TOP STORYLINES

• Georgia Tech opens the stretch run of the 2026 season on Saturday at longtime rival Clemson.

• The Yellow Jackets and Tigers are meeting for the 91st time overall in a series that dates back to 1898.

• Georgia Tech holds a commanding 51-36-2 lead in the all-time series*, but snapped a nine-game skid in the series when it knocked off the 12th-ranked Tigers, 24-21, in a thriller last season at Bobby Dodd Stadium at Hyundai Field.

• A win on Saturday would give the Yellow Jackets their first win at Clemson's Memorial Stadium since 2008 and snap their string of eight-straight losses at CU.

• A victory on Saturday would also give Georgia Tech consecutive wins over the Tigers for the first time since 2008-09.

• Fresh off his strongest performance since sustaining an injury against Duke on Oct. 7, Sr. RB Justice Haynes (87 rushing yards, 99 total yards from scrimmage last Saturday vs. Louisville) has moved back into the top 40 nationally in rushing yards per game (79.4 ypg - 37th).

• In his first season playing the position at the collegiate level, So. WR Dalen Penson continued to impress with 66 receiving yards on five catches last Saturday against Louisville. Penson has had at least 50 receiving yards in 7-of-9 games this season.

• With 58 tackles on the season, So. S Tae Harris is on pace to become the first defensive back to lead Georgia Tech in tackles since Malik Rivera in 2018 and the first to do it as an underclassman since Georgia Tech Hall of Famer Morgan Burnett led the team in stops as a sophomore in 2008.

GEORGIA TECH FOOTBALL BY THE NUMBERS

4
Georgia Tech is one of only four teams (and one of only two in a Power Four conference) that ranks among the top 25 nationally in both kickoff return yardage (13th - 26.7 avg.) and punt return yardage (24th - 24.5 avg.). Florida Atlantic, James Madison, Kennesaw State and Virginia Tech are the others.

8
Georgia Tech is looking to break an eight-game losing streak at Clemson's Memorial Stadium. The Yellow Jackets' last win at Clemson was a 21-17 victory on Oct. 17, 2008.

8-1
With its win over No. 23 Duke on Oct. 10, Georgia Tech is 8-1 against nationally ranked ACC opponents under head coach Brent Key. The Yellow Jackets have been unranked for all eight victories.

9
Georgia Tech snapped a nine-game losing streak against Clemson with a 24-21 win over the 12th-ranked Tigers on Sept. 13, 2025 at Bobby Dodd Stadium at Hyundai Field.

30/325
Georgia Tech is the only team in the nation with three underclassmen that have caught at least 30 passes for 325 yards this season — So. WR Jordan Allen (49 rec. for 576 yds.), So. TE Kevin Roche, Jr. (37-332) and So. WR Dalen Penson (33-500).

37
So. TE Kevin Roche Jr.'s 37 receptions this season are: the second-most by a tight end in Georgia Tech single-season history; the most by a Tech TE in 58 years (Joel Stevenson, 1968); just seven shy of Stevenson's single-season record (44); the most in the nation by an underclass TE this season; the 10th-most in the nation by a TE, regardless of class.

99
In just six ACC games, Georgia Tech has a total of 99 man-games lost due to injury, an average of 16.5 players out per game.

2,108
Sr. RB Justice Haynes ranks 33rd among all active NCAA Division I FBS players with 2,108 career rushing yards at the FBS level. Haynes' 2,108 career yards include 635 in eight games this season.

A GEORGIA TECH WIN WOULD ...

- up it to 3-7 overall and 2-5 in ACC play;
- snap a four-game losing streak;
- be its first win at Clemson since 2008, snapping an eight-game losing streak at CU's Memorial Stadium;
- give it consecutive wins over Clemson for the first time since 2008-09;
- up it to 52-36-2 all-time against Clemson;
- be just its seventh win in 24 all-time games at Clemson;
- be Brent Key's 30th win as Georgia Tech's head coach (30-27).

A GEORGIA TECH LOSS WOULD ...

- drop it to 2-8 overall and 1-6 in ACC play;
- extend its losing streak to five games, which would be its longest since 2021, the season prior to Brent Key taking over as the Yellow Jackets' interim head coach in 2022;
- be its ninth-consecutive loss at Clemson;
- be its 10th loss in its last 11 games against Clemson overall;
- drop it to 6-18 all-time at Clemson;
- reduce its all-time series lead over Clemson to 51-37-2.

GEORGIA TECH HEAD COACH BRENT KEY

Brent Key, a Georgia Tech alumnus and football letterwinner, is in his third full season as the head coach at his alma mater. He took over as the program's 21st head coach on a permanent basis in 2023, after stepping into the role as interim head coach during the 2022 campaign.

After winning just 10 of its previous 38 games, Georgia Tech has won 29-of-56 games since Key took the reins as interim head coach five games into the 2022 season. His 29-27 record as head coach includes a gaudy 8-1 mark against nationally ranked Atlantic Coast Conference opponents.

In Key's first three seasons as permanent head coach (2023-25):

- The Yellow Jackets won 23 games, which were tied for the second-most wins ever by a Georgia Tech head coach in his first three full seasons at the helm. The only other head coaches that have won as many as 23 games in their first three full seasons at Tech – Paul Johnson (27 – 2009-11), Bobby Dodd (23 – 1945-47) and William Alexander (23 – 1920-22) – are all enshrined in the College Football Hall of Fame.
- The Jackets earned fourth- (2023), fourth- (2024) and second-place (2025) finishes in the ACC, making Tech the only team that has finished fourth or better in the ACC each of the last three seasons.
- Off the field, the Yellow Jackets have also excelled in the classroom under Key's watch. For the first time in its history, Tech football has recorded four-straight semesters with a team grade point average of 3.0 or higher – 3.02 in spring 2024, 3.00 in fall 2024 (the program's first-ever fall semester with a 3.0 GPA), 3.03 in spring 2025 and an ultra-impressive, program-record 3.17 in fall 2025.

Coinciding with their record-setting semester in the classroom, the Yellow Jackets have also had a historic season on the field in 2025. Most notably, Georgia Tech's nine-win regular season in 2025 was its first since 2014 and only the 16th in the program's 133-season history. The 9-4 campaign included an 8-0 start, Tech's best since 1966, and the Jackets rising to as high as No. 7 in the national polls, their highest regular-season ranking since 2009.

Led by quarterback Haynes King, the ACC Player of the Year and Offensive Player of the Year who finished 10th in balloting for the Heisman Trophy, Georgia Tech fielded one of the nation's most explosive offenses in 2025. The Yellow Jackets were one of only three teams — and one of only two from a power conference — that ranked among the top 30 nationally in all five major offensive categories during the 2025 regular season — total offense, scoring, rushing, passing and passing efficiency.

In addition to King being recognized as one of college football's top players, two Jackets earned all-America recognition in 2025 — offensive lineman Keylan Rutledge and place kicker Aidan Birr — which marked the first time since 2009 that Tech had multiple all-Americans in a season. Rutledge, who earned first-team all-America honors in both 2024 and '25, became the first Yellow Jacket to be named all-America in consecutive years since 2011-12 and the first to be a first-team selection in back-to-back years since College and Pro Football Hall of Famer Calvin Johnson in 2005 and 2006.

