CREDENTIALS

Arrangements for media credentials for Tiger home basketball games must be made through the Clemson Strategic Communications and Publicity office. Requests by accredited media members must be made through the online credentialing system (SportsSystems.com/ClemsonBasketball). Online credential requests for each Clemson home game will be open before the season and will close at 3 p.m. the day before each game.

For more information on credential requests for Littlejohn Coliseum, contact Ben Winterrowd via email at winterr@clemson.edu.

The Clemson University Athletics Media Policy is available at ClemsonTigers.com/MediaPolicy. The policy details credential eligibility and issuance priority for national and local outlets that cover Clemson Basketball or its opponents on a regular basis. All credential approvals are made on a game-by-game basis independent of previous approvals and/or denials, and credential decisions for each contest are not beholden to prior credentialing precedents. Due to space limitations, credential quantities may be limited to a number lower than the total requested.

All credential requests will be filled on a space-available basis. Non-working spouses, dates, relatives, non-workers and anyone 16 years of age or younger are not permitted in the press box.

Media credential holders in the press box who are not actively covering the game, or credential wearers on the baseline who are not on assignment, will be asked to leave those respected areas. Press box or baseline security will be contacted should the credential wearer not comply. Credentials used in unauthorized manner will be revoked immediately, and organizations responsible for credentials falling into improper hands will have credentials revoked for the rest of the year or the succeeding year, at the university's discretion.

EMAIL DISTRIBUTION LIST

Notes, stats, stories and other information are emailed out on a weekly basis from the strategic communications and publicity office. Media members may contact Ben Winterrowd (winterr@clemson.edu) to be put on the email list.

PARKING

A limited number of parking spaces reserved for the media is available on a game-by-game basis. Media parking will be available in the Rogers Family Lot 5 below the Avenue of Champions for credentialed media.

Visiting team radio engineers can park on the North side of Littlejohn Coliseum off of Ravenel Road for easy access to broadcast location.

PHOTOGRAPHERS & VIDEOGRAPHERS

Clemson follows guidelines established by the NCAA communications committee and ACC regarding sideline control to make certain the sideline is a working media area.

The following guidelines are adhered to:

1) Each photographer and runner is required to wear a credential that is visible.
2) Photographer and videographer credentials can be picked up on gameday at the loading dock entrance to Littlejohn Coliseum.
3) After tipoff, no photographers are permitted in the bench area nor on the playing surface, tunnels or in the seated bowl area.
5) Photo assistants or others holding a photo pass must remain out of the photo area on the base line and must remain in photo/video workroom located off the court. This will make certain that photographers/videographers have the appropriate working area.
6) Tripods are not permitted on the sidelines or baselines.
7) The areas behind the team benches are considered bench areas and are to be used only for the passage between the baselines. This area may not be used as a photo zone.

PRESS BOX

The press area is located in section 232 in the Southeast corner of the arena. All radio locations are located in the loge area above section 110 behind the Clemson team bench. Television is located courtside across from the scorer's table.

Members of the working media will be seated in section 232 of the upper arena, marked by gray tables. The seating area is well equipped with power outlets and wireless internet access as well as ethernet. The athletic communications office will label seating assignments prior to games.

Photographers are encouraged to use the work room located off of the playing floor and the press room.

INTERVIEW REQUESTS

All requests to speak with players, coaches and staff should be directed to Ben Winterrowd (winterr@clemson.edu). Members of the media who reach out directly to players, coaches or staff without prior approval of Clemson staff may face suspension or revocation of credentials.

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

LITTLEJOHN COLISEUM

Littlejohn Coliseum, a 9,000 seat arena, located on the west side of campus, has been recognized for its incomparable atmosphere and it's overwhelming attendance by students. It opened in November 1968 and has been home to Clemson Basketball ever since. It has undergone two renovations since its inception.

The arena was named for J.C. Littlejohn, a long-time Clemson University employee, for many years the school's business manager.

Clemson hosted a ribbon-cutting ceremony for the newest round of renovations in Littlejohn on October 14, 2016. These upgrades took roughly 16 months to complete, beginning shortly after the 2014-15 season in order to have them done as efficiently as possible. Their game against Georgia on Nov. 11 of 2016 served as their "grand reopening" of the stadium, allowing fans to experience the renovations first-hand. This $63.5 million project consisted of a number of upgrades, along with the addition of some features to help accommodate players and provide them with the best equipment and atmosphere possible.

The playing surface was refinished for the 2024-25 season and features a smaller Tiger Paw at midcourt and primarily orange paint.

It has proved time and time again to be one of the most difficult places to play in the ACC. Clemson is 104-26 overall, including 46-4 in non-conference regular season play since 2017-18. In that time, 11 Top 25 teams have lost games in Littlejohn, including five Top 10 teams.

GAMEDAY ATMOSPHERE

Students located behind the sideline table are members of "Central Spirit" and in recent seasons have formed the "Grit Pit" which is comprised of the most die-hard students that attend basketball games.

The orange wall of bleachers consists of students and the Tiger Band, constantly causing havoc and noise for opponents. For the 2024-25 season, Clemson sold out of its season ticket allotment of over 5,000 season tickets – a new record since the latest renovation of the building in 2016-17. It is also the most season tickets sold since the mid-1990's.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT

Clemson has continued to cultivate its local, state and national media presence.

The addition of the ACC Network has helped grow Clemson Basketball's recognition with nearly every game on the ESPN family of networks. For the sixth consecutive season, all conference games air on ESPN, ESPN2, ESPNU or ACC Network.

Additional home non-conference games are on ACC Network+, which can been throughout the United State on the Watch ESPN app.

With the additional exposure, student-athletes are requested for numerous interviews throughout the season on various platforms (television, print and podcasts/radio).

Following every game, at least one student-athlete and Head Coach Brad Brownell address the media.

STRONGMAN COMPETITION

The Tigers conduct a series of stations over five weeks and will add to it each week to increase the difficulty.

The medley during the finale includes, carrying sandbags, riding a stationary bike, flipping an oversized ttire, carrying weights, pulling a weighted wagon, carrying a weighted yoke, pushing a truck and running up two sets of stairs past Littlejohn Coliseum to a centrally located Tiger statue.

Tough teams go through difficult times together during the season and this competition provides a competitiveness within the team, but also builds camaraderie amongst teammates.

Strongman Competition Winners:

- RJ Godfrey & Nick Davidson (2025)
- Ian Schieffelin (2024)
- PJ Hall (2023)
- Hunter Tyson (2022)

TIGERS IN THE NCAA TOURNAMENT

Clemson has made 15 appearances in the NCAA Tournament and has made the field in four of the past eight seasons, becoming just one of 24 schools nationally to appear in at least one Sweet 16 and one Elite Eight in separate seasons since 2018.

The Tigers are 14-15 all-time in the NCAA Tournament and have advanced to the round of 16 five times – 1980, 1990, 1997, 2018 and 2024. They have advanced to the Elite Eight twice in history – 1980 and 2024.

Brownell has led the Tigers to five apperances in the NCAA Tournament and in previous coaching stints has taken UNCW to the "Big Dance" twice and Wright State once.

LITTLEJOHN RENOVATION

THANKS TO THE BROWN FAMILY

A NEW LITTLEJOHN

Clemson Athletics' Expansion and Renovation of Basketball Operations Facilities is Underway

The Clemson University Board of Trustees Finance and Facilities Committee granted Phase II approval on a plan for comprehensive improvements to Swann Pavilion and Littlejohn Coliseum with construction scheduled to commence in December 2024. Phase I approval was reached in July 2023, which was the initial stage in the project's progress. The project aims to benefit both men's and women's basketball programs with the gymnastics program finishing its first year of competition this past spring. The project includes renovations of more than 51,000 square feet of existing team spaces and 30,000 square feet of new construction at a cost of $40 million.

Anticipated facility improvements include further development of operations and technology in the women's basketball team spaces, practice gym, offices and recruiting areas. Additionally, the improvements include modernization and expansion to shared strength & conditioning, nutrition, and sports medicine spaces. Some of the newly constructed spaces include men's basketball team areas, offices, and practice gym. At the time of Phase I approval by the Clemson University Board of Trustees Finance and Facilities Committee, Graham Neff and Head Coach Brad Brownell provided these comments:

"We are thankful to be able to begin the process of continued commitments to our basketball programs," said Director of Athletics Graham Neff. "Strong basketball programs are key to an elite intercollegiate athletic department, which greatly impacts the student experience. We are thankful to the Brown Family for their generous support, which will allow us to continue the progress of bringing our basketball facilities among the top in the country."

"What a great day for Clemson Basketball," said Head Men's Basketball Coach Brad Brownell. "In 2013, when we first took steps to renovate Littlejohn Coliseum, Joe and Bobbi Swann aided in the advancement of both programs with the construction of the Swann Pavilion. This new project, spearheaded by Jim and Candace Brown, will continue to give us some of the best facilities in the ACC and the country, while enabling us to consistently provide our student-athletes with a first-class experience. I want to thank the Browns for their considerable generosity and strong support of our program."

"ALL IN" BEFORE DAY ONE

One of the most special things about Clemson is the sense of family that people feel at every turn. Stories of family connections and legacies are plentiful in this great place and are heard from every corner of campus. Student managers for collegiate athletic teams are some of the most underappreciated on campus and they endure a wide-ranging number of tasks and hold tremendous responsibilities to teams, head coaches and staffs. A native upstate New Yorker, Tyler Pepicelli may have officially started his Clemson career in 2021, but his ties to the University go back a decade and a half. "Leaving things better than you found them" is a principle that encourages individuals to go above and beyond, and "Pep," as he is affectionately known to his friends and family, continues to set a higher standard for that mantra.

Pep began his career at Clemson as a freshman in the fall of 2021. Tigertown, however, was not unfamiliar territory for him as he had visited Death Valley as a kid even though he grew up in Schenectady, N.Y. His uncle, Dan Pepicelli, served as then-Head Baseball Coach Jack Leggett's pitching coach and associate head coach in different periods from 2010-15. Pep made many trips to the Palmetto State to experience baseball, football, and basketball, beginning as a first grader.

"I remember coming down and touring the baseball facilities back in 2010, so I was seven years old. We came down for opening weekend. We walked around, met players and met coaches." And later, "I remember one time my brother and I played 2-on-2 against my dad and my uncle in Littlejohn."

Pep became hooked on Clemson after a special night in Death Valley in 2014 – a Tiger Football victory against Louisville.

"In 2014 I went to my first football game, and we played Louisville. Adam Humphries had a punt return touchdown – it was pretty elite. I remember after that game I started following the football team a lot, and it just kind of blossomed into every sport."

He knew after only visiting a few times exactly where he wanted to go to college – and he was only in middle school.

"My stepmom had asked me [about college] when I was in eighth grade, and I told her I only really wanted to go to Clemson. She printed out the Clemson application for incoming students, and it was on my desk in my room from eighth grade until senior year."

That's pretty good motivation and part of a work ethic that has been on display his entire life. His one goal when it came to college was acceptance to Clemson.

