CONVIVIUMSINGERS

Established in 2009 by Adrian Green and Alexander Norman, Convivium Singers is a prize-winning, critically acclaimed ensemble noted for its recordings and performances of British choral music.

Convivium Singers aims to provide opportunities for young singers at the early stages of performing careers, as well as for talented musicians who have chosen not to pursue careers in music. They currently comprise singers from many established choirs, including Birmingham Conservatoire Chamber Choir, Ex Cathedral, Armonico Consort, Portsmouth Cathedral, the Choir of Royal Holloway, Genesis Sixteen, and York Minster. Convivium Singers often works with established conductors such as Malcolm Archer and Neil Ferris, and collaborates with living composers to introduce their music to wider audiences.

In October 2011, Convivium Singers were prize-winners at the Tolosa International Choral Contest in Spain, receiving trophies for their sacred and secular ensemble performances and also giving concerts in churches and concert halls in the surrounding Basque region. In June 2012, Convivium Singers performed at the 'Fabbrica del Canto' International Choral Festival, Italy. For more information about current projects and performances in the UK and abroad, please visit our website.
