QUICK KICKS

Dawgs in Tiger Town

No. 15 Georgia closes its non-conference slate with a short trip to Clemson Sunday evening. This is the 15th all-time matchup between the schools, ranking second to Georgia State (19) as Georgia's most-common non-conference opponent. Georgia is looking to continue a three-match unbeaten streak against Clemson, dating back to an upset 3-1 win in 2021 at the Turner Soccer Complex. The Bulldogs and Tigers tied twice in the 2023 season, first in a regular season tilt in Athens, followed by a dramatic NCAA Round of 16 match in Clemson. Georgia appeared to be on its way to the Elite Eight as All-American Croix Bethune scored in the 84th minute, but a Tiger equalizer with 90 seconds remaining sent the match to extra time. Despite a series of chances for the Bulldogs, they would eventually fall in penalties, 5-3. Georgia has only won once before at Historic Riggs Field: a 2-1 victory on Sept. 18, 2009, in which the Bulldogs were coincidentally also ranked 15th, and the Tigers were unranked.

Clemson carries a three-match unbeaten streak into Sunday's contest, including a scoreless tie against No. 12 South Carolina on Aug. 28. The Tigers also played No. 18 Ohio State to a 1-1 draw in the season opener in Columbus. Freshman forward Juju Harris joins Georgia's Summer Denigan as two of the nation's top clutch performers, with both ranking top-three nationally in winning goals. Sunday also marks the non-conference finale for Clemson, who will host No. 1 Stanford next Thursday in its ACC opener.

Familiar Faces

Clemson's roster features a trio of players with ties to the Georgia program. Junior midfielder Christian Brathwaite began her career as a Bulldog in 2023, appearing in 20 matches with nine starts as she helped the program win its first SEC Tournament title. Sophomore midfielder Anna Castenfelt was a member of the Bulldogs in the 2024 spring exhibition season but transferred to Clemson before playing in any regular season matches. Finally, graduate defender Baleigh Bruster is the sister of former All-SEC defender Kayla Bruster, who anchored the Georgia backline from 2017-21.

Under the Weather

Georgia is looking to rebound from an exhausting 1-0 loss to Wyoming Thursday evening at the Turner Soccer Complex. Following a three-and-a-half-hour weather delay, the Bulldogs and Cowgirls finally took to the rain-drenched field at 10 p.m. Wyoming notched the lone score of the evening in the 11th minute as Addison Keen forced a turnover and passed ahead to Alyssa Glover for the goal. Georgia controlled possession for much of the evening, earning a season-high 11 corner kicks and outshooting Wyoming, 23-8 (6-3 SOG). Nonetheless, the Bulldogs were stifled by the Cowgirl defense and six saves from keeper Haley Bartel, as well as the net itself with four shots hitting the crossbar or post.

Townes for the Tie

On a balmy summer afternoon on the Palouse, Georgia earned a 1-1 tie against Washington State Aug. 31 in Pullman. The Bulldogs controlled the pace of play, outshooting the Cougars by a 12-5 margin (5-2 in SOG). Freshman Mya Townes scored her first career goal, a 69th-minute equalizer set up by a great assist from teammate Sage Glover. Wazzu opened the scoring in the 12th minute, snapping a four-match shutout streak by the Georgia defense. The Bulldogs nearly earned a win in the final 90 seconds as Summer Denigan's free kick was on line, but stopped by WSU keeper Keara Fitzgerald to thwart a sixth-straight winning goal for the Bulldog midfielder.

Up Next

No. 15 Georgia opens SEC play with a trip to Texas A&M on Friday, Sept. 12 at 8:30 p.m. EDT in Bryan-College Station, Texas. The match will stream live on SEC Network+.

Keidane McAlpine (kuh-DAWN-ee mik-AL-pine), who has led his teams to 12 consecutive NCAA tournament appearances, including a national championship for USC in 2016, became the sixth head coach of the Georgia soccer program in December 2021.

The Huntsville, Alabama native immediately changed the Bulldogs' fortunes, leading the team to a 13-6-3 record and a trip to the NCAA Second Round in his first season. Under McAlpine's leadership, Georgia received its first NCAA Tournament bid since 2014 and hosted a home postseason match for the first time since 2007. The Bulldogs also upset Tennessee in the SEC Tournament, reaching the semifinals for the first time since 2010 before falling in penalties to eventual champion South Carolina.