Even though baseball was a part of his childhood, Pep ultimately gravitated toward basketball. He played four sports in high school. He was a soccer, basketball, golf, and tennis player at Schalmont High School, playing soccer and basketball throughout and golf and tennis as a senior.

Upon his arrival in 2021, he knew he wanted to be involved with Clemson sports.

"I felt like I would enjoy being around the basketball team the most. I knew my uncle knew Coach [Brad] Brownell a little bit, and I just thought basketball would be the best experience overall."

He met with then-Director of Operations Matt Bucklin and through an interview process was offered a spot as a student manager. It was a role that he took seriously, and he was promoted to head manager in 2024. Managers are some of the most valuable people in a sports program.

Since Pep has been at Clemson, the Tigers have won 91 games and been to two NCAA Tournaments, including an Elite Eight in 2024. Those are his favorite memories.

"All the winning. I like being a part of something every day and committing my time to something and then feeling rewarded when I get to watch them play and travel with the team. Just all the big games and tournament games."

Pep graduated this past spring with a degree in sports communication. He is now pursuing his master's degree in athletic leadership and staying a valuable member of the basketball program. He will serve as a graduate manager from 2025-27.

"The people here are great people, and I wanted to continue building those relationships. I wanted to keep working with them and keep helping the program."

Over his time serving the program as head manager, Pep certainly raised the bar, as have his predecessors, encouraging those who follow to do the same, leaving the program better than they found it.

Brad Brownell enters his 16th season in charge of the Clemson men's basketball program in 2025-26. The Evansville, Ind., native was named the 22nd men's basketball coach at Clemson University on April 13, 2010.

In 15 seasons in Clemson, he has compiled a 292-196 record, which places him first all-time in Clemson coaching history with 292 victories. He has taken the Tigers to the 2024 Elite Eight, 2018 Sweet 16, and the 2025, 2021 and 2011 NCAA Tournaments. He is No. 1 in Clemson coaching history in terms of winning percentage against ACC competition and his 146 regular season wins over ACC teams are the most-ever in program history.

Brownell enters his 24th season overall with a career record of 459-281. Most recently, Clemson completed one of the most historic regular seasons in school history. Brownell led the Tigers to school records in wins (27), regular season wins (26), ACC and conference wins (18), ACC road wins (9) and double-digit ACC wins (15). The Tigers won their final eight ACC road games, the longest streak of ACC road wins in school history.

Clemson has the second-best overall and ACC record over the last three seasons among league teams. Clemson has a 74-30 overall record over that span, including a 43-17 record in regular season ACC action. The 74 wins are a school record for victories over three consecutive years. Brownell is the only Division I coach to guide a team to a final Top 25 ranking in the AP Poll each of the last two years without being ranked in the preseason either season.

Under Brownell's direction, the Tigers have garnered three consecutive All-ACC First Team players for the first time in school history, most recently with Chase Hunter (2025). PJ Hall (2024) and Hunter Tyson (2023) preceded Hunter.

Clemson defeated No. 4 Kentucky in the ACC/SEC Challenge (70-66), No. 2 Duke (77-71) and North Carolina (85-65) to beat three of the four winningest programs in Division I history. In the history of the AP Poll (since 1948-49) only seven teams have accomplished that in the same season. It's the first time a team has beaten all three while two were ranked inside the AP Top 5 since Maryland in 1957-58.

In addition to defeating Duke and North Carolina, Clemson also beat NC State and Wake Forest to sweep the North Carolina ACC schools for the first time in school history. The Tigers have beaten all four in the same season just eight times prior to this season.

The Tigers have won 74 games over the last three seasons, the second-most in program history and second-most in the ACC, while also posting a .717 (43-17) win percentage in the ACC over that same time period. That is the highest in consecutive seasons in program history. Since 2017-18, the Tigers are fourth in the ACC in wins (168) and fourth in league wins (90).

Clemson reached the Elite Eight for just the second time in history and the first time in 44 years in 2024. The Brownell led Tigers beat New Mexico, Baylor and Arizona en route to a historical 24-win campaign. Clemson won its first three games of the NCAA Tournament as the underdog, the first team to do that since 1985. Three players (PJ Hall, Chase Hunter, Ian Schieffelin) were named to NCAA All-Regional team, most in one year in Clemson history. Had just two selections total previously (Larry Nance, 1980, Gabe Devoe, 2018).

Clemson defeated nine NCAA Tournament teams, six in the regular season and three in the tournament, the most in a season in school history. Seven of the nine wins were recorded away from home, most in a season in school history. Clemson recorded 12 wins away from home, an all-time school record for one season and had six wins on opponent's home court and six wins at neutral sites. The 12 wins away from home included seven vs. NCAA Tournament teams, most in one season in Clemson history. The Tigers had five wins during the regular season against non-conference teams that reached the NCAA Tournament, most in one season in school history and five road ACC wins, tied for the most in a season in Clemson history.

Coach Brownell won at North Carolina for just the second time in school history, the first road win over a ranked North Carolina team. Clemson had lost 37 straight in Chapel Hill to Top 25 North Carolina teams. The win at No. 3 North Carolina was the second highest ranked road win in Clemson history (beat No. 2 Maryland on road in 1975-76). The win was also the first win for Clemson (anywhere) against a team that would become a No. 1 seed since 1997 (Kentucky) and just the fourth time ever Clemson has beaten a team that would go on to be a No. 1 seed (also UNC, 1979 and UNC, 1994). The Tigers recorded four wins over top 25 teams (beat No. 23 Alabama, No. 3 North Carolina, No. 14 Baylor and No. 9 Arizona). All four wins were away from home, the most wins away from home over Top 25 teams in one season in school history.

Clemson was rewarded for its play throughout the season, as Coach Brownell had his second player earn the ACC's Most Improved Player award in Ian Schieffelin. The Tigers also had a first-team All-ACC player in consecutive years for the first time ever. Hunter Tyson in 2022-23 and PJ Hall in 2023-24.

The 2022-23 Tigers won 23 games and a record 14 games in the ACC, which marked a program record for conference wins in any league. The .700 winning percentage was the third best in Clemson history, and better than 11 of the previous 13 Clemson teams that advanced to the NCAA Tournament. Clemson started 7-0 and 10-1 in the ACC last year and the seven consecutive league wins tied a school record that dated to 1967. The Tigers won eight ACC games by double digits and five of those were by at least 20 points.

Hunter Tyson earned First Team All-ACC honors before being drafted 37th overall by the Denver Nuggets in the 2023 NBA Draft. Returning center PJ Hall earned Third Team All-ACC honors for his play last season.

The 2021-22 Tigers finished 8-12 in the ACC and 17-16 overall, which included a win over NC State in the ACC Tournament.

The 2020-21 Tigers finished 10-6 in ACC play –tied for the second-most wins in ACC play. Their 11-1 home record is a top five winning percentage all time in Littlejohn Coliseum.

Led by Brownell, the Tigers won their first-ever game in Chapel Hill against North Carolina on Jan. 11, 2020. Three days later, the Tigers topped No. 3 Duke and made Brownell the all-time wins leader in Clemson history by passing Cliff Ellis. All told, Clemson won three games that season against Top-6 ranked opponents – leading the country. Prior to the season being cancelled due to COVID-19, the Tigers defeated Miami in the ACC Tournament – ending the season with a victory for the first time since 1950. Following the season, Aamir Simms earned All-ACC recognition by being named to the All-ACC Third Team.

The Tigers won 20 games in back-to-back seasons (2017-19) for the first time since 2009-10 and 2010-11. Those 45 combined victories over those two campaigns are the third-most wins in back-to-back seasons in Clemson history.

HEAD COACH BRAD BROWNELL

Following the 2018-19 season, two Tigers earned All-ACC recognition with Marcquise Reed named to the All-ACC Third Team and Elijah Thomas earning back-to-back selections to the All-ACC Defensive team.

Clemson turned in a banner season under Brownell in 2017-18 – advancing to just the 12th NCAA Tournament in program history, including the program's fourth Sweet 16. Clemson's 25-10 record tied the school mark for wins in a season. For the remarkable year, Brownell was named National College Coach of the Year by Sports Illustrated. Clemson posted a program record 11 ACC regular season wins in 2017-18, making it the seventh time in program history the Tigers have won 10 or more games in the ACC, and four have now come under Brownell's watch.

Brownell's squad was picked to finish 13th in the ACC Preseason Media Poll and ended up finishing tied for third in the final ACC standings – the largest differential from preseason media poll to postseason seasons finish in league history (since 1970).

The Tigers finished 15-1 at home during the regular season – tying the program mark for most regular season home wins in a single year. The team won 11 ACC regular season games and defeated 10 different ACC teams along the way for the first time in history.

Brownell saw four players earn All-ACC recognition at the end of the season. Marcquise Reed earned All-ACC Second-Team, Gabe DeVoe was named All-ACC Honorable Mention and Elijah Thomas was named to the All-ACC Defensive Team. Shelton Mitchell was named second-team All-ACC Tournament. Both Reed and DeVoe were named ACC Players of the Week during the season.

In 2015-16, Brownell's program made a number of strides. The Tigers were 10-8 and finished in a tie for seventh in the ACC, ahead of Final Four participant Syracuse. Clemson defeated four ranked teams, including three in the same week to become the first ACC team to do that in the regular season since Wake Forest in 2003.

Brownell guided the Tigers to a landmark road overtime win over Syracuse on Jan. 5, 2016, before coaching Clemson to wins over Louisville, Duke and Miami all in the same week. Duke and Miami were ranked in the top 10, giving the Clemson program its first back to back wins over top-10 teams since 1975-76. His team added a landmark victory in 2016-17 at South Carolina, ranked in the top 25 at the time of the meeting. It gave the Tigers a win over an eventual Final Four team for a second straight season.

Brownell coached two-time All-ACC forward Jaron Blossomgame, who was also named 2016 Most Improved Player in the conference by the media and coaches. Blossomgame had a monumental junior campaign, averaging over 20 points per game with the third-highest ACC regular season point total in Clemson history. He finished his career fifth in program history with 1,733 points.

Brownell's 2014-15 team posted an 8-10 mark in the ACC regular season, which included a win at Sweet 16 participant NC State. The Tigers also defeated a pair of NCAA Tournament teams from the SEC, LSU and a top-25 Arkansas squad.

The 2013-14 team finished with a 23-13 record and advanced to New York City for the NIT semifinals. Among Clemson's 23 wins were 10 during conference play, which led to a sixth-place finish in the ACC — no small feat considering the Tigers were predicted to finish 14th by league media in the preseason.

Clemson improved by 10 wins over 2012-13, matching the school record for the best single-season improvement. The Tigers also doubled their conference win total over the previous season, becoming just the fourth team in Clemson history to reach double digit ACC wins.

Clemson won all season long with a stout defense, one that yielded a program ACC era record 58.4 points per game. Brownell and his staff also did it by coaching the ACC's free throw champions, a first for a Tiger team in 61 seasons as a member of the conference. The Tigers' biggest win came at home against No. 13 Duke, a 72-59 victory that proved to be the Blue Devils' largest margin of defeat all season.

