PALADIN POINTS

- ◆ Furman continues its nine-game road trip on Tuesday evening when the Paladins make the short trip to McWhorter Stadium to face the nationally-ranked Clemson Tigers. Clemson has won each of the previous seven meetings between the upstate foes, including a pair of decisions last season. The Tigers downed Furman, 10-0, in the Paladins' 2023 home opener on February 14 at Pepsi Stadium before claiming a 4-1 win in Clemson, S.C. on April 5, 2023.
- ◆ A matchup versus Clemson always presents a chance to see familiar faces in the opposing dugout. Kyle Jamieson, Clemson's associate head coach, spent five seasons (2013-17) as head coach at Furman and led the Paladins to a share of the Southern Conference regular season in his fifth and final season at the helm in 2017. Clemson assistant coach Courtney Breault served as an assistant coach under Jamieson at Furman from 2014-17.
- ◆ Furman is looking to bounce back after a tough weekend on the road at SoCon leader and preseason favorite UNC Greensboro. The Paladins held 3-1 leads in both ends of Friday's doubleheader before the Spartans rallied to capture a pair of 5-3 victories. On Saturday, UNCG completed the series sweep with a 6-1 triumph over the Paladins in the series finale.
- ◆ Following Tuesday's clash, Furman, picked to finish fifth in the league, jumps back into conference play with a three-game Southern Conference series at Mercer on Saturday and Sunday.
- ◆ Centerfielder Ashlee Lykins, a 2023 first team All-SoCon choice and preseason all-league selection, continues to lead the Paladins offense. The senior is batting .366 and ranks second in the Southern Conference in hits (45) and triples (3) while ranking third in stolen bases (13) and seventh in runs (24). Lykins has compiled 183 career hits and ranks second in school history with 61 career stolen bases in 67 attempts. She has reached base safely in 31 of the last 32 games and is currently riding a 13-game hitting streak.
- ◆ Furman's offense is also bolstered by a duo of talented sophomores in first baseman Kiley Perry and catcher/designated player Sylvia Burroughs. The duo both earned first team All-Southern Conference honors last season while Perry was named SoCon Freshman of the Year. The league's preseason player of the year this season, Perry has batted .330 with five homers and 23 RBIs, including a pair of homers and a school-record seven RBIs in Furman's 13-8 trouncing of Louisville on February 24. Burroughs, who enters the week on a 14-game hitting streak, has hit .266 with a team-best nine doubles and 24 RBIs. She ranks among the SoCon leads with 27 walks and has fanned just nine times this season.
- ◆ Furman is in its third season under the leadership of Stacey Johnson-Whitfield (59-83 overall, 19-22 SoCon). In her first season as a head coach, Johnson-Whitfield helped Furman to a 22-33 overall record and fourth place finish in the SoCon with an 8-10 league record. She led the Paladins to victories over Mississippi State and SoCon champion UNC Greensboro and placed three players on All-SoCon teams. Last season, her Paladins went 20-32 overall and finished third in the SoCon with an 8-9 league record. Catcher Riley Ludlam was named SoCon Player of the Year

ORIGIN OF THE PALADIN

Furman University athletic teams were known by different names until the 1961 school year. The baseball team was "Hornets," the football team "Hurricane," and the basketball team "Paladins."

The basketball team was dubbed "Paladins" by a Greenville sportswriter in the 1930s. By vote of the student body, all Furman athletic teams became the "Paladins" on September 15, 1961. A Paladin is a knight on a horse and the recognized mascot of Furman University's athletic teams.

- ◆ Righthander Sierra Tufts (8-5, 3.50 ERA) is the ace of the Furman staff and has posted a 3-1 record and 3.09 ERA over her last 10 outings. Head Coach

Stacey Johnson-Whitfield

Stacey Johnson-Whitfield just completed her second season at the helm of the Furman softball program and third season overall. She served as the team's interim head coach from May of 2021 to 2022 before becoming the program's permanent head coach on May 14, 2022.

During the 2023 season, Furman, 20-32 overall and 8-9 in league play, once again exceeded preseason expectations by finishing third in the SoCon standings. Senior Riley Ludlam captured SoCon Player of the Year honors while first baseman Kiley Perry earned SoCon Freshman of the Year accolades. The duo were joined on the All-SoCon First Team by junior centerfielder Ashlee Lykins and freshman designated player Sylvia Burroughs.

After being named the program's interim head coach in May 2021, Johnson-Whitfield guided the 2022 Paladins to a 22-33 overall record, including an 8-10 league mark, fourth-place finish in the Southern Conference standings during the regular season, and a top-four finish in the SoCon Softball Championship. Furman exceeded preseason expectations that saw the Paladins predicted to finish sixth in the seven-team SoCon race. Following the successful 2022 campaign, Johnson-Whitfield was tabbed as the Paladins' permanent head coach on May 14, 2022.

Johnson-Whitfield, who joined the program as pitching coach during the 2021 season, helped the 2022 Paladins claim a victory over SEC foe Mississippi State and navigate a non-conference slate that included seven games against nationally ranked opponents. She developed a young Furman squad that earned four postseason citations as Ludlam garnered first team All-SoCon honors, sophomores Sierra Tufts and Lykins captured second team All-SoCon accolades and Caitlin Goldwait was selected to the SoCon All-Freshman Team.

Prior to coming to Furman, Johnson-Whitfield served as a private pitching instructor and assistant high school coach since 2005. Despite Furman being picked sixth in preseason polling of the Southern Conference's head coaches, the first-year assistant helped Furman (19-28 overall, 8-9 SoCon) finish just a half game out of third place in the league standings. Her pitching staff, which included two freshmen, improved its ERA by more than a run during SoCon play in the second half of the season, while hitters Mackense Greico and Riley Ludlam earned All-SoCon honors.

A four-year standout at the University of South Carolina from 2001-04, the Pennsylvania native helped the Gamecocks to four consecutive NCAA regional appearances and a pair of SEC East titles. She ranks among the school's all-time leaders with 485 strikeouts and 63 career victories, while earning two SEC Pitcher of the Week citations during her career in Columbia, S.C. Through her business, SJWFastpitch, Johnson-Whitfield has mentored pitchers who have gone on successful careers at Arkansas, Penn State, South Carolina, Louisville, Clemson, Rutgers, Tennessee, Furman and many more.

A 2004 graduate of South Carolina, Johnson-Whitfield is married to former Gamecock football standout Travis Whitfield. The couple has two daughters, Vivian and Lilly.