In all, headlined by four first-team selections, its most since 2009 (King, Rutledge, Birr and defensive tackle Jordan van den Berg), Georgia Tech had nine all-ACC performers in 2025.

Additionally, two Yellow Jackets were selected in the 2026 National Football League Draft — Rutledge (first round - Houston Texans) and defensive lineman Jordan van den Berg (sixth round - Chicago Bears). Rutledge became the only the 12th first-round draft pick in Georgia Tech history and the Jackets' first since 2010. True to Key's identity, Georgia Tech's last five NFL Draft picks all play in the trenches (Rutledge and van den Berg in 2026, TE Jackson Hawes and DT Zeek Biggers in 2025 and DE Keion White in 2023).

The 2024 campaign was highlighted by a pair of wins over top-10 opponents – a 24-21 victory over No. 10 Florida State in the season opener in Dublin, Ireland and a 28-23 home triumph over previously unbeaten and No. 4-ranked Miami (Fla.) in November – as Tech became only the ninth team in ACC history to defeat two top-10 teams in the same regular season. The Yellow Jackets' 7-5 regular-season record was their best since 2018.

A year after fielding one of the nation's most improved offenses, the Jackets had one of college football's most improved defensive units in 2024. Tech's defense surrendered 342.8 total yards and 122.2 rushing yards per game in '24, improvements of 94.3 and 99.1 yards per game over 2023. At the same time, despite a plethora of injuries — including one that cost King two full games and parts of three others — Tech continued to boast one of the nation's top offenses. The Jackets finished in the top 35 nationally in total offense (424.5 yards per game) and also ranked among the nation's leaders in fewest sacks allowed (third), fewest turnovers (11th), completion percentage (24th), rushing offense (32nd) and red-zone offense (32nd). On special teams, Tech ranked third nationally with five blocked kicks and, as a team, the Jackets were one of the nation's 25 least-penalized teams.

Ten Yellow Jackets were named all-ACC in 2024, Tech's most all-conference selections since 2014.

In 2023, Key led Tech to its first winning season since 2018, capped by a 30-17 win over UCF in the 2023 Union Home Mortgage Gasparilla Bowl in Tampa, Fla., which was the Yellow Jackets' first postseason victory since 2016. The Jackets' 7-6 mark in 2023 included wins over No. 17 Miami (Fla.) and No. 17 North Carolina.

The Yellow Jackets' success in 2023 was highlighted by one of the nation's most prolific offenses. Befitting Key's background as an all-ACC offensive lineman and one of college football's most successful offensive line coaches, the Jackets led the ACC and ranked among the top 15 nationally in rushing offense (203.8 ypg – 12th nationally) and sacks allowed (1.15 pg – 15th) in '23.

However, the offense wasn't the only area where the Jackets reflected their head coach's identity in '23, as they also ranked among the ACC and national leaders in blocked kicks (four – good for first in the ACC and a tie for third nationally), turnovers forced (25 – second in the ACC and ninth nationally) and fewest penalties (5.15 pg – third in the ACC).

Seven different Yellow Jackets earned all-ACC recognition in 2023, highlighted by all-America safety Jaylon King. Additionally, three freshmen – Birr, OL Ethan Mackenny and WR Eric Singleton Jr. – earned freshman all-America honors, putting a spotlight on the Jackets' bright future under Key.

Brent Key
Graduated from Georgia Tech: 2001
Seasons as head coach: 2022 (interim); 2023-pres. (permanent)
Record as head coach: 29-27 (.518)

Key took the reins of the program on a full-time basis after leading the Yellow Jackets to a 4-4 record over the final eight games of the 2022 season as interim head coach. The four wins included two road victories over nationally ranked opponents – a 26-21 win at No. 24 Pitt in his first game at the helm on Oct. 1 and a 21-17 triumph at No. 11 North Carolina on Nov. 19. The Jackets overcame a plethora of injuries – including to its top two quarterbacks – to finish 5-7 overall and 4-4 in Atlantic Coast Conference play after a 1-3 (0-1 ACC) start. The overall and conference win totals were Tech's highest since 2018, as was its fourth-place finish in the ACC Coastal Division standings (the Jackets defeated all three teams that finished ahead of them in the division standings – North Carolina, Pitt and Duke).

A 2001 Georgia Tech graduate (management), Key is the fifth Tech alumnus to serve as the Yellow Jackets' head coach, joining William Alexander (1912 graduate; head coach from 1920-44), Bill Fulcher (1956; 1972-73), Pepper Rodgers (1955; 1974-79) and Bill Curry (1965; 1980-86). Key played offensive line for the Jackets from 1997-2000.

Prior to being named interim head coach on Sept. 26, 2022, Key served as the Yellow Jackets' assistant head coach/offensive line coach/run game coordinator for three-plus seasons. In four total seasons at his alma mater prior to taking over as head coach on permanent basis, Georgia Tech's run game produced an all-American, three all-conference honorees and finished in the top half of the ACC in rushing offense twice. He also mentored a pair of all-ACC offensive linemen.

Despite battling a rash of injuries across the offensive front throughout the season, 2021 marked the second-straight season that Tech's rushing offense ranked in the top half of the ACC under Key's watch, with tackle Devin Cochran earning honorable-mention all-ACC recognition before going on to sign with the National Football League's Cincinnati Bengals.

In 2020, the Jackets ranked fourth in the ACC in fewest sacks allowed (2.3 per game) and fifth in the league in rushing (190.8 yards per game), all with a true freshman (Jordan Williams) starting 9-of-10 games at right tackle.

Despite a multitude of injuries, the Jackets' offensive line improved throughout the 2019 season, as it went through the monumental transition from an option-based scheme to a pro-style, spread attack. During a one late-season three-game stretch, Tech faced teams that ranked first (Pitt), fourth (Miami) and eighth (Virginia) nationally in sacks. Tech's offensive front allowed just five total sacks in those three games, including none against eventual ACC Coastal Division champion Virginia. In all, the Jackets didn't surrender a sack in two of its final four contests.

Key came back to his alma mater after three seasons as offensive line coach at Alabama (2016-18), where he helped lead the Crimson Tide to two Southeastern Conference championships, three College Football Playoff championship games and the 2017 national title.

In each of his three seasons at Alabama, Key's offensive lines were finalists for the Joe Moore Award, which is presented annually to the nation's top offensive front, and was the only group in the nation to receive the honor all three seasons. He also coached four All-Americans (including two unanimous picks – tackle Cam Robinson in 2016 and tackle Jonah Williams in 2018) and nine all-SEC selections (including seven first-teamers) during his time with the Tide. In addition to being unanimous All-Americans, Robinson won the 2016 Outland Trophy as the nation's best interior lineman and Williams was a finalist for the award in '18. They also won the Jacobs Blocking Trophy (SEC's top offensive lineman) in '16 and '18, respectively.