Brownell and his staff coached K.J. McDaniels to a terrific individual season. The junior small forward was named first-team All-ACC and was the first Tiger to be named ACC Defensive Player of the Year. He posted top-10 single-season school marks for points (614), blocks (100), free throws made (154), free throw percentage (.842) and minutes played (1,212). McDaniels declared early for the NBA Draft and was selected 32nd overall. He completed his third NBA season in 2016-17 and is now playing overeas.

In 2012-13, Brownell coached Devin Booker to third-team All-ACC honors.

In 2011-12, Brownell's second team went 16-15 and 8-8 in ACC play — a record fifth straight season the Tigers were .500 or better in conference games. His program defeated three teams that advanced to the NCAA Tournament, including eventual Sweet 16 participant NC State and No. 22 Virginia.

Brownell's team was second in the ACC in scoring defense for a second straight season, yielding just 60.6 points per game. He coached Andre Young, a member of the All-ACC Defensive Team and the conference's leader in steals per game during the 2011-12 regular season.

Academically, the men's basketball program recorded one of its best all-around years under Brownell's leadership in 2011-12. The team had the highest cumulative GPA on record for a semester (3.13) in the fall, also the top GPA among Clemson men's athletic teams. In the spring, four players were named to the All-ACC Academic Team, including Tanner Smith, just the second four-time selection in Clemson history.

Brownell established a Clemson record for wins by a first-year coach in 2010-11 when he led the Tigers to a 22-12 overall record. The Tigers won a first-round NCAA Tournament game over UAB, the program's first tournament victory in 14 years.

Brownell was the only first-year coach to lead his team to an NCAA Tournament win in 2011. He has taken each of his three schools (Clemson, UNC Wilmington, Wright State) to the "Big Dance" in his first year at each stop.

Clemson compiled a 9-7 record during the ACC regular season and with a Senior Day victory over Virginia Tech on March 5, Brownell's squad clinched the No. 4 seed and a first-round bye at the ACC Tournament.

Brownell's 2011 Tigers won an ACC Tournament and NCAA Tournament game in the same season at Clemson for the first time since 1990. His club defeated Boston College 70-47 in the quarterfinals of the ACC Tournament, the second-largest margin of victory in Clemson history at the event.

He coached Demontez Stitt to third-team All-ACC honors in 2011. Stitt went on to be named first-team All-ACC Tournament as well. Fellow senior Jerai Grant flourished in his lone season under Brownell's teaching. Grant averaged career highs 12.4 points and 6.7 rebounds per game, and was also an All-ACC Defensive Team member.

Prior to Clemson, in his two previous head coaching stops, Brownell took the program to a school record number of wins as a Division I member. He had a 25-win season at UNC Wilmington in 2005-06 and a 23-win season at Wright State in 2006-07. He has had 25-win and 23-win seasons at Clemson.

Brownell guided UNC Wilmington to the NCAA Tournament in 2003 and 2006 and Wright State to the NCAAs in 2007.

Brownell joined the Clemson family after coaching Wright State to a 20-12 record in 2009-10, with a third straight 12-6 Horizon League record. In four seasons with the Raiders, his teams compiled an overall mark of 84-45, including 49-21 against Horizon League foes.

Brownell's 2007 NCAA Tournament appearance at Wright State was the school's first in 14 seasons. He did it behind the strength of a 15-3 conference record and two wins in the conference tourney.

Brownell coached several standouts at Wright State, including the Horizon League Player of the Year, a first-team selection, an all-league defensive team member and two all-newcomer members in 2007-08. In 2009-10, he coached guard Vaughn Duggins to second-team All-Horizon League honors.

Brownell was the head coach at UNC Wilmington from 2002-03 through the 2005-06 season and posted an 83-40 record, including a 52-20 mark against conference teams. In his four years at Wright State he posted a 55-24 record against conference foes (including conference tournament games).

Brownell was named CAA Coach of the Year in 2002-03 and 2005-06 and the Horizon League Coach of the Year in 2007-08. Additionally, Brownell was one of 15 finalists for the Hugh Durham Coach of the Year Award for mid-major programs in 2007 and was the NABC District 10 Coach of the Year. FoxSports.com also named him the Mid-Major Coach of the Year in 2006, his final year at UNC Wilmington.

Brownell began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Evansville under Jim Crews in 1991-92 and he helped that program to a 24-6 record. He served as an assistant at the University of Indianapolis in 1992-93 and 1993-94.

He then started a 12-year-run at UNC Wilmington, eight as an assistant or associate head coach, and four as the head coach. He was an assistant for the Seahawks from 1994-95 through 2001-02. His final year as an assistant under Jerry Wainwright, UNC Wilmington posted a 23-10 record, including a 17-4 mark versus conference teams (including the CAA Tournament). That team defeated Southern California in the first round of the NCAA Tournament in overtime.

His four-year CAA head coaching record was 61-22, the best league mark during the period. Brownell was twice named the CAA Coach of the Year (2003 and 2006). He coached five All-CAA performers, one CAA Player of the Year in Brett Blizzard, four All-Defensive Team selections, one Defensive Player of the Year and seven CAA All-Academic honorees.

UNC Wilmington posted a 25-8 mark his final season, 2005-06, including a victory over Final Four participant George Mason, and won the CAA Tournament. The Seahawks lost in overtime to George Washington, 88-85, in the NCAA Tournament that year.

His first UNC Wilmington team (2002-03) won 24 games and won the CAA Tournament. His club lost in the first round of the NCAA Tournament to defending national champion Maryland on a buzzer beater, 75-73.

Brownell, who turns 53 on Nov. 15, 2021 earned three letters at DePauw University, a Division III school in Greencastle, Ind. He ranks seventh in school history with 332 career assists. He led the Tigers in assists three straight seasons, while also leading DePauw in steals as a junior in 1989-90.

Brownell earned his bachelor's degree from DePauw in 1991 and completed his master's degree at the University of Indianapolis in 1994. He is a graduate of Harrison High School in Evansville, where he was a high school teammate of Calbert Cheaney, who later became the National Player of the Year in 1993 at Indiana.

Brownell and his wife, Paula, have two daughters, Abby, and Kate, who are both graduates of Clemson.

- 4TH SEASON AT CLEMSON
- 25TH OVERALL SEASON
- UNC WILMINGTON '99
- HEAD COACH AT WRIGHT STATE AND KANSAS CITY

THE DONLON FILE

Born: William Joseph Donlon on February 10, 1977 in Northbrook, Illinois.

Education: Earned bachelor's degree from UNC Wilmington in history in 1999.

Playing Experience: Earned four varsity letters as a player at UNC Wilmington, playing 118 games. He finished with 901 points and at the time of his graduation was the all-time assist leader (456) – currently third in UNCW history.

Coaching Experience: Assistant Coach at American University, 1999-00. Assistant Coach at Saint Peter's, 2000-01. Assistant Coach at UNC Wilmington, 2002-06. Associate Head Coach at Wright State, 2006-10. Head Coach at Wright State, 2010-16. Assistant Coach at Michigan, 2016-17. Assistant Coach at Northwestern, 2017-19. Head Coach at Kansas City, 2019-22. Associate Head Coach at Clemson, 2022-present.

Billy Donlon enters his fourth season as associate head coach at Clemson in 2025-26. Prior to his time in Tigertown, he served as the head coach at Kansas City for three seasons.

In just three seasons in Clemson, Coach Donlon's impact has been felt at the highest levels. The Tigers have won 74 games over the last three seasons, the most in program history, while also posting a .717 (43-17) win percentage in the ACC over that same period. That is the highest in a three-year span in program history.

Donlon works in lockstep with Coach Sean Dixon and Coach Brownell on the Tigers' defense and guard group. Each season the production from Clemson's guards has shown through, most recently with Chase Hunter earning All-ACC First Team honors. Jaeden Zackery earned 2025 All-Defensive Team honors, while Joseph Girard III broke Clemson's 3-point record in 2023-24 that stood since Terrell McIntyre set it at the end of his career in 1999.

Donlon has been instrumental with the Tiger guards and their success has shined bright since he arrived in 2022. Chase Hunter blossomed into one of the most dangerous guards in the country and was critical in the Tigers' success in 2024-25 and the 2024 NCAA Tournament run to the Elite Eight. Hunter was named All-West Region after averaging 17.8 points, 5.8 assists and 4.3 rebounds.

The Northbrook, Ill. native also was the main recruiter for Joseph Girard III during the offseason prior to 2023-24 and Jaeden Zackery in 2024-25. Girard turned in the best year of his five-year collegiate career while at Clemson and set many program records in the process. Zackery was a steady source of scoring and top tier defensive play.

Defensively, Clemson ranked second in the ACC and 17th nationally in 2024-25 (65.8 points allowed per game), while finishing third in the league in steals per game (7.4), turnovers forced per game (13.29) and 3-point defense (31.9 percent).

In three NCAA Tournament wins in 2024 that advanced Clemson to the Elite Eight for the first time in 44 years, Clemson limited its opponent to just 14-of-75 from three (18.7%).

In three seasons as the Kansas City Men's Basketball head coach, he finished 46-39 (.541), including a 27-20 (.574) record in conference play. Overall as a head coach, Donlon holds a 155-133 (.538) record.

Donlon's third year leading the Roos was his most successful. He finished 19-12, including a 12-6 mark in league play. Of the 19 wins, one included a 80-66 victory on the road at SEC foe Missouri.

The 19 victories were the most in program history since joining a conference.

In Donlon's second year at the helm during the pandemic-shortened 2020-21 season, he led the Roos through their return to the Summit League, guiding them to a .500 record in conference play. In Summit competition, the Roos swept Omaha and Denver, splitting decisions with North Dakota, North Dakota State and Oral Roberts, who later went on to qualify for the 2020-21 NCAA Sweet Sixteen.

Buying in to Donlon's hard-nosed defensive style, the Roos were the top-rated defensive team in the Summit, allowing just 62.6 points per game, the 17th-best mark in Division One. KC also ranked first in the conference in three-point percentage defense (.325), rebounding defense (30.0), turnover margin (3.21), assists (14.79) and steals (7.92).

Donlon's 2020-21 squad was led by Brandon McKissic, who earned Second Team All-Summit, Summit League Defensive Player of the Year and Lefty Driesell Defensive All-American honors. Additionally, the Roos' Josiah Allick was named Second Team All-Summit.

Donlon made amazing strides as he took over the Roos Men's Basketball program at the start of the 2019-20 season. The Northbrook, Ill., native recorded the second-most wins (16) as a first-year head coach in school history ending with a 16-14 overall mark. He led the Roos to a 7-3 stretch to end the season, cut short by the COVID-19 pandemic.

When looking at the numbers across the board, the 16-14 overall record marked the most wins in three years and the .533 win percentage was the highest since 2010-11. In conference play, the Roos posted eight victories, which was the highest output in their Western Athletic Conference history. Playing in the newly renovated Swinney Center, Kansas City went 9-4 at home and tied the second-best home start in school history at 6-0.

