HERD NOTES

Marshall faces Charleston Southern Sunday at 12:30 p.m.

CHARLESTON, S.C. — A four-run 1st inning was too much to overcome for Marshall Softball (3-5) in a 6-4 defeat in the series finale against College of Charleston (2-6).

The Herd does win the three-game series by way of sweeping Friday's doubleheader.

Entering the 4th inning trailing 6-0, MU rallied with three runs in the frame and one more in the 5th. Senior Bub Feringa drove in runs in each of the two frames. Senior Lindsay Henson picked up an RBI on a single in the three-run 5th as well.

In addition to hitting, Feringa also pitched the final four innings without allowing a run on just three hits. Marshall's two-way player has a 3.06 ERA in 16.0 innings pitched this season.

The Herd's last best change came in the 5th. With the bases loaded and one out, a shallow fly ball off the bat of Paige Simpson was caught by a backtracking second baseman, who turned and made an athletic play to double-up Rielly Lucas going for home. MU was 2-of-6 with runners in scoring position Saturday.

The team's defense also committed three errors. The Herd is 0-4 when committing multiple errors on defense in a game this season.

Marshall travels up the road for one game against Charleston Southern on Sunday at 12:30 p.m.

CHARLESTON, S.C. — Marshall's Softball team (3-4) swept a doubleheader over College of Charleston (1-6) in resounding fashion Friday.

The Herd opened the day with a come-from-behind win, running away 8-4 over CofC. Coach Morgan Zerkle's team built on its momentum to score eight in the 1st of the second game to win 17-3 in five innings.

MU hit its first two home runs of the season Friday, with senior Rielly Lucas hitting a go-ahead two-run shot in the 5th of the opener on her birthday. Freshman Tia Titi hit her first-career long ball, a grand slam in the team's eight-run 1st in the second game.

First Game: Marshall 8, College of Charleston 4

The Herd stayed patient against the Cougars, scoring all eight of its runs after the 4th inning.

Senior Rielly Lucas hit the decisive go-ahead two-run home run in the 5th to right to flip a 3-2 deficit into a 4-3 lead.

Lucas was one of several Herd players to fall victim to great defensive plays on hard-hit balls over the first three frames.

Two-out hitting in the 6th allowed Marshall to build its lead for pitcher Paige Maynard. Marshall's junior transfer from Penn State earned her second victory in relief, going the final four innings with just three hits and one run allowed.

The three RBI from Lucas were an early season-high.

Second Game: Marshall 17, College of Charleston 3 (5 innings)

Marshall continued its momentum from the opener right into the second game, batting around its entire order before recording an out in the top of the 1st. The Herd's six runs were highlighted by a grand slam by freshman Tia Titi.

The freshman from Oxford, Ala. had three hits Friday in what was her first-career start.

The run support was more than enough for sophomore Jules King, who earned her first victory in the circle for the Herd with three innings of scoreless softball. King struck out five in three innings of work.

Every primary starter recorded a hit with Marshall notching 15 total in game two. Every primary starter now has an RBI following action Friday.

CLEARWATER, Fla. — After a frustrating few days offensively to start the 2025 season, Marshall Softball pounded 12 runs on 15 hits to defeat Morgan State, 12-4 in six innings on Sunday.

The Herd (1-4) jumped out to a 4-0 lead before adding on eight over its final two plate appearances. Junior Abby Darnley had a career-high four hits to lead the team. Redshirt junior Brooklyn Ulrich and junior transfer Paige Simpson added on three hits each.

"It was a challenging opening weekend but that's what we signed up for," Head Coach Morgan Zerkle said. "We want to learn everything about our team now to best prepare us for the Sun Belt. We have more options in the circle than last season and we are a good hitting team that didn't show up until Sunday, but I'm very optimistic for this group that will get better each weekend."

Morgan State (1-4) finishes its NFCA Leadoff Classic with a win over Notre Dame to its resume. The defending MEAC Champions tied the game with four in the top of the 5th, before MU quickly reclaimed the lead in the bottom half.

Sophomore Jules King started the game for the Herd, striking out five over the first three innings. Junior Paige Maynard earned her first win in the circle in relief after putting out the fire in the 5th.

