THIS WEEK: MAY 16-18 | CLEMSON REGIONALS

Northwestern secured one of 33 at-large bids to this year's NCAA Tournament and heads to the Clemson Regional with the No. 11 overall seed Clemson, Kentucky and USC-Upstate.

This marks the seventh-consecutive NCAA Tournament that Northwestern has qualified for, matching a program record (also done 2003-09). The Wildcats have earned a berth in 10 of the last 11 NCAA Tournaments, and 18 of the 24 years under Kate Drohan and Caryl Drohan. Under the Drohan's, Northwestern has won seven regional titles and made three trips to the Women's College World Series, most recently in 2022.

To finish the regular season, Northwestern earned a series victory at No. 8 UCLA. The 'Cats opened with an 8-0 run-rule victory over the Bruins on Friday before locking up the series victory on Sunday with a four-run rally in the sixth inning en route to a 5-3 victory.
- It marked the first time a team has taken a series at UCLA since Arizona in 2019.
- The Wildcats also snapped a 24-game home winning streak for UCLA with their run-rule win on Friday (UCLA entered the weekend 18-0 on the season at Easton Stadium).
- The 'Cats also became the first team to score 8+ runs in back-to-back games against the Bruins since Oregon in 2014.

Lauren Boyd was named the National Pitcher of the Week by D1Softball following her dominant showing at UCLA in which she went 2-0 with two complete games and a 1.62 ERA (3 ER/13.0 IP) while striking out seven and limiting UCLA's lineup to a .156 opponent average. In her last six starts, Boyd is 6-0 with a 1.60 ERA (8 ER/35.0 IP) with four complete game performances. As a team Northwestern is 17-5 in games that Boyd has pitched in.

Northwestern joins Florida, Arkansas, Texas, Tennessee, South Carolina and Oklahoma as the only teams in the nation this season to earn a three-game series victory on the road over an opponent currently ranked in the RPI Top-10.

Northwestern finished 16-6 in the Big Ten, tied for fourth place in the conference standings in what marks the Wildcats' seventh-consecutive Top-4 finish in the Big Ten.

The Wildcats earned four wins over "Quad-1" opponents (ranked in the latest RPI Top 25) defeating Duke on February 8, Mississippi State on March 22, and winning two of three games at UCLA in the final series of the regular season. NU tripled its number of ranked opponents faced from the 2024 season (5), with 15 ranked matchups to date this year.

In Northwestern's last three weeks of the regular season, the Wildcats went 9-2 with five run-rule victories while outscoring their opponents 83-34 in that span. In those 11 games, the 'Cats were hitting .330 (99-for-300) to go along with a .547 slugging percentage.

Northwestern clinched back-to-back-to-back regular season titles in 2024, just the second time "three-peating" in school history and first since a four-year run from 1984-87. It marked the 10th conference title in program history – five of which were won by Sharon Drysdale and five of which were won by Kate Drohan.

Northwestern head coach Kate Drohan returns for her 24th season after capturing her sixth Big Ten Coach of the Year award in 2024, her fourth in a five-year span. This year, Drohan surpassed her predecessor, Sharon Drysdale, as the longest-tenured head coach in program history. Drohan and her twin sister, associate head coach Caryl Drohan, are Northwestern's all-time wins leaders with 809 victories.

Entering this weekend, Kate Drohan has a 48-39 career record (.552) in the postseason and is 36-23 (.610) in the NCAA Regional round. The Wildcats have advanced to its Regional Final 11 times under Drohan. This marks the fourth time Northwestern and Kentucky have been matched up in the same regional since 2015.

Last season, Northwestern travelled to Austin for the NCAA Regional hosted by No. 1 overall seed Texas.
- The 'Cats defeated Saint Francis (PA) twice (7-2 on Friday, 5-1 on Saturday) en route to advancing to the Regional Final, but fell to the top-seeded Longhorns twice (14-2 on Saturday, 7-0 on Sunday).

