EARLE EDWARDS QUOTES

"They licked us up front and you have to play it there or you don't stand much of a chance.

We were off a little and just didn't have a very good day. It was our first ~~shutout~~ ^{shutout} of the year, and they deserved it. We didn't threaten them very much. When we did get something going, we ~~we~~ fumbled and dropped passes.

When we did get some fire in the second half a fumble and our mistakes hurt us.

We have been up and down all year. I guess we have had too many downs.

We couldn't use Scarpati on ~~defense~~ ^{offense} with his ~~injured~~ broken hand.

Gabriel hurt his left arm when he attempted a tackle on a punt return. We ~~let~~ ^{let} the other boys (Rossi and Kriger) take over. By that time we were just about out of it, so it wasn't worth getting him hurt.

GABRIEL - It just wasn't our day. Clemson played well and deserved to win.

I'm sorry we had to end it this way.

STATEMENT BY COACH FRANK HOWARD OF CLEMSON

"We didn't set up no special defense to stop Gabriel, but I thought our boys did a pretty good job on him," so said Coach Frank Howard of Clemson after the game.

Asked about defending Johnny Morris, the leading pass receiver in the conference, Howard said they double teamed him on one side, but didn't when he was lone^some to the other side.

We were rushing four men most of the time and dropping off the others at various places and various situations.

We love to play an unbalanced line like the State runs. It didn't give us a bit of trouble at all and I thought that is where we beat 'em--up front.

Asked about what was wrong with Werntz on his first two punts and Howard said he was only human. "Babe Ruth would strike out four times on day and come back and hit three home runs the next."

This season has been a little frustrating. Our defense worried us most--pass defense. This team measured up with effort with some of our other teams, but not in ability. I actually think we did one of the best coaching job with the material we had in a long, long time.

I thought Lam looked awfully good and Scrudato ran hard. Up front, we got a good effort out of everybody. I just like the way we played defense today. We're usually pretty tough up front, but like I said, we didn't have any special defense for Gabriel. We actually had a special defense, but I don't think we used it but one time.

EARLE EDWARDS QUOTES

"They licked us up front and you have to play it there or you don't stand much of a chance.

We were off a little and just didn't have a very good day. It was our first shortout of the year, and they deserved it. We didn't threaten them very much. When we did get something going, we ~~we~~ fumbled and dropped passes.

When we did get some fire in the second half a fumble and our mistakes hurt us.

We have been up and down all year. I guess we have had too many downs.

We couldn't use Scarpati on ^{offense} ~~defense~~ with his ~~broken~~ broken hand.

Gabriel hurt his left arm when he attempted a tackle on a punt return. We ~~let~~ ^{let} the other boys (Rossi and Kriger) take over. By that time we were just about out of it, so it wasn't worth getting him hurt.

GABRIEL -- It just wasn't our day. Clemson played well and deserved to win.

I'm sorry we had to end it this way.

STATEMENT BY COACH FRANK HOWARD OF CLEMSON

"We didn't set up no special defense to stop Gabriel, but I thought our boys did a pretty good job on him," so said Coach Frank Howard of Clemson after the game.

Asked about defending Johnny Morris, the leading pass receiver in the conference, Howard said they double teamed him on one side, but didn't when he was lone^some to the other side.

We were rushing four men most of the time and dropping off the others at various places and various situations.

We love to play an unbalanced line like six State runs. It didn't give us a bit of trouble at all and I thought that is where we beat 'em--up front.

Asked about what was wrong with Wernts on his first two punts and Howard said he was only human. "Babe Ruth would strike out four times on day and come back and hit three home runs the next."

This season has been a little frustrating. Our defense worried us most--pass defense. This team measured up with effort with some of our other teams, but not in ability. I actually think we did one of the best coaching job with the material we had in a long, long time.

I thought Lam looked awfully good and Scrudato ran hard. Up front, we got a good effort out of everybody. I just like the way we played defense today. We're usually pretty tough up front, but like I said, we didn't have any special defense for Gabriel. We actually had a special defense, but I don't think we used it but one time.