Under Donlon's guidance, the Roos had a positive start to the season. Kansas City won its ninth game in the 16th overall contest to begin the year 9-7. That start marked the fastest output to nine wins since the 2010- 11 program. Additionally, with five wins prior to Dec. 1, the Roos collected the most victories before the calendar flipped into December since 2016-17. A non-conference highlight was advancing to the championship game of The Island of Bahamas Showcase on Nov. 24. The Roos lost against Liberty, a team that advanced to the Round of 32 in the 2019 NCAA Tournament, but proved to the world they were a team to be reckoned with.

Donlon preached team defense and his team demonstrated it – Kansas City ranked 23rd in the country in 3-point field goal defense (29.7%), 33rd in steals per game (8.1) and 47th in turnovers forced (15.2).

In his first KC recruiting class for 2020, he brought in five decorated recruits, including two local Kansas City prospects from Truman High School and North Kansas City High School.

Donlon was introduced as the seventh head coach in Kansas City men's basketball history on March 28th, 2019.

After spending the last three seasons as an assistant coach (2016-19) in power five conferences, Donlon arrived at Kansas City. Prior to KC, Donlon joined the Northwestern men's basketball program as an assistant coach in June 2017. During Donlon's time as an assistant coach at Northwestern, the Wildcats went a combined 28-36.

Donlon's lone season in Ann Arbor saw Michigan post a 26-12 record, including winning four games in four days to capture the Big Ten tournament title. The Wolverines went on to advance to the Sweet 16 round of the NCAA tournament.

Donlon made the move to Michigan after spending a decade at Wright State, including the final six years as the program's head coach. In those six seasons (2010-16), Donlon compiled a 109-94 record with three 20-plus win seasons and helped the Raiders reach the Horizon League Tournament title game three times (2013, '14, '16). In addition, Donlon's squads tied the program marks for wins with 23 in 2013 and conference wins with 13 in 2016.

After his 2013 squad was picked to finished last in the preseason, Donlon went on to be named the Horizon League's Coach of the Year. He guided the Raiders to a 10-win improvement, tying the school record with 23 wins, the No. 3 seed and a championship game appearance in the Horizon League Tournament as well as a semifinal appearance in the College Basketball Invitational (CBI). He was also named a finalist for the Skip Prosser Man of the Year Award and the Hugh Durham Coach of the Year Award given to the nation's top mid-major coach.

During his tenure, he coached five players to All-Horizon League honors — Vaughn Duggins (2011, 1st), N'Gai Evans (2011, 2nd), Julius Mays (2012, 2nd), Cole Darling (2013, 2nd) and A.J. Pacher (2014, 2nd). In 2012, Mays was also named the Horizon Newcomer of the Year and was a member of the All-Newcomer Team. Known for his defensive strategies, Wright State's defense ranked as high as 16th nationally in 2013, and he had two players selected as the Horizon League All-Defensive Team — Matt Vest (2014) and Joe Thomasson (2016).

Before his promotion to head coach in 2010, Donlon served as the associate head coach under Brad Brownell for four seasons (2007-10). He helped Wright State to four straight 20-plus win seasons, the 2007 Horizon League regular-season and tournament title and an automatic bid to the 2007 NCAA Tournament, where the Raiders lost in the first round to Pittsburgh.

Before joining Wright State, Donlon was an assistant at his alma mater UNC Wilmington for four seasons (2002-06), coaching again under Brownell. Donlon assisted the Seahawks to a pair of NCAA tournament appearances (2003, '06) and two Colonial Athletic Association (CAA) regular-season and tournament titles (2003, '06).

Following his collegiate playing career at UNCW, Donlon began his coaching career as an assistant at American University (1999-2000) before moving on to Saint Peter's for a season (2000-01). Following the 2001 season, Donlon spent a year playing professionally overseas with Irish National Team, as well as stops in France and Germany.

As a collegiate player, Donlon was a star guard at UNC Wilmington for four seasons (1996-99), playing in 118 career games. He finished with 901 points and at the time of his graduation he was the Seahawks all-time assist leader with 456, which currently stands fourth in UNCW history. He was a member of the Colonial Athletic Association's (CAA) All-Rookie Team in 1996 and led the team in assists as a junior (5.6 apg) and senior (5.2 apg).

Donlon, who earned a history degree in 1999 from UNCW, received one of the CAA's most prestigious honors in his senior year. He was selected as the recipient of the Dean Ehlers Award for Leadership, presented annually to the player who embodies the highest standards of leadership, integrity and sportsmanship through academic and athletic achievements.

He is married to the former Melissa McCracken and they reside in Clemson. The couple has two kids, Emily and William. Billy also has a daughter, Maren.

- 16TH OVERALL SEASON
- PRESBYTERIAN '07

Sean Dixon enters his fourth season as an assistant coach on Brad Brownell's staff. Prior to Clemson he served as an assistant coach at Middle Tennessee State for four seasons under Head Coach Nick McDevitt.

Coach Dixon arrived in Tigertown the same time as Associate Head Coach Billy Donlon. The Tigers have won 74 games over the last three seasons since his arrival, including 43 wins in the ACC. Dixon works in lockstep with Donlon and Coach Brownell on the Tigers' defense. Dixon works primarily with the Tigers' wing players.

Clemson ranked second in the ACC and 17th nationally in 2024-25 (65.8 points allowed per game), while finishing third in the league in steals per game (7.4), turnovers forced per game (13.29) and 3-point defense (31.9 percent). In three NCAA Tournament wins in 2024 that advanced Clemson to the Elite Eight for the first time in 44 years, Clemson limited its opponent to just 14-of-75 from three (18.7%).

Dixon spent the five seasons prior to Middle Tennessee also under McDevitt with the UNC Asheville Bulldogs. He was an assistant coach in 2013-14 when McDevitt was named head coach before being elevated to the position of associate head coach prior to the 2017-18 season. Dixon specialized in guard development and was McDevitt's recruiting coordinator while in Asheville.

The Bulldogs saw high levels of success in Dixon's five years alongside McDevitt on the Asheville bench, notching a 98-66 record that includes three 20-win seasons and postseason appearances in their final three campaigns.

UNC Asheville also collected three Big South trophies in the last three seasons of the McDevitt era, with Dixon helping lead the team to a Big South Tournament title in 2016, a share of the regular season title in 2017 and an outright regular season title in 2018.

Prior to joining McDevitt in Asheville, Dixon spent four years on the coaching staff at his alma mater, Presbyterian College.

ASSISTANT COACHES

DICK BENDER

- 14TH SEASON AT CLEMSON
- WESTERN MARYLAND '86

Dick Bender, Clemson's director of men's basketball operations from 2010-14, returned to the program as an assistant coach for the Tigers in the summer of 2016. Bender worked two seasons as an assistant coach under Earl Grant, who left Clemson in 2014 to take the head coaching position at College of Charleston. He is now the head coach at Boston College. Bender enters his 14th season overall as an assistant in 2025-26. Bender brings 40 years of collegiate coaching and administration experience, including 39 at the Division I level.

Bender works primarily with Clemson's post players and with Head Coach Brad Brownell on the Tigers' offense. Clemson has seen an uptick in production in both areas over the last seven seasons, including 74 wins overall and 43 ACC victories since the start of 2022-23.

Since 2017-18, Clemson has made 3-pointers at a rate not seen in Tigertown. The top four 3-point make outputs in program history have been recorded, including a record number in 2023-24 (296).

Since switching to the Clemson post player position group, the Tigers have seen much success. PJ Hall has been a two-time All-ACC player for Clemson, including finishing seventh in program history in scoring. Ian Schieffelin enjoyed a career year in 2024-25 after averaging 10.1 points and 9.4 rebounds en route to the ACC's Most Improved Player award in 2023-24. Schieffelin upped his scoring to 12.9 points per game as a senior.

Viktor Lakhin, although only with the team for one season, enjoyed a career year shooting the basketball. Lakhin shot a career-high 37.5 percent from three and scored a career-best 388 points. He also totaled career bests in blocks (50) and steals (52).

Bender had a positive effect on Clemson's lead guards in his first five seasons back on staff. Marcquise Reed emerged as a top scoring threat for the Tigers in 2017-18 – leading the team with 15.8 points per contest, while adding 116 assists (second on the squad). Reed upped that averaged to nearly 20.0 points per game in 2018-19, while becoming a 1,000-point scorer in a Tiger uniform. Reed made second-team All-ACC in 2017-18 and third-team All-ACC in 2018-19. Shelton Mitchell made second-team All-ACC Tournament. He was the Tigers' second-leading scorer and posted over 100 assists in his first season at Clemson, while upping his points-per-game to a career-high 12.2 and finished with a team-best and career-high 119 assists in 2017-18. Combined with All-NCAA Regional selection Gabe DeVoe, the Tigers won 25 games in 2017-18.

In 2020-21, young backourt players Al-Amir Dawes and Nick Honor were keys to Clemson's run to the NCAA Tournament. Avry Holmes led the ACC in three-point shooting percentage in 2016-17 and Bender saw the Tigers win 17 games in his first season, including a 62-60 thriller at South Carolina, a team that went on to the Final Four.

In two seasons at Charleston, Bender helped orchestrate an eight-win improvement overall from 2014-15 to 2015-16. The Cougars went 17-14 in Bender's second season on staff, with an 8-10 record in the Colonial Athletic Association. Six of the Cougars' players earned postseason honors, including Cameron Johnson, an All-CAA Third Team and All-Defensive Team selection.

Bender served as Clemson's operations director in Brad Brownell's first four seasons, 2010-14. During that stretch, the program compiled a 74-58 record and advanced to the postseason on two occasions, including the 2011 NCAA Tournament. In his first season at Clemson in 2010-11, Bender was an important part of the staff that led the Tigers to a 22-12 final record. Clemson was the No. 4 seed in the ACC Tournament with a 9-7 record. The Tigers advanced to the NCAA Tournament for a record fourth straight season and won their first-round game over UAB, 70-52, in Dayton, Ohio.

Bender began his collegiate coaching career at DePauw in 1987 under the late Royce Waltman. He helped the Division III Tigers to an outstanding four-year overall record of 80-30 and to a national runner-up finish in the 1990 NCAA Tournament. One of the players he coached was Brad Brownell.

Bender was reunited with Waltman as part of the staff at Indiana State and coached with the Sycamores for 10 seasons from 1997-07. He helped ISU to consecutive 20-win seasons and NCAA Tournament appearances in 1999-00 and 2000-01. THE ASSALEY FILE

Born: Lewis Andrew Assaley II on January 6, 1974 in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Education: Earned bachelor's degree in economics from Cincinnati in 1996. Earned master's degree in labor and employee relations from Cincinnati in 1998.

Experience: Volunteer assistant video coordinator at Cincinnati, 2001-03. Sports program associate at Cincinnati, 2003-05. Assistant to the Head Coach at Cincinnati, 2005-06. Video Coordintor at Kansas State, 2006-07. Director of Operations at Kansas State, 2007-12. Director of Operations at South Carolina, 2012-22. Director of Operations at Clemson, 2022-present.

Andy Assaley enters his fourth season at Clemson as the director of basketball operations. He previously served 10 seasons at South Carolina as the director of basketball operations for Head Coach Frank Martin. Assaley served in the same capacity at Kansas State under Coach Martin from 2007-2012.

