COACHES'QUOTESCOACH FRANK HOWARD

Howard had very little to say following the game. He did say that Maryland has a real good team--they hustle--like to hit and they go after you.

It's kinda of a helpless feeling to see your team get beat like this. I'm not gonna alibi or anything like that. You might ~~say~~ say this is just one year we came up short.

Asked if he thought Coach Tom Nugent pushed up the score, and he said definitely not, adding. "If he wanted to, that would have been his business."

That 34 and 35 are good runners. In fact, they have a good all round team.

Asked about how his two platoon worked for the first time, he said that he couldn't get a true picture of it today. I wanted to do it before the Georgia Tech game, but we just don't have the personnel right now.

They just gave us a good beating.

Boys, there just isn't much you can say. That scoreboard pretty well tells the story. But there'll be other times and other games. The Tigers might be down, but they've been there before and come back. And they'll come back again.

(Note: This is the first time since 1936 that Clemson has been shutout two straight games. This was ~~not~~ also the fifth ~~worst~~ worst beating a Howard-coached team has taken in 25 years. Howard has been beaten by 51, 41, 41, 35 and 32 points before today's game. See page 37 of Clemson brochure for scores and ~~opponents~~ opponents)
