Coach Parker of The Citadel

I wanted to see all of my backs in action, but I was very happy the way Rosa played. He has all the tools.

That bootleg^g (to McMakin) was deeper than predicted. That was the turning point.

They made the big defensive and offensive plays.

Our fourth down plays hurt us. Defensive backs didn't have the coverage on last touchdown.

I felt real good at halftime. Both quarterbacks looked good, but we didn't give them enough protection. If they took back our two broken plays and put in a couple of good ones, it would be a different game. Our running back ran good, but we just didn't pull off the big play.

Coach Hootie Ingram of Clemson

They gained quite a bit of yardage on us between the 20's, but we tightened up quite a bit when they got in close. The Citadel has a tough offense to defend against. But we should have adjusted to it earlier than we did.

I was pleased when the offense had a real fine drive to start the second half. But I think some of our kids got tired from excitement and were not condition tired.

Naturally, I'm happy to win, but we have a lot of work to do -- a lot of loose ends to tie together.

We felt like their short game wouldn't hurt us too much. We guarded against the long pass.

Rosa did a tremendous^e job. He's going to be a fine one. When you consider that he is only a sophomore, in his first varsity game, I thought he did a an outstanding directing the team.

The way The Citadel played didn't surprise our coaches and didn't surprise our kids. I've known Red Parker for a long time and I've never seen a team of his that didn't have character and discipline.
