2024 Season Outlook

The UConn Softball program has been resurrected under head coach Laura Valentino winning the BIG EAST regular season title two years in a row (2023 & 2022). In Valentino's four seasons she holds a 110-58 record with an impressive 51-18 record against BIG EAST opponents.

The Huskies are coming off another BIG EAST regular season title in 2023. The last time the program won back to back BIG EAST regular season titles came in the 1996 & 1997 seasons.

The 2023 Huskies surpassed 30 wins for the second consecutive season. This is the first time UConn has had consecutive 30 win seasons since the 2000 & 2001 seasons. 34-15 in 2023, 38-18 in 2022.

The Running Game: The Huskies have a strong identity of wreaking havoc on the base paths in Valentino's tenure. The Huskies have ranked towards the top in all of Division I in stolen bases in each of Valentino's first four seasons. They stole 81 bases in 2021, 131 bases in 2022, and 119 bags in 2023. Their 119 stolen bases in 2023 ranked 12th in Division I. They ranked seventh in Division I with 2.43 stolen bases per game.

Veteran Squad: UConn graduated just one senior from last years championship team. The Huskies have seven seniors on this year's team. With most of the roster coming back in 2024 UConn returns a ton of experience at all positions including the pitching staff where the Huskies return BIG EAST first teamer Payton Kinney. Graduate senior Meghan O'Neil also returns in the circle. She ranked third in Division I with nine saves a season ago.

Head Coach Laura Valentino

Valentino enters her fifth season as the head coach of the UConn softball program.

In the 2023 season, Valentino led the Huskies to another 30 win season and back to back BIG EAST regular season titles for the first time since the 1996 & 1997 seasons. They would finish the season with a 34-15 overall record, going 19-5 in conference play. The Huskies broke two single season program records in the 2023 campaign; walks (190), and fielding percentage (.975). Under the guidance of Valentino, Grace Jenkins earned BIG EAST Freshman of the Year Honors, becoming the second player to earn the award in Valentino's tenure. Valentino also coached four Huskies to all-BIG EAST honors, including Payton Kinney (first team), Lexi Hastings (first team), Aziah James (second team), & Grace Jenkins (second team).

In 2022, Valentino led the team to a 38 win season and the program's first BIG EAST regular season championship since 1997. They finished with a 38-18 overall record and went 15-5 in BIG EAST play having won all their conference series. The Huskies made their second straight appearance in the BIG EAST Championship game. Under Valentino, UConn as a team broke five single season records during the 2022 campaign; runs scored (287), runs batted in (253), stolen bases (131), strikeouts (396), and walks (178). Valentino coached five Huskies to all-conference honors this season, including Briana Marcelino, Sami Barnett, Elise Sokolsky, Lexi Hastings, and Reese Guevarra.

Valentino and her staff were named as coaching staff of the year in the BIG EAST.

During the 2021 campaign, Valentino led the Huskies to a 22-20 overall mark, a 12-9 record in BIG EAST play and an appearance in the BIG EAST Softball Championship Game - UConn's first since 2001. Under her guidance, Jana Sanden garnered BIG EAST Freshman of the Year Honors, becoming just the fourth Husky overall and first since 1996 to achieve the feat. She coached Sanden and Reese Guevarra to First Team, and Devon Casazza to Second Team All-BIG EAST team honors. Additionally, Briana Marcelino, Payton Kinney, and Casazza were named to the BIG EAST All-Tournament Team.

Valentino also coached Marcelino, Kinney, and Sanden to BIG EAST Player of the Week Awards.

In her first season at the helm, Valentino led the Huskies to a 16-5 start - the program's best through 21 games since the 1993 season, before the cancellation of spring sports due to the Covid-19 pandemic. Those 16 wins included three wins over Power-5 opponents, six shutouts and five run-rule victories.

Additionally, she helped coach Marybeth Olson, Aziah James and Olivia Sappington to American Athletic Conference Player of the Week honors.

Valentino was announced as the head coach on July 3, 2019 by director of athletics David Benedict.

"I am so honored and excited to be the next head softball coach at UConn," Valentino said. "I want to thank David, Adrienne Swinney, Jamelle Elliott and their staff for this amazing opportunity and I am looking forward to working with them in building a championship culture at UConn. The future is bright for UConn softball and I can't wait to get to work in achieving greatness on and off the field."

Most recently, Valentino was an assistant coach at Duke, which initiated its program prior to the 2018 season. Her primary responsibilities while on the Blue Devils' coaching staff was infield play, catching, and offensive strategy. Duke posted a 54-58 record in its first two years of existence and the team finished tied for third in the ACC Coastal Division in 2019.

In its inaugural season, Duke's 13 conference wins were headlined by four series victories, including a sweep of Boston College. Last season, Duke finished with the highest fielding percentage in the ACC and was ranked No. 22 nationally in the category. The Blue Devils also completed the season second in doubles, tied for fourth in triples and fifth in hits.

"We met with several impressive candidates during this interview process but Laura set herself apart with her energy, passion and preparation," Benedict said. "During her time as an assistant coach, Laura has enjoyed a great deal of success and the experience she gained during the implementation of the Duke softball program should prove invaluable as she endeavors to build a championship culture here at UConn. This is an exciting time for UConn and I know our softball team is in good hands."