Clemson has enjoyed success on and off the court since Assaley's arrival in Tigertown. Clemson has won 74 games over the past three seasons – the second-most in consecutive seasons in program history and second most in the ACC during that time. The Tigers made a run to the NCAA Elite Eight in 2023-24, the program's second Elite Eight appearance in program history (1980).

In 2024-25, the Tigers won a program-best 26 regular season games, and 27 total wins –another program record. The Tigers topped its 2022-23 ACC win total of 14 with a program record 18 victories.

The Gamecocks had success during Assaley's time on staff. After the 2014-15 team posted its first winning record since the 2009-10 campaign, the 2015-16 Gamecocks put together one of the top seasons in their history, matching a school record for wins with a 25-9 overall record, while the Gamecocks reached double-digit SEC wins for just the fourth time since joining the league, posting an 11-7 mark in conference contests, marking the Gamecocks' best finish in the league since the SEC combined its East and West Divisions in 2012.

The 2016-17 season would be the best in school history, as the Gamecocks set a school record with 26 wins, advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2004, posted the first program win in the NCAA Tournament since 1973, and advanced to the school's first-ever Final Four, falling by just four points, 77-73, to Gonzaga in the national semifinals in Phoenix. South Carolina captured back-to-back 20-win seasons for the first time since a string of three-straight 20-win campaigns from 2003-2006, and the Gamecocks posted double-digit league victories for just the fifth time since joining the SEC in 1992. The Gamecocks also posted double-digit wins in SEC play again in 2019 and 2020.

Assaley was instrumental for the Gamecock staff in working with the academic advisor group at the Dodie Anderson Academic Enrichment Center. South Carolina has excelled in the classroom during Martin's tenure as head coach, collecting numerous SEC and campus academic honors, while also several times earning the NABC's Team Academic Excellence Award, honoring those program's with a cumulative team GPA of 3.0 or higher for the season.

Prior to his time at South Carolina, Assaley played a key support role in helping to build the Kansas State program during his six seasons on staff with the Wildcats. The program posted at least 20 wins each season and advanced to the postseason every year, including four trips to the NCAA Tournament.

The Wildcats advanced to the Postseason NIT in 2007, Assaley's first season on staff where he served as video coordinator, posting an overall record of 23-12, the first of six-consecutive 20-win campaigns by K-State. Assaley was named the director of operations shortly following the conclusion of the season.

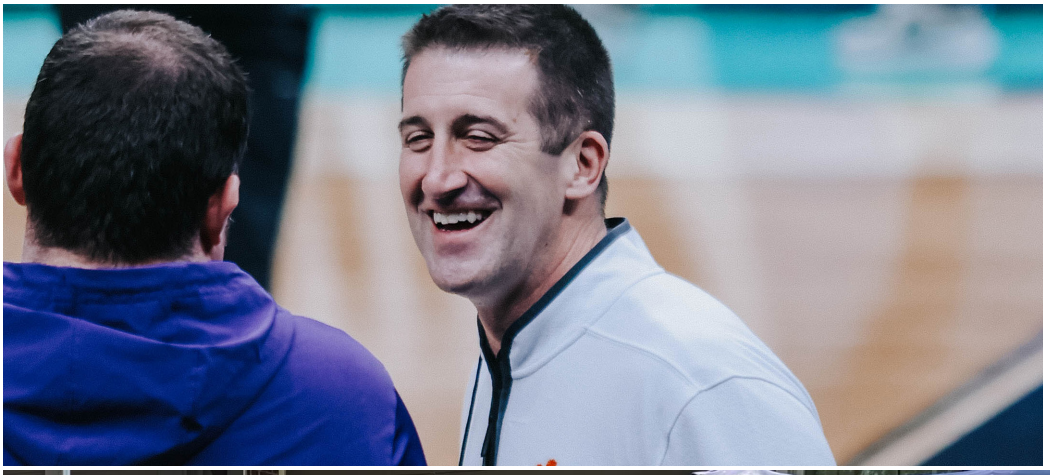

Assaley played a role in the Wildcats posting their first NCAA Tournament victory since 1988 after posting a 21-12 overall record, including a third-place finish in the Big 12 with a 10-6 mark during the 2007-08 season. The finish in league play was the highest for the Wildcats since the inception of the league.

The 2008-09 squad posted 22 wins and earned an at-large bid to the Postseason NIT, which set the stage for a record-setting season in 2009-10, when the team posted a school-record 29 wins, en route to the program's first NCAA Tournament Elite Eight appearance in over two decades. The Wildcats defeated six ranked opponents that season, and concluded the year ranked in the Top 10 in both the ESPN/USA Today Coaches Top 25 Poll (No. 7) and the Associated Press Top 25 Poll (No. 7).

Kansas State followed with two more 20-win seasons, compiling a 23-11 mark in 2010-11 and a 22-11 record during the 2011-12 season. The squad advanced to the NCAA Tournament third round both years, and finished third and fifth, respectively in the Big 12 during those seasons.

Assaley joined the K-State staff as video coordinator on April 26, 2006, for then-head coach Bob Huggins. Assaley spent the previous five years at Cincinnati in a number of capacities for both Huggins and Andy Kennedy, first serving as a volunteer, before being promoted to video coordinator and assistant to the head coach. During his tenure, the Bearcats posted 119 victories and advanced to the NCAA Tournament four times.

Assaley received both his bachelor's and master's degrees from Cincinnati, earning his undergraduate degree in economics in 1996 and his master's in labor and employee relations in 1998. Assaley and his wife, Sarah, are the parents of three daughters, Cali, a recent graduate of the University of Louisiana Monroe where she played volleyball, Isabella and Payton, and a son, Will.

His career continued to flourish as he joined Western Carolina for his final two years of eligibility, earning a pair of All-SoCon selections, earning third team honors as a junior and first team honors as a senior. He averaged 15.5 points and 9.7 rebounds per game, including 17.5 points and 10.9 rebounds per game in league play. He finished the year shooting 61.0% from the field and was a two-time SoCon Player of the Week and February SoCon Player of the Month recipient. He was a Lou Henson All-America Team member and claimed a spot on the NABC All-District 21 First Team in 2019-20. He graduated with a bachelor of arts in sociology in May 2021.

Dotson moved to Spartanburg, S.C. to attend Dorman High School, where he played basketball as well as a defensive end for the football team before ultimately turning his focus to basketball.

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

GRAHAM NEFF

- DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS
- 3rd FULL SEASON AS DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS AT CLEMSON
- 11TH FULL SEASON AT CLEMSON
- GEORGIA TECH '06

Graham Neff was named Clemson's 14th Director of Athletics on December 23, 2021 in the midst of his ninth year at Clemson and is now in his third year in the role. During his tenure, Neff has established himself as a forward-thinking leader with a focus on student-athlete well-being and academic and athletic success. Additionally, he's helped to navigate a complicated national landscape, working closely with key stakeholders to stay at the forefront of the issues with an emphasis on the impacts to Clemson.

He's overseen significant facility development, including investments at football and a women's sport expansion project to house Clemson's new lacrosse and gymnastics teams. He led the bringing of Clemson's multimedia rights in-house, developed a comprehensive NIL program and launched a streaming service, Clemson+. IPTAY has seen record-breaking growth in the past year, which included the largest gift in IPTAY history.

On the field, it's led to significant results. In the 2022-23 season, Clemson's teams won four ACC Championships in a single season for the first time since 1998-99. In the 2023-24 year, four programs advanced to national quarterfinals in a single season, an accomplishment that hasn't occurred since 1979-80. And, in 2023 the Men's Soccer program claimed its second National Championship in three years.

He has been in senior leadership positions within Clemson Athletics since 2013, including as chief financial officer and director of capital projects prior to his most recent role as deputy director of athletics. Neff has helped oversee the build and financing of more than $200 million in facility improvements, aided in the continued development of IPTAY, and served as a sport administrator for football and men's basketball.

Neff works consistently with key university stakeholders, including the university Executive Leadership Team, The Board of Trustees, IPTAY Board of Directors, Athletics Council, as well as several university committees and appointments.

During his time as a sport supervisor, the football program won two national championships, the men's basketball program made a pair of NCAA Tournament appearances, including a Sweet 16 run in 2018. Academically, Clemson's graduation success rate has been above 91 percent for ten consecutive years, tops the nation among public Power Five institutions with a 97 percent mark for the most recent data release, and student-athlete total GPA has been above 3.0 for 12 straight semesters.

Neff has helped develop several key areas of the department, including the financial philosophy, fundraising, student-athlete welfare, and external operations management, and in 2019 was named one of Sports Business Daily's Power Players and in 2021 was named to SBJ's 40 Under 40 list.

Prior to his role as Deputy AD, he joined Clemson in 2013 as Associate AD of Finance and Facilities. Before Clemson, Neff served two-plus years in several senior administrative roles at Middle Tennessee State Athletics, with emphasis in finance, facilities and external operations.

A civil engineering graduate of Georgia Tech, he served as a student manager for Coach Paul Hewitt and the men's basketball program, advancing to a Final Four in 2004. Neff worked in the Financial Advisory Services group at Deloitte and Touche from 2006 to 2008, prior to returning to a finance and ticketing role at the Georgia Tech Athletic Association. He earned an MBA from Georgia Tech in 2010.

Neff and his wife Kristin have three sons, Grady and twins Emmett and Nolan.

RAISING THE BAR

CLEMSON IS TIED FOR 15TH NATIONALLY WITH TWO SWEET 16 APPEARANCES SINCE 2018 AND MADE THE PROGRAM'S FIRST ELITE EIGHT SINCE 1980.

BY BEN WINTERROWD

ONLY ONCE HAD CLEMSON BEEN TO AN ELITE EIGHT, AND ONLY four times had the Tigers been to a Sweet 16. To add perspective, three times as many American astronauts have walked on the moon compared to Clemson's Sweet 16 appearances. Now Clemson has been to the second weekend twice in the last six seasons, including the program's second-ever Elite Eight appearance – with 44 years separating the two. History made.

Sunday, March 12, 2023, is a day that Tiger fans and the Clemson Basketball staff and players will remember forever. Clemson was snubbed from an NCAA Tournament appearance after a 23-win season, including a program record 14 ACC wins, not to mention two All-League players in Hunter Tyson and PJ Hall.

That moment fueled the fire for 2024.

Leave No Doubt

Clemson lost All-ACC First Team member and team captain Hunter Tyson to the 2023 NBA Draft after he was selected 37th overall by the Oklahoma City Thunder (pick traded to Denver Nuggets). They also lost Brevin Galloway and Ben Middlebrooks as they looked to reload for another run at the NCAA Tournament.

A great core was returning for Head Coach Brad Brownell's team, but there were a few pieces that still needed to be ironed out before the roster was finalized.

Enter guard Joseph Girard III.

A veteran of 125 games in the ACC with league foe Syracuse, Girard helped stabilize the backcourt with Chase Hunter and boost the team's distance shooting, which later proved to be historic. Adding Girard was a coup for the basketball staff, who also brought in Jack Clark (NC State) and Bas Leyte (UNCG).

