COMMISSION COMMENTS

ADJOURNMENT

June 8, 2010

TO: HONORABLE CHAIRMAN AND COMMISSIONERS

FROM: EXECUTIVE SECRETARY

RE: A RESOLUTION OF THE URBAN COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT COMMISSION OF THE CITY OF COMPTON AMENDING SECTIONS 5 AND 9 OF ARTICLE III OF THE BY-LAWS OF THE URBAN COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT COMMISSION.

SUMMARY

The Urban Community Development Commission will consider adopting a Resolution that will amend the By-Laws of the Commission so as to authorize the Urban Community Development Commission to "convene in joint session" with other City of Compton governing bodies meeting on the same date for purposes of receiving "Public Comments on All Agenda Items and Non-Agenda Matters." Additionally, this Resolution, if adopted, will revise the Rules of Decorum for Commission meetings enhancing its enforcement powers in an effort to reduce recurrent disruptive behavior by members of the public during the meetings.

BACKGROUND

On July 21, 2009, the Urban Community Development Commission adopted Resolution No. 1,767, which amended the Commission By-Laws to revise the order of business of Commission meetings and amended Section 9 to provide rules for the orderly conduct of Commission meetings.

STATEMENT OF ISSUE

In an effort to better serve the citizens of the City of Compton when conducting the business of the City's governing bodies so as to provide for productive meetings which give attending members of the public who wish to conduct their business and voice their opinions on matters within the jurisdiction of all of the governing bodies that are meeting, it is proposed that the Commission By-Laws be amended so as to authorize the Urban Community Development Commission to "convene in joint session" with other City of Compton governing bodies meeting on the same date for purposes of receiving "Public Comments on All Agenda Items and Non-Agenda Matters." Additionally, that the enforcement powers within the Rules of Decorum be enhanced so as to reduce the reoccurrence of disruptive behavior, allowing for a more productive meeting and involvement from peaceful members of the public in attendance at the meetings who wish to participate without continued disruption from members of the public whose behavior indicates a routine attendance in the spirit of disruption.

The attached Resolution will amend Section 5 of Article III of the By-Laws to provide that the Urban Community Development Commission "may be convened in joint session with other governing bodies" for purposes of receiving public comments on agenda items and non-agenda matters. Section 9 of Article III will also be amended to allow for the exclusion from future Commission meetings (for a period of 30 days) those individuals who persist in disturbing, disrupting or otherwise impeding the conduct of Commission meetings, even though they have been ordered to leave or have been removed from prior Commission meetings.

RECOMMENDATION

It is the recommendation of this office that the Commission adopt the attached Resolution.

1. Agenda Items and Non-Agenda Matters. In order that meetings may proceed in an efficient manner for the conduct of the peoples' business, the governing bodies of the City of Compton meeting may convene in joint session to receive public comments on any agenda items and/or matters within the jurisdiction of such governing bodies. Unless otherwise waived by the governing bodies meeting, the total amount of time allocated to each person wishing to address the governing bodies for public comments shall not exceed five (5) minutes. The presiding officer may limit the length of time allotted for comments due to the number of persons wishing to speak or if comments become repetitious or irrelevant.

2. Public Hearings. Each person (other than an applicant, owner or appellant) shall be allotted two (2) minutes in which to address the Commission during a public hearing.

SECTION 3. That Section 9 (b) of Article III of the By-Laws of the Commission is hereby amended in its entirety to read as follows:

(b) Decorum. Meetings of the Commission shall be conducted in an orderly manner to ensure that the deliberative process of the Commission is retained at all times and the peoples' business is conducted in an efficient manner. The presiding officer of the Commission, who shall be the Chairperson, Chairperson Pro Tempore or, in their absence, another member so designated by the Commission, shall be responsible for maintaining the order and decorum of meetings.

1. Rules of Decorum. While any meeting of the Commission is in session, the following rules and decorum shall be observed:

(ii) City Staff Member. Employees of the City shall observe the same rules of order and decorum as those which apply to the members of the Commission.

(iii) Persons Addressing the Commission. Public oral communications at meetings should not be a substitute for any item that can be handled during normal working hours of municipal government. No person shall address the Commission without first being recognized by the presiding officer. The following procedure shall be observed by persons addressing the Commission:

(i) Each person shall step up to the podium provided for the use of the public and, if the speaker desires to have his or her comments recorded for public record, state his or her name and organization, if any, the speaker represents, and the agenda item(s) and/or subject matter within the jurisdiction of the Commission he or she wishes to discuss.

(ii) All comments shall be addressed to the Commission as a whole and not to any single member, unless in response to a question from said member.

(iii) No question may be asked of a member of the Commission or of the Commission staff without permission of the presiding officer.

3. Enforcement of Decorum. The rules of decorum set forth above shall be enforced in the following manner:

(i) Warning. Any person who disturbs, disrupts or otherwise impedes the conduct of the meeting is out of order and the presiding officer shall request that such person be orderly and comply with the applicable rules. If, after receiving a warning from the presiding officer, a person persists in disturbing, disrupting or otherwise impeding the meeting, the presiding officer shall order that person to leave the meeting and not return for the duration of the meeting. If such person does not remove himself or herself, the presiding officer may order any law enforcement officer or City Security Officer who is on duty at said meeting to remove that person from the chambers.

(ii) Exclusion. If any person has been ordered to leave or has been removed from two (2) meetings within the thirty (30) days prior to a Commission meeting, and such person thereafter disturbs, disrupts or otherwise impedes the conduct of that meeting, the presiding officer may order such person to leave that meeting and to not return to any subsequent meeting held during the next thirty (30) days. If such person does not remove himself or herself, or if such person returns to a subsequent meeting during the next thirty (30) days, the presiding officer may order any law enforcement officer or City Security Officer who is on duty at the meeting to remove such person from chambers.

(iii) Removal. Any law enforcement officer or City Security Officer who is on duty at the meeting shall carry out all lawful orders and instructions given by the presiding officer for the purpose of maintaining order and decorum at the meeting. (vi) Motion to Enforce. If the presiding officer fails to enforce the rules set forth above, any member of the Commission may move to require him or her to do so, and an affirmative vote of a majority of the Commission shall require him or her to do so. If the presiding officer fails to carry out the will of a majority of the Commission, the majority may designate another member of the Commission to act as presiding officer for the limited purpose of enforcing any rule of this section which it wishes to enforce.

(vii) Adjournment. If a meeting of the Commission is disturbed or disrupted in such a manner as to make infeasible or improbable the restoration of order, the