Valentino mentored a pair of ACC All-Freshman team picks

and an All-ACC First Team selection. Additionally, Valentino has helped develop several NFCA Scholar-Athletes, a trio of ACC All-Academic selections, and 12 student-athletes on the ACC Honor Roll.

Before her time in Durham, N.C., she spent three seasons at the University of North Carolina at Charlotte. While with the 49ers, her primary responsibilities were student-athlete development on both sides of the mound, overall strategy, and catching.

Charlotte tallied a 30-win campaign in 2016, a feat not seen since 2010, and matched that the following season. Valentino's stint in Charlotte produced a pair of All-Conference student-athletes, an All-Freshman selection, two All-Region honorees, a First Team CoSIDA Academic All-American and the 2017 Conference USA Championship.

Valentino also spent three seasons at Fairfield where she assisted with the offense, defense, pitching and catching, in addition to recruiting and administrative duties.

During her tenure, the Stags won a pair of regular season championships and advanced to the conference tournament final on two occasions. In 2014, she coached four First Team All-MAAC selections, including the MAAC Pitcher and Player of the Year.

A 2011 graduate of Hofstra University with a degree in physical education (K-12), Valentino was a four-year letterwinner at the designated player, infield, and catching positions. She was a part of the two winningest seasons in program history—45 wins in both 2008 and 2010. She started 84 games and capped her collegiate career with a spot on the NFCA Scholar-Athlete team with a career record of 156-59.

A native of Smithtown, N.Y. and 2014 Smithtown High School Hall of Fame inductee, Valentino earned her master's degree in special education from Fairfield in 2013.

News and Notes

Back to Back Regular Season Titles: The Huskies repeated as 2023 BIG EAST regular season champs a season ago. The last time UConn won back to back regular season titles dates back to the 1996 and 1997 seasons. This title is the 8th regular season conference title in program history.

Getting Over the Hump: The Huskies have been eliminated from the BIG EAST Tournament as the number one seed the past two straight years. UConn has made it to championship Saturday in two of the last three years, but have not been able to get over the hump and get the automatic conference bid. The last time UConn made the NCAA Tournament was in 2001. The Huskies are poised this season to get over that hump, and win their eighth BIG EAST Tournament title in program history.

Lexi Hastings: Junior outfielder, Lexi Hastings has had herself quite the season in 2023, holding an impressive .410 batting average. She lead the team in almost every offensive category including 40 stolen bases which ranked 10th in the country. In her first two seasons she is 68-76 on stolen bases. She is a very tough out at the plate, holding a .509 on base percentage and .597 slugging percentage last season. Hastings was named to the All-BIG EAST First Team unanimously.

- So Far In 2024: Hastings is continuing right where she left off in 2023. So far through eleven games she has ten stolen bases that is second in all of Division I. Her 14 runs scored ranks fourth in Division I. Watch out if she gets on base, she is always looking to take the extra base with her speed and aggressiveness.

Twin Production: Sophomore twin sisters Grace and Hope Jenkins have been producers for the Huskies since they have stepped foot on campus. Grace, the Huskies starting catcher lead the team last season with 44 RBI's and five home runs. In her first collegiate game, she hit a grand slam to help push the Huskies past Georgia Tech. Her twin sister Hope pitched a staff high 133.1 innings with 114 strikeouts in 2023. Hope also produced eleven RBI's in 84 plate appearances as a two-way player. Grace was named BIG EAST Freshman of the Year also being named to the All-BIG EAST Second Team in her freshman season. Hope earned BIG EAST Pitcher of the week twice last season and is primed for a breakout sophomore season both at the plate and in the circle.

- So Far In 2024: The reigning BIG EAST Freshman of the year is picking up right where she left off a year ago. She leads the Huskies with a .452 batting average with ten RBI.

Sophomores Returning: UConn had five freshman (now sophomores) producing last season. Along with the twins, Savannah Ring started 47 games at second base batting .269 with a .333 on base percentage. She held a nine game hitting streak to start her freshman season. All five of the then freshman had multiple RBI's in 2023.

Kinney Magic: Payton Kinney has reclaimed her "ace" role for the Huskies after missing all of 2022 with a shoulder surgery. She lead the conference holding batters to a .167 batting average in 2023. Kinney certainly brings the fire anytime she is in the circle, making her presence known to opponents. She lead the pitching staff with a 2.99 era and 114 strikeouts in 2023. She was named to the All-Conference First Team in 2023.

Run Game: The Huskies have a strong identity of wreaking havoc on the base paths in Valentino's tenure. The Huskies have ranked towards the top in all of Division I in stolen bases in each of Valentino's first four seasons. They stole 81 bases in 2021, 131 bases in 2022, and 119 bags in 2023. Their 119 stolen bases in 2023 ranked 12th in Division I. They ranked seventh in Division I with 2.43 stolen bases per game.

- So Far In 2024: The Huskies currently rank in eighth in the country with 20 stolen bases so far in the season. Their 1.82 stolen bases per game rank 45th in the country. They have only been caught stealing three times through eleven games this year.

Team Defense: The 2023 the Huskies ranked 21st in all of Division I with a .975 team fielding percentage. In Valentino's tenure, the Huskies team defense has steadily become a program strength. In Valentino's first season in 2020, the Huskies had a .970 fielding percentage (shortened season due to Covid-19). In 2021, they held an impressive .977 fielding percentage. In 2022, their fielding percentage was .968.