This will mark the Wildcats' first time traveling to Clemson for an NCAA Regional.
- Northwestern's only prior trip to Clemson came in 2023 during the Big Ten/ACC Challenge, with Clemson winning a pair of meetings, the latter of which Lauren Boyd finished with a complete game 7.0 inning performance while allowing just three earned runs, six hits and striking out five in a 3-2 setback to the Tigers.
- The 'Cats and Tigers met for the first time in 2022 at the SPC Clearwater Elite Invitational, with Northwestern winning 7-0.

This marks the fourth time Northwestern and Kentucky have been matched up in the same regional since 2015.
- In 2015, both teams met in the South Bend Regional, hosted by No. 16 overall seed Notre Dame. Kentucky earned a 5-4 win over Northwestern in game one and eventually advanced out of the region.
- In 2021, both teams met in the Lexington Regional, hosted by No. 14 overall seed Kentucky. Kentucky took game one vs. the Wildcats, 3-2, and later earned a 7-2 victory over NU in the consolation ladder while eventually advancing out of the region.
- In 2023, both teams met in the Evanston Regional, hosted by No. 12 overall seed Northwestern. Northwestern came away with a 10-8 victory following an 8-run rally in the third inning–during which first-year Kansas Robinson hit two home runs in the same inning. Northwestern eventually advanced out of the region.

2025 NORTHWESTERN SOFTBALL GAME NOTES

First-year Kaylie Avvisato was named to the All-Big Ten Freshman team following a breakout rookie campaign. Avvisato leads Northwestern with 55 hits and 83 total bases on the season. Her 55 hits are the most by an NU rookie since Jordyn Rudd (57) in 2019, while her .355 batting average is the highest by a Wildcat first-year since Sabrina Rabin (.394) in 2015.

- With a team-high 22 stolen bases on the season, Avvisato leads all first-years in the conference and ranks fifth among all Big Ten players. She is the first Wildcat to steal 20+ bases in a season since Skyler Shellmyer in 2023, and the first NU rookie to do so since Rachel Lewis in 2018.
- In Big Ten play this season, Avvisato hit .329 (25-for-76), the highest mark in conference play by a Wildcat rookie since Grace Nieto hit .356 as a first-year in 24 conference games in 2022.
- Avvisato has now turned in 14 multi-hit games on the season–third on the team–including seven three-hit games which ranks as the most by a Wildcat since 2018 (Sabrina Rabin; 8)
- Avvisato finished with a team-high six hits and three RBI in the series vs. Wisconsin, hitting .545 (6-for-11) with three doubles, three runs scored and a walk-off home run to complete a four-run rally in Sunday's win. She reached base multiple times in all three games against the Badgers, including a two-hit effort on Saturday followed by a 3-for-4 showing on Sunday.
- To open conference play in OKC, Avvisato led the Wildcats with eight hits, four stolen bases and nine RBI in four games. Avvisato recorded hits in every game. The first-year from Leesburg, Virginia recorded three hits and four RBI in two different games, going 3-for-4 with a home run in a run-rule victory over Penn State while driving in four runs once again in Sunday's win over Michigan State, going 3-for-5 with a double.
- Avvisato broke onto the scene in a big way in her first weekend of collegiate action, leading the Northwestern offense with a team-high nine hits, a .563 batting average and three multi-hit games at the NFCA Leadoff Classic. Avvisato's nine hits over opening weekend were tied for the most by any true first-year in a power four conference. She recorded a team-high six hits the next weekend at LSU, while hitting .353 (6-for-17) with three RBI and two runs scored.
- Northwestern has now landed a player on the All-Big Ten Freshman Team in each of the last four seasons, all of whom are still on the team (Avvisato in 2025, Emma Raye in 2024, Kansas Robinson and Kelsey Nader in 2023, Grace Nieto in 2022).

Junior Bridget Donahey leads the team this season in OPS (1.047), slugging percentage (.595), and home runs (8).