Starting the Herd rally in the 5th was freshman Tia Titi who notched her first-career collegiate hit on a leadoff pinch-hit double. She was one of several Herd players to hit milestones, with sophomore Ramey George adding her first hit for the Herd. Diamond Leslie drove in two runs with her bloop single getting the Herd back in front for good.

Marshall travels to Charleston, S.C. for its second weekend of the season. The weekend starts with a doubleheader on Friday, Feb. 14 against the College of Charleston starting at 1 p.m.

Marshall closes opening weekend Sunday at 10 a.m. versus Morgan State

CLEARWATER, Fla. — Marshall Softball was shut out by the Big Ten's Iowa Hawkeyes Saturday by a final score of 8-0 in six innings.

The Herd (0-4) was limited to two hits as it continued its struggles offensively in the first weekend against formidable pitching opponents.

Iowa (2-1) scored five in the opening inning but were held in check by transfer pitcher Paige Maynard. The Bolt, W.Va. native pitched 4.1 innings in relief, providing four consecutive scoreless frames before an error proved costly in the 6th.

Maynard, starter Bub Feringa, and Jules King combined to strike out five Hawkeyes.

Marshall closes its opening weekend and the NFCA Leadoff Classic with the 2024 MEAC Champions, Morgan State at 10 a.m. Sunday.

CLEARWATER, Fla. — Marshall Softball enters Saturday still in search of its first win following a pair of defeats to No. 15 Missouri and Southern Miss.

The Herd did have milestones first hits from Haleigh Adkins, Diamond Leslie, and Paige Simpson.

Freshman Maddie Veal made her collegiate debut in the circle for the Thundering Herd.

First Game: No. 15 Missouri 9, Marshall 1 (5 innings)

The Herd scored its first run of the season following a leadoff 3rd inning double by the junior transfer Simpson. The Herd's first Canadian-born player came around to score on a sacrifice bunt by Leslie and a productive RBI groundout by Bub Feringa.

Five free-passes and two errors doomed the Herd against the 15th-ranked Tigers.

Veal pitched a scoreless 3rd inning in her collegiate debut. The Newnan, Ga. native struck out one with just one run given up being earned.

Second Game: Southern Miss 6, Marshall 2

Three errors let Marshall down in a non-conference loss to Southern Miss Friday evening. Four of the six Golden Eagle runs were unearned.

Sophomore transfer Jules King earned her first Thundering Herd start, pitching two and two-thirds with five hits and five runs.

Feringa - the opening-night starter pitched over four frames in relief, allowing just two hits and no earned runs.

MU had seven hits, including an RBI double from Kasia Parks, but stranded three runners in scoring position consequently.

Marshall faces Iowa at 3 p.m. on Saturday.

CLEARWATER, Fla. — Marshall Softball was tasked with the assignment of opening its season with the reigning USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year Nijaree Canady and No. 10 Texas Tech on opening night. MU battled in a 2-0 defeat from the Eddie C. Moore Softball Complex in Clearwater, Fla.

The Herd (0-1) with the combined pitching of Bub Feringa and debuting Jules King held the Red Raiders (1-0) to two runs on three hits while striking out seven.

Both Feringa and King stranded the bases loaded with less than two outs. MU stranded six TT runners in scoring position.

Marshall had one hit from the Sun Belt Conference Preseason Player of the Year, Brooklyn Ulrich in the 1st. Coach Morgan Zerkle's Herd nearly took the lead in the 3rd off Canady when last season's team-leader in home runs Bella Gerlach had a ball robbed in right-center by the 2024 SBC Player of the Year and Louisiana transfer Mihyia Davis.

Offensively, the Herd had four reach base on a hit-by-pitch.

THE WARRIOR AWARD

In memory of Emileigh Cooper (three photos to the right), who the Herd Family tragically lost in February of 2016, the Marshall softball team established the Warrior Award in 2017, that will be given out each year to the player that best personifies the qualities that Cooper held as a member of the Herd from 2012 to 2015.

