

Analyzing the Precautions and Remedies of Bajrang Baan Worship

Bajrang Baan is a Tantric hymn and not a general hymn. A common stotra is the praise of a particular deity. But when it comes to Bajrang Baan, the seeker through his hymns takes Hanuman to the shelter of Shri Ram and prays to him for the solution to his problems. So if Hanuman does not find this request worthy, he is forced to come to the spot to help the seeker. That's why, according to the opinion of some scholars, Bajrang Baan should not be chanted daily. Worship becomes tantric when we force God to do something beyond his will for the sake of that situation.

Method Of Worship

Tuesday is the day of Lord Rudra and Lord Hanuman. On Tuesday morning take a bath and offer Arghya to the Sun and first worship Lord Ganesha and then Lord Hanuman. After that, worship Shodashopchar with red flowers and recite Hanuman Chalisa. Recite Bajrang Baan on this day, by which Hanuman gets pleased and fulfills his wishes. Finally, meditate on Lord Rama and Goddess Sita. Take the resolution of the lesson of the arrow. Recite sitting on misrule. Once this is done, sing the kirtan of Lord Rama. Offer churma laddu and other seasonal fruits to Hanuman ji.

Bajrang Baan should be started with firm determination as per the instructions of your Guru. More importantly, Lord Hanuman should be invoked through Bajrang Baan only when it is a question of life and death for you and the Beej mantras in the arrow are powerful enough to overwhelm you. Also for fear of misuse, some of the tantric shlokas of Bajrang Baan have been removed before making them available to us, as these shlokas can be misused to wreak havoc on the lives of others as well.

There are two most important stotras of Baan that people recite and they are enough to fulfill your wishes. While Hanuman Chalisa is a request to God to fulfill your wishes, Baan is compelling him to help you. In this way, the tantric mantra is different from the sattvic mantra. Chalisa is a set of Mahamantras which fulfill our every need.
