Financial Advocate – Podcast Host

Founder of Got It Together Now, Stacey spent the past 30+ years in the financial services industry. As a Certified Financial Planner (CFP), she witnessed how unprepared her clients were when a health issue or death occurred.

This need prompted her to develop an online course, Got It Together!, guiding individuals to get their important documents and personal information up-to-date, organized, and in one place. No one knows when an illness, accident or death will occur, there is never a better time than NOW to get this taken care of. Her course graduates can confidently say, "I've Got It Together!"

Stacey's weekly podcast, Legacy Therapy - Planning Techniques for a Stress-Free Legacy, highlights real people telling personal stories of how poor planning impacted them as professionals give tips and resources to help the audience avoid similar issues in the future.