Seven linemen that Key coached in his three seasons at Alabama went on to be selected in the National Football League Draft — Jedrick Wills (No. 10 overall, Cleveland Browns, 2020), Williams (No. 11 overall, Cincinnati Bengals, 2019), Alex Leatherwood (No. 17 overall, Las Vegas Raiders, 2021), Robinson (No. 34 overall, Jacksonville Jaguars, 2017), Ross Pierschbacher (fifth round, Washington Redskins, 2019), Bradley Bozeman (sixth round, Baltimore Ravens, 2018) and Deonte Brown (sixth round, Carolina Panthers, 2021).

Key was also lauded for his work on the recruiting trail at Alabama. He was tabbed as the nation's No. 2 recruiter by 247Sports for his work in landing the Crimson Tide's 2019 class and the No. 1 recruiter in the nation for his efforts with the 2020 class.

Prior to his three-year stint at Alabama, Key spent 11 seasons at UCF (2005-15). He started at UCF as a graduate assistant and worked his way up to assistant head coach (2012-15) and offensive coordinator (2014-15). He also coached tight ends for three seasons (2006-08), offensive line for six seasons (2009-14), running backs for one season (2015), was special teams coordinator for one season (2008) and recruiting coordinator for six seasons (2007, 2010-14) with the Knights. In 2012, 2013 and 2014, Key was nominated for the Broyles Award, given to the top assistant coach in college football.

During Key's 11 seasons at UCF, the Knights won four conference championships (2007, 2010, 2013 and 2014), highlighted by a 12-1 campaign in 2013, which culminated with a 52-42 win over No. 5 Baylor in the Fiesta Bowl. The Knights beat two top-10 teams in '13 (Baylor and No. 8 Louisville) and Key's offensive front, which did not allow a sack against Penn State, Louisville, UConn or Baylor, helped pave the way for UCF to average 441.5 yards and 34.6 points per game, both among the highest marks in program history. His offensive line also provided protection for American Athletic Conference Offensive Player of the Year Blake Bortles.

In his six seasons as UCF's offensive line coach, eight different linemen earned all-conference recognition a total of 16 times and four went on to play in the NFL, including 2011 third-round draft pick Jah Reid. He also coached an NFL draft pick at tight end in Mike Merritt (2008).

During his time at UCF, Key coached under his head coach as a student-athlete at Georgia Tech, George O'Leary.

Key got his start in coaching as a graduate assistant at Georgia Tech in 2001-02 and served as tight ends and running backs coach at Western Carolina in 2004.

Key was a four-year starter in his four seasons as a student-athlete at Georgia Tech (1997-2000). While making 44-straight starts at right guard, Key was a part of a senior class that led Georgia Tech to four-straight bowl appearances for the first time since 1953-56. As a sophomore in 1998, he helped lead Tech to a 10-2 record and a share of the ACC championship. During his junior campaign in 1999, the Jackets ranked No. 1 nationally in total offense (509.0 ypg). He was voted a team captain and all-ACC as a senior in 2000. In all, he was a key cog in an offensive front that helped the Yellow Jackets lead the ACC in rushing three times.

A Clay, Ala. native, Key, 48, was an all-state performer at Hewitt-Trussville H.S. He and his wife, Danielle, have a daughter, Harper.

GEORGIA TECH-CLEMSON SERIES HISTORY

• Georgia Tech and Clemson are meeting for the 91st time in a series that dates back to 1898.

• The Yellow Jackets officially hold a commanding 51-36-2 advantage in the all-time series*.

• On Sept. 13 of last season, Georgia Tech snapped a nine-game losing streak against Clemson with a 24-21 win over the 12th-ranked Tigers at Bobby Dodd Stadium at Hyundai Field.

• Georgia Tech PK Aidan Birr made history with his game-winning, 55-yard field goal as time expired in last season's Clemson. The 55-yarder matched the longest made field goal in Georgia Tech history and was only the sixth all-time "walk-off" field goal by a Tech kicker (see more on p. 16).

• Clemson is Georgia Tech's fourth-most common all-time opponent.

 # 2009 ACC Championship (Charlotte, N.C.) ^ Mercedes-Benz Stadium

• After playing their first two games at neutral sites (Augusta, Ga. in 1898, Greenville, S.C. in 1899), the schools' next 41 gridiron matchups between 1902-1973 were all held at Georgia Tech. After playing at Clemson's Memorial Stadium for the first time in 1974, the next three matchups were all played at Georgia Tech (1975-77) before the teams started alternating home and away games when Georgia Tech began ACC play in 1983.

• Saturday's matchup is Georgia Tech and Clemson's 44th since the Yellow Jackets joined the Tigers in the ACC in 1983. Clemson holds a 26-17 advantage in ACC matchups between the longtime rivals.

GEORGIA TECH vs. RANKED OPPONENTS

• With its 28-25 win over No. 23 Duke on Oct. 10, Georgia Tech moved to 8-1 against ranked Atlantic Coast Conference competition under head coach Brent Key.

GEORGIA TECH IN THE NATIONAL POLLS

• Georgia Tech received votes in both the Associated Press (media) and AFCA (coaches) preseason top-25 polls this season.

• The Yellow Jackets received 26 points in the coaches' poll, good for 10th in "others receiving votes" (35th overall), and four points in the AP poll, good for a tie for 14th in ORV (t-39th overall).

• Last season, Georgia Tech was nationally ranked in each of the last 14 votes of the season, including a final ranking of 24th in the coaches poll.

• The Yellow Jackets' final 2025 ranking of No. 24 marked the first time that they finished in the top 25 of either major poll since 2014, when it came in at No. 7 in the final coaches poll and No. 8 in the AP.

• Last season's 14-straight top-25 rankings was Georgia Tech's longest streak in the national polls since it was ranked in all 15 polls of the 2009 season.

• The Yellow Jackets climbed all the way to No. 7 national rankings last season, which was their highest ranking since they came in at No. 7 in the final coaches poll of 2014. It was the Jackets' highest regular-season ranking since they were seventh in both polls for three weeks in 2009.

• Prior to Week 4 of last season, Georgia Tech had not been in the top 25 of both the AP and coaches polls in the same week since Week 4 of 2015.

• Tech has been ranked in the AP poll 321 times since the poll's inception in 1936 (the poll listed 20 teams from 1936-88, except for from 1961-67, when only 10 teams were ranked; it began ranking 25 teams in 1989).

GEORGIA TECH IN THE ACC STANDINGS

• With a 6-2 record in conference play last season, Georgia Tech was tied for second in the final 2025 Atlantic Coast Conference standings.

• The Yellow Jackets are the only ACC team that has finished in the top four of the conference standings for each of the last three seasons (2023-25).

• Georgia Tech has also finished above .500 in ACC play in three-straight seasons for the first time since 2012 (5-3), 2013 (5-3) and 2014 (6-2).

• Georgia Tech surpassed expectations in each of its first three full seasons under head coach Brent Key. The Yellow Jackets' fourth-place finishes in 2023 and 2024 came after they were picked to finish 12th out of 14 teams in the ACC's preseason poll in '23 and 10th out of 17 teams in the league's preseason poll in '24, and their second-place finish in 2025 came after they were tabbed to finish fourth in the conference's preseason poll.

