

Covid-19: Crisis Management Support

What would be your company's answer
to these relevant questions?

How should we act in the event of a suspected or confirmed case?

Are our preventative measures effective?

Do we need to introduce changes to existing protocols or operational procedures?

When is it necessary to stop sales, or to partially / completely lock down the business?

At Preverisk we offer outbreak and illness management solutions, while providing quick and effective response in times of emergency.
Email us at covid19@preverisk.com to get the support your business needs today.