- Donahey ranks second on the team behind only Kelsey Nader in on-base percentage with a .452 mark this year. Last season, she also ranked second on the team with an OBP of .450; Donahey is looking to become the first Wildcat to post consecutive seasons with an on-base percentage of .450 or better since Rachel Lewis did so in 2021 and 2022.
- Donahey has reached base in 18 of her last 33 plate appearances (.545 OBP) over Northwestern's last 12 games.
- She led the Wildcats with a .660 slugging percentage in Big Ten play this season.
- Had never recorded a three-hit game in her first 113 career games played, then turned in two separate three-hit performances across four games (vs. Northern Illinois on March 26; at Minnesota on March 29). During that four-game stretch vs. Northern Illinois/Minnesota, Donahey hit .636 (7-for-11) with two doubles, two homers, eight RBI and four runs scored to go along with a 1.364 slugging percentage and a .615 on-base percentage.
- Donahey posted a .500 on-base percentage to open conference play in OKC, driving in five runs that included a bases-clearing three-RBI triple to tie the game vs. Michigan State, as well as a homer on Thursday's win vs. Penn State.
- Donahey scored a team-high five runs in four games at Louisville this season, posting a .983 OPS. One week prior, she also led the Wildcats in slugging percentage (.875) and on-base percentage (.545) in four games at the Mary Nutter Classic.

- Nader leads the team this season with 16 multi-hit games.
- Nader posted the first four-hit performance of her career on March 29 at Minnesota, going 4-for-5 at the plate with two doubles, three RBI and two runs scored. Nader is the third-different Wildcat to record a four-hit game this season, joining Kansas Robinson (February 16 vs. UT Arlington; April 1 vs. Notre Dame) and Avery Garden (March 16 vs. Michigan State).
- Reached base in 7-of-9 plate appearances vs. Mississippi State (.778 on-base percentage). Finished the weekend going 4-for-6 at the plate while drawing a team-high three walks.
- Nader reached base in 13-of-18 at-bats to open conference play in OKC, drawing seven walks while recording six RBI, four runs scored, three extra-base hits and three stolen bases.

- Last season, Nader led the Wildcats in Big Ten play with a jaw-dropping .473 batting average (35-for-74) in 22 Big Ten games to go along with a team-best 20 RBI and 22 runs scored. Her 35 hits and .473 batting average in conference play ranked second among all players in the conference, trailing only the Big Ten Player of the Year, Jess Oakland (Minnesota).

Izzy Cunea leads the team this season with a .357 average (41-for-115), as well as a .368 mark (21-for-57) in conference play.

- From 2024 to 2025, Cunnea has raised her average this season by .145 points, along with jumps in every statistical category:
  2024 - .212 batting average / .389 slugging percentage / .315 on-base percentage / 19 RBI / 16 runs scored
  2025 - .357 batting average / .513 slugging percentage / .422 on-base percentage / 24 RBI / 17 runs scored

It marked the first double-digit strikeout performance by a Wildcat since Ashley Miller did so on April 16, 2024.
- Delivered a gem in the circle in just her second start of the season after missing the entire 2024 season due to injury, throwing a complete game 7.0 innings while allowing just seven hits and one run while striking out seven in a 4-1 win over #8 Duke

Grace Nieto is leading the team in two-out hitting (.533; 16-for-30), hitting with runners in scoring position (.412; 14-for-34) and hitting with runners on base (.421; 24-for-57). - Nieto led the Wildcats at the plate in back-to-back weekends at LSU and the Mary Nutter Classic after missing the entirety of the 2024 season due to injury. In five games at LSU, Nieto went 5-for-12 and matched her single-game career highs in both hits (3) and RBI (2) in a win over UT Arlington on February 15. At the Mary Nutter Classic, Nieto went 5-for-11 with four runs scored, a double, a homer and two RBI. Against Cal on February 23, she went 3-for-3 with three runs scored, in what marked her third three-hit performance on the year. Riley Grudzielanek posted a 2.94 ERA (14 ER/33.1 IP) in nine conference games this season, second on the team only to Boyd and seventh among all Big Ten pitchers.