Georgia Tech opponents in italics

CHALLENGING SEASON FOR GEORGIA TECH

• Georgia Tech has faced unique challenges that have played a role in its 2-7 record in 2026.

• First and foremost, Georgia Tech faced a uniquely challenging schedule to open the season, as it was one of only three power-conference teams that opened the season with back-to-back power-conference opponents.

• Of the three P4 teams that opened the season with consecutive P4 opponents, Georgia Tech is the only one whose opening slate included a ranked opponent.

CONSECUTIVE POWER-CONFERENCE OPPONENTS TO OPEN THE SEASON — POWER CONFERENCE TEAMS, 2026

Team	First Two Opponents
Georgia Tech	Colorado and No. 18 Tennessee
Boston College	Cincinnati and Rutgers
Cal	UCLA and Syracuse

• The Yellow Jackets' season-opening, one-point loss to Colorado (14-13 - Sept. 3) included a missed field goal in the first quarter, an apparent fumble return for a touchdown being called back due to a ruling that the runner's forward progress had been stopped, and a blocked field goal as time expired.

• While it was the Jackets' first 0-2 start since 1989, it was only the fifth time in that stretch that they have opened the season with consecutive power-conference opponents (including Notre Dame).

• In all, Georgia Tech is one of only five teams in the nation that is playing 11 power-conference opponents this season.

11 POWER-CONFERENCE OPPONENTS — FBS, 2026

Team	P4 Opponents
Georgia Tech	Colorado, Tennessee, Georgia + 8 ACC
Boston College	Cincinnati, Rutgers, Notre Dame + 8 ACC
Colorado	GT, Northwestern + 9 Big 12
Louisville	Ole Miss, Kentucky + 9 ACC
Purdue	Wake Forest, Notre Dame + 9 Big Ten

• In addition to the challenging schedule, Georgia Tech has endured terrible luck on the injury front this season.

• In all, Georgia Tech has a total of 99 man-games lost to injury over its first six ACC games of the season, an average of 16.5 players out per game.

MAN-GAMES LOST — GEORGIA TECH, 2026 ACC GAMES

	Total	99

• Less than a month into the season, Georgia Tech entered its ACC opener at Stanford (Sept. 26) without eight starters and a total of 18 players due to injuries.

• Georgia Tech's 18 players out were the most in the ACC the week of Sept. 26.

• The 18 Georgia Tech players that missed the Stanford game due to injury included three starting offensive linemen (LT Ethan Mackenny, C Jameson Riggs and RG Joseph Ionata), its top two leading tacklers (S Savion Riley and LB Kyle Efford) and two team captains (Efford and DE Jordan Walker).

• Already missing two of the top four cornerbacks on its depth chart due to injuries (Jaylen Mbakwe and Trae Stevenson, Jr.), Georgia Tech also lost its the two players that started at cornerback at Stanford during the course of the game (Daiquan White and Zachary Tobe).

• Also in the secondary, Georgia Tech was without two of its top three safeties (Riley and Fenix Felton) at Stanford.

• Down to the fifth and sixth cornerbacks on its depth chart and playing without two of its top three safeties at the beginning of the second half, Georgia Tech allowed 250 yards (201 passing) over Stanford's first four possessions of the half.

• The Yellow Jackets made adjustments that forced three-and-outs (5 total yards) over Stanford's final two possessions, which gave Tech's offense an opportunity to rally in the fourth quarter.

• Georgia Tech had 15 players out — including leading rusher Justice Haynes — at Virginia Tech (Oct. 17), which was the second-most in the ACC that week.

• The injury bug hit the Yellow Jackets' defense especially hard against Boston College (Oct. 24), as it was missing eight players that have made starts this season — including three defensive ends (Walker, A.J. Hoffler and Noah Carter) and both starting defensive tackles (Tawfiq Thomas and Vincent Carroll-Jackson) — in their 49-27 loss to the Eagles.

• Boston College grinded down the Yellow Jackets' injury depleted defense in the second half of last Saturday's game, as 305 of the Eagles' 500 total yards, including 278 of their 399 yards on the ground, came in the final two quarters.

• Georgia Tech's 17 total players out due to injury last Saturday against Louisville were the most in the ACC.

OFFENSE

• Although Georgia Tech hasn't fully met the offensive standard that it has established under head coach Brent Key through nine games this season, Georgia Tech's offense steadily improved over the first half of the 2026 season before stalling a bit in its last three losses to Boston College (Oct. 24), Pitt (Oct. 31) and Louisville (last Saturday).

• After going eight-straight games from Nov. 15 of last season through Sept. 19 of this season without scoring on an opening possession, Georgia Tech has scored on its opening possession in four of its last six games with a field goals at Stanford (Sept. 26) and vs. Louisville (last Saturday), and touchdowns against Duke (Oct. 10) and Boston College (Oct. 24).

• Of the two times in the last six games that the Yellow Jackets have not scored on their opening possession, one was at Virginia Tech (Oct. 17), when they fumbled at the VT 3 yard line.

• Georgia Tech's 238 total yards and 3.1 yards per play at Pitt (Oct. 31) were both season lows (prev.: 288 total yards and 5.3 yards per play in the season opener vs. Colorado - Sept. 3).

• Just four games ago, Georgia Tech set season highs for yards per play (7.3), passing yards (335) and completions (29) at Virginia Tech (Oct. 17).

• The Yellow Jackets' 7.3 yards per play at VT was their highest average in nine games, dating back to the Jackets averaging 8.3 yards per play in a 36-34 win at Boston College on Nov. 15 of last season.

• Against No. 23 Duke (Oct. 10), Georgia Tech's offense scored 28 points with 165 rushing yards and 383 total yards against a defense that was allowing just 11.1 points (sixth nationally), 63.8 rushing yards (sixth nationally) and 261.8 total yards (16th nationally) going into the game.

• Georgia Tech's 28 points and 383 total yards remain the most allowed by Duke in a game this season.

• Georgia Tech had touchdown drives of 92 yards in the second quarter and 91 yards in the third quarter versus Duke. It marked the first time that the Yellow Jackets had two 90-plus-yard touchdown drives in a game since a 70-0 win over Elon on Aug. 31, 2013, and the first time that they accomplished the feat against an NCAA Division I FBS opponent since they did it in a 38-31 win at Duke on Nov. 19, 2011.

• Despite playing without three starting offensive linemen (LT Ethan Mackenny, C Jameson Riggs and RG Joseph Ionata), Georgia Tech 431 yards of total offense at Stanford (Sept. 26) remain a season high.

• Georgia Tech ranks 37th nationally as a team with a .659 completion percentage this season.

• Entering the final month of the regular season, Georgia Tech is threatening to break the single-season school record for completion percentage for the third-straight season.

• Georgia Tech set a unique school record during a three-game stretch from Sept. 12 (vs. Tennessee) through Sept. 26 (at Stanford). For the first time in school history, it had a player with both a rushing touchdown and a receiving touchdown in three-consecutive games.

