KENTUCKY Vs CLEMSON

COACHES QUOTES ----

DANNY FORD, Clemson

Our defensive team did real well early in the game. I felt real good, real fine about the game at halftime when we trailed only 6-0.

We were still in the game at 9-0 but then they made the good plays and we made bad ones. A freshman mistake on the punt hurt us.

Give Kentucky a lot of credit. Their starting quarterback was hurt early. That is terrible. Wish him a speedy recovery and lots of success. The other guy, Dooley, came in and made only one mistake.

Our people tried very hard. They hit well and did not give up. As long as they give their best that is all we can expect. We had no cheap shots. We made mistakes.

The kicker, Worley, really came through. Dooley held his poise and did a very good job.

Kentucky impressed me with its kicking game; it is a trademark of Claiborne teams. Kentucky's defense got after us pretty good. And that youngster Williams, made a great punt kick return.

JERRY CLAIBORNE, Kentucky

I just thought we played a real fine football game. The effort was good. I couldn't ask the defense to play much better. I would have liked to have had a couple more touchdowns.

I can't say enough for Kevin Dooley. He came in cold and hits 15 of 23 for 142 yards. He kept his poise.

Logan ran strong. And, we finally got a punt return all the way. This was the most complete game we've played all year.

I thought our young kids played well. I'm proud of them.

Higgs ran well. He got good yardage off the little flanker screen that gave us some big plays.

Wheeler had a great catch that got us back in the game after some penalties. We had too many penalties but we came back after them.

Everybody got behind Kevin. Pietrowiak went and got him and everybody got behind him.

This will get us going into conference play with a positive attitude. It is the best game we've played all year. I hope we can continue to improve.

NOTE: This was the first punt return for a touchdown since Andy Molls returned one 87 yards against Vanderbilt in 1981. This was Brian Williams second longest. He had one for 47 yards against Central Michigan two years ago.
