WEATHER SUMMARY

A high pressure ridge in the southeastern United States is controlling the weather in the Piedmont and South Carolina foothills. A low pressure trough off the South Carolina coast will give scattered showers in the coastal plains but will not have any effect on the weather in Death Valley this afternoon.

WEATHER FORECAST

Most sunny skies this afternoon with highest temperature during game time near 88°. Winds should be easterly around 10 miles an hour. Lowest relative humidity this afternoon about 45 per cent

Weather Conditions at 12:30 p.m. (at field level)

SKIES: Sunny

TEMPERATURE: 83 degrees

RELATIVE HUMIDITY: 51 per cent

WIND: Light and variable

OFFICIALS FOR TODAY'S GAME ARE LISTED IN THE CENTERSPREAD

COACHES QUOTES

Coach Danny Ford of Clemson: We knew we were young and inexperienced before the game, but now we really know. I think we did everything wrong that we could in a game -- fumbles missed assignments missed ~~xx~~ tackles, dropped passes and a whole mess of other stuff.

Rice was well prepared for us. Maybe the heat got to them some, and with a couple of those key injuries, they were left thin at a place or two. But the Rice staff had their team well prepared. They really came at us early and really did a better job than we thought they might. And again, those injuries probably hurt them more than it might ~~have~~ have seemed.

There was nothing very pretty on how we won the game. We made a lot of mistakes and have a long ways to ~~go~~ go. If we can win and look as bad as it seemed we looked, ~~as~~ I told the team just think how good they can be when they get all of these things ~~straightened~~ straightened out.

The defense has got to get better. Maybe we talked about that too much before the season. But the defense had too many missed tackles today. We should have stopped them any number of times. But they were a determined bunch.

But it's in the "W" column and I'm just glad to end this losing streak. (Clemson had lost its ~~xx~~ last two games). I believe maybe the most exciting thing that happened out there were those airplanes flying over.

COACH RAY ALBORN -- Despite the loss to a favored Clemson team before 60,000 of their home fans, the Owl coach said "I was proud of our team for a good effort. I was proud of the defense that overall stayed with it against a very good club... Danny Ford told me after the game that our kids hit as hard as any team he has played, and that is a compliment... Sure we are disappointed to lose and not to score more... We just didn't take advantage of some opportunities we had to score early and that could have improved the situation... We were perhaps a little conservative in the early going, but it was the first game with a new offense, so it was a tendency to play it close to the vest... We will go home and work hard to improve and get ready for Tulane at New Orleans next week"

RANDY HERTEL -- "Their secondary was very strong and their strong safety did an excellent job of keeping us from the inside curl and going out... We didn't open our offense much until the second half, but it was understandable we'd be conservative with a new offense for the first time to cut down turnovers (note: Owls had only 1 to 3 for Clemson in first half)... But we just didn't take advantage of some breaks as we should have... a touchdown early could have changed the whole complexion, but we didn't get it so credit to Clemson defense... the fumble when we were deep in their territory in the first half hurt us... We are disappointed, but we will battle back next week.

KEITH KVETON -- "This was our first game with a new offense and I feel we made a good effort... we got good movement off the ball... we will go home and work hard to get out some bugs we had today and we will be a lot better, you'll see... We came out with enthusiasm today and we will keep it up

Tim Sanders and Marc Seguin (DE) both sustained wrenched knees, full extent unknown, but trainer Allen Eggert said "apparently non-surgical," so that could be interpreted they can be back in action sooner or later, but further examination to determine how long... he did tell Alborn that Sanders will definitely not be ready for Tulane next week... Those were only major injuries for Owls