• RB Justice Haynes accomplished the feat against both Tennessee (Sept. 12 - one rushing TD/one receiving TD) and Mercer (Sept. 19 - two rushing TDs/one receiving TD), followed by RB Trelain Maddox doing it at Stanford (Sept. 26 - one rushing TD/one receiving TD).

• In addition to the three-consecutive games being a school record, Georgia Tech's three total games with a player with both a rushing TD and a receiving TD are tied for the third-most in NCAA Division I FBS this season.

• An area where Georgia Tech has been atypical this season is protecting the quarterback. The Yellow Jackets have surrendered 25 sacks through nine games this season, which has already nearly three times the nine sacks that it allowed over the whole season in each of the last two years.

• The Yellow Jackets' nine sacks allowed over 13 games in each of the last two seasons are tied for the school record for fewest sacks allowed in a season.

• The most consistent mark of Georgia Tech's success on offense has been its ability to take care of the football. Since the beginning of the 2020 season, Georgia Tech has averaged 0.9 turnovers per game in wins but has averaged 1.7 turnovers per game in losses.

•The Jackets have 12 turnovers in their five losses this season (one vs. Colorado, two vs. Tennessee, two at Stanford, two at Virginia Tech, two vs. Boston College, two at Pitt, one vs. Louisville) but haven't committed any turnovers in their wins over Mercer (Sept. 19) and Duke (Oct. 10).

• Prior to returning as the offensive coordinator at his alma mater, Godsey spent the last 15 seasons as an ultra-successful NFL assistant coach with the New England Patriots, Houston Texans, Detroit Lions, Miami Dolphins and Baltimore Ravens.

• Godsey's NFL coaching experience included two seasons as OC of the Texans (2015-16) and one season as co-OC of the Dolphins (2021).

• In all, Godsey helped lead his teams to 12 winning records, eight playoff appearances and seven division championships in his 15 seasons as an NFL coach.

• Before jumping to the NFL, Godsey coached for seven seasons at UCF (2004-10). During his time at UCF, the Knights won two conference championships and three division titles and played in four bowl games. At UCF, he coached alongside his Georgia Tech teammate and current Tech head coach Brent Key.

• Godsey was a four-year letterwinner (1998-2001), two-year starter at quarterback (2000-01), second-team all-ACC selection as a junior (2000) and team captain as a senior (2001) as a student-athlete at Georgia Tech.

QUARTERBACKS

• Georgia Tech Jr. QB Alberto Mendoza has established himself as one of the nation's most accurate passers in over the first nine starts of his career.

• Mendoza has completed 182-of-265 passes (.687) for 1,943 yards and 11 touchdowns on the season.

• Mendoza ranks among the nation's top 30 in completion percentage and completions per game this season.

• So. QB Grady Adamson has seen the first extensive playing time of his career over the last three weeks.

• Adamson alternated series with Mendoza for much of last Saturday's game vs. Louisville, completing 12-of-19 passes for 93 yards and a touchdown. His 93 passing yards, 12 completions and 19 attempts were all career bests, while his one TD pass matched a career high.

• On Oct. 31 at Pitt, Adamson amassed a career-high 125 yards of total offense (63 rushing, 62 passing) in just one quarter of work.

• Adamson's 63 rushing yards on just six carries (10.5 avg.) at Pitt were also a career high (prev.: 3 vs. Boston College - Oct. 24).

• Adamson's 18-yard touchdown run at Pitt was the first TD of his career.

• 132 of Georgia Tech's 238 total yards at Pitt came on the four possessions led by Adamson. The Yellow Jackets had 106 total yards over their 12 offensive series before Adamson entered the game.

• In just two series of work against Boston College (Oct. 24), Adamson completed 7-of-9 passes for 73 yards and his first-career touchdown pass — a 30-yard strike to WR Dalen Penson — against BC.

• Adamson made the first appearance of his career in the fourth quarter of Georgia Tech's win over Mercer (Sept. 19). He finished 0-for-1 passing and ran once for 2 yards.

• This season, Haynes ranks seventh in the ACC and 37th nationally with 79.4 rushing yards per game this season.

• Through four games this season, Haynes was averaging 98.3 rushing yards per game, good for second in the ACC and 19th nationally.

• Haynes sustained an injury during Georgia Tech's 28-25 win over Duke (Oct.10) and missed the following week's game at Virginia Tech (Oct. 17).

• In his first two games after returning from injury (Oct. 24 vs. Boston College and Oct. 31 at Pitt), Haynes ran for just 86 total yards (53 vs. BC, 33 vs. Pitt).

• Haynes surpassed the 86 yards that he rushed for in his previous two games with 87 yards on the ground (on just 12 carries - 7.2 avg.) last Saturday against Louisville.

• Haynes recorded the ninth 100-yard rushing game of his collegiate career — as well as his second-straight and eighth in his last 13 games — with 107 yards on the ground at Stanford (Sept. 26).

• The previous week, Haynes rushed for a season-high 141 yards against Mercer (Sept. 19).

• Haynes' 141 rushing yards against Mercer were his most as a Yellow Jacket and the fourth-most of his 36-game collegiate career (2023-24 – Alabama, 2025 – Michigan). He finished just 18 yards short of his career high of 159, set vs. New Mexico on Aug. 30, 2025 when playing for Michigan.

• Haynes also had two receptions for 26 yards and touchdown against Mercer, giving him 167 total yards from scrimmage in the game, the second-highest total of his collegiate career (career high: 171 vs. Michigan State – Oct. 25, 2025 when playing for Michigan).

• Haynes' three total touchdowns against Mercer (two rushing, one receiving) matched a career high (prev.: 3 vs. New Mexico on Aug. 30, 2025 when playing for Michigan).

• Haynes became the first player in Georgia Tech history with both a rushing touchdown and a receiving touchdown in consecutive games when he had a rushing TD and receiving TD against Tennessee, followed by two rushing TDs and a receiving TD against Mercer.

• Prior to his touchdown receptions against Tennessee and Mercer, Haynes had never caught a TD pass over the first 33 games of collegiate career.

• Haynes has surpassed 100 from scrimmage twice this season, totaling 167 against Mercer (141 rushing, 26 receiving) and 117 the previous week versus Tennessee (81 rushing, 36 receiving).

• Haynes fell just 1 yard shy of eclipsing the 100-yard mark once again last Saturday, finishing with 99 yards from scrimmage vs. Louisville (87 rushing, 12 receiving).

• Haynes has totaled 100 yards from scrimmage in eight of his last 15 games and nine times overall during his 41-game collegiate career.

• With his 88 total yards at Stanford (Sept. 26), Haynes surpassed 2,000 yards from scrimmage for his collegiate career. His career total now stands at 2,241 yards from scrimmage.

• Jr. RB Trelain Maddox emerged with 328 total yards (241 rushing, 87 receiving) and six touchdowns (five rushing, one receiving) during a four-game stretch earlier this season — at Stanford (Sept. 26), vs. No. 23 Duke (Oct. 10), at Virginia Tech (Oct. 17) and vs. Boston College (Oct. 24).

• Prior to scoring six touchdowns in that four-game stretch, Maddox had scored just two TDs in the first 13 games of his collegiate career.