- Grudzielanek threw her first-career no-hitter at UIC on April 22, striking out five in five scoreless innings. Grudzielanek is the 18th different Wildcat in program history to throw a no-hitter, and the first to do so since Danielle Williams on March 20, 2022 vs. Stanford.
- Grudzielanek recorded a career-high 11 strikeouts while allowing six hits and no earned runs in the Wildcats' 2-1 setback to Illinois on April 6. It marked the third double-digit strikeout performance from a Wildcat pitcher this season (also Lauren Boyd vs. Louisville, at Minnesota) and more than doubled Grudzielanek's previous career high of five.
- Grudzielanek earned her seventh win of the season in a 3-2 win at Minnesota on March 28 in what marked her fourth complete game performance, allowing just three hits while striking out four. On Saturday, she tossed 4.2 scoreless innings, helping keep the game tied heading into extra innings before handing it over to Lauren Boyd for a save.

Kansas Robinson leads the team this season with 38 RBI, 22 of which came during Big Ten play. She is on track to become the first Wildcat to lead the team in RBI in consecutive seasons since Andrea Filler did so in 2016 and 2017.

Lindsey was one of two D1 Softball players to be named to the team, and also joined Northwestern Baseball's Tyler Ganus on the team. During her four years in Evanston, Lindsey launched a literacy program with Chicago HOPES for Kids to support children experiencing homelessness. In addition, she mentors middle schoolers, volunteers at a domestic violence shelter, fosters rescue animals.

Kaylie Avvisato and fellow first-year Avery Garden were a formidable rookie duo in Big Ten play.

- Garden blasted towering home runs in back-to-back games during the UCLA series on Friday and Saturday, bringing her total to five homers on the season. Garden finished the UCLA weekend with a team-high six RBI, driving in three runs (a single-game career high) in back-to-back games.
- Garden is hitting .326 (15-for-46) with 14 RBI and a .543 slugging percentage in Big Ten play this season.

2025 NORTHWESTERN SOFTBALL GAME NOTES

BEST in the B1G (x3): Northwestern clinched back-to-back-to-back regular season titles last year, just the second time "three-peating" in school history and first since a four-year run from 1984-87. It marked the 10th conference title in program history – five of which were won by Sharon Drysdale and five of which were won by Kate Drohan.

RETURNING PRODUCTION: Northwestern returned seven of nine starters in its lineup, who accounted for nearly 78% of hits, 80% of home runs, and 83% of RBI in 2024.

All-BIG TEN TROPHY CASE: Northwestern landed the Big Ten Pitcher of the Year and Coach of the Year, in addition to Three First Team All-Big Ten selections in 2024. It marked the sixth season in a row that Northwestern has earned multiple First Team selections. For each of the Wildcats' three First-Team nods (Nader, Robinson, Ashley Miller), it marked their first time receiving All-Big Ten status.

KANSAS 'KR' ROBINSON IN YEAR THREE: Kansas Robinson was named a Preseason All-American by D1Softball, one of six Big Ten players to earn the honor. Robinson enters her junior campaign having been named a Second Team All-American by Softball America, while also earning First Team All-Big Ten and NFCA First Team All-Great Lakes Region selections in 2024. As a sophomore, Robinson led Northwestern in batting average (.383), slugging percentage (.705), on-base percentage (.486), home runs (11), and RBI (36).
- During her sophomore season, Robinson finished the year with an impressive 1.191 OPS, ranking fourth in the conference. Her .486 on-base percentage was the third-highest in the Big Ten. She opened the season by reaching base in 34 consecutive games, tying for the fifth-longest streak in Big Ten history.
- Robinson had a breakout rookie campaign in 2023 that saw her earn NFCA All-Region honors. Robinson ranked second on the team with a 1.001 OPS, the highest mark by a NU first-year since Rachel Lewis in 2018, and tied for second on the team with nine home runs–all of which came over the final two months of the season. .