Fully reloaded after 2023, there was a chip on the shoulder of everyone in 2024, and it showed early in the season.

The Tigers won their season opener against Winthrop before claiming their second regular season tournament championship in the last four years with victories over UAB and Davidson at the Asheville Championship. They won home games against perennial NCAA Tournament member Boise State and Alcorn State and were 5-0 heading into the first annual ACC/SEC Challenge.

Built For This

Coach Brownell's message to the team in Tuscaloosa was that they were "built for this." The message was when the Tigers play at their best, they can compete with anyone, anytime and anywhere.

"I told the team, we're built for this. We have an older group, we're experienced, we were a good team last year. We need to weather the storm," Brownell recalled telling the team after Alabama made a run in the second half.

The Tigers in 2023-24 were certainly built to take another team's best punch and respond. It was key for them during a difficult stretch in November and December.

The game against Alabama started a demanding stretch of games for the Tigers that included a road game at the Crimson Tide, road game at Pittsburgh, home to South Carolina, neutral site game against TCU and a road game at Memphis.

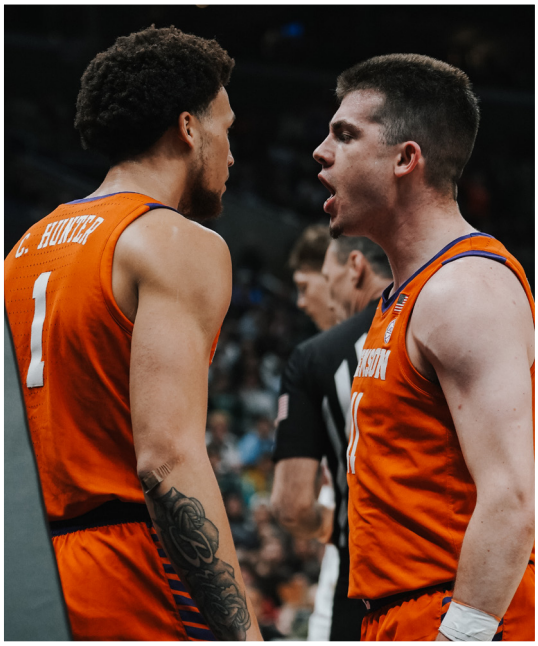

Clemson came out of that stretch 4-1 and was playing some of its best basketball.

The Tigers finished the non-conference slate of games 10-1 and were 11-1 before the start of the New Year with their first ACC victory over Pittsburgh.

Taking Punches

Clemson opened the New Year ranked No. 16 in the Associated Press Poll. They dropped the next three games and finished January with a 3-5 record. They began February with another gut-punching one-point loss to Virginia.

The Tigers stood at 4-6 in the ACC, which included one-point losses to Virginia and at Duke, while dropping a home game in overtime to Georgia Tech that they led 68-59 with 1:43 to go in the second half.

"Guys, we need to understand something," Brownell recalled telling his team after the Virginia game. "I think some of you guys think we're the 10-1 team. Right now, we're the 4-6 team. If we go 4-6 again, we won't be playing in the NCAA Tournament. That would be a shame because of what you did the first two months of the year, but also because I think we're good enough to go to the Final Four."

Historic February

The Tigers stood at 4-6 in the ACC and faced something only one Clemson team had ever accomplished, succeeding in a road test at No. 3 North Carolina. The team's focus and preparation were reminiscent of November and December as they prepared for battle in the Dean Dome.

Clemson raced out to a 15-2 lead against the Tar Heels in the opening three-and-a-half minutes of the game, setting the tone. North Carolina would make a run, but the Tigers held firm and led by nine at halftime.

Every punch the Tar Heels threw, Clemson dodged or answered. In a game the Tigers led for 38:22, it was tied twice. The Tar Heels' Harrison Ingram brought the game back square with a 3-pointer to knot it at 70-all.

The Tigers responded with an emphatic 7-0 run to shut the door on its second victory all-time in Chapel Hill and its second in three tries dating back to 2020.

An emotional mid-week road victory can be hard to follow, especially when the next game is a noon Saturday game on the road. The turnaround was quick and emotions remained high as the Tigers looked to climb back to .500 in the league. After scoring 21 points to aid PJ Hall's 25 and Ian Schieffelin's double-double at Carolina, Joseph Girard III was returning to Syracuse.

As surreal as it was to witness, Girard returned home to lots of cheers and lots of boos. He wasn't unfamiliar with the visiting locker room at the JMA Wireless Dome, formerly known as the Carrier Dome. After all, he was 2-0 in there after winning two state football championships at Glens Falls High School.

Girard didn't force anything. He let the game come to him. A team that knew him well didn't make it easy, but Girard broke through with his first triple at the 11:01 mark of the first half. It was part of an explosive 17-1 run by Clemson who would lead by 13 at the break.

Like earlier that week, the Tigers got out to a big lead and were sustaining it in a tough road environment. Their mentality reflected what Coach Brownell told the team in November; they were built for this.

Staving off the hungry home team was no easy feat. The Orange brought the game even at 60-60 with 3:37 to go. Almost like it was scripted, a 7-0 run ensued for the Tigers: Hall bucket, Chase Hunter jumper, Schieffelin 3-pointer and it was 67-60 in one minute and 43 seconds.

As the Tigers looked to close the book on what turned out to be a tremendous storybook ending, Girard added some magic that so often happens in sports. Closing out the game at the free throw line, Girard finished 4-4 in the final minute to seal the win and finish with a game-high 18 points. Coming into the game, he was exactly 18 points shy of 2,000 for his career. Yes, you can be romantic about basketball.

Clemson used the momentum of that week and polished off February with a glistening 6-2 record, its third-most wins in the month in program history. They were right back in the thick of an NCAA Tournament bid.

March Madness

Clemson went 1-3 in March, which included a 22-point loss to Boston College in the second round of the ACC Tournament. There was a bleakness to the rest of the Tigers' season from the outside, but inside, it re-focused a hungry group who had expected themselves to accomplish much more.

Then the Tigers were selected as the No. 6 seed in the NCAA Tournament and facing No. 11 New Mexico.

"It's a special tournament, it's one of the biggest sporting events in the country and the world…it was one of the goals this year, but it's a checkpoint," said Hall after the Selection Show. "We're not just looking to get there. We want to make a run and continue to advance."

"It's a reset," said Girard.

Hunter added, "We've got another tournament and more games to prove ourselves."

Many pundits were taking turns kicking the Tigers while they were down following the ACC Tournament, and Clemson was picked by ESPN as the No. 1 upset pick of the tournament's first round – as if the team needed any more motivation in a return to Memphis where the Tigers had played earlier in the year.

Clemson came out and smacked New Mexico in the mouth. With the score 11-9 in favor of the Tigers, Clemson would go on a 19-0 run to blow the game wide open. It would lead by as many as 23 in the second half, racing away to a 77-56 thrashing.

The Tigers returned to face No. 3 seeded Baylor who did much the same against its first-round opponent, Colgate. Clemson used a couple of runs in the opening stanza to build a lead before Chase Hunter's heroics at the end of the first half on a buzzer-beating 3-pointer extended the lead to 10.

Clemson led by as many as 15 in the second half with Baylor cutting the deficit to just two with 2:19 left. From that point, the Tigers finished 8-for-8 at the foul line to seal the 72-64 victory and advance to just their fifth Sweet 16 in history and the second since 2018.

The celebration in the locker room was everything one would expect from an emotional, hungry ball club that was playing its best basketball and proving doubters wrong in the process.

What happened next was one of the crazier turnarounds for a team riding such an emotional high. Clemson returned home from Memphis at 3:15 a.m. following its win over Baylor, back on the bus at roughly 4 p.m. to head back to the airport to fly to Los Angeles for the West Regional. The trip even included a stop in Oklahoma City to refuel the plane.

The Tigers finally made it to the City of Angels. They would play in the House that Kobe [Bryant] built, with his statue and other Lakers and Kings legends outside the arena.

They would face the No. 2 seeded Arizona Wildcats who figured to have 10-15,000 fans in the arena for the game. They averaged 87.1 points per game and had won 27 contests to that point.

"Make them guard. Do not bail them out," Brownell told the team pregame. "Make these dudes who love playing offense, scoring 87 a game, see how they like to guard. Guys, it ain't sexy, but this is what wins."

The Tigers landed the first punch, jumping out to a 29-16 lead, holding the Wildcats to just 16 points through the opening 14 minutes of the game. They would lead by eight at the break, 39-31.

Coach Brownell warned his team at halftime that Arizona was going to punch back.

"You're gonna get a punch. Okay? Take it and punch back."

That punch came early in the second half as Arizona mounted a 13-4 run to take the lead 46-45. The Tigers responded by Girard finding Jack Clark for a top of the key 3-pointer to regain the lead. Clemson sustained until Arizona tied the game again at 56, but a 9-2 run was the response from the Tigers, and they never looked back.

Following a Wildcat three to cut their deficit to 72-70, Chase Hunter and Dillon Hunter scored back-to-back buckets, including Chase's and-one play to seal the game and send the Tigers to the Elite Eight.

Clemson's season eventually ended with an 89-82 loss to Alabama in the Elite Eight. The Crimson Tide made 16 3-pointers in a rematch from earlier in the season.

This team was special. Fourth-most wins in program history (24), second-most wins in consecutive seasons in program history (47), most ACC wins in consecutive seasons (25) and highest winning percentage over that span in program history (.625), five ACC road wins in 2023-24, tied for the most in history, 12 wins away from home, the most in one season, defeated nine NCAA Tournament teams – the most in one season in history, and won four games against Top 25 teams away from home – the most in history.

Clemson continues to raise the bar in basketball.

Hall and Hunter are ones that have helped raise that bar in basketball under Coach Brownell and it was confirmed following the Tigers' loss in the Elite Eight.

"…we had our eyes set on big goals," said Hall. "Obviously, we've achieved great stuff, but we came up short on what we really wanted to do. It'll set in whenever we get back and reflect a little bit and feel the love from the campus and community and know they had our backs through all of this. It was an incredible ride. It was an expected ride. I'm proud of these guys."

Hunter added, "Him [PJ] and me had a moment in the locker room. I told him we made history. We did some big things for this program. I think with him and me doing that, we've set this program to a new standard. We plan on keep being in games like this."

A perfect encapsulation of Clemson's culture was summarized by Girard following the Elite Eight loss to Alabama. He was asked what he would say to those who were considering coming to Clemson.

"Do it. I mean, this place has been unbelievable. It all goes back to the culture. That's what was attractive to me… Clemson is just an unbelievable place with unbelievable people. They obviously develop their players, and they win a lot of basketball games. Anyone looking forward to living in a great place, playing with great people, playing for great people, and doing great things should go to Clemson."

Hall, Hunter and Girard leave no doubt as they review such a historic season and raise the bar for the future of Clemson Basketball.