As a senior in 2015, Cooper roared to the forefront as a leader for Marshall, batting .434 and being named second team All-Conference USA. From walk-on to All-Conference performer, Cooper knew how to get her teammates fired up and ready on game day..... (Pause in video for WEARE clip)..... In 2015, players were told to pick one word that held significant meaning to them and Cooper chose "Warrior". Her identity statement for that season was "I am a confident Warrior, I am the fire in C-USA that will always keep burning." On March 13, 2015 at Dot Hicks Field, Cooper came to plate in the 10th inning with Rebecca Myslenski at first, as Marshall was locked against WKU in a scoreless game. Before Emileigh went up to the plate she turned around and looked at teammate Elicia D'Orazio who was due up next and said, "Don't worry about getting ready. I'm going to end this now." Two pitches later she did just that hitting a walk-off home run. A Warrior.

Rebecca Myslenski won the inaugural Warrior Award in 2017 as a member of the MUSB Family who stuck through major injuries, being medically disqualified, and stayed with the team taking on a major role with the staff. Myslenski played sparingly during her freshman and sophomore seasons due to knee injuries. However, when she was in the game she could be relied on to make the tough plays, especially while playing at first base. She had to stop playing after her sophomore year, but instead of leaving the team or Marshall, Myslenski came back as a student assistant and helped the Herd over the next two years in many capacities. She still kept a great attitude despite not being able to play, and did whatever she could to help MUSB.

Madi Marshall won the award in 2018. The senior showed grit and fight while struggling through some health issues to always have a great attitude and could keep the team in great spirits. Madi's electric personality was well in line with Cooper's as Madi was able to learn from Cooper during Madi's freshman year in 2015. She kept a smile on her face even when not in the starting lineup and again would do whatever was needed to help MUSB. Madi played second base, outfield, came in as a pinch runner or a pinch hitter. She hit the only home run of her career as a grand slam against FIU during senior weekend in 2016. Madi also set a team record as a pinch runner, scoring a run in 10-straight contests in 2017.

Hayden Ellis earned the honor in 2019. The senior catcher battled through adversity on and off the field. She stuck with the Herd backing up Taylor McCord at catcher through her first three years. As a senior, Hayden fought her way back from a shoulder injury that took away most of her junior season to have a career year. She set career-highs in every category and even had an explosive weekend against Louisiana Tech at home. During the Saturday doubleheader, as the Herd celebrated its Strikeout Cancer Day, Hayden belted three home runs in the two games with her father in attendance who had going through his cancer battle. The next day, on Emileigh Cooper Day, she was given the Warrior Award on the field before the series finale.

Due to the COVID-19 pandemic cutting the season short after just 25 games, no Warrior Award was given in 2020.

Blakely Burch won the award in 2021. The redshirt senior fought back from a serious knee injury that ended her 2020 season early, even before it ended for everyone else. Blakely came to Huntington in the summer of 2017 after spending her freshman season at USC Upstate. Over the next four years, Blakely developed into a leader on and off the field, and came through clutch in many situations. She starred in the 2019 setting the team record for triples in a season with seven. Blakely had two walkoffs in her career with one in 2020 against East Tennessee State, and a 2-run double to defeat Louisiana Tech on, none other than Emileigh Cooper Day. She worked her way back from surgery, while also finishing school, planning a wedding and getting accepted into the nursing program at Jacksonville. Her fire and passion was always present on the field and in the dugout, and will forever have a permanent place in Marshall Softball History.

THE WARRIOR AWARD (CONT'D)

As the fifth honoree of the Marshall softball Warrior Award named in memory of Emileigh Cooper, Harrell displayed her love of the game, her teammates, program, Marshall University and the Huntington community since she stepped on campus as a freshman in the fall of 2017.

For the 2023 Warrior Award, our recipient has earned the title. Overcoming injuries and sidesteps to her college career, this player brought her talents to Marshall, where her love of the game has been rekindled. In four seasons with the Herd, this player too has roared to the forefront, bringing a combination of speed, power, and defensive prowess. Our 2023 Warrior Award winner too knows what it takes to be a verbal leader, breaking the pregame huddle each game, speaking out as an advocate on campus, and always supporting her teammates in all situations.

For 2024, we have decided to award two student-athletes this year.