During the season, Georgia went unbeaten on the road in conference play and finished the regular season with six straight results against league opponents, including the first three-game SEC shutout streak since 2010. The Bulldogs tied two program records with 16 different goal scorers and 12 shutouts during the year, all while tallying the second-lowest goals against average rate in program history. Graduate Abby Boyan became the program's fourth All-American, with Madison Haugen, Dani Murguia, and Cecily Stoute joining her on the United Soccer Coaches All-America Third Team.

McAlpine followed 2022 up with the most successful season in Georgia soccer history. Facing one of the nation's toughest schedules, the Bulldogs finished 13-4-6 and with a No. 13 final national ranking, the highest among the SEC schools and highest in program history. He also won his 200th career game with a 2-1 victory at Missouri. During the season, Georgia won its first SEC East Division title, followed by the first SEC Tournament championship in school history, overcoming deficits against Kentucky and Texas A&M to advance. The run in Pensacola included playing with 10 players for 88 minutes against the Wildcats and a last-second winner from Croix Bethune to take down the Aggies. The Bulldogs clinched the title with a 1-0 win over No. 10 Arkansas in the final, led by seven saves from Jordan Brown.

In the NCAA Tournament, a late winner from Kiera Staude took down Liberty, 2-1, before a sold-out crowd in Athens before a 3-2 win against Iowa sent Georgia to the Sweet 16 for only the second time in program history. Despite a go-ahead goal from Bethune in the 85th minute, the Bulldogs surrendered a late equalizer and fell in overtime. Nonetheless, the Bulldogs earned a program-best five postseason victories and were the final SEC team remaining in the field.

Bethune became the fifth All-American in program history, earning a place on the United Soccer Coaches Second Team. She was also named to the All-Southeast Region Team, SEC All-Tournament Team, and was named SEC Tournament MVP. She was later drafted third overall by Washington Spirit in the 2024 NWSL Draft, the highest-picked player in school history and highest-drafted SEC player since 2016. In her rookie season, Bethune was named Midfielder of the Year and Rookie of the Year, along with earning a gold medal at the Paris Olympics with the U.S. Women's National Team. Redshirt freshman Summer Denigan was named SEC Co-Freshman of the Year and was the only freshman named to the All-Southeast Region Team. All the while, Georgia soccer attracted 14,571 spectators to the Turner Soccer Complex during the season, the largest season-long crowd in a decade.

In his third season, McAlpine continued the winning with an 8-7-6 record and third-consecutive NCAA Tournament home match. The Bulldogs again faced one of the nation's toughest schedules, headlined by a trip to eventual national champion North Carolina and a 1-1 tie at No. 1 Florida State, the program's first result against a top-ranked opponent. Brown posted one of the greatest seasons in program history, tallying 120 saves, the second-most of any keeper in program history and the most in the SEC. Brown and graduate midfielder Nicole Vernis were both named to the Second Team All-SEC and the United Soccer Coaches All-Southeast Region Team.

Prior to arriving in Athens, McAlpine guided USC to unprecedented success for eight seasons from 2014-21. His 2016 squad finished with a 19-4-2 record on its way to the program's second national championship, shutting out four consecutive tournament opponents before a 3-1 victory over West Virginia in the College Cup Final. His final 2021 team boasted a 14-3-3 record and finished second in the Pac-12 standings, earning him USC's first Pac-12 Coach of the Year honors since 1998.

Under his guidance, USC never missed the postseason, won at least one NCAA tournament match in six of the last seven years and never finished worse than fourth in the Pac-12. The Trojans averaged nearly 16 wins a season during his tenure and owned a 13-2-7 postseason record under his watch.

McAlpine's teams have produced 12 All-Americans, over 40 All-Conference selections, three Pac-12 Forwards of the Year, one Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Year, one Pac-12 Midfielder of the Year, one Pac-12 Freshman of the Year and two Pac-12 Goalkeepers of the Year. McAlpine and his staff also picked up United Soccer Coaches West Region Staff of the Year honors in 2018 and 2021.

McAlpine's 17-year head coaching career features stops at Birmingham-Southern, Washington State and USC, where he has compiled a 195-95-40 career record — a 65 percent winning percentage. His career began at his alma mater Birmingham-Southern in 2001 as he guided the program into Division I, eventually winning the Big South championship in 2004 and earning the program's first NCAA Tournament bid. For his efforts, he was named that season's Big South Coach of the Year. Following his tenure at BSC, he spent six seasons as an assistant coach at Auburn.

In addition to his success at USC, McAlpine was named the 2013 Pac-12 Coach of the Year and NSCAA Pacific Region Coach of the Year at Washington State. He led the Cougars to a program-record 14 wins and a school-best second-place finish in the conference standings. Washington State also made back-to-back trips to the NCAA tournament during his tenure.