- Clemson has also established a school mark for ACC winning percentage with its 18-2 record, a .900 winning percentage. The previous best were the 10-4 records of the 1986-87 and 1989-90 teams. Those teams won .714 of their league games.
- Clemson won its final eight ACC road games, the longest streak of ACC road wins in school history. It is three more than the previous record of five set in 1986-87. That Clemson team won its first five ACC road games before losing at Duke and North Carolina to end its ACC road schedule.
- When Clemson defeated Boston College on March 5 it gave the Tigers at least one victory over 16 of the other 17 ACC schools. Louisville was the only ACC team Clemson did not defeat this year as the Cardinals defeated Clemson 74-64 in Louisville on Jan. 7.
- Clemson's +11.2 points per game victory margin was also a school record for league games.

CLEMSON EARNS FIFTH WIN VS. TOP 8 WINNINGEST PROGRAMS

• Clemson won its fifth game against some of the top eight winningest programs in college basketball.
• Clemson defeated No. 1 Kentucky, No. 3 North Carolina, No. 4 Duke, No. 7 Syracuse and No. 8 Notre Dame.

CLEMSON SETS SCHOOL MARK FOR CONFERENCE WINS AND WIN PERCENTAGE

• Clemson had an 18-2 record in the ACC this year, the most conference wins in a season in school history. It broke the record of the 2022-23 team that finished 14-6 in the ACC.
• It is a significant accomplishment, but it is even more noteworthy when you take into account the winning percentage. Over the years there has been a drastic variation in the number of conference games the Tigers have played from year to year.
• But, a look to the conference winning percentage bests in Clemson history reveals this Clemson team broke the previous record.

• Clemson had a 5-5 ACC road record each of the last two years, but the program has not had a winning league road record since 1986-87 when Horace Grant led Clemson to a 5-2 league road record. The only other winning season on the road in the ACC for Clemson took place in 1976-77, Tree Rollins' senior year, when the Tigers were 4-2 on the ACC road.

CLEMSON SWEEPS ACC NORTH CAROLINA SCHOOLS IN REGULAR SEASON

• Clemson accomplished something the program has never done when the Tigers defeated North Carolina on Feb 10 (85-65). The Tigers finished 4-0 against the ACC's North Carolina schools, victories over Wake Forest, NC State, Duke and North Carolina.
• Clemson has beaten all four ACC schools from North Carolina in the same season eight times previously (now nine), including as recently as 2019-20, but done it just once in the least 29 years, but had at least two losses each of those years.
• Of course we are comparing apples and oranges a bit with this note because teams used to play each league schools twice. The most wins over North Carolina ACC schools in the same year by the Tigers took place in 1976-77 when Clemson had a 7-2 record against these schools. That was Tree Rollins' senior season.

TIGERS HAD TWO WINS OVER TOP 5 TEAMS IN 2024-25

• When Clemson defeated No. 2 Duke on Feb. 8, 2025, it gave the Tigers two wins over Top 5 teams this year. This is just the fifth time Clemson has defeated at least two Top 5 teams (either poll) in the same year, and two of the times have taken place under Head Coach Brad Brownell. Bill Foster coached Clemson teams did it three times in the 1970's.
• Earlier this year Clemson beat No. 4 (AP) Kentucky 70-66 at Littlejohn Coliseum and downed No. 2 Duke on Feb. 8 by a score of 77-71. This is the first time Clemson has beaten two Top 5 teams in the same year since 2019-20 when the Tigers defeated No. 3 Duke and No. 5 Louisville. Prior to that you have to go back 1979-80.

SEASONS CLEMSON HAS BEATEN TWO TOP FIVE TEAMS

Year	Top 5 Wins (AP-Coaches)
2024-25	2, Kentucky (4-6); Duke (2-2)
2019-20	2, Duke (3-3); Louisville (5-5)

1974-75	2, Maryland (3-4); NC State (4-4)

CLEMSON CLINCHES THIRD-STRAIGHT WINNING SEASON WITH WIN OVER NO. 2 DUKE

• Clemson improved to 11-2 in the ACC with its victory over Duke on Feb. 8. That meant in a 20-game ACC regular season schedule, Clemson clinched a winning record for a third straight year. Clemson was 14-6 in the ACC in 2022-23 and 11-9 last season.
• The only other time in history Clemson has had three consecutive winning seasons in ACC play is a four-year streak from 2007-08 to 2010-11. Oliver Purnell was the Clemson coach for the first three years of that run and Brad Brownell for the last year.
• This was the seventh time in Brad Brownell's 15 years at Clemson that the Tigers have had a winning ACC regular season. There were 12 winning league seasons in the 57 years before he came to Clemson.

WALK-ON ZAVIER ANDERSON WAS NAMED CLEMSON'S MOST IMPROVED PLAYER IN 2011 AFTER EARNING A SCHOLARSHIP AS A SENIOR.

FORMER HEAD COACHES

FRANK DOBSON (1911-13)

Frank Dobson was a professional baseball player before coming to Clemson, as he was the property of the Pittsburgh Nationals. Walter Riggs, President of the Clemson Athletic Association, thought it was unfair to keep shuffling coaches year after year. Riggs offered Dobson a three-year contract, the first contract offered and signed by a Clemson coach in any sport.

At Clemson, Dobson coached football, basketball and baseball. He was Clemson's first basketball coach, leading the Tigers to their only undefeated season in history in the inaugural season 1911-12, (4-0). In 1912-13, Clemson finished the basketball season with a 9-5 record. He was head baseball coach in 1911-1913.

JOHN ERWIN (1913-15)

John Erwin is one of only two former players to serve as coach in Clemson basketball history. During his two years as coach, he led Clemson to a 4-8 record overall. In Clemson's first game ever on February 9, 1912, his brother James scored 58 points against Butler Guards, still an all-time single-game scoring record. He scored all 58 points on 29 field goals, no free throws. He played the center position for the Tigers. John and his brother were also tennis standouts at Clemson.

A.H. WARD (1915-16)

Audley Ward was a professor in agronomy and farm machinery at Clemson. During the 1915-16 season he coached the team on a volunteer basis and the Tigers had a 2-6-1 record.

COUNTRY MORRIS (1916-17, 1919-20)

In the fall of 1916, Morris was an assistant football coach and head coach of both the basketball and baseball teams. After the 1917 footballl season he enlisted in the Navy for World War I. Upon his discharge in 1919, he came back to Clemson to coach the baseball and basketball teams. After leaving Clemson he was an athletic director, coach, and manager of pro baseball teams. He also coached at the University of Maryland. Morris had a 16-8 record in his career, including a 10-3 record in games played at Clemson and 13-1 in February and March.

JIGGS DONAHUE (1917-19)

Edward Donahue had to be one of the most organized men in the country. During the 1918-19 school year, Donahue was head coach of four Clemson sports: football, basketball, baseball, and track. During his four years at Clemson, he was basketball and baseball coach for two seasons, and head track coach for one season.

He was an outstanding athlete at Washington & Lee, as he played in the backfield on the football team and played catcher on the baseball team. Upon graduation, he was an assistant coach in football and head coach in baseball and basketball.

At Clemson, Donahue had a 6-3 record, including 5-0 in games played in February.

LARRY CONOVER (1920-21)

Conover was a line coach for the Clemson football team in addition to serving as head basketball coach. He played center for Penn State's football team and lettered in football in 1916 and 1917. Conover had a fine 10-4 mark at Clemson, including a perfect 6-0 in games played at Clemson.

E.J. STEWART (1921-23)

E. J. Stewart was head football coach for two years at Clemson, 1921-22. However, he coached more than one sport during his stay at Tigertown. In the spring of 1921, Stewart coached the baseball and track teams while conducting spring football practice. In the fall, Stewart's football team went 1-6-2, but he improved to a 5-4 slate in 1922. He went on to coach the track teams in 1922 and 1923.

He also coached at Nebraska and the University of Texas. At Nebraska, he led the Cornhuskers to a combined record of 11-4 in 1916-1917. They also won the Missouri Valley Conference title both seasons. After leaving the University of Nebraska, he entered the automobile business as President and Treasurer of the Stewart Motor Co. Because of the economic conditions at the time, he decided to go back into coaching.

At Clemson, he had a 19-19 record, including 12-6 in the month of February and 12-7 at home.

BUD SAUNDERS (1923-25)

Bud Saunders graduated from Missouri in 1911, with a bachelors degree in Law. At Missouri, he played football and basketball. He wanted to play two other sports, but a conference rule at the time forbid an athlete from participating in more than two sports.

Saunders was football coach at Knox College before coming to Clemson. In football, Saunders coached for four seasons, 1923-1926. He also coached the basketball teams in 1924 and 1925. His best season in football came in 1923, as he led the Tigers to a 5-2-1 slate. He was 6-28 as a head basketball coach at Clemson.

A.A. GILLIAM (1925-26)

Gilliam was an assistant football coach for the Tiger football team and coached the freshmen team in 1925. As Clemson's head coach the Tigers had a 4-17 record.

JOSH CODY (1927-31)

Josh Cody, fondly known as "big man," will always be a favorite to Clemson fans. Cody, a big man in stature at 6-2, 220 pounds, led Clemson to victories over South Carolina for four straight years in football. He is the only coach in Clemson history who has been around more than two years who never lost a football game to South Carolina. He also defeated Furman three straight years. Cody had a 13-0-1 record in home games and had a 72 percent winning mark overall, fourth best in Clemson history.

Cody coached Clemson for five seasons, the longest tenure for a Clemson basketball coach in the first 25 years of the sport at Clemson. He had a 48-55 record, including 32-13 at home. Cody passed away on June 17, 1961.

JOE DAVIS (1931-40)

Joe Davis was a graduate of Southwestern University of Memphis. For 36 consecutive years Davis and former Clemson Head Football Coach Jess Neely were one of the most acclaimed coaching tandems in college football, nine years at Clemson and 27 seasons at Rice. Davis became Neely's chief football aide in 1931 at Clemson.

He also coached the basketball team, compiling a 101-86 record in nine seasons. He left Clemson as the school's all-time winningest basketball coach and is still fourth in Clemson history in victories. Davis still has the best winning percentage in road games in Clemson history, as his 44-52 road mark was a 46 percent winning mark. His best basketball season was the 1934-35 team that finished with a 15-3 record overall for a .833 pct, an all-time Clemson record.

At Rice he coached basketball for six seasons and won or shared three consecutive SWC championships in 1943-45, then added another tri-championship in 1949. The 1945 Rice team, led by two-time All-American Bill Henry, finished with a 20-1 record and is generally recognized as one of Rice's greatest teams ever.

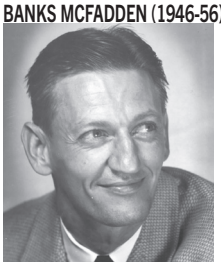

ROCK NORMAN (1940-46)

Rock Norman was one of the state of Virginia's great natural athletes during his day and one of the greatest produced by Roanoke College. Norman spent 51 years in the coaching profession, 34 of them coaching track, basketball, and football at Clemson, The Citadel, Furman and the University of South Carolina. His last college experience was an 18-year stay at Clemson where his track teams won 49 meets and lost 24.