RAYE RETURNS: Emma Raye finished second on the team in home runs (10), and RBI (32) as a rookie in 2024.
- Raye's ten homers were the most by a Wildcat rookie since Maeve Nelson belted 11 in 2019.
- Raye became the fifth Wildcat in the last five years to record 25+ RBI in her rookie campaign, joining Kansas Robinson in 2023 (26), and Jordyn Rudd (51), Nikki Cuchran (35) and Maeve Nelson (31) in 2019.

SOPHOMORE PITCHERS RETURN: Sophomore pitchers Renae Cunningham and Riley Grudzielanek return for the 'Cats, on a staff that graduated Big Ten Pitcher of the Year, Ashley Miller.
- Cunningham finished with a 3.39 ERA in 51.2 innings pitched, and her 1.10 WHIP ranked third in the Big Ten.
- Grudzielanek posted an 8-2 record in 18 appearances and 12 starts. She finished with a 3.46 ERA and 31 strikeouts in 60.2 innings pitched.

TIME TO BUILD A STADIUM: In March 2024, Northwestern announced plans to construct a new Softball Stadium.
- Construction will break ground on June 1, 2025 with completion anticipated by the start of team's 2026 home season, meaning NU will not miss a home game there.
- The project will increase the stadium's seating capacity, create new spaces for the student-athletes (including a team clubhouse, a players' lounge, a new locker room, centrally located training and team development spaces), a fully renovated press box for TV and radio coverage, and elevated fan experience amenities–such as a new courtyard entrance to accommodate tailgating for fans.
- The lead gift for the project was a $5 million contribution from former Northwestern basketball player, Kip Kirkptrick (Class of 1994) and his wife, Sarah.
- The new facility will be named "Kip and Sarah Kirkpatrick Stadium," while the playing field within the stadium will retain the name "Sharon J. Drysdale Field."

DARTH NADER: Kelsey Nader took home First Team All-Big Ten accolades and was named an NFCA Third Team All-American after being named to the All-Freshman Team as a starter in 2023. In 2024, Nader led the Wildcats in runs scored (41) and tied for the team lead in hits (57).
- Nader finished 2024 with a 1.016 OPS on the season with .586 slugging percentage (.187 increase from 2023) and .430 on-base percentage (.047 increase from 2023).
- Nader's 35 hits and .473 batting average in conference play trailed only the Big Ten Player of the Year, Jess Oakland, while her 1.261 OPS ranked seventh in the conference and second on the team behind only Robinson (1.320).
- Nader hit her stride last season after conference play started on March 23, raising her batting average from .266 up to .376. She also finished the regular season with a team-leading 37 runs scored and 20 multi-hit games, becoming one of just five Wildcats since 2012 to finished with 20+ multi-hit games in a single season (Skyler Shellmyer, Sabrina Rabin, Emily Allard and Marisa Bast).
- In the Wildcats' first two games of last year's Big Ten season, Nader went 5-for-7 with three home runs, 7 RBI and 3 runs scored in a pair of wins over Michigan State. Nader hit more home runs in those two games (3) than she had in 74 career games prior to that (2).

DON'T RUN on EMMA RAYE: Emma Raye was one of just three rookies named to the Big Ten's All-Defensive Team in 2024. It marked the fourth-consecutive season in which a Northwestern catcher has earned Big Ten All-Defensive Team honors, with Jordyn Rudd taking home the honor in each of the last three seasons including a 2022 campaign that saw her win the inaugural Rawlings Gold Glove.
- Raye started every game for the Wildcats in 2024 and all but one at catcher. Raye has caught 13 runners attempting to steal so far this season, which ranked third in the Big Ten and 25th in the nation. As a team, Northwestern allowed the fewest stolen bases in the conference (13, next closest 20) and the lowest stolen base percentage (.520, next closet .645)
