DUKE COACH RED WILSON....."I suppose the way in which the game ended last week (Duke losing 22-21 to Virginia Tech in the final minute of the game) had a lot more effect on us than I had thought. It looked like we were still showing some of that, I can't explain it, but I think that probably was what it was.

"I have been very candid with you that I was worried about our defense. I was afraid they were suspect. I haven't changed at all.

"The third thing is that Clemson has one whale of a football team. When I said Clemson was better than they were last year no one believed me. Men, they have the great great backs. You can take the great backs and a line with little experience and your great backs will make that football team good.

COACH DANNY FORD OF CLEMSON

We're extremely proud of the way we played on both sides of the line, as well as our kicking game, especially with the number of players we had who were out and unable to play. We had a lot of people who came through and played well taking their places.

Duke is a very dangerous football team. You can never feel at ease when you play them. They moved the football extremely well. We allowed them on the scoreboard one time and the second time it was my fault when we had a quarterback automatic and had a miscommunication on the sideline. We should have never thrown and out cut and got it intercepted.

Cliff Austin played a great game, but all of our people did. Johnny (Rembert) would have played a great game if he hadn't dropped that fumber after the interception. Naw, just kidding. He played very well for us. We're only playing with three linebackers and he had to play an awful lot.
