EXCURSION BOOKING TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Provided by independent third-party operators.

Guests are kindly requested to read the following carefully before proceeding with booking any excursions.

All excursions are organised and provided by third-party, independent companies defined as "suppliers". Any excursions purchased or booked through designated sales points within the resort are organised and managed by these independent contractors. Nicolaus S.p.A. has selected reliable and thoroughly vetted suppliers for the execution of these activities, but accepts no liability for the services they provide, as they are entirely independent of the company.

Nicolaus S.p.A. shall not be held liable for the actual delivery of the offered excursions in relation to the descriptions provided in the itineraries, which are compiled by the suppliers themselves; Nicolaus S.p.A., therefore, disclaims all liability for any inaccuracies that may arise compared to what is advertised in the information brochures.

Nicolaus S.p.A. accepts no responsibility for incorrect statements, breaches of contract and/or statutory duties, negligence, or intentional or accidental conduct by any excursion supplier; suppliers shall respond directly to clients in the event of any complaint.

Excursion operators/managers have declared to Nicolaus S.p.A. that they operate in compliance with specific codes of conduct, which have been accepted by the company; nevertheless, Nicolaus S.p.A. has no direct control over the manner in which suppliers deliver their services.

Nicolaus S.p.A. cannot be held responsible for any changes to the programme due to local bank holidays and/or the closure of sites to be visited, or any other event (strikes, demonstrations, mechanical breakdowns, adverse weather conditions, regulatory provisions, etc.) that might partially or completely affect the excursion.

By participating in an excursion, guests accept and undertake to follow the instructions, rules and conditions of the actual organiser attached hereto, which they declare to have fully understood and accepted.

EXCURSION REGULATIONS

Technical organisation, liability and insurance are managed by:

- * Pugliamar (Isole Tremiti e grotte marina);
- * Mooveng (E-bike);
- * Explora Gargano (Jeep tour);
- * Caicco Norita (Caicco);
- * Gargano Tourism Service (Noleggio gommoni);
- * MGR Viaggi (Navette);

* The Organiser undertakes to carry out its activities in full compliance with current legislation.

* Within its remit and responsibilities, the Organiser undertakes to implement all necessary and/or appropriate measures to safeguard and protect the health and safety of travellers, visitors and, in general, users of the services offered.

* Excursions must be booked and paid for in full by 14:00 at the latest on the day prior to the excursion, exclusively via the designated sales staff.

* If a client signs up for an excursion but fails to pay the fee within the specified limit, they will not be considered a participant and will be removed from the passenger lists.

* Bookings received after the aforementioned deadlines will be accepted subject to availability and will only be reconfirmed if space allows.

* It is never possible to charge the cost of excursions to the room account.

* Failure to show up for the excursion does not entitle the client to any refund.

* Participants who need to cancel their booking for any reason are requested to give immediate notice. No penalty applies for cancellations made up to 48 hours before the departure of the excursion, and clients are entitled to a full refund of the paid participation fee. Beyond this timeframe, no refund will be provided.

* Changes to the itinerary or programme due to force majeure (e.g., adverse weather conditions, road closures, public order issues, etc.) during the excursion that result in a modification of the established route will not automatically entitle the client to any refund.

* Departures are guaranteed with a pre-established minimum number of paying participants paying the full rate (adults), as per the displayed excursion programme. The Organiser reserves the right to cancel excursions if the minimum number of participants required for the activity is not reached. In this case, the guest can choose whether to take the excursion on another date (if available), swap it for a different one, or receive a full refund of the excursion price.

* The excursion may be cancelled at any time due to force majeure.

* Children travelling for free are not entitled to a seat and must travel on an adult's lap, always in compliance with the Highway Code or the Navigation Code (or SOLAS regulations) in the case of maritime transport.

* Admission to museums, monuments, archaeological sites and similar may offer concessions for individuals under 18 or over 65. These benefits can only be claimed if guests can prove their age with a valid ID document.

* The proof of payment or excursion voucher will be required at the time of departure.

* Persons with reduced mobility can enquire at the time of booking regarding any obstacles to site access, as well as travel times, distances, uneven terrain, or outdoor paths.

* Participants are required to remain with the group from departure until the end of the excursion; in particular, they must follow the instructions given by the Guide at all times and never leave the group and/or the trail without first informing the Guide.

- * For excursions that include visits to sacred sites/places of worship, appropriate clothing is recommended (covered shoulders, shorts or skirts that are not too short).
- * Excursion participants will be held liable for any damage to persons or property caused by them, whether intentionally or unintentionally. The Organiser disclaims all liability for any harmful event caused by the participant or their relatives. Any dispute with third parties must be resolved directly by the participant, without any involvement or liability on the part of the Organiser.
- * Personal items (including photographic and video equipment) are the sole responsibility of their owners. The organiser is not liable for items left abandoned or unattended, including inside the transport vehicles used.
- * All excursions purchased and undertaken with external suppliers remain at the guest's own risk, and the Organiser cannot be held responsible for any resulting injuries, losses, fatalities or damages.
- * In the event of issues regarding the execution of the service, we recommend our guests lodge any complaints or claims for compensation promptly and directly on-site, via the email address provided locally.
- * All excursions purchased and undertaken with external suppliers remain at the guest's own risk, and the Organiser cannot be held responsible for any resulting injuries, losses, fatalities or damages. (Note: Repeated in original text).
- * Booked and paid excursions are non-refundable in the event of non-participation, even if a cancellation notice is sent in advance. Only in the event of cancellation due to health reasons that prevent participation, the organiser reserves the right to evaluate a refund, subject to the presentation of a medical certificate proving such impossibility, and solely for the person concerned.
- * The cost of any flight or ferry included in the excursion is non-refundable under any circumstances.
- * Flight tickets are never refundable in the event of cancellation by clients, even upon presentation of a medical certificate.
- * Nicolaus/Valtur is not liable for any damages arising from excursions organised by third parties (poor execution, damages of any kind) that are not featured in the Valtur/Nicolaus official price list and were not purchased directly from their authorized representatives.