Our first is Erica Holt. Erica is a high-achieving student and one of the best teammates. She has overcome dyslexia, a school change, a coaching change, and has done it all with a positive attitude. Erica displayed Emileigh's fearlessness earlier this spring when she ran full force into the outfield wall in an attempt to make a play for her team. Both Emily and Erica displayed high energy who would do anything for their team. Erica, thanks for your contribution to MUSB and congratulations!

Our next student athlete to win the warrior award is Camryn Michallas. Cam had a long journey to make it back to Huntington and play for her hometown team. Cam's one word for this year was "fire", just like Emileigh. Like Emileigh, she has a lot of passion and when used positively, can be an incredible force. When Cam was described to the Cooper family, they saw a lot of Emileigh in her. She's a fighter for the Herd who will always bleed green. Congratulations, Cam!

Morgan Zerkle

Head Coach
1st Season
Marshall '17

Marshall University Director of Athletics Christian Spears announced the hiring of Morgan Zerkle as the head softball coach on Monday.

There will be a press conference to introduce Zerkle as the fifth head coach in Marshall softball history at 10 a.m. on Friday at Dot Hicks Field.

Zerkle, who starred at Marshall from 2014-17 and went on to represent Team USA and play professionally, takes over as head coach after spending the last four seasons at Miami (Ohio).

“I’m thrilled for Morgan as her dream is now a reality,” Spears said. “How many of us truly get to do that – turn our dream into reality? I’m proud of her for flat-out working her plan and making it happen. She earned this and she has my utmost respect for it. When she tells you her goal was to be the head coach at Marshall, it’s genuine. She will pour herself into the community and into our student-athletes.”

For Zerkle, being named head coach of her alma mater was something she had dreamed of since starting her career in coaching.

“I am feeling immense gratitude, joy, pride and emotion as I come back to Huntington – my home – to lead the Herd,” Zerkle said. “I can’t wait to get started.”

Success has followed Zerkle throughout her career in softball, which has included coaching, representing Team USA, playing professionally and her collegiate career at Marshall.

While at Miami (Ohio), Zerkle helped lead the Red-Hawks to three consecutive MAC Championships and trips to the NCAA Tournament. Miami (Ohio) went a combined 137-55-1 in her four seasons in Oxford. She was also responsible for tutoring 24 All-MAC honorees and a pair of MAC Freshman of the Year winners.

Prior to joining the Miami (Ohio) staff, Zerkle served as a graduate assistant at Indiana in the 2018 and 2019 seasons, reconnecting with former Marshall head coach Shonda Stanton, whom she played for while with the Thundering Herd.

The Milton, W.Va., native returns home to Marshall where she became one of the Thundering Herd’s most decorated student-athletes in recent memory.

A two-time finalist for USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year, Zerkle was also a four-time All-Conference USA selection and three-time NFCA All-Region honoree while being named as Marshall Female Athlete of the Year twice, as well.

“There is no doubt that we will be a player’s program because she is still an elite player herself and is the perfect representation for what someone from Marshall can become,” Spears said. “She has paved the path to being a professional athlete, representing the National Team and, now, as our head coach. That is what we mean by ‘The Herd Way.’”

In 2017, Zerkle capped her illustrious career with the Herd as an NFCA All-American Second Team selection while also being a Senior CLASS Award finalist and Senior CLASS Award All-American. She was also the Conference USA Female Student Athlete of the Year (all sports) and CUSA’s Player of the Year after a senior season in which she hit .476 with nine home runs and 43 RBIs while logging 13 doubles, six triples, 39 stolen bases and 48 runs scored.

Following the season, Zerkle joined the USA Women’s National Team, whom she has played for since that time. In the 2022 Pan American Championship, Zerkle hit .562 with four RBIs and eight runs scored to lead Team USA to the gold medal.

Zerkle also was taken as the No. 26 overall selection in the National Pro Fastpitch Draft by Scrap Yard Dawgs, which began her professional softball career. In addition to her roles with the USA National Team, Zerkle has also competed with Athletes Unlimited since 2020.

“It’s been an amazing privilege to represent Marshall and the state of West Virginia on a global stage with Team USA and Athletes Unlimited,” Zerkle said. “I am so proud of where I started, where I’ve been and where I’m ending up again.”

Zerkle is a Cabell Midland graduate where she also played for former Marshall player Jeanne Lunsford (Noble).