• Maddox's 328 yards from scrimmage during that four-game stretch far surpassed the 190 total yards that he amassed over the first 13 games of his collegiate career.

• Maddox set career highs for rushing yards (96) and total yards from scrimmage (112) at Virginia Tech.

• The previous week, Maddox had set then-career highs with 81 rushing yards and 89 yards from scrimmage in Georgia Tech's win over Duke.

• Maddox also had a career-high three touchdown runs (5, 60 and 1 yards) against Duke, becoming the first Georgia Tech player with three rushing TDs in a game since QB Haynes King vs. Colorado – Aug. 29, 2025.

• Maddox is the first Georgia Tech running back with three rushing TDs in a game since Dontae Smith vs. Western Carolina on Sept. 10, 2022, and the first RB to do it against an NCAA Division I FBS opponent since current Minnesota Viking Jordan Mason at Virginia Tech on Oct. 25, 2018.

• Maddox's 60-yard touchdown run in the third quarter against Duke was Georgia Tech's longest offensive play of the season (prev.: Haynes' 46-yard run at Stanford – Sept. 26).

• Maddox's 1-yard touchdown run with 54 seconds remaining, which came on "tush push" direct snap and sneak, proved to be the game-winner in the Yellow Jackets' 28-25 victory over Duke.

• In the previous game at Stanford, Maddox set then-career highs with 88 yards from scrimmage (40 rushing, 48 receiving) and two touchdowns (one rushing, one receiving).

• Maddox's 36 rushing yards and 65 total yards from scrimmage (including four receptions for 29 yards) last Saturday against Louisville since he went for 112 total yards at VT four games ago (Oct. 17).

• Hosley joined the Yellow Jackets in 2025 after being named 2024 Ivy League Player of the Year at Penn.

• In his first season at Georgia Tech, Hosley ranked second on the team and first among running backs with 697 rushing yards in 2025. He had three 100-yard rushing games on the season.

• Hosley has rushed for 100 yards 13 times in his collegiate career. He eclipsed the 100-yard mark 10 times in two seasons at Penn (2023-24) to go along with the three 100-yard games in his first season at Georgia Tech.

• In his four collegiate seasons combined (2023-24 at Penn, 2025-26 at Georgia Tech), Hosley has compiled a total of 2,673 rushing yards, 3,127 yards from scrimmage (including 454 receiving yards) and 24 touchdowns (23 rushing, one receiving).

• Hosley's 2,673 career rushing yards rank 23rd among all active NCAA Division I FBS players.

• Making Penson's performance through eight games even more impressive is the fact that it has come in his first-ever appearances on the offensive side of the ball. He played 11 games as defensive back as a true freshman in 2025 before moving to wideout during spring practice.

• Penson is one of Georgia Tech's two current dual-sport athletes, as he also competed in track and field as a freshman (Fr. TE Jack Richerson is on GT baseball's roster). Penson finished eighth in the 60-hurdles at the ACC Indoor Track & Field Championships with a time of 7.97 seconds.

• A transfer from Cal, three of fifth-year WR Jaiven Plummer's six receptions as a Yellow Jacket have gone for touchdowns — a 37-yard scoring reception versus Mercer (Sept. 19), a 23-yard TD catch at Stanford (Sept. 26) and a 6-yard TD at Virginia Tech (Oct. 17).

• Plummer is the only wide receiver with three touchdowns on as few as six total receptions this season.

• Plummer has already surpassed the two receptions that he had in four seasons at Cal (2022-25). His only previous touchdown came on a 35-yard reception in Cal's 2025 regular-season finale vs. SMU.

• Jr. Isaiah Fuhrmann, a transfer from Elon, set season highs with four receptions for 37 yards last Saturday against Louisville (prev.: two catches for 27 yards vs. No. 23 Duke on Oct. 10 and at Virginia Tech on Oct. 17).

• Furhrmann's acrobatic 10-yard touchdown reception with just 10 seconds to go in the first half of last Saturday's game against Louisville was his first as a Yellow Jacket.

• Fuhrmann has 10 receptions for 114 yards and a touchdown over the last five games. He totaled two catches for 29 yards in his first four games as a Yellow Jacket.

• Jr. WR Debron Gatling's 33-yard touchdown versus Mercer (Sept. 19) came on the first reception of his collegiate career.

TIGHT ENDS

• In a deep, experienced room of tight ends, So. Kevin Roche, Jr. has emerged as one of Georgia Tech's top receiving targets.

• Roche ranks second on the team with 37 receptions and is third on the squad with 332 receiving yards this season (both tops among GT's tight ends).

OFFENSE

• In addition to his four receptions against Colorado (Sept. 3), the 6-foot-9 Roche also blocked a would-be game-tying field goal attempt early in the fourth quarter.

• Georgia Tech's tight ends room, which also includes fifth-year Chris Corbo, Sr. Gavin Harris and Sr. Spencer Mermans in addition to Roche, has combined for 62 receptions for 543 yards this season.

• Georgia Tech's tight ends' 62 receptions through nine games this season are already the most by the Yellow Jackets' TEs since the position returned to Tech in 2019.

• The Jackets' TEs' 543 combined receiving yards this season are the third-most by Georgia Tech tight ends since 2019, and 110 yards away from tying 2024.

OFFENSIVE LINE

• Georgia Tech's offensive line has been decimated by injuries this season, as five different starters — Ethan Mackenny, Jameson Riggs, Joseph Ionata, Markell Samuel and Kevin Peay, Jr. — have all missed games due to injury during the course of the season.

• Mackenny, who has made 24 career starts at left tackle, and Peay, who started the first seven games of the season at left guard, are both out for the season due to their injuries.

• So. LT Josh Petty made his season debut in the second half vs. Boston College (Oct. 24).

• Projected to be a key member of Georgia Tech's offensive line in 2026, Petty sustained a severe injury sustained in last year's Pop-Tarts Bowl.

• Pro Football Focus graded Petty's performance against Boston College as the best overall by a Georgia Tech offensive lineman this season (83.0). Petty also earned the Yellow Jackets' second-highest run-blocking grade of the season (84.8) and the Jackets' seventh-highest pass-blocking grade of the season (80.0) in his season debut vs. BC.

• Ionata, the Yellow Jackets' starting right guard, turned in Georgia Tech's best pass-blocking performance of the season two weeks ago at Pitt (Oct. 31), according to PFF, with a sterling 89.3 pass-blocking grade.

• Ionata was the nation's fifth-best pass-blocking guard of Week 9, according to PFF.

DEFENSE

TEAM

• While Georgia Tech's injury-riddled defense has struggled in many respects through eight games, there have been some bright spots in the unit.

• Notably, Tech's pass defense is also markedly improved over last season.

GEORGIA TECH PASS DEFENSE — 2025 vs. 2026

• Georgia Tech's pass defense allowed just 124.7 passing yards per game through its first three games of the season (124 vs. Colorado - Sept. 3, 148 vs. No. 18 Tennessee - Sept. 12, 102 vs. Mercer - Sept. 19).

• Tech was one of only four teams in the nation that allowed less than 150 passing yards through the first three games of the season.