At one time his teams won 17 consecutive meets. He spent six seasons as head basketball coach at Clemson, a position he also held at three other colleges. Norman won state track titles at Clemson in 1940, '41, '42, '43, '49, '51 and '57. He has been enshrined in the South Carolina Athletic Hall of Fame, the Roanoke College Hall of Fame and the Clemson Athletic Hall of Fame. On the hardcourt, Norman had a 32-70 record at Clemson.

BANKS MCFADDEN (1946-56)

McFadden was a consensus All-American in both football and basketball in the same calendar year (1939). He is the only Clemson athlete to accomplish this feat and is one reason he was named the nation's most versatile athlete for 1939.

McFadden was elected to the National Football Hall of Fame in 1959 and received the Distinguished Alumni Award form Clemson in 1966. He was a charter member of the Clemson Athletic Hall of Fame and South Carolina Athletic Hall of Fame. He is the only Clemson player to have his jersey retired in two sports. He was the top scorer and All-American on Clemson's only conference postseason basketball championship team (1938-39).

McFadden coached the Tigers for 10 years, tied for the longest tenure in Clemson basketball history. He was Clemson's coach when the Tigers entered the ACC and he had an 85-131 overall record. His best season was in 1951-52 when the Tigers had a record of 17-7, a 71 percent winning percentage.

That team had an 11-4 conference record, still the most wins in school history in league play. McFadden's Tigers improved their league record five straight years between 1948-52, the first coach in NCAA history to do that. He passed away in June, 2005.

PRESS MARAVICH (1956-62)

Press Maravich was the first coach in school history to guide the Tigers to the championship game of the ACC Tournament. Clemson made a dream run in 1962, Maravich's final year at Clemson. He defeated four top 20 teams in his career, the first Clemson coach to beat a ranked opponent. That first ranked win came in his first year, a 96-94 overtime win against eighth-ranked NC State.

Maravich had a record of 55-96 and his best year came in 61-62 when he took Clemson to the Finals of the ACC Tournament. Clemson beat a sixth ranked Duke team in the semifinals of that tournament, then the highest ranked win in Clemson history. He still holds the Clemson record for winning percentage in overtime games, 3-0 in 1956-57, and he also had a 23-19 career mark in games decided by five points or less, also a Clemson record.

Maravich left Clemson and became an assistant coach at NC State before moving up to the head coaching position when Everett Case retired. Maravich later became head coach at Louisiana State where he coached his son, Pete, who went on to become the leading scorer in NCAA history. Maravich passed away on April 15, 1987.

BOBBY ROBERTS (1963-70)

Bobby Roberts coached Clemson for eight seasons and was the head coach when Littlejohn Coliseum opened in 1968. He had an 82-116 record in those eight seasons, including a then record 41 wins over ACC teams.

His best season was a 17-8 campaign in 1966-67, a season that would have been an NCAA Tournament season by today's standards. During that season Clemson beat all four North Carolina ACC schools within eight days, including North Carolina and NC State in the North-South Doubleheader in Charlotte. Duke was ranked 14th and North Carolina third in the UPI poll at the time. Roberts passed away in June 2002.

TATES LOCKE (1970-75)

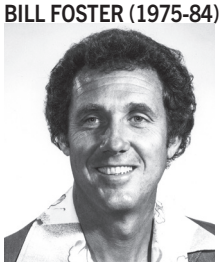

Tates Locke had a 62-70 record in his five years at Clemson. He coached Clemson to its first ever top 20 season, a No. 19 final ranking in the UPI poll in 1974-75. That team featured Tree Rollins, Clemson's all-time leading rebounder. That 1974-75 team played in the NIT in New York, Clemson's first postseason tournament appearance in history.

Locke had an outstanding 43-15 record in games at Littlejohn Coliseum, and he posted a 6-2 career record in overtime games, best in Clemson history on a percentage basis. Locke defeated five ranked teams in his career, including wins over No. 3 Maryland, No. 10 North Carolina and No. 4 NC State in the same season.

Locke served as an NBA scout and executive with the Portland Trailblazers. He passed away in May 2024.

BILL FOSTER (1975-84)

Bill Foster is the third-winningest coach in Clemson history on a percentage basis. He is third to Oliver Purnell and Rick Barnes on a percentage basis in ACC games (.373) and ACC road games (.233). Foster won 156 and lost 106 in his nine years as head coach. He is tied for the most top-20 wins (16) in Clemson history and also won 13 games in overtime, also a program record.

Foster's best year was 1979-80 when he guided the Tigers to a 23-9 record and the Final Eight of the NCAA Tournament, the farthest Clemson has advanced in the history of the NCAA Tournament. The Tigers defeated six Top 20 teams that year, still a single season record for ranked wins. That includes Clemson's only victory in history over the No. 1 ranked team (87-82 vs. Duke).

Foster left Clemson in 1984 to restart the Miami (Fla.) program and then was the head coach at Virginia Tech. In 1995-96 he took Virginia Tech to the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament and has won at least 25 games in 1994-95 and 1995-96. His 1994-95 Virginia Tech team won the NIT. He retired after the 1996-97 season with 532 career wins and resides in Boone, NC. He was inducted into the Clemson Hall of Fame in 2001. In September of 2005 he received the Bobby Roberts Award from the Augusta Sports Council for lifetime contributions to college basketball.

A 1958 graduate of Carson-Newman, he was inducted into the Eagles' Hall of Fame in 2007. Foster passed away May 27, 2015 after a long bout with Parkinson's disease.

CLIFF ELLIS (1984-94)

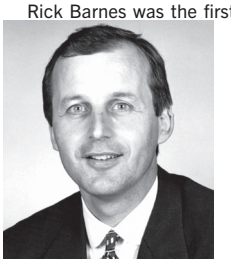

Cliff Ellis is Clemson's winningest coach in history on a total victories basis (177-128). Ellis coached Clemson for 10 years and the Tigers went to eight postseason tournaments, three NCAAs and five NITs. He coached Clemson to the ACC regular season title in 1989-90, the only regular season ACC title in Clemson history. The Tigers had a 24-8 record that year. His 1986-87 Tiger team won a record 25 games.

Ellis set 33 Clemson coaching records, including ACC regular season victories, victories at home and home winning percentage. He coached Clemson to three NCAA Tournament appearances in a four-year period (1986-90). He left Clemson after the 1993-94 season to become the head coach at Auburn and he took the Tigers to the NCAA Tournament and a top-10 national ranking in 1998-99.

Ellis won 22 games over top-25 teams in his 10 years at Clemson, including an upset of 12th-ranked Florida State in the 1993 ACC Tournament, and a victory over a No. 2 North Carolina team in 1994.

Ellis was named ACC Coach-of-the-Year in 1986-87 and 1989-90, the only Clemson coach to win that award. After a short stint in broadcasting, he was the head coach at Coastal Carolina University between 2007-24. He was inducted into Clemson's Athletic Hall of Fame in 2013 and in 2015, became the first coach in Division I history with 150 or more wins at four different schools.

RICK BARNES (1994-98)

Rick Barnes was the first coach in Clemson history to take the Tigers to the NCAA tournament three consecutive years. He brought Clemson to the NIT in 1994-95 and to the NCAAs in 1995-96, 1996-97 and 1997-98, meaning Clemson was in postseason play every year of his tenure.

His top season was his third year, 1996-97, when he coached Clemson to a 16-1 start and a number-two national ranking. The season opened with a 79-71 overtime victory against defending National Champion Kentucky. The team ended the season 23-10 and ranked eighth in the final USA Today poll.

Picked last in the ACC prior to his first season, he shocked the basketball world by winning his first 10 games, including a 75-70 victory over No. 9 Duke in Cameron Indoor Stadium. His second season featured an 18-11 record, including Clemson's first ever ACC Tournament victory over 20th ranked North Carolina.

The Tigers were ranked fifth in the nation in the preseason poll of 1997-98, an example of the level of respect Barnes had brought to the program. Clemson defeated three top 25 teams in 1997-98, including sixth-ranked South Carolina.

The school established attendance records on a per game and total basis in 1996-97 and 1997-98. He was the head coach at the University of Texas from 1998 through 2015, taking the Longhorns to the Final Four in 2004. He is now the head coach at the University of Tennessee and took that program to the NCAA Tournament seven of the last eight years.

LARRY SHYATT (1998-2003)

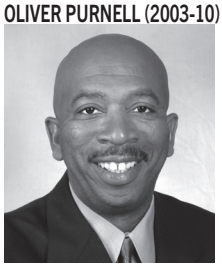

Larry Shyatt won 70 games during his five years as the head coach at Clemson. He succeeded Rick Barnes, with whom he had served as associate head coach from 1994-95 through 1996-97. Shyatt was given much credit for Clemson's run to a Sweet 16 finish in 1996-97. After coaching Wyoming in 1997-98, he returned to Clemson.

He immediately led Clemson to a 20-15 record and an NIT berth in his first season, 1998-99. The Tigers defeated Georgia, Rutgers, Butler and Xavier to advance to the championship game versus California. Clemson fell just short, losing by only one point on the last possession of the game. His 20 victories set a Clemson record for wins by a rookie coach and he became just the third ACC coach in history to win 20 games in his first year with a league program.

Shyatt defeated North Carolina three different times over his tenure. The biggest win of his tenure was a 75-65 upset in 2001, when the Tar Heels were ranked No. 1 in the nation. He also defeated the Tar Heels in 1999 and 2003. During his final season, Clemson started 9-0, which included a victory over basketball power Cincinnati.

Shyatt was an assistant coach at Florida when the Gators won consecutive NCAA titles in 2006 and 2007. He coached two stints at the University of Wyoming, before leaving the Cowboys in 2016 for an assistant coach position with the Dallas Mavericks.

OLIVER PURNELL (2003-10)

Oliver Purnell coached for seven seasons at Clemson and guided the Tigers to six postseason appearances, including three NCAA Tournaments in his final three years with the program.

Purnell concluded his career with the Tigers as the winningest coach in Clemson history on a percentage basis. His teams compiled a 138-88 record, which equates to a .611 winning mark.

His 2006-07 team matched a school record by winning 25 games. The team set a Clemson standard with a 17-0 start to the season and advanced to the championship game of the NIT.

He coached the 2007-08 team to a berth in the ACC Championship game, just the second in history for the Tigers. The team won 24 games, including 10 in the regular season ACC race to match a school record.

His 2008-09 team went 23-9 overall, 9-7 in the ACC and handed a top-10 Duke team their worst loss in 19 years when Clemson won 74-47 over the Blue Devils at home. It was the signature victory during the Purnell era.

The 2009-10 team followed with another 9-7 mark in league play, making it the only time in Clemson history the Tigers posted three consecutive winning seasons against ACC competition.

Several players flourished under Purnell's watch. Trevor Booker was a first-team All-ACC forward in 2010 and went on to be a first-round draft pick (No. 23 overall) by the Washington Wizards. He also coached Cliff Hammonds, the ACC's "Skip" Prosser Award winner in 2008, and K.C. Rivers, a second-team All-ACC performer the same season.

Purnell left Clemson to coach five seasons at DePaul University through the 2014-15 season. He is now retired and living in Florida.
