"Oh-h-h-h, does it feel good to win," exclaimed Coach Frank Howard. "We looked a lot better today, but Virginia has a pretty good ball club--a lot better than last year."

Howard was asked about Virginia's Bob Davis and he said: "He's the finest quarterback I believe I've ever seen." When Ted Bunton scored on the pass interception and some confusion was on the field, Howard walked about five yards onto the playing field to congratulate Davis on his fine game and said to him: "Boy, why ain't you playing for me?"

Howard had praise for his own Davis--Hal. "Davis is changing that scoreboard for me now. He's playing like I know he can. He was a great disappointment last year, but I don't have any complaints this year."

"We looked like we wanted to cut loose out there today, but when we had 'em 14-0 at halftime and then this Davis ran that touchdown for Virginia, thoughts ran through my mind at what happened at TCU last week when we lost a 10-0 lead in the second half."

"But this win will do us good. I was catching it from all sides, the players were catching it. People were just saying unkind things about us."

"Now this game today was a lot closer than the score indicated. Virginia has a good offense. And when that Davis (Bob) is in there, you'd better watch out. He's dangerous anywhere, anytime."

Dr. Jud Hair said the preliminary examination of alternate fullback Bob Baldwin's injury in the first quarter was a dislocated elbow. There was no indication as to how long he would be out of action.