• With three games still to play, Georgia Tech's four games with less than 150 passing yards allowed are already tied for its second-most in a season since at least 1995.

• The Jackets are one of only four teams, along with LSU, Penn State and UCLA, that have held three different Power Four conference opponents to less than 150 yards passing in a game this season.

TEAMS THAT HAVE ALLOWED LESS THAN 150 PASSING YARDS vs. POWER CONFERENCE OPPONENTS THREE TIMES — 2026

Team	Opppnent	Date	Yds.
Georgia Tech	Colorado	Sept. 3	124
	Tennessee	Sept. 12	148
	Boston College	Oct. 24	101

	Wisconsin	Oct. 17	66
	Michigan State	Oct. 24	109
Penn State	at Northwestern	Oct. 2	93
	at Michigan	Oct. 17	90
	Purdue	Oct. 31	142

• Georgia Tech's strong numbers against the pass have been negatively skewed by just four disastrous quarters — allowing 310 passing yards over the second and third periods at Stanford (Sept. 26), when the Yellow Jackets were missing their top four cornerbacks and two of their top three safeties due to injuries, and surrendering 215 passing yards in the first half at Virginia Tech (Oct. 17), before rebounding to allow just 35 yards through the air after the break.

• On Oct. 31 at Pitt, Georgia Tech set a season high by forcing three turnovers (two fumble recoveries and an interception).

• The Yellow Jackets' three takeaways at Pitt are Tech's only three defensive takeaways against an NCAA Division I FBS opponent this season. The Jackets have also recovered fumbles on muffed punts against Virginia Tech (Oct. 17) and Louisville (last Saturday), and forced two turnovers against FCS opponent Mercer (Sept. 19).

• Georgia Tech's three takeaways against Pitt were also its most in a game against an FBS opponent since it forced three turnovers in a 30-29 win over NC State on Nov. 21, 2024.

• The Yellow Jackets' defense was at its most depleted point of the season vs. Boston College (Oct. 24), as eight different defensive players that have been in the starting lineup for the Yellow Jackets this season, and a total of 13 defensive contributors, missed the game due to injury — CB Daiquan White, DE Jordan Walker, S Savion Riley, CB Jaedyn Terry, DE Noah Carter, S Fenix Felton, S Will Kiker, LB Kyle Efford, DE A.J. Hoffler, DT Tawfiq Thomas, DT Shymeik Jones, DT Landen Marshall and DT Vincent Carroll-Jackson ( denotes starters*).

• The loss of Thomas against Boston College was particularly significant, as he is the nation's No. 4-ranked interior defensive lineman against the run, according to Pro Football Focus. Without Thomas in the lineup, BC ran for 399 yards against the Yellow Jackets.

• Georgia Tech had a season-high five sacks at Virginia Tech. The five sacks against VT nearly equaled the Yellow Jackets' season total going into the game (6).

• Three of the Yellow Jackets' five sacks against Virginia Tech came during a six-play stretch early in the second half, which allowed Georgia Tech to force back-to-back three-and-outs. The spurt helped the Jackets cut a 24-3 halftime deficit to 24-17 less than three minutes into the second half.

• Despite being without four of its top seven defensive ends (Walker, Hoffler, Carter and Jordan Boyd) and one of its top four defensive tackles (Jones) due to injury, Georgia Tech's rushing defense turned in strong performances over a two-game stretch versus Stanford (Sept. 26) and No. 23 Duke (Oct. 10).

• After allowing 223.3 rushing yards per game over the first three games of the season, Georgia Tech's run defense turned in its best performance of the year against Stanford, limiting the Cardinal to just 86 rushing yards on 37 carries (2.3 avg.).

• Against Duke, the Yellow Jackets' run defense held the Blue Devils' 12th-ranked rushing attack to 159 yards on 35 carries (4.5 avg.), well below its season averages of 243.5 yards and 5.8 yards per rush going into the game.

• Georgia Tech also limited Duke's Nate Sheppard, the nation's leading rusher going into the game (161.0 ypg) to a season-low 99 yards on 27 carries. Sheppard's 3.7 yards per carry were barely half of his 7.1-yard average going into the game.

• Georgia Tech surrendered 14 points or less in two of its first three games this season (14 vs. Colorado - Sept. 3 and 11 vs. Mercer - Sept. 19), which marked the first time that the Yellow Jackets allowed 14 points or less twice in their first three games of a season since they did it in each of their first three games of 2016 (14 vs. Boston College, 10 vs. Mercer, 7 vs. Vanderbilt).

• The 14 points that Georgia Tech allowed in the season opener against Colorado are tied for the second-fewest points that the Yellow Jackets have surrendered against any power-conference opponent since the beginning of the 2018 season.

• While Georgia Tech's defensive difficulties over the last two seasons have included a lack of turnovers (Tech ranks 123rd out of 138 NCAA Division I FBS teams with seven takeaways this season), the Yellow Jackets still remain among the nation's leaders over the last eight seasons in fumble recoveries.

• Georgia Tech's 70 fumble recoveries since the beginning of the 2019 season are the seventh-most in the nation during that span.

• Tech is one of only 11 teams with at least 70 fumble recoveries since the beginning of the '19 season.

• Fr. S Chris Hewitt, Jr. turned in one of the best defensive efforts by a Tech freshman in recent memory vs. Boston College (Oct. 24).

• Making his first-career start, Hewitt led all players with 11 tackles — including 10 solo stops — against BC.

• Hewitt is one of only three true freshmen nationally that has made 11 or more total tackles in a game this season.

• Hewitt's 10 solo tackles against BC were the most in a single game by a Georgia Tech true freshman since at least 1995.

• Hewitt is only the fourth true freshman at Georgia Tech since 1995 with as many as 11 total tackles in a game.

• Fr. LB Braylon Outlaw became Georgia Tech's first award winner of the year on defense when he was named ACC Rookie of the Week after making four tackles in the Yellow Jackets' win over No. 23 Duke (Oct. 10).

• Fr. LB C.J. Gamble recorded Tech's first interception of the season vs. Mercer (Sept. 19). Gamble is one of only three true freshman linebackers in the nation with an interception this season, and the only true freshman LB from a Power Four conference with an INT.

• Fr. CB Trae Stevenson, Jr. became the second true freshman to pick off a pass for Tech this season when he intercepted Pitt's Corey Dailey and returned it 22 yards to set up the Yellow Jackets' only touchdown of the game at Pitt (Oct. 31).

• Georgia Tech is one of 10 teams nationally and one of four Power Four conference teams with interceptions by multiple true freshmen this season.

• Fifth year LB Kyle Efford, the heart and soul of Georgia Tech's defense for the last four seasons, announced on Oct. 13 that he has made the decision to medically retire from playing football due to an accumulation of injuries over the course of his career.

• Efford finished his career with 250 tackles, including 222 during a three-season stretch from 2023-25.

• Efford — Georgia Tech's top tackler each of the last three seasons (81 in 2023, 64 in 2024 and 77 in 2025) — was the first Yellow Jacket to lead the team in tackles in three-straight seasons since LB Recardo Wimbush from 1999-2001 (91 in 1999, 94 in 2000 and 96 in 2001).

