secondary).

"I was afraid we'd have a little letdown after the Tech game. It started out a pretty good ball game. Then we started messing up and it looked like it would never stop.

(The 51-0 score ties with the 51-0 defeat by Georgia Tech in 1944 as the worst defeat for Howard in his head-coaching career. It ties for ~~the~~ fifth place the worst defeat for a Clemson team since football began in 1896. Alabama defeated Clemson, 74-7 in 1931--a 67-point defeat)

QUOTING AUBURN HEAD COACH RALPH JORDAN:

"This might have been our finest defensive effort this season. Offensively we started off slowly but after we got the first TD we seemed to pick up. Our boys adjusted to several things on their own. Clemson showed us some new stuff but we picked it up well. Our execution got better in the middle of part of the game. Again, it was a good team effort."

QUOTING CLEMSON HEAD COACH FRANK HOWARD:

"Auburn's got a helluva football team. I hope they don't get us where we want to play that bad."

Howard told his players in the dressing room: "This ~~they~~ might get us down, but it won't keep us down. We looked terrible -- terrible, and I think you all will agree to that."

"But Auburn has a fine football team. Course we helped them some, but we didn't help them like that score shows. Auburn has a great defense. They had so many men up there we couldn't block. They had us slightly outclassed today. It's kinda hard to throw with seven of them back there (referring to four linebackers and three secondary).

"I was afraid we'd have a little letdown after the Tech game. It started out a pretty good ball game. Then we started messing up and it looked like it would never stop.

(The 51-0 score ties with the 51-0 defeat by Georgia Tech in 1944 as the worst defeat for Howard in his head-coaching career. It ties for fifth place the worst defeat for a Clemson team since football began in 1896. Alabama defeated Clemson, 74-7 in 1931--a 67-point defeat)