He has been active in Olympic Development Program for many years and holds a National "A" Coaching License from the United States Soccer Federation and a National Goalkeeping License. McAlpine was actively involved as a coach with the Alabama Youth Soccer Association Olympic Development Program and several club teams. In the summer of 2004, he was selected as a staff coach for the USYSA Region III squad.

McAlpine was a four-year starter at Birmingham-Southern and was named team captain in 1996. During that season, the Panthers finished as runners-up in the NAIA Tournament after advancing to the semifinals the previous season. After graduation, McAlpine spent the 1999 season playing for the Tennessee Rhythm of the A League.

McAlpine earned a bachelor's degree in music business with a minor in computer science from Birmingham-Southern in 1997.

QUICK KICKS

Summer, Summer, Summertime

Redshirt junior midfielder Summer Denigan has asserted herself as one of the nation's top players in the early going of the 2025 season. Through seven matches, Denigan has tallied five goals (ranked 17th nationally) and an assist, including a nation-leading four match-winning goals. In the Georgia record books, Denigan ranks fifth in winners with 10 in her career. Two weeks ago, Denigan was named SEC Offensive Player of the Week for the second time in her career, followed by placements on TopDrawerSoccer's National Team of the Week and National Player of the Year Leaderboard.

Dominant Dawgs

No. 13 Georgia posted one of its most dominant performances in program history in a 6-0 win over North Florida Aug. 28 at Turner. The Bulldogs put up 21 shots (12 on frame), while allowing zero opponent shots for only the third time in program history and the first since blanking FAU on Sept. 4, 2009. The Georgia defense also allowed zero corner kicks for the second time this season, following the UAlbany match on Aug. 17. Kiera Staude recorded her first career hat trick, working with teammates Sage Glover and Hailey Gordon on a pair of give-and-goes, along with slicing the Osprey backline for her second score. Summer Denigan scored her fourth-consecutive match-winning goal with a free kick strike in the 13th minute, giving her the national lead in winners. The Bulldogs' offense has been humming in the early going with 18 goals in six matches (10th nationally), dramatically outpacing the mark set in two of Coach McAlpine's first three seasons: 12 (2024) and 8 (2023)

A Feast of Firsts

Georgia's win over North Florida featured a number of important firsts for the Bulldog roster. Freshmen Ava Stack and Andrea Lazar each scored their first career goals, while senior Sage Glover and freshman Hailey Gordon each tallied their first assists as Bulldogs. Junior defender Tyler Kaseta made her first career start, playing a career-high 77 minutes on the backline, with junior midfielder Devon Winters making her first start of the season. Finally, redshirt freshman defender Kamryn Winger made her collegiate field debut, recording 32 second half minutes.

Collecting Clean Sheets

The Georgia backline and goalkeepers mounted an impressive four-match shutout streak, the program's longest since five straight early in the 2022 season. The strong play of the Bulldogs' backline has resulted in freshman keeper Hannah Folliard only tallying 10 saves in her first six starts, while redshirt freshman Nicole Bidun has yet to face a shot on frame in three appearances. In turn, the Bulldogs' defensive prowess has opened up the offensive attack, with Georgia's 17 goals during the four-match streak equaling the same scoring output produced during the program-best eight-match shutout streak set in 1999.

Picking Up the Hardware

Thanks to consecutive shutouts over No. 12 North Carolina and Michigan, Georgia cleaned up on weekly honors from both national and conference sources. In addition to Summer Denigan's honors, freshman Lily Kate Elphick was also named SEC Freshman of the Week for her astounding clinching goal against UNC. As a team, the Bulldogs were ranked 13th by both the United Soccer Coaches and TopDrawerSoccer. The mark ties the highest held by the program under Keidane McAlpine in the year-end poll of 2023. In non-COVID seasons, Georgia's highest-ever ranking was No. 12 in September 1999.

Hail to the Bulldogs

Georgia notched its third-straight clean sheet with a 3-0 victory over Michigan on Senior Day Aug. 24. Freshman goalkeeper Hannah Folliard teamed with redshirt freshman Nicole Bidun to blank the Wolverines, with Folliard tallying the lone save in the 63rd minute. In her first four matches, she has posted a 0.30 goals against average and nine saves. Summer Denigan continued her torrid pace with two goals on the afternoon, becoming the 15th player in program history to score in three straight matches. Denigan opened the scoring with a 25-yard blast in the 19th minute, set up by an assist from Juliauna Hayward, scoring the match winner for the third-consecutive outing; she is tied with five other players for the national lead in winners. She followed it up in the 49th minute with a header off the service from BK Harris, the first assist of the USC transfer's career in Athens. Hayward then clinched the match for Georgia in the 71st minute as she knocked in an unassisted strike from the top of the 18, giving her three points for the afternoon.