• If Efford were to have led the team in tackles again this season, he would have become the first player to ever lead Georgia Tech in tackles in four-straight seasons.

• Although he was limited to 169 defensive snaps over three games this season, Efford averaged 9.0 tackles per contest, which would rank third in the ACC if he had played in enough games to qualify for the official NCAA statistics.

• Efford's 13 stops in the season opener versus Colorado (Sept. 3) matched his career high, originally set on Aug. 31, 2024 vs. Georgia State.

• While Efford has done it twice in three seasons, no other Yellow Jacket has had as many as 13 tackles in a game since LB Charlie Thomas recorded 16 at Virginia Tech on Nov. 5, 2022.

• A week after making 13 stops in the opener against Colorado, Efford had eight stops against No. 18 Tennessee (Sept. 12), despite reinjuring his surgically repaired shoulder during the game.

• Efford missed the Yellow Jackets' next two games after the loss to Tennessee, but returned to record six tackles and help lead Georgia Tech to a 28-25 win over No. 23 Duke last Saturday.

• Efford made one of the biggest plays in the win over Duke when he stopped the Blue Devils for a 1-yard loss early in the fourth quarter with Georgia Tech clinging to a three-point lead.

• Efford's career honors include being a two-year team captain (2024 and 2026), a two-time all-ACC selection (third team in 2024 and honorable mention in 2025) and a member of the all-ACC academic team.

• Efford graduated from Georgia Tech with a bachelor's degree in business administration in December 2025.

• Efford will continue to be a part of Georgia Tech's team throughout the 2026 season as a captain and player-coach.

• Georgia Tech has scored two touchdowns on special teams this season.

• In the season opener versus Colorado (Sept. 3), Smith returned a kickoff 100 yards for a touchdown.

• Smith's 100-yard return was the fifth 100-yard kickoff return in Georgia Tech history, and the first in eight years.

100-YARD KICKOFF RETURNS — GT HISTORY

Drew Hill	Georgia	Dec. 2, 1978
Dez White	Maryland	Oct. 31, 1998
Jamal Golden	North Carolina	Nov. 10, 2012
Juanyeh Thomas	Georgia	Nov. 24, 2018
Rahkeem Smith	Colorado	Sept. 3, 2026

• Smith's return was Georgia Tech's first kickoff return for a touchdown of any length since Jahmyr Gibbs' 98-yard return for a score against Boston College on Nov. 13, 2021.

• Smith's touchdown came on his first-career touch as a Yellow Jacket. Smith joined the Jackets as a transfer from Bowling Green in 2025, but appeared in just one game and did not record any statistics in his first season at Tech.

• Smith was named ACC Specialist of the Week following his 100-yard kickoff return vs. Colorado.

• The following week vs. No. 18 Tennessee (Sept. 12), So. Elgin Sessions returned a blocked punt by Fr. Trae Stevenson, Jr. 3 yards for a touchdown.

• The blocked punt return for a touchdown vs. Tennessee was Georgia Tech's first since Nov. 13, 2004, when Djay Jones returned a blocked punt by Ajenavi Eziemefe 5 yards for a score in the Yellow Jackets' 30-10 home win over UConn.

• The blocked punt vs. Tennessee was Georgia Tech's first overall since Amontrae Bradford at Syracuse on Sept. 7, 2024.

• Georgia Tech made another huge special teams play in the opener against Colorado when 6-foot-9 So. TE Kevin Roche, Jr. blocked a would-be game-tying field goal attempt by CU early in the fourth quarter.

• The field goal block vs. Colorado was the first of Roche's career.

• Since Brent Key's first game as Georgia Tech's interim head coach on Oct. 1, 2022, the Yellow Jackets' 16 blocked kicks are the second-most in the nation.

• Making last season's walk-off field goal against Clemson even more impressive was that field goal unit took the field as time was winding down without the benefit of a timeout — known as a "Toro" situation in Georgia Tech football's parlance.

• Tech repeated the challenging Toro situation again last season at Wake Forest (Sept. 27, 2025), as Birr and the field goal unit had to once again take the field with time ticking away and no timeouts, this time needing a 33-yard field goal to send the game to overtime. Birr drilled the 33-yarder with two seconds remaining to send the game to overtime knotted at 23-23, and the Jackets went on to win, 30-29, in OT.

• Birr hit his second game-winning field goal of last season and third of his career when he drilled a 23-yarder with 11 seconds to go to lift the Jackets to a 36-34 win at Boston College (Nov. 15, 2025).

• Georgia Tech fifth-year P Alex Bacchetta's 42.9-yard average ranks sixth in the ACC this season.

• Ten of Bacchetta's 33 punts this season have traveled 50-plus yards, 10 have been downed inside the 20 and only 13 have been returned.

• Three of Bacchetta's season-high eight punts at Pitt (Oct. 31) traveled 50-plus yards.

• Bacchetta was named to the Ray Guy Award's Ray's 8 list (nation's top eight punters of the week) in recognition of his performance against Mercer (Sept. 19).

• Bacchetta averaged 51.2 yards over four punts against Mercer, which was good for the 31st time in Georgia Tech history that a punter averaged at least 50 yards per punt in a game (min. two punts).

• Bacchetta's award-winning performance against Mercer included a 65-yard punt, which is tied for the 26th-longest punt in school history and is the longest punt by a Yellow Jacket since David Shanahan's 71-yarder at Duke on Oct. 9, 2021.

MISCELLANEOUS

• From Sept. 13, 2025-Oct. 24, 2026, Georgia Tech drew more than 45,000 fans for 10-straight home games at Bobby Dodd Stadium at Hyundai Field, which was its longest streak of consecutive crowds over 45,000 in a decade.

• Before the streak, Georgia Tech had not drawn crowds of 45,000-plus for 10-consecutive games since it also had 10-straight crowds over 50,000 from 2014-16.

• From Oct. 11 of last season through Sept. 19 of this season, Georgia Tech had six-straight crowds of at least 50,000 at Bobby Dodd Stadium, which was the longest streak since it had seven-straight crowds over 50,000 from 1966-67.

• Georgia Tech also had four-straight sellouts from Oct. 25 of last season through Sept. 12 of this season, which was the Yellow Jackets' longest sellout streak since they sold out each of their six home games in 1999 — four years before the stadium's capacity expanded beyond 50,000 with the addition of the north upper deck.

• Georgia Tech has led at halftime in five of its nine games this season, but is just 2-3 in games that it held the halftime lead. Prior to this season, the Yellow Jackets were 17-3 under head coach Brent Key in games that it led at the break.

• Turnover margin has been a strong indicator of whether Georgia Tech wins or loses over the last five-plus seasons. In their 36 wins since the beginning of the 2020 campaign, the Yellow Jackets have won the turnover battle in 22-of-36 games and are plus-37 overall in turnover margin in those wins. On the flip side, Tech has lost the turnover battle in 29 of its 45 losses since the beginning of 2020 and is minus-43 overall in turnover margin in those defeats.

• Georgia Tech is tied for 20th in NCAA Division I FBS history with 782 all-time victories.