A Rainy Night in Georgia

Despite over two hours in weather delays, Georgia produced a historic 2-0 victory over No. 12 North Carolina on Aug. 21, earning its first-ever victory over the nation's winn-gest program and reigning national champion. In the second half, Summer Denigan put the Dawgs on the board as she knocked in a blocked shot in the 51st minute. Twenty minutes later, Lily Kate Elphick scored her second goal of the season with a rocking laser off her left foot. Freshman goalkeeper Hannah Folliard was outstanding in net, with the Bulldog defense only allowing two shots on net. The win over the Tar Heels was the highest-ranked opponent since No. 10 Arkansas in the 2023 SEC Tournament final and only the 11th win over an ACC school in program history.

Bruin Battle

Georgia turned in a valiant effort in its season opener Aug. 14, dropping a 1-0 decision to No. 8 UCLA before 1,501 spectators at Turner Soccer Complex. The Bulldogs started seven new players, including three freshmen (Hannah Folliard, Maddy Herniter, and Mya Townes). The 17-year-old Folliard, who reclassified from the class of 2026, made an impressive debut in net with six saves, only allowing a goal by Bella Winn in the 66th minute. Senior defender Cate Hardin tallied a career-high six shots to lead all players, including a tremendous look at an equalizer that was blocked in the final minute of play.

New Faces

Georgia enters the 2025 season with one of the largest roster turnovers in program history, welcoming back only 11 letterwinners along with 18 freshmen and transfers. In the process, the Bulldogs have gone from a roster with seven graduate players in 2024 to 12 first-year athletes in 2025. The transfer class is led by graduate defender Laila Booker, a three-time All-Ivy League performer at Yale, who was ranked 79th in TopDrawerSoccer's Top 100 Player Rankings. The transfers also include LSU veteran forward Sage Glover, All-Big 12 midfielder Juliauna Hayward (Colorado), and Big 12 champion Assa Kante (Kansas).

On the freshman front, USYNT members Mya Townes and Hannah Folliard highlight an esteemed class which also includes Mexican youth national teamers Hailey Gordon and Ava Stack. Townes was invited to the U18 training camp in May after scoring the winning goal in the U.S. U17 team's final victory in the 2024 Concacaf Women's U17 Championship. With 12 freshmen, it is Georgia's largest incoming class since 14 joined for the 2021 season. The large influx of talent also creates a notable age gap in teammates, with birth dates ranging from May 2002 to July 2008.

It's a Keeper

With the unfortunate loss of senior goalkeeper Jordan Brown for the season due to injury, Georgia will be turning to a new netminder for the first time in three seasons. Freshman Hannah Folliard reclassified from the class of 2026 to this season and will be a top candidate for the starting job. Folliard recently attended the USYNT U17 training camp and is a contender for this year's U.S. U17 World Cup roster. She previously served as an alternate for the Concacaf U17 Championship. Redshirt freshman Nicole Bidun made her Georgia debut on Aug. 17 against UAlbany, facing zero shots in the second half.

Strong Slate

Throughout his early tenure in Athens, Keidane McAlpine has made it a point to challenge his team with a difficult schedule. This year's schedule proved to be no different, with Georgia facing five opponents ranked in the United Soccer Coaches pre-season poll, along with three schools receiving votes. North Carolina marks the fourth consecutive season in which Georgia has faced the defending national champion in the regular season. In conference play, the Bulldogs will take on three of the SEC's top five preseason squads: Arkansas, Texas, and Tennessee.

Dawg Bites

- Under Keidane McAlpine, Georgia has continued to raise the program's profile and achieve new heights of success, highlighted by the 2023 SEC Tournament championship and NCAA Sweet 16 appearance. The Bulldogs have won SEC Tournament matches for three straight seasons for the first time in program history and hosted NCAA First Round matches in three straight years for the first time.
- The Bulldogs' increased success has expanded the recruiting footprint of the program, resulting in a roster full of geographic diversity in 2025. This season's team features players from 13 different states and three nations, the largest number of states represented in program history. The Dawgs still feature 11 players from Georgia, one of the country's deepest talent pools.
- Graduate defender Laila Booker led the Georgia backline in her Bulldog debut, holding UCLA to only seven shots on goal while playing 88 minutes. During her career at Yale, Booker played a full match on 37 occasions, including a nine-match streaking stretching from the end of the 2023 season to the beginning of 2024.
